

[Extract from Commonwealth of Australia Gazette, No. 22, dated
13th April, 1933.]

THE TERRITORY FOR THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.

No. 8 of 1933.

AN ORDINANCE

Relating to the Remedies of Judgment Creditors.

BE it ordained by the Governor-General in and over the Commonwealth of Australia, acting with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Seat of Government Acceptance Act 1909 and the Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910-1931, as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Judgment Creditors Remedies Ordinance 1933. Short title.

2. In addition to any other remedies provided by law, every person in whose favour a judgment of the High Court is given shall be entitled to the same remedies for enforcing it by execution or otherwise— Remedies of Judgment Creditors.

(a) against any property of the person against whom it is given, which is situated in the Territory; and

(b) subject to limitations which may be prescribed by any rules of Court made under the High Court Procedure Act 1903-1925 or the Judiciary Act 1903-1927, against any person resident or present in the Territory against whom it is given, as would be allowed, by the laws of the State of New South Wales, if the property were situated or the person were resident or present, as the case may be, in that State, to persons in whose favour a Judgment of the Supreme Court of that State is given in like cases.

Dated this twelfth day of April, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

ISAAC A. ISAACS

Governor-General.

By His Excellency's Command,

J. A. PERKINS,

Minister of State for the Interior.

By Authority: L. F. JOHNSTON, Commonwealth Government Printer, Canberra.
