

ALSATIAN DOGS.

No. 15 of 1961.

An Ordinance to amend the Alsatian Dogs Ordinance 1936.

Short title and citation.

1.—(1.) This Ordinance may be cited as the Alsatian Dogs Ordinance 1961.*

(2.) The Alsatian Dogs Ordinance 1936,† as amended by this Ordinance, may be cited as the Alsatian Dogs Ordinance 1936-1961.

2. After section seven of the Alsatian Dogs Ordinance 1936 the following section is added:—

Keeping an unsterilized
Alsatian dog
as companion dog.

“ 8. Nothing in this Ordinance applies to a person who keeps an Alsatian dog, or to such a dog, if—

- (a) the dog is a pure-bred German shepherd dog;
- (b) the dog is registered as a pure-bred German shepherd dog with the association known as the Canberra Kennel Association or another association that is for the time being approved by the Registrar;
- (c) the keeper of the dog is a member of the club known as the A.C.T. Companion Dog Club Incorporated or another club that is for the time being approved by the Registrar; and
- (d) the Registrar certifies that he is satisfied that the dog—
 - (i) has satisfied the requirements of the rules of the Canberra Kennel Association or other approved association as the requirements to be satisfied before a pure-bred German shepherd dog is regarded as a companion dog; or
 - (ii) is being trained for the purpose of satisfying those requirements.”

* Made on 10th July, 1961; notified in the Commonwealth Gazette and commenced on 20th July, 1961.

† Ordinance No. 44, 1936.