About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Juries Act 1967 as in force on 12 September 2001. It includes any amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 12 September 2001 and any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes).

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication includes amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

- (3) Subject to subsection (4), where a person has been excused from serving as a juror under subsection (1) or (2), the sheriff shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure that the person is not summoned or appointed to attend to serve as a juror before the expiration of the period for which the person is excused.
- (4) Where a person who has been excused from serving as a juror under subsection (1) or (2) notifies the sheriff in writing that he or she wishes to be included on the jury list, the person ceases to be excused from serving as a juror and the sheriff shall include the person on the jury list.

23 Terms of precept

A jury precept shall specify the number of persons required to attend on the court to serve as jurors and the time when the attendance of those persons is required.

Note If a form is approved under the Supreme Court Act 1933, s 75 (Approved forms) for a jury precept under this section, the form must be used.

24 Choosing jurors

- (1) Where a jury precept is delivered to the sheriff, the sheriff shall choose from the names on the jury list as many persons as he or she considers necessary to ensure that the number of persons that the jury precept requires to attend to serve as jurors will be in attendance at the court at the time specified in the precept.
- (2) Where it appears to the sheriff that—
 - (a) a person whose name has been so chosen is dead, is exempt from serving as a juror or has become a disqualified person; or

(c) there are reasonable grounds for believing that it is unlikely that a person whose name has been so chosen will be served with the jury summons;

the sheriff shall choose, in substitution for the name previously chosen, the name of another person whose name appears on the jury list.

- (2A) The choosing of names of persons under subsection (1) or (2) shall be by lot or by use of a computer programmed to make a random selection.
- (3) The sheriff shall prepare, and furnish a police officer with a copy of, a list of the names chosen under subsection (1) or (2), as the case requires.
- (4) A police officer may make such inquiries as he or she thinks fit in an endeavour to ascertain whether any person whose name is included on the list referred to in subsection (3) is a disqualified person and the officer shall report in writing the result of any such inquiries to the sheriff.
- (5) A person shall not, except in the performance of a duty under, or otherwise for the purposes of, a law in force in the Territory, either directly or indirectly, make a record of, or divulge or communicate to any person, information obtained in the course of inquiries referred to in subsection (4).
- (6) Where it appears to the sheriff, after considering a report made under subsection (4), that a person whose name is included on the list referred to in subsection (3) is a disqualified person, the sheriff shall remove the name of the person from that list and shall remove the person's name from the jury list.
- (7) Where it appears to the sheriff, after considering a report made under subsection (4)—
- (a) that a person whose name is included on the list referred to in subsection (3) is not a disqualified person but has been convicted of an offence punishable on summary conviction;

and

- (b) that, having regard to the nature and number of the offences committed by the person, when they were committed and any penalties imposed in respect of them, the person would be unable to adequately perform the functions of a juror;

the sheriff shall remove the name of the person from that list and shall, by notice in writing sent by post addressed to the person at his or her last known place of residence, advise the person that his or her name has been removed and that he or she may object to the removal by written application to a judge.

- (8) Where a person makes an application referred to in a notice under subsection (7), the judge shall fix a date and time for the hearing of the application and shall cause the applicant and the sheriff to be notified accordingly.
- (9) Where the judge decides that an applicant's name should not have been removed from the list referred to in subsection (3), the sheriff shall put the applicant's name back on the list.
- (10) The sheriff shall cause to be served on each person whose name was chosen under subsection (1) or (2), as the case requires, and whose name was not, in pursuance of subsection (6) or (7), removed from the list referred to in subsection (3), a summons together with a notice that contains—
- (a) a statement of the grounds on which, under section 10, persons are not qualified to serve as jurors; and
- (b) a request that if the person believes he or she is not qualified to serve as a juror on such a ground, or is exempt or excused from so serving, the person inform the sheriff to that effect; and
- (c) a statement that—
- (i) if the person believes he or she is not qualified to serve as a juror on such a ground, or is exempt or excused from so serving, and informs the sheriff accordingly; and

(ii) the sheriff refuses to withdraw the summons;

the person may apply in writing to a judge for a review of the decision.

Note If a form is approved under the Supreme Court Act 1933, s 75 (Approved forms) for a summons under this subsection, the form must be used.

- (11) An action or proceeding, civil or criminal, does not lie against a police officer personally for or in respect of any act done by the officer in good faith in connection with the making of a report under subsection (4).

26 Service of jury summonses

A jury summons may be served—

- (b) by sending it by post (under prepaid postage) in an envelope addressed to the person at his or her place of living as shown on the jury list not less than 7 clear days before the date on which the person is required to attend.

26A Application for withdrawal of summons

- (1) Where a person has been served with a jury summons and has informed the sheriff that the person believes he or she is not qualified to serve as a juror or is exempt or excused from jury service, the sheriff shall—

- (b) refuse to withdraw the summons.

- (2) Where the sheriff has refused to withdraw a summons under subsection (1) (b), the person summoned may apply in writing to a judge for a review of the decision.
- (3) The judge shall fix a date and time for the hearing of the application and shall cause the applicant and the sheriff to be notified accordingly.
- (4) The sheriff shall revise the jury list so that it accords with the decision of the judge.

27 Preparation of panel of jurors, and lists of jurors excused and jury cards

- (1) The sheriff shall prepare a panel of jurors for the purpose of the jury precept by listing the names of persons who have been served with jury summonses or if the number of persons served with jury summonses exceeds the number of persons specified in the jury precept as the number of persons required to attend at the court, by listing, in the order in which the names were chosen under section 24 (1) or (2), as the case requires, so many of those names as equals the number of persons so required by the jury precept to attend.
- (2) The sheriff shall also prepare a list showing the names of the persons who have been served with jury summonses and whose names have not been included in the panel of jurors.
- (3) The sheriff shall—

- (2) The legal practitioner representing the prosecution, the accused or his or her legal practitioner may, on the day fixed for a criminal trial, inspect or obtain from the sheriff a copy of the panel of jurors for the trial.
- (3) A party in a civil trial or his or her legal practitioner may, on the day fixed for the trial, inspect or obtain from the sheriff a copy of the panel of jurors for the trial.

30 Informalities etc not to invalidate verdict

An omission, informality or error in name or occupation (if there is no question of identity) with respect to the jury list, a jury precept or a panel of jurors does not invalidate or affect any verdict returned by a jury that is in other respects according to law.

Part 6 Striking and impanelling jury

31 Striking a jury at a criminal trial

- (1) At the commencement of a criminal trial, the proper officer shall draw the jury cards out of a ballot box 1 at a time and call aloud the name and occupation shown on each card so drawn until 12 persons have entered the jury box.
- (2) If all the jury cards are exhausted, by challenge or otherwise, before 12 persons have entered the jury box at a criminal trial, the judge may order the sheriff to appoint forthwith from persons in or in the vicinity of the court who are liable to serve as jurors so many persons to attend to serve as jurors as will enable 12 persons to enter the jury box.
- (3) The names of the persons so appointed shall be deemed to have been returned on the jury precept and to have been included in the jury panel and the sheriff shall deliver to the proper officer a jury card showing the name and occupation of each of those persons.
- (4) The persons so appointed are subject to challenge in the same manner as the persons whose names are included on the panel of jurors.
- (5) The 12 persons in the jury box shall, upon being sworn, be the jury for the criminal trial.
- (6) A card bearing the name of a person, not being a person appointed under this section, who has been called but not sworn shall, upon the jury being sworn, be returned to the ballot box.

31A Expanded juries in some criminal trials

- (1) Where a judge considers it appropriate, he or she may direct that a specified number of jurors, greater than 12 and less than 17, be empanelled for a criminal trial.
- (2) Where a judge gives a direction under subsection (1), this Act (other than this section) applies in relation to the trial as if references to 12 jurors or persons were references to as many jurors or persons as are equal to the number of jurors directed to be empanelled.
- (3) Where a judge gives a direction under subsection (1), section 34 applies in relation to the trial as if references in section 34 (1) (b) and (2) (b) to 8 peremptory challenges were—
 - (a) where the judge directs that 13 or 14 jurors be empanelled—references to 9 peremptory challenges; or
 - (b) where the judge directs that 15 jurors be empanelled—references to 10 peremptory challenges; or
 - (c) where the judge directs that 16 jurors be empanelled—references to 11 peremptory challenges.
- (4) Where, immediately before a jury is to retire to consider its verdict, the jury consists of more than 12 jurors, the proper officer shall select the jurors to be discharged by drawing the jury cards out of a ballot box 1 at a time until 12 jurors remain unselected.
- (5) Where a juror is selected under subsection (4)—
 - (a) the judge may, if he or she thinks fit, make an order under section 18A (2) in relation to the juror as if the trial had concluded; and
 - (b) the juror is discharged from jury service.

32 Striking a jury at a civil trial

- (1) For the purposes of this section, where, at a civil trial, there are several plaintiffs who are represented by the same legal practitioner or several defendants who are represented by the same legal practitioner, they shall be deemed to be 1 plaintiff or 1 defendant, as the case may be.

- (2) At the commencement of a civil trial, the proper officer shall draw jury cards out of a ballot box 1 at a time and call aloud the name and occupation shown on each card so drawn out until, after all challenges for cause are allowed, 12 of the persons so called stand in their place in the court.
