Salvation Army Property Trust Act 1934 No 11

Republication No 2

Republication date: 18 July 2002

Last amendment made by Act 2001 No 44

Amendments incorporated to 12 September 2001

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Salvation Army Property Trust Act 1934, including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes), as in force on 18 July 2002. It also includes any amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 12 September 2001.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication includes amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

Australian Capital Territory

Salvation Army Property Trust Act 1934

An Act to provide for the temporal affairs of The Salvation Army in the Australian Capital Territory

Preamble

Whereas by a Deed Poll (the Deed of Constitution) dated 7 August 1878, and under the hand and seal of William Booth and afterwards enrolled in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice on 13 August 1878, the origin and doctrines of the Christian Mission therein referred to were recited and stated and it was by the said Deed Poll amongst other things provided that the said Christian Mission was and should always be thereafter under the oversight, direction and control of some one person who should be the General Superintendent thereof whose duty it should be to determine and enforce the discipline and laws and superintend the operations of the said Christian Mission and to conserve the same to and for the objects and purposes for which it was first originated and that the said General Superintendent should have the powers therein mentioned that the said William Booth should continue to be for the term of his natural life the General Superintendent of the said Christian Mission unless he should resign such office that the said William Booth and other General Superintendent who should succeed him should have power to appoint his successor to the office of General Superintendent and all the rights powers and authorities should vest in the person so appointed upon the decease of the said William Booth or other General Superintendent appointing him or at such other period as might be named in the document appointing him and that it should be the duty of every General Superintendent to make in writing as soon as conveniently might be after his appointment a statement as to his successor and as to the means which were to be taken for the appointment of the successor on the decease of the General Superintendent or upon his ceasing to perform the duties of the office such statement to be signed by the General Superintendent and delivered under seal to the Solicitor for the time being of the said Christian Mission but such statement might be altered at will by the General Superintendent at any time during his continuance in office pending a new statement being signed by him and delivered as before mentioned to such Solicitor as aforesaid:

And whereas by the said recited Deed Poll it was provided that the General Superintendent should have power to expend on behalf of the Christian Mission all moneys contributed for the general purposes of the said Christian Mission or for any of the special objects of its operations but he should annually publish a balance sheet duly audited of all such receipts and expenditure and that the General Superintendent should have power to acquire by gift purchase or otherwise any hall or meeting house school room vestry land building and appurtenances and any seats fittings furniture or other property whatsoever which might in his judgment be required for the purposes of the said Christian Mission and to build upon such land or alter or pull down any such buildings and to hire on lease or otherwise any land or buildings and to lend, give away and sell or otherwise dispose of any such properties, lands or buildings as he might deem necessary in the interests of the said Christian Mission, wherein all trustees should render him every assistance and that he might in all such cases as he should deem it expedient so to do nominate trustees or a trustee of any part or parts thereof respectively of any such property and erect the conveyance and transfer thereof to such trustees or trustee with power for the General Superintendent to declare the trusts thereof and from time to time if it should seem expedient to him so to do to revoke any such trusts or the appointment of any such trustees or trustee and pending such revocation the same property should be conveyed or transferred to such persons or person upon such trusts as he might direct but only for the benefit of the said Christian Mission:

And whereas by a further Deed Poll under the hand of the said William Booth bearing date 26 July 1904, and enrolled in the Supreme Court of Judicature, England on 27 July 1904, it was recited that on or about 1 January 1879, the name of the said religious society or organization was changed from 'The Christian Mission' to 'The Salvation Army' as appears by Memorandum under the hand of the said William Booth dated 24 June 1880, and endorsed on the said recited Deed Poll of 7 August 1878, and that the said society or organization had since been and was then known as it now is as The Salvation Army and that the title of the 'General Superintendent' thereof had been altered and shortened into that of 'General' and that the said William Booth was then known and designated and it was expected that every successor of his would be thereafter known and designated as the 'General' of The Salvation Army:

And whereas it was also recited by the lastly herein recited Deed Poll of 26 July 1904, that in order to minimise the possibility of doubt, dispute or litigation it was considered desirable to provide more fully and specifically than was done by the Deed of Constitution for the events in which the General for the time being should cease to perform the duties of his office and also for the nomination and appointment of a successor to the General for the time being on his dying or ceasing to perform the duties of office and that the said William Booth had accordingly determined to execute the said recited Deed Poll of 26 July 1904:

And whereas the said Deed Poll now in recital sets forth more fully and effectually such events and makes provision inter alia that every General for the time being of The Salvation Army should be deemed to cease to perform the duties of his office within the meaning of clause 6 of the said Deed of Constitution and to vacate such office upon the happening of any of the events therein referred to, that is to say, if inter alia the Commissioners of The Salvation Army or a majority of such Commissioners amounting to at least 4 in 5 should declare in writing under their hands that they are satisfied that the General is inter alia permanently incapacitated by mental or physical infirmity from the adequate performance of the duties of his office or if a resolution adjudicating the General unfit for office and removing him therefrom should be passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of the members present and voting at a meeting of the High Council of The Salvation Army as thereafter provided for:

And whereas by a Deed Poll under the hand and seal of William Bramwell Booth bearing date 1 June 1920, it was recited that the said William Booth had died on 20 August 1912, having by Deed Poll under his hand and seal dated 21 August 1890, in exercise of the power in that behalf vested in him by the said Deed of Constitution as aforesaid appointed the said William Bramwell Booth to be his successor in the office of General of The Salvation Army and that the said William Bramwell Booth had by Deed Poll under his hand and seal dated 23 August 1912, duly accepted the said office:

And whereas it was recited by the said recited Deed Poll of 1 June 1920, that in connection with and as the outcome of the work teaching and experience of The Salvation Army in the United Kingdom and in Australia and other countries of the world the said William Booth and the said William Bramwell Booth had evolved and promulgated various operations for the social temporal and moral welfare of the poorer and more needy classes of society and all persons who are destitute feeble-minded or vicious or suffering from injuries or sickness or ill health or orphans or for children needing care in orphanages or reformatories and for other charitable purposes which operations are generally known and described as the Social Work of The Salvation Army and which in relation to the Commonwealth of Australia (the Commonwealth) are sometimes referred to as the Social Work and that in connection with the carrying out of the Social Work in the Commonwealth the said William Booth and the said William Bramwell Booth as his successor in office had acquired certain real and personal property particularised in the schedule thereto and other real and personal property would thereafter be acquired for the purposes of the Social Work and that it was thought desirable that the same respectively should be kept distinct from the other or proper real and personal property of The Salvation Army and be used and devoted exclusively in and to the Social Work in and connected with the Commonwealth and that the Social Work should be confined and regulated and the trusts of the said real and personal property already acquired and thereafter to be acquired for or in connection therewith declared as thereafter appearing:

And whereas by the said recited Deed Poll of 1 June 1920, the said William Bramwell Booth declared that the real and personal property particularised in the said schedule and all property, real and personal, which might thereafter be acquired by gift grant purchase or in any manner whatsoever for the purposes of the Social Work in or in connection with the Commonwealth and all real and personal property for the time being representing the same or any part thereof respectively and all which are sometimes thereafter collectively referred to as the trust property should at all times thereafter be held upon trust to use and apply the same and the income thereof for the social, temporal and moral welfare and the improvement of the poorer and more needy classes of society and all persons who were destitute or vicious or feeble-minded or suffering from injuries or sickness or ill health or orphans or for children needing care in orphanages or reformatories in the Commonwealth and for other charitable purposes in connection with the Commonwealth in such ways and by such means as the said William Bramwell Booth or other the Director as thereafter defined for the time being of the Social Work should at any time or from time to time think fit subject nevertheless to the provisos therein contained:

And whereas by the said Deed Poll now in recital it was provided that the said Social Work should at all times thereafter be under the oversight, direction and control of the person who should for the time being be General of The Salvation Army and he should be called in relation to the Social Work the Director of the Social Work (the said Director) and that it should be his duty to determine and enforce the laws and to superintend the operations of the Social Work and to conserve the same and the trust property for the purpose of the trusts thereby declared:

And whereas it was provided that for the purpose of identifying or earmarking the trust property and the income thereof and of keeping the same distinct from all property of The Salvation Army full accounts of all moneys contributed, collected or received for the Social Work and of the application thereof should be kept in such manner as to keep the same always distinct and separate from the property of The Salvation Army and that all conveyances, leases, transfers, assignments and assurances made to the Director for the time being for the purposes of the Social Work should be expressed to be made to him as such Director and should thereupon become subject to the trusts of the presents now in recital and that whenever any property real or personal required for the purposes of the Social Work should be conveyed, leased, assigned, transferred or assured to any trustees or trustee other than the Director for the time being such trustees or trustee should in each case execute a sufficient declaration of trust so as in every case to enable the property so conveyed, leased, assigned, transferred or assured to be sufficiently identified or earmarked as being property devoted to the purposes of the Social Work:

And whereas the said recited Deed Poll of 1 June 1920, set forth the powers which the Director should have over and on and concerning the said trust property:

And whereas at a duly convened meeting of the High Council of The Salvation Army held at Sunbury in the United Kingdom on 13 February 1929, the High Council of The Salvation Army referred to in the said recited Deed Poll of 26 July 1904, duly and in accordance with the said Deed Poll adjudicated the said William Bramwell Booth unfit for office and removed him therefrom and by way of record declared that the said adjudication was based upon the state of health of the said William Bramwell Booth and the said High Council in pursuance of the power vested in it by the said Deed Poll of 26 July 1904, elected Edward John Higgins, a Commissioner of The Salvation Army, as successor in the office of General of The Salvation Army to the said William Bramwell Booth:

And whereas by Deed Poll under his hand and seal dated 13 February 1929, the said Edward John Higgins duly accepted the said office upon and subject to the terms of the said recited Deeds Poll dated 7 August 1878, and the 26 July 1904, respectively:

And whereas the said William Bramwell Booth died on 16 June 1929:

And whereas it is expedient to provide that the whole of the property real and personal of The Salvation Army in the Territory which was at the time of his death held and now stands in the name of the said William Bramwell Booth upon the trusts of the hereinbefore recited Deeds Poll of 7 August 1878, and 26 July 1904, and the 1 June 1920, respectively, and also that all other property real and personal of or to which The Salvation Army in the Territory is entitled held by and standing in the name of the said William Bramwell Booth at the time of his death or now standing in the name or names of any other person or persons and which the General for the time being of The Salvation Army as such General and as Director of the said Social Work of The Salvation Army respectively is entitled to have vested in him upon the trusts of the said recited Deeds Poll according to the nature of the same shall vest in The Salvation Army (New South Wales) Property Trust incorporated under the Salvation Army (New South Wales) Property Trust Act 1929 (NSW) with the powers and authorities in this Act set forth:

Be it therefore ordained by the Governor-General in and over the Commonwealth of Australia, with the advice of the Federal Executive Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Seat of Government Acceptance Act 1909 (Cwlth) and the Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910-1933 (Cwlth), as follows:

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Salvation Army Property Trust Act 1934.

2 Definitions for Act

In this Act:

Note A definition applies except so far as the contrary intention appears (see Legislation Act 2001, s 155).

Deeds Poll means the Deed of Constitution, the Deed Poll under the hand of William Booth bearing date 26 July 1904, and the Deed Poll under the hand and seal of William Bramwell Booth bearing date 1 June 1920.

General or The General means the General of The Salvation Army under its Constitution, or his attorney for the time being in the State of New South Wales duly authorised in that behalf, or such other person as for the time being has vested in him under that Constitution general control and authority over the property in England of The Salvation Army, or the attorney for the time being in the State of New South Wales of that person duly authorised in that behalf.

the Trust or the Trustees means The Salvation Army (New South Wales) Property Trust, constituted under the Salvation Army (New South Wales) Property Trust Act 1929 (NSW), and any reference to a majority of the Trustees shall be read as a reference to a majority of the persons for the time being constituting the Trust.

3 Vesting of property in Trustees

All lands, tenements, and hereditaments, including chattels real situate in the ACT, together with all rights, easements, and appurtenances relating thereto and all personal property which were at the time of his death held by and now stand in the name of William Bramwell Booth, as General of The Salvation Army or Director of the Social Work of The Salvation Army respectively, upon the trusts of the Deeds Poll, and all other lands, tenements, and hereditaments whatsoever, including chattels real situate in the Territory, which at the commencement of this Act stand in the name of William Bramwell Booth or in the name or names of any other person or persons in trust for The Salvation Army in the ACT, or for any of its funds or any auxiliary or department of its work or any corps or institution of The Salvation Army in the ACT, or to which The Salvation Army in the ACT is otherwise entitled, save and except any property held by The Salvation Army Auxiliary Company of Australia Proprietary Limited, shall without any conveyance or transfer vest in the Trustees upon the trusts and with the powers, authorities, and discretions and subject to the terms, provisions, and conditions of this Act and the Deeds Poll, according to the particular trusts in each case upon which the same shall be held at the commencement of this Act, but subject and without prejudice to any special trusts (if any) upon which the same may be held, and subject also to any reservation, mortgage, charge, encumbrance, lien, or lease affecting the same respectively, and subject and without prejudice to any resulting trust or any trust of any such lands, tenements, or hereditaments in favour of the donor or any person or corporation other than The Salvation Army, but upon and subject to no other trusts or provisions whatsoever.

4 Powers of Trustees

The Trustees may exercise all the powers relating to the lands, tenements, and hereditaments and personal property hereby vested in them, and in respect of all lands, tenements, and hereditaments and personal property which may after the commencement of this Act be acquired by them or which may become vested in them under this Act which are now exercisable by the General of The Salvation Army and the Director of the Social Work of The Salvation Army for the time being respectively under the Deeds Poll, according as they shall and may hold the same upon one or the other of the trusts of the Deeds Poll, and may exercise such powers and all or any of the powers by this Act conferred upon them, notwithstanding there shall be for the time being any vacancy in the office of General of The Salvation Army or the office of Director of the Social Work of The Salvation Army.

5 Trust property—how held

All property held by the Trustees shall, so far as the same is not subject to any express trust, be held and dealt with by them in accordance with and subject to the powers and provisions of the Deeds Poll, according to the trusts upon which the property is held, and no person dealing with the Trustees shall be bound to inquire into the propriety or necessity of any such dealing.

6 Power to mortgage

The Trustees may, for the purpose of securing such sums of money as they deem requisite or necessary for the purposes of The Salvation Army or the Social Work of The Salvation Army, mortgage to any person any land or interest in land vested in the Trustees:

Provided nevertheless that any moneys raised on any land or interest in land which shall for the time being be held upon trust for the Social Work of The Salvation Army shall only be used for the purposes of the Social Work of The Salvation Army.

7 Power to sell

The Trustees may sell by public auction or private contract as they deem expedient, at such price as can be reasonably obtained for the same, any real and personal estate vested in them and when sold convey the same or any part thereof, and thereupon the same shall vest in the purchasers, their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns according to the estate and interest of the Trustees therein absolutely freed and discharged from the trusts affecting the same.

8 Receipts for mortgage and purchase moneys etc

The receipt in writing of a majority of the Trustees or of any person thereto authorised by such majority in writing to receive the same for the mortgage moneys raised on any property mortgage by the Trustees, or for the purchase money of any property sold under this Act, or for any moneys payable to them when exercising any of the powers by this Act conferred upon them, or when exercising any of the powers for the time being vested in the General or the Director of the Social Work, as the case may be, under and by virtue of the Deeds Poll, shall exonerate the mortgagee and the purchaser and all other persons for the time being paying such moneys to the Trustees, or the person authorised to receive the moneys from seeing to the application of the same, and from all liability as to the misapplication or non-application thereof and from inquiring into the propriety or necessity of any mortgage or sale, lease, or other dealing whatsoever.

9 Proceeds of sale of land held for the Social Work

The proceeds of the sale of any lands held for the purpose of the Social Work shall be devoted to the purposes of the Social Work, and the Trustees may for such purposes acquire therewith other lands and buildings for the purposes of such Work.

10 Evidence of resolutions

A certificate purporting to be signed by the attorney for the time being of the General, of the appointment of a secretary or other officer shall be prima facie evidence, and, in favour of the Crown and the Registrar-General and every person who deals for value with the Trustees, conclusive evidence, of his or their due appointment, and a certificate signed by the secretary for the time being of the Trust as to who are the persons for the time being constituting the Trust, and a certificate of the secretary certifying to any resolution of the Trustees shall be prima facie evidence, and, in favour of the Crown and the registrar-general and every person who deals for value with the Trustees, conclusive evidence, as to who are the Trustees for the time being, and of any such resolution, as the case may be, and judicial notice shall be taken of the signature of the secretary for the time being on every such certificate.

11 Construction of wills etc

Whenever by any will, deed, or other instrument any property, real or personal, has been or is devised, bequeathed, given, granted, released, conveyed, or appointed or has been or is declared or directed to be held upon trust to or for the benefit of The Salvation Army or of any fund, institution, branch, or corps thereof or is recoverable by or payable to The Salvation Army or by or to any fund, institution, branch, or corps thereof or be receivable by or payable to any officer thereof for the benefit of The Salvation Army or any of its funds, institutions, branches, or corps, or for its Social Work the will, deed, or instrument shall be construed and operate and take effect as though the Trustees were named therein, and the acknowledgment or receipt of the Trustees or a majority of them or of any person thereto authorised in writing by the Trustees, or a majority of them, for any such gift shall be a sufficient discharge to the person liable to deliver or transfer any such money or property under the will, deed, or instrument, and all property, real or personal, so devised, bequeathed, given, granted, released, conveyed, or appointed, or declared or directed to be held upon trust shall, subject to the trusts of the will, deed, or other instrument, and subject to any direction to the contrary therein contained so far as the same are capable of taking effect, be under the direction and control of the Trustees, and they may call for the transfer, conveyance, or delivery thereof.

12 Vesting in trustees of property given or devised etc for benefit of The Salvation Army

- (1) Whenever by any will, deed, or other instrument, or by any gift or disposition of property made before but not taking effect until after the commencement of this Act, or by any will or other instrument or by any gift or other disposition of property made after the commencement of this Act any real or personal property has been or is devised, bequeathed, or given to or for the benefit of The Salvation Army or to or for the benefit of any fund, corps, institution, branch, or auxiliary thereof, other than real or personal property devised, bequeathed or given to specific trustees upon trust for The Salvation Army or for any such fund, corps, institution, branch, or auxiliary thereof, all such real and personal property shall vest in the Trustees.

- (2) The Trustees shall hold any such real and personal property upon the trusts (if any) declared in respect thereof, and if no such trusts have been declared shall hold and deal with such real and personal property and the proceeds thereof in trust for The Salvation Army for such purposes and in such manner as they deem expedient, and may convey, transfer, or deliver any such real or personal property to such person and upon such trusts as they think fit, and the Trustees and any person to whom any such real or personal property is so conveyed, transferred, or delivered may sell, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with any such real or personal property:

Provided that the receipt in writing of the Trustees or a majority of them or of any person thereto authorised in writing by the Trustees or a majority of them of any moneys receivable by them in the exercise of those powers shall exonerate the person paying the same to them from seeing to the application thereof and all liability as to the misapplication or non-application thereof, and no person shall be bound to inquire into the validity of any such sale, conveyance, lease, or mortgage.

13 Preservation of rights of claimants

Nothing in this Act contained or that may be done under this Act shall be deemed prejudicially to affect or to deprive any person of any right whatsoever which he now has arising out of contract or tort, and any such right which may at the commencement of this Act have been enforceable against the General or his predecessor in the office of General of The Salvation Army and in respect of which right the property by this Act vested in the Trustees was liable may be enforced against the Trustees.

14 Vesting of rights of the General in the Trustees

Any rights, including choses in action, arising out of contract or tort relating to the real and personal property by this Act vested in the Trustees which were at the time of his death in the said William Bramwell Booth or at the commencement of this Act are in the General are hereby vested in the Trustees and may be enforced by them.

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.

If the republished law includes penalties, current information about penalty unit values appears on the republication inside front cover.

3 Legislation history

This Act was originally a Commonwealth ordinance—the Salvation Army Property Trust Ordinance 1934 No 11 (Cwlth).

The Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth), s 34 (4) converted most former Commonwealth ordinances in force in the ACT into ACT enactments. This allowed the ACT Legislative Assembly to amend and repeal the laws. This Act was converted into an ACT enactment on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

As with most ordinances in force in the ACT, the name was changed from Ordinance to Act by the Self-Government (Citation of Laws) Act 1989 No 21, s 5 on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

Before 11 May 1989, ordinances commenced on their notification day unless otherwise stated (see Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910 (Cwlth), s 12).
