

APPLICATION TO REGISTER A CHANGE OF NAME FOR AN ADULT

Form 206 - CNA

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1997
Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Regulation 1998

GENERAL INFORMATION

This form can only be used to register a change of name for an adult whose birth is registered in the ACT, or who is currently a resident of the ACT and has been for more than 3 months. If you were born overseas you must be an Australian citizen or permanent Australian resident. It is not necessary to register a change of name where you are assuming your partners name through a marriage that occurred within Australia.

The Registrar-General will not register a change of name unless satisfied of the identity and age of the person whose name is to be changed and that the change is not sought for a fraudulent or other improper purposes. Under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1997, certain restricted people require approval from the Director-General of the Justice and Community Safety Directorate in order to apply for a change of name. A restricted person is one who is serving a sentence of imprisonment including periodic detention or is the subject of a parole order.

If your application to register a change of name is approved, an entry will be created in the change of name register. If you were born in the ACT, the new name will also be noted on your birth registration and will appear on all birth certificates issued after registration of the change of name. If you were born in another State or Territory within Australia, the Registrar-General of that jurisdiction will be notified of the change of name and it may appear on birth certificates subsequently issued by that jurisdiction.

REFERRAL TO THE AUSTRALIAN FEDERAL POLICE (AFP) AND OTHER AGENCIES AND CONSENT TO RELEASE INFORMATION

This form and any evidence produced in support of this application may be directed to the AFP to assist the Registrar-General in assessing your application. This form may also be directed to agencies including (but not limited to) other Birth, Death and Marriage Registries, the Passports Office, Department of Immigration and Citizenship, and Motor Vehicle Registries. Usually these referrals are simply to verify the evidence that you have provided in making your application. If there are discrepancies, we may require you to correct any errors with the issuing agency prior to being able to register the change of name application. It is extremely important that all identity documents are accurate and reflect the correct identity information.

In all cases it is necessary for you to consent for the Registrar-General to require the AFP or other agencies to release information available to them that may assist the Registrar-General in making his/her decision. As a result, as you complete this form it is assumed that you are consenting to the release of information by these agencies in support of your application.

Documents provided as proof of identity may have their authenticity verified through Certificate Validation System (CVS) and the National Document Verification System (DVS). Documents issued by this office may also be verified by external agencies using CVS and/or DVS.

REASONS YOUR APPLICATION MAY BE REJECTED

The Registrar-General may refuse to register your change of name application if you:

- Have previously offended; or
- Have significant association with an offender; or
- Are unable to produce the required proof of identity documents; or
- Have failed to advise of previous changes of name in the ACT or other jurisdiction; or
- Are currently involved in an investigation; or
- Have outstanding debts; or
- Desired name is a prohibited name; or
- A registered change of name has been performed in the last 12 months; or
- Have failed to prove ACT residency.

If you are able to demonstrate that the information used by the Registrar General has been superseded, then the change of name application can be reviewed.

PRIVACY INFORMATION

The Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1997 authorises the Registrar-General to collect the information required by this form. This may include information from ACT Corrective Services, where the person in question is a restricted person under the Act. The Registrar-General prevents any unreasonable intrusion into a person's privacy in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (C'wlth). The Registrar-General may provide identifiable information to law enforcement organisations, ACT Corrective Services, the Director-General of the Justice and Community Safety Directorate and authorised organisations that have legal authority to request information under prescribed circumstances. Documents provided as proof of identity may have their authenticity verified through Certificate Verification System (CVS) and the Document Verification System (DVS).

Documents produced by this office may also be verified by external agencies using CVS and/or DVS.

If you require further information or need advice, a language assistance service is available by phoning the Translating and Interpreting Service (TIS) on 13 14 50.

PROOF OF IDENTITY, RESIDENCY AND OTHER DOCUMENTATION REQUIRED

Upon application, you must provide sufficient evidence to allow the Registrar-General to be satisfied of your identity. This includes, but is not limited, to the following:

- Your original birth certificate
- If born overseas, we will require a current Australian Passport, Australian Citizenship Certificate or entry visa. The entry visa must demonstrate that the applicant is a permanent Australian resident, applications will not be registered for temporary visa holders.
