Interpretation Act 1967 No 48

Republication No 6D

Effective: 1 June 2000 – 20 December 2000

Republication date: 5 February 2004

Last amendment made by A2000-17

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Interpretation Act 1967 effective from 1 June 2000 to 20 December 2000.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, part 3, division 2 authorised the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, s 14 and s 16). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

In preparing this republication, amendments have not been made under section 13.

Australian Capital Territory

Interpretation Act 1967

An Act to assist in interpreting, shortening and simplifying Acts, to assist in improving their quality and accessibility, and for other purposes related to legislation

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Interpretation Act 1967.

2 Application

This Act applies to all Acts.

3 Displacement of Act by contrary intention

This Act applies to an Act except so far as the contrary intention appears in this Act or the Act concerned.

7 Acts to bind the Crown

(1) Each Act binds the Crown to the extent that it is capable of doing so unless it or another Act provides otherwise.

(2) Where an Act binds the Crown, so far as the context and the legislative power of the Territory permit, the Act binds the Crown in every right but it does not bind the Crown in right of the Commonwealth unless a regulation relating to the Act is in force under the Self-Government Act for the purposes of section 27 of that Act.

Interpretation Act 1967

(3) Criminal liability is not imposed on the Crown by reason only that an Act binds the Crown.

(4) Where an Act—

- (a) does not bind the Crown; or
- (b) binds the Crown but not so as to impose criminal liability on the Crown;

then, unless it or another Act provides otherwise, the same degree of immunity extends to an agent of the Crown in respect of an act or omission in that capacity within the scope of his or her authority.

(5) In subsection (4)—

agent includes an instrumentality, officer or employee of the Crown and a contractor or other person who exercises a function on behalf of the Crown.

(6) Unless an Act provides otherwise, an Act does not apply in relation to the Territory to the extent that it requires or otherwise provides for the payment of money that, upon payment, would form part of the public money of the Territory.

PART 1A—SOURCES OF LAW IN THE TERRITORY

Notes on sources of law

Note 1 The laws in force in the Territory consist of the written law and various unwritten laws known as the principles and rules of common law and equity.

Note 2 The written law of the Territory consists primarily of laws, known as Acts, made by the Legislative Assembly and earlier laws, previously known as ordinances, made by the Governor-General under the Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910 (Cwlth). It also includes regulations, rules of court and other legislative instruments made under specific powers given by Acts. (Written laws made under an Act are commonly called ‘subordinate’ or ‘delegated’ legislation.)

Note 3 Before self-government, ordinances were the main form of legislation made for the Territory. Most of the ordinances in force at self-government have been converted into Acts (see s 34 of the Self-Government Act). However, the Governor-General retains power to make ordinances for the Territory on a limited number of topics (see s 12 of the Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910 (Cwlth)).

Note 4 The written laws in force in the Territory also include the Commonwealth Constitution, Commonwealth Acts, and regulations and other legislative instruments made under Commonwealth Acts. As a general rule, Commonwealth Acts and legislative instruments apply in the ACT in the same way as they apply in other parts of Australia. Commonwealth Acts and instruments prevail over the Acts made by the Legislative Assembly to the extent to which they are inconsistent (see s 28 of the Self-Government Act).

7A Former NSW and UK Acts in force in Territory

The written law of the Territory includes the former NSW Acts and UK Acts mentioned in Schedule 1.

Note 1 Section 65 provides that a law mentioned in Schedule 1, to the extent that the law was in force in the Territory immediately before the commencement of that section, is taken to be, for all purposes, a law made by the Legislative Assembly as if it had been enacted by the Assembly.

Note 2 The Imperial Acts (Substituted Provisions) Act 1986 substituted provisions for certain UK Acts that applied (or may have applied) in the Territory and repealed those UK Acts. Most of the remaining substituted provisions are now set out in Part 12 of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1955.

Note 3 Section 65 also provides that, to remove any doubt, the remaining substituted provisions are taken to be, for all purposes, laws made by the Legislative Assembly as if they had been enacted by the Assembly.

PART 2—NOTIFICATION, NUMBERING AND COMMENCEMENT OF ACTS

8 Notification of Acts

(1) If a proposed law has been passed by the Legislative Assembly, the Chief Minister, or a Minister authorised by the Chief Minister, must publish in the Gazette a notice of the proposed law having been passed and the place or places where copies of the law can be purchased.

(2) On the day notice of the proposed law is published in the Gazette (the notification day) or as soon as practicable after the notification day, copies of the law must be available for purchase at the place, or each of the places, stated in the notice.

(3) If, on the notification day, no copies of the law are available for purchase at the place, or any of the places, stated in the notice, the Chief Minister must present to the Legislative Assembly within 15 sitting days a statement—

- (a) that copies of the law were not so available; and
- (b) explaining why they were not available.

(4) Failure to comply with subsection (2) or (3) does not affect the validity of the law.

9 Numbering of Acts

The Acts passed in each year are to be numbered as nearly as practicable in the order in which they are passed.

10 Commencement of Acts on date of notification

An Act commences on its date of notification except so far as the Act otherwise expressly provides.

10A Time of commencement of Acts

If an Act or a provision of an Act commences on a day, it commences at the beginning of the day.

10B Commencement of naming and commencement provisions on date of notification

(1) The provisions of an Act providing for its name and commencement automatically commence on the date of notification of the Act.

Interpretation Act 1967

(2) This section applies to an Act despite anything in the Act unless the Act expressly provides that it does not apply.

10C Commencement by notice

(1) If an Act or provisions of an Act are expressed to commence on a day fixed by notice—

- (a) a single day or time may be fixed; or
- (b) different days or times may be fixed for different provisions.

(2) If the day or time fixed by a notice in the Gazette for the commencement of an Act or a provision of an Act happens before the day the notice is published in the Gazette (the notification day)—

- (a) the notice is valid; but
- (b) the Act or provision commences on the notification day.

(3) In this section—

notice includes any instrument (however described).

10D Separate commencement of amendments

Any amendment made by a provision of an Act may be given a separate commencement, whether or not the provision is self-contained.

Examples

1 Each paragraph of a provision of an amending Act may be given a separate commencement.

2 Each item in a schedule to an amending Act may be given a separate commencement.

10E Automatic commencement of postponed law

(1) In this section—

notification day, for a postponed law, means the date of notification of—

- (a) if the postponed law is an Act—the Act; or
- (b) if the postponed law is a provision of an Act—the Act that enacts the provision.

postponed law means an Act or provision of an Act that does not commence on the notification day because a provision of an Act

Interpretation Act 1967

postpones its commencement until a day fixed by a notice or other instrument.

- (2) If a postponed law has not commenced within 6 months beginning on the notification day, it automatically commences on the first day after that period.
- (3) This section—
- (a) applies only to a postponed law enacted after 1 January 2000; and
 - (b) applies to a postponed law unless an Act expressly states it does not apply.

Example—

The Hypothetical Act 2000 was notified in the Gazette on 5 July 2000 and was expressed to commence on a day to be fixed by the Minister by notice in the Gazette. If the Act had not commenced by notice on or before 4 January 2001, it would automatically commence on 5 January 2001.

10F References to enactment and passing of Acts

In an Act, a reference to the enactment or passing of an Act is a reference to that Act having been notified in the Gazette under section 8.

11 References to commencement of Act

In an Act, a reference to the commencement of the Act, or another Act, (the Act concerned) is a reference to—

- (a) if the provisions of the Act concerned (other than those providing for its name and commencement) commence, or are required to commence, on a single day or at a single time—the commencement of the remaining provisions; or
- (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the reference is in a provision of the Act concerned—the commencement of the provision; or
- (c) in any other case—the commencement of the relevant provision of the Act concerned.

PART 3—INTERPRETATION OF ACTS

Division 1—General provisions

11AA Construction of Acts—legislative powers of the Assembly

- (1) An Act shall be construed as operating to the full extent of, but so as not to exceed, the legislative power of the Legislative Assembly.
- (2) If a provision of an Act, or the application of such a provision to a person, subject matter or circumstance, would, but for this section, be construed as being in excess of the legislative power of the Legislative Assembly, it shall be a valid provision to the extent to which it is not in excess of that power.

11A Regard to be had to purpose or object of Act

In the interpretation of a provision of an Act, a construction that would promote the purpose or object underlying the Act (whether that purpose or object is expressly stated in the Act or not) shall be preferred to a construction that would not promote that purpose or object.

11B Use of extrinsic material in interpreting an Act

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), in the interpretation of a provision of an Act, if any material not forming part of the Act is capable of assisting in the ascertainment of the meaning of the provision, consideration may be given to that material—
- (a) to confirm that the meaning of the provision is the ordinary meaning conveyed by the text of the provision taking into account its context in the Act and the purpose or object underlying the Act; or
 - (b) to determine the meaning of the provision when—
 - (i) the provision is ambiguous or obscure; or
 - (ii) the ordinary meaning conveyed by the text of the provision taking into account its context in the Act and the purpose or object underlying the Act leads to a result that is manifestly absurd or is unreasonable.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the material that may be considered in accordance with that subsection in the interpretation of a provision of an Act includes—

Interpretation Act 1967

- (a) all matters not forming part of the Act that are set out in the document containing the text of the Act as printed by the government printer; and
 - (b) any treaty or other international agreement that is referred to in the Act; and
 - (c) any relevant report of a royal commission, law reform commission, committee of inquiry or other similar body that was laid before the Legislative Assembly or either House of the Commonwealth Parliament before the time when the provision was enacted or made; and
 - (d) any relevant report of a committee of the Legislative Assembly that was made to that Assembly before the time when the provision was enacted; and
 - (da) any explanatory memorandum relating to the Bill containing the provision, or any other relevant document, that was laid before, or furnished to the members of, the Legislative Assembly before the time when the provision was enacted; and
 - (db) the presentation speech made to the Legislative Assembly during the passage of the Bill containing the provision by the member of the Assembly who introduced the Bill; and
 - (dc) in the case of a provision contained in a converted ordinance—any explanatory statement relating to the ordinance, or any other relevant document, that was laid before, or furnished to the members of, either House of the Commonwealth Parliament when the ordinance was laid before that House; and
 - (dd) any relevant material in the minutes of the Legislative Assembly's meetings or in any other official record of debates in the Legislative Assembly; and
 - (e) any document (whether or not a document to which a preceding paragraph applies) that is declared by the Act to be a relevant document for the purposes of this section.
- (3) In determining whether consideration should be given to any material in accordance with subsection (1), or in considering the weight to be given to any such material, regard shall be had, in addition to any other relevant matters, to—
- (a) the desirability of persons being able to rely on the ordinary meaning conveyed by the text of the provision taking into account

Interpretation Act 1967

its context in the Act and the purpose or object underlying the Act; and

- (b) the need to avoid prolonging legal or other proceedings without compensating advantage.

11C Changes of drafting practice not to affect meaning

If—

- (a) a provision of an Act expresses an idea in particular words; and
- (b) a provision of the same Act, or another Act, enacted later appears to express the same idea in different words or in a different way because of a different legislative drafting practice, including, for example the use of—
 - (i) a clearer or simpler drafting style; or
 - (ii) gender-neutral language;

the ideas must not be regarded as different merely because different words are used or the idea is expressed in a different way.

11D Examples

If an Act includes an example of the operation of a provision, the example—

- (a) is not exhaustive; and
- (b) may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision.

11E Defined terms—other parts of speech and grammatical forms

If an Act defines a word or expression, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of the word or expression have corresponding meanings.

11F Application of definitions in dictionaries and sections

- (1) A definition in the dictionary to this Act applies to all Acts.
- (2) A definition in the dictionary to another Act applies to the entire Act unless the Act provides for the definition to have a more limited application.

Examples

1 In an Act, the word w is defined in section 10, which is in Part 3 (General concepts). There is also a signpost definition ‘w—see section 10.’ in the Act’s dictionary. There is nothing in the Act indicating the intended application of the definition of w. The definition, therefore, applies to the entire Act.

2 The dictionary to the ABC Act 1999 includes the signpost definition ‘x—see XYZ Act 1998, section 3.’. There is nothing in the ABC Act 1999 indicating the intended application of the definition of x. The definition of x in section 3 of the XYZ Act 1998, therefore, applies to the entire ABC Act 1999.

3 In an Act, the word y is defined in section 30, which is not divided into subsections and is in Part 4. Section 30 begins with the words ‘In this Part’. The definition of y applies only to Part 4.

4 In an Act, the word z is defined in the dictionary. The definition provides, in part, that ‘z, in Part 4 (Registration of vehicles), means ...’. The definition of z applies only to Part 4.

(3) A definition in a section of an Act applies only to the section unless the Act provides for the definition to have a broader application.

Examples

1 Subsection 8 (2) of this Act contains a definition of the notification day as a tagged term. There is nothing in this Act indicating that the definition applies outside section 8. The definition, therefore, applies only to section 8.

2 In an Act, the word a is defined in a section, which is not divided into subsections but contains a number of definitions. The section begins with the words ‘In this Act’. The definition of a applies to the entire Act.

3 In Part 6 of an Act, the word b is defined in a section, which is not divided into subsections but contains a number of definitions. The section begins with the words ‘In this Part’. The definition of b applies to Part 6.

4 In a subsection of a section of an Act, the word c is defined. The subsection begins with the words ‘In subsection (3)’. The definition of c applies only to subsection (3) of that section.

11G Definitions apply subject to contrary intention

A definition in an Act applies except so far as the contrary intention appears.

11H Material that is part of an Act

(1) A heading to a chapter, part, division, subdivision, schedule, or another provision (other than a section or subsection), to or of an Act is part of the Act.

(2) A heading to a section or subsection of an Act is part of the Act if—
(a) the Act is enacted after 1 January 2000; or
(b) the heading is amended or inserted after 1 January 2000.

Interpretation Act 1967

- (3) An example or diagram in an Act is part of the Act.
- (4) A schedule, dictionary or appendix to an Act is part of the Act.
- (5) Punctuation in an Act is part of the Act.
- (6) A provision number in an Act is part of the Act.

12 Material that is not part of an Act

- (1) A footnote, endnote, or other note, in or to an Act is not part of the Act.
- (2) A table of contents (however described), or reader's guide, in or to an Act is not part of the Act.
- (3) A heading to a section or subsection of an Act is not part of the Act if subsection 11H (2) does not apply to the heading.
- (4) This section does not prevent the amendment of a note, table or heading mentioned in subsection (1), (2) or (3).
- (5) However, such a note, table or guide does not become part of the Act because it is amended or inserted by an Act.

12A Paragraphs

Where a provision of an Act contains a reference to a paragraph of a provision of that Act or any other Act in a particular context or application (however described), the reference shall be read as a reference to that paragraph together with such other words (if any) in the provision containing it (whether preceding or following the paragraph) as are necessary to make that reference meaningful and the firstmentioned provision effective.

13 Forms

- (1) If a form is prescribed or approved under an Act, substantial compliance with the form is sufficient.
- (2) However, if a form prescribed or approved under an Act requires—
 - (a) the form to be prepared in a stated way (for example, on paper of a stated size or quality or in a stated electronic form); or
 - (b) the form to be completed in a stated way; or
 - (c) stated information to be included in the form, or stated documents to be attached to or given with the form; or

Interpretation Act 1967

- (d) the form, or information or documents included in, attached to or given with the form, to be verified in a stated way;

the form is properly completed only if the requirement is complied with.

(3) Despite subsection (2), if—

- (a) a form prescribed or approved under an Act for a purpose or 2 or more purposes requires information or a document to be included in, attached to or given with the form; and
- (b) the information or document is not reasonably necessary for the purpose or 1 or more of the purposes;

the person need not comply with the requirement.

Examples

- 1 A person need not comply with a requirement of a prescribed form to include personal information (eg marital status) irrelevant to a purpose for which the form is required.
- 2 A person need not comply with a requirement of an approved form that has some relevance to a purpose for which the form is required, but intrudes to an unreasonable extent on personal privacy.

(4) If—

- (a) a form (form 1) may be prescribed or approved under an Act for a purpose or 2 or more purposes; and
- (b) another form (form 2) may be prescribed or approved under the Act or another Act for the same or another purpose or purposes; and
- (c) separate forms 1 and 2 are prescribed or approved;

a combination form, consisting of forms 1 and 2, may be prescribed or approved and used for the purpose or all of the purposes.

(5) If, under an Act, a form is required or permitted to be filed with, or served on, a person (whether the expression ‘file’, ‘lodge’, ‘deliver’, ‘give’, ‘notify’, ‘send’ or ‘serve’ or another expression is used), the form may be filed with, or served on, someone else under arrangements made between the persons.

13A Production of records kept in computers etc

Where a person who keeps a record of information by means of a mechanical, electronic or other device is required under an Act to produce the information or a document containing the information to, or make a document containing the information available for inspection by, a court, tribunal or person, then, unless the court, tribunal or person otherwise directs, the requirement shall be deemed to oblige the person to produce or make available for inspection, as the case may be, a writing that reproduces the information in a form capable of being understood by the court, tribunal or person, and the production of such a writing to the court, tribunal or person constitutes compliance with the requirement.

13B Change of name of entity or position

- (1) This section applies if an Act changes the name of an entity or position established under an Act.
- (2) The entity or position continues in existence under the new name and its identity is not affected by the change.
- (3) A reference in an Act or document to the entity or position by its previous name is taken, after the change, to be a reference to the entity or position by its new name.

13BA Change of membership of body

- (1) This section applies if an Act changes the membership of a body established under an Act.
- (2) The body continues in existence as newly constituted and its identity is not affected by the change.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), the change does not affect—
 - (a) any function, power, right, liability or property of the body; or
 - (b) the bringing of a proceeding, or the continuation of a proceeding, by or against the body; or
 - (c) the undertaking of an investigation or inquiry, or the continuation of an investigation or inquiry, in relation to anything done or not done by the body.

13C Content of statements of reasons for decisions

Where an Act requires a tribunal, body or person making a decision to give written reasons for the decision, whether the expression ‘reasons’, ‘grounds’ or any other expression is used, the instrument giving the reasons shall also set out the findings on material questions of fact and refer to the evidence or other material on which those findings were based.

13D Attainment of particular age

For the purposes of any Act, the time at which a person attains a particular age expressed in years is the commencement of the relevant anniversary of the date of birth of that person.

Division 2—Words and phrases

14 Reference to provisions of a law is inclusive

In an Act, a reference to any part of a law (including the Act) is a reference to the following:

- (a) the provision of the law that forms the beginning of the part;
- (b) the provision of the law that forms the end of the part;
- (c) any provision of the law between the beginning and end of the part.

Examples

- 1 A reference to ‘sections 5 to 9’ includes both section 5 and section 9.
- 2 A reference to ‘sections 260 to 264’ includes a provision such as a part heading between section 260 and 261.
- 3 A reference to ‘from child to adult’ includes both the word ‘child’ and the word ‘adult’.

15 References to persons generally

(1) In an Act, a reference to a person generally includes a reference to a corporation as well as an individual.

(2) Subsection (1) is not displaced merely because there is an express reference to either an individual or a corporation elsewhere in the Act.

Examples of references to a person generally

- 1 another person
- 2 anyone else
- 3 party
- 4 someone else
- 5 employer

Examples of express references to a corporation

- 1 body corporate
- 2 company

Examples of express references to an individual

- 1 adult

Interpretation Act 1967

- 2 child
- 3 spouse
- 4 driver

16 Meaning of may and must

- (1) In an Act, the word may, or a similar word or expression, used in relation to a power indicates that the power may be exercised or not exercised, at discretion.
- (2) In an Act, the word must, or a similar word or expression, used in relation to a power indicates that the power is required to be exercised.
- (3) This section applies despite any presumption or rule of interpretation—
 - (a) to an Act enacted after 1 January 2000; or
 - (b) to a provision inserted into another Act after 1 January 2000.

17A Service of documents

- (1) For the purposes of any Act that authorises or requires a document to be served on a person, whether the expression ‘serve’, ‘give’ or ‘send’ or any other expression is used, the document may be served—
 - (a) on a natural person—
 - (i) by delivering it to the person personally; or
 - (ii) by leaving it at, or sending it by prepaid post to, the address of the place of residence or business of the person last known to the person serving the document; or
 - (b) on a body corporate—by leaving it at, or sending it by prepaid post to, the head office, a registered office or a principal office of the body corporate.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1)—
 - (a) affects the operation of any other law of the Territory that authorises or requires the service of a document otherwise than as provided in that subsection; or
 - (b) affects the power of a court to authorise or require service of a document otherwise than as provided in that subsection.

18 Service by post

Where an Act authorises or requires a document to be served by post, whether the expression ‘serve’ or the expression ‘give’ or ‘send’ or any other expression is used, the service shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing and posting (under prepaid post) the document as a letter, and, unless the contrary is proved, to have been effected at the time at which the letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.

19 Gender and number

In an Act—

- (a) words importing a gender include every other gender; and
- (b) words in the singular number include the plural and words in the plural number include the singular.

20 References to the Sovereign

In an Act, a reference to the Sovereign reigning at the time of the making of the Act, or to the Crown, shall be read as a reference to the Sovereign for the time being.

21 References to the Governor-General

Where, in an Act, the Governor-General is referred to, the reference shall be deemed to include—

- (a) the person for the time being administering the Government of the Commonwealth; or
- (b) where the reference occurs in or in relation to a provision conferring on the Governor-General a power or function which the Governor-General or the person administering the Government of the Commonwealth has for the time being assigned to a person as his or her deputy—that lastmentioned person in his or her capacity as deputy;

and shall, be read as referring to the Governor-General, or a person so deemed to be included in the reference, acting with the advice of the Executive Council.

22 References to the Governor of a State

Where, in an Act, the Governor of a State is referred to, the reference shall be deemed to include the Governor for the time being of the State or any other person who is, for the time being, the chief executive officer or administrator of the Government of the State.

23 References to the Territory or this Territory

In an Act, a reference to the Territory or this Territory—

Interpretation Act 1967

- (a) when used in a geographical sense—is a reference to the Australian Capital Territory; or
- (b) in any other case—is a reference to the body politic established by section 7 of the Self-Government Act.

23A References to Territory implied

(1) In an Act—

- (a) a reference to an entity or position by name or description is a reference to the entity or position of that name or description in and for the Territory; and
- (b) a reference to a place, jurisdiction or anything else by name or description is a reference to the place, jurisdiction or thing of that name or description in and of the Territory.

(2) In an Act, a reference to an entity or position established under an Act whose name includes the words ‘of the Australian Capital Territory’, ‘for the Australian Capital Territory’, ‘(ACT)’, or words having a similar effect, need not include the words.

24 References to a Minister or the Minister

(1) In an Act, a reference to a Minister is a reference to the Chief Minister or a Minister appointed under section 41 of the Self-Government Act.

(2) In a provision of an Act, a reference to the Minister without identifying the Minister’s title or portfolio is a reference to—

- (a) the Minister for the time being administering the provision; or
- (b) if, for the time being, different Ministers administer the provision in relation to different matters—
 - (i) if only 1 Minister administers the provision in relation to the relevant matter—the Minister; or
 - (ii) if 2 or more Ministers administer the provision in relation to the relevant matter—any of the Ministers; or
- (c) if paragraph (b) does not apply and, for the time being, 2 or more Ministers administer the provision—any of the Ministers.

(3) In subsection (2)—

Minister includes a Minister for the time being acting on behalf of a Minister or 2 or more Ministers.

Interpretation Act 1967

(4) If an Act mentions a Minister and identifies the Minister merely by reference to the fact that the Minister administers a stated Act or provision, subsection (2) applies as if references in paragraphs (a) to (c) to the provision were references to the stated Act or provision.

(5) If an Act defines the expression Minister or the Minister for the Act or a provision of the Act in a way that does not identify a particular Minister by title or portfolio, subsections (2) and (4) apply to the Act or provision despite that definition of the expression.

24A References to a chief executive or the chief executive

(1) In an Act, a reference to a chief executive is a reference to a person employed under section 28 or 30 of the Public Sector Management Act to perform the duties of an office of chief executive.

(2) In a provision of an Act, a reference to the chief executive without identifying the chief executive's title is a reference to—

- (a) the chief executive of the administrative unit responsible for the provision; or
- (b) if, for the time being, different administrative units are responsible for the provision in relation to different matters—
 - (i) if only 1 administrative unit is responsible for the provision in relation to the relevant matter—the chief executive of the administrative unit; or
 - (ii) if 2 or more administrative units are responsible for the provision in relation to the relevant matter—the chief executive of any of the administrative units; or
- (c) if paragraph (b) does not apply and, for the time being, 2 or more administrative units are responsible for the provision—the chief executive of any of the administrative units.

(3) If an Act mentions a chief executive and identifies the chief executive merely by reference to the fact that the chief executive is the chief executive of the administrative unit responsible for a stated Act or provision, subsection (2) applies as if references in paragraphs (a) to (c) to the provision were references to the stated Act or provision.

(4) If an Act defines the expression chief executive or the chief executive for the Act or a provision of the Act in a way that does not identify a particular chief executive by title, subsections (2) and (3) apply to the Act or provision despite that definition of the expression.

Interpretation Act 1967

(5) In this section—

chief executive, of an administrative unit, means the person who is employed under section 28 or 30 of the Public Sector Management Act to perform the duties of the office of chief executive in the administrative unit.

Public Sector Management Act means the Public Sector Management Act 1994.

responsible, for a provision, means allocated responsibility for the provision under paragraph 14 (b) of the Public Sector Management Act.

25 References to occupant of position

In an Act, a reference to the occupant of a position includes a reference to anyone for the time being occupying the position.

25AA References to Assembly committees that no longer exist

In an Act, a reference (whether by name or description) to a committee of the Legislative Assembly that no longer exists is a reference to the committee of the Assembly nominated by the Speaker either generally or for the provision containing the reference.

25AB References to Australian Standards

In an Act, a reference consisting of the words ‘Australian Standard’ followed by a number is a reference to the standard so numbered published by or on behalf of the Standards Australia.

25A Chairperson and deputy chairperson

(1) Where an Act establishes a position of chairperson of a body, the chairperson may be referred to as the chairman or chairwoman, as the case requires.

(2) Where an Act establishes a position of deputy chairperson of a body, the deputy chairperson may be referred to as deputy chairman or deputy chairwoman, as the case requires.

Division 3—Functions and powers under Acts

26 Performance of statutory functions etc

(1) If an Act gives a function or power to an entity, the function or power may be exercised from time to time.

(2) If an Act gives a function or power to the occupant of a position, the function or power may be exercised by the person for the time being occupying the position.

26A Power to make instrument or decision includes power to amend or repeal

(1) If an Act authorises or requires the making of an instrument or decision—

- (a) the power includes power to amend or repeal the instrument or decision; and
- (b) the power to amend or repeal the instrument or decision is exercisable in the same way, and subject to the same conditions, as the power to make the instrument or decision.

(2) For subsection (1), an Act is taken to authorise or require the making of an instrument if—

- (a) the Act authorises or requires something to be done; and
- (b) it can be done by instrument.

27 Power to make, grant or issue instruments

(2) Where an Act confers a power to make, grant or issue any instrument (including rules, regulations or by-laws) with respect to particular matters (however described), the power shall be construed as including a power to make, grant or issue such an instrument with respect to some only of those matters or with respect to a particular class or particular classes of those matters and to make different provision with respect to different matters or different classes of matters.

(3) Where an Act confers a power to make, grant or issue any instrument (including rules, regulations or by-laws), the power shall not be taken, by implication, not to include the power to make provision for or in relation to a particular aspect of a matter by reason only that provision is made by the Act in relation to another aspect of that matter or in relation to another matter.

Interpretation Act 1967

(4) Where an Act confers a power to make, grant or issue an instrument (including rules, regulations or by-laws) prescribing penalties not exceeding a specified amount or imprisonment for a specified period, that limitation on the penalties that may be prescribed does not prevent the instrument from requiring the making of a statutory declaration.

27A Compliance with authorisation or requirement to do something by notice in the Gazette

(1) If a provision of an Act or regulation authorises or requires something to be done by notice in the Gazette (however the provision is expressed), it is sufficient if—

- (a) it is done by an instrument; and
- (b) notice is published in the Gazette of—
 - (i) the making of the instrument; and
 - (ii) the place or places where copies of the instrument can be purchased.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to an instrument whether or not the instrument is a subordinate law for section 6 of the Subordinate Laws Act 1989.

(3) Nothing in this section or section 6 of the Subordinate Laws Act 1989 prevents a single notice published in the Gazette having effect for both sections.

(4) On the day of publication of a notice under subsection (1) (the notification day) or as soon as practicable after the notification day, copies of the instrument mentioned in the notice must be available for purchase at the place, or each of the places, stated in the notice.

(5) If, on the notification day, no copies of the instrument mentioned in the notice are available for purchase at the place, or any of the places, stated in the notice, the relevant Minister must present to the Legislative Assembly within 14 sitting days a statement—

- (a) that copies of the instrument were not so available; and
- (b) explaining why they were not available.

(6) Nothing in this section or section 6 of the Subordinate Laws Act 1989 prevents a single statement by the relevant Minister having effect for both sections.

Interpretation Act 1967

(7) Failure to comply with subsection (4) or (5) is not to be taken as a failure to comply with subsection (1).

(8) If—

- (a) a provision of an Act authorised or required something to be done by notice in the Gazette (however the provision was expressed); and
- (b) the thing was done before the commencement of this section by an instrument, but was not done by notice in the Gazette; and
- (c) notice of the making of the instrument was published in the Gazette before the commencement, or is published in the Gazette after the commencement;

then, to remove any doubt, it is declared that the thing was not invalidly done merely because it was done by an instrument rather than by notice in the Gazette.

(9) This section does not apply to the fixing of a day or time for the commencement of an Act or regulation or a provision of an Act or regulation.

(10) In this section—

relevant Minister means—

- (a) the Minister administering the Act or regulation under which, or the part of the Act or regulation for which, the instrument was made; or
- (b) if there are 2 or more such Ministers—either or any of them.

28 Appointments—general

(1) This section applies if an Act authorises or requires an entity (the appointer) to appoint a person (the appointee)—

- (a) to a position under an Act; or
- (b) to exercise a power or do anything else under an Act.

(2) The appointer may make the appointment by naming the appointee or by naming a position occupied by the appointee.

(3) The appointer's power to make the appointment includes the power—

- (a) to suspend the appointment and end the suspension; or

Interpretation Act 1967

- (b) to end the appointment and appoint someone else or reappoint the appointee if the appointee is eligible to be appointed to the position; or
 - (c) to reappoint the appointee if the appointee is eligible to be appointed to the position.
- (4) If the appointer's power is the power to make an appointment to a position, the power to make the appointment also includes the power to appoint a person to act in the position—
- (a) during any vacancy, or all vacancies, in the position, whether or not an appointment has previously been made to the position; or
 - (b) during any period, or all periods, when the appointee cannot for any reason exercise the functions of the position.
- (5) The power to suspend, end the appointment or to appoint a person to act is exercisable in the same way, and subject to the same conditions, as the power to make the appointment.

Example

If the appointment power is exercisable only on the recommendation of a body, the power to suspend, end the appointment or appoint a person to act is exercisable only on the recommendation of the body.

- (6) Without limiting subsection (5), if the Act (or another Act) requires—
- (a) the appointee to hold a qualification; or
 - (b) that the appointer (or someone else) be satisfied about the appointee's suitability (whether in terms of knowledge, experience or any other personal quality) before appointing the appointee to the position;

a person may only be appointed to act in the position if the person holds the qualification or the appointer (or other person) is satisfied about the person's suitability.

Examples

1 If an Act requires the appointee to be a magistrate, a person can be appointed to act in the position only if the person is a magistrate.

2 If an Act requires the appointee to be a lawyer of at least 5 years standing, a person can be appointed to act in the position only if the person is a lawyer of at least 5 years standing.

3 If an Act requires the appointee to have, in the Executive's opinion, appropriate expertise, training or experience in relation to the needs of a particular group of people, a person can be appointed to act in the position only if the person has, in the Executive's opinion, that expertise, training or experience.

Interpretation Act 1967

- (7) An appointment or suspension, or the ending of an appointment or suspension, must be made, or evidenced by, writing signed by the appointer.
- (8) An appointment ends if the person appointed resigns by signed notice of resignation given to the appointer.
- (9) However, if the appointer is the Executive, the notice of resignation may be given to a Minister.
- (10) An appointment, or anything done under an appointment, is not invalid merely because of a defect or irregularity in relation to the appointment.
- (11) In subsections (7) to (10)— appointment includes an appointment to act.

28A Acting appointments—incidents

- (1) This section applies if an Act gives an entity (the appointer) a power to appoint a person (the appointee) to act in a position under an Act.
- (2) The instrument making or evidencing the appointment may provide that the appointment has effect only in stated circumstances or subject to stated conditions or limitations.

Examples

1 The instrument relating to a standing (or dormant) acting appointment for a position provides that when the substantive occupant of the position (Y) is overseas X may act in the position, but may exercise stated powers of the position only with Y's approval.

2 X is appointed to act in Y's position if Y is out of the Territory and a declaration of acute fire danger is published under the Bushfire Act.

- (3) The appointer may—
- (a) decide the terms and conditions of the appointment, including any remuneration and allowances; and
 - (b) end the appointment at any time.
- (4) If the appointee acts in the position while it is vacant, the appointee may not act for more than 1 year after the position became vacant.
- (5) Subject to subsection (2), if the appointee is acting in a position that becomes vacant while the appointee is acting, the appointee may continue to act until—
- (a) the appointer ends the appointment; or

Interpretation Act 1967

- (b) the vacancy is filled; or
- (c) 1 year after the position became vacant;

whichever happens first.

(6) If the appointee acts in the position because the occupant of the position cannot exercise his or her functions and the occupant resumes the exercise of the functions, the appointment no longer authorises the appointee to act on that occasion.

(7) If the appointee is the occupant of another position under an Act (the substantive position), the appointee does not cease to occupy the substantive position merely because of the appointee's appointment or because the appointee acts under the appointment.

(8) While the appointee is acting in the position—

- (a) the appointee has, subject to the instrument making or evidencing the appointment, all the functions and powers of the occupant of the position; and
- (b) all Acts apply in relation to the appointee as if the appointee were the occupant of the position.

(9) Anything done by or in relation to the appointee while the appointee purports to act in the position is not invalid merely because—

- (a) the occasion for the appointment had not arisen or had ended; or
- (b) the appointment had ended; or
- (c) the occasion for the appointee to act had not arisen or had ended.

29 Power to determine includes authority to administer oath

A court, judge, magistrate, officer, commissioner, arbitrator or other person authorised by an Act to hear and determine a matter has authority to receive evidence and examine witnesses and, for that purpose, to administer oaths to witnesses.

29A Delegations

Where an Act confers power to delegate a function or power, the power of delegation shall not be construed as being limited to delegating the function or power to a specified person but shall be construed as including a power to delegate the function or power to any person from time to time holding, occupying, or performing the duties of, a specified position.

29B Effect of delegation

Where an Act confers power on a person or body (the authority) to delegate a power or function—

- (a) the delegation may be made either generally or as otherwise provided by the instrument of delegation; and
- (b) the powers that may be delegated do not include that power to delegate; and
- (c) a power or function so delegated, when exercised by the delegate, shall, for all purposes, be deemed to have been exercised by the authority; and
- (d) a delegation by the authority does not prevent the exercise of a power or function by the authority; and
- (e) if the authority is not a person—section 30 applies as if it were.

30 Exercise of certain powers and functions by delegate

Where, under an Act, the exercise of a power or function by a person is dependent upon the opinion, belief or state of mind of that person in relation to a matter and that power or function has been delegated under a power vested in that person by that or any other Act to delegate the exercise of that power or function, that power or function may be exercised by the delegate upon the opinion, belief or state of mind of the delegate in relation to that matter.

30AA Effect on delegations—changes of office holder or changes in administration

(1) Where a person ceases to hold an office or position, a delegation made or taken to be made by that person in his or her capacity as the holder of that office or position and in force immediately before the cessation—

- (a) shall, on and after that cessation, be taken to be made by the person's successor in that office or position and shall then, subject to paragraph (b), otherwise have effect according to its tenor; and
- (b) may, by instrument, be varied or revoked by that successor.

(2) Where the administration of a particular Act or subordinate law ceases to be the responsibility of the holder of an office or position (the former administrator) and becomes the responsibility of the holder of another office or position (the relevant successor), a delegation made or taken to be made by the former administrator and in force immediately before the cessation—

Interpretation Act 1967

- (a) shall, on and after that cessation, be taken to be made by the relevant successor and shall then, subject to paragraph (b), otherwise have effect according to its tenor; and
- (b) may, by instrument, be varied or revoked by the relevant successor.

(3) Paragraphs 29B (c) and (d), and section 30, apply in relation to a delegation referred to in subsection (1) or (2) as if it had been given by the relevant successor.

30AB Delegation includes subdelegation

In sections 29A, 29B, 30 and 30AA, references to a power to delegate, a delegate and a delegation shall be read as including references to a power to subdelegate, a subdelegate and a subdelegation, respectively.

30A Periodic reports

(1) In this section—

periodic report means a regular report relating to—

- (a) the activities, operations, business or affairs of a person; or
- (b) the administration, operation or working of an Act or part of an Act;

during a particular period but does not include a report or information presented or provided under the Annual Reports (Government Agencies) Act 1995.

person includes a body corporate, office, commission, authority, committee, tribunal, board, institute, organisation or other body however described.

(2) Where an Act requires a person to furnish a periodic report to a Minister but does not specify a period within which the report is to be so furnished, that person shall furnish the report to the Minister as soon as practicable after the end of the particular period to which the report relates and, in any event, within 6 months after the end of that particular period.

(3) Where an Act requires a person to furnish a periodic report to a Minister for presentation to the Legislative Assembly but does not specify a period within which the report is to be so presented, that Minister shall cause a copy of the report to be laid before the Legislative Assembly within 15 sitting days after the day on which he or she receives the report.

Interpretation Act 1967

- (4) Where this or any other Act requires a person to furnish a periodic report to a Minister within a specified period and that person is of the opinion that it will not be reasonably practicable to comply with the requirement, that person may, within the specified period, apply to the Minister for an extension of the period and, if he or she does so apply, he or she shall furnish to the Minister a statement in writing explaining why, in his or her opinion, it will not be reasonably practicable to comply with the requirement.
- (5) On such an application, a Minister may grant such extension as he or she considers reasonable in the circumstances.
- (6) Where a Minister grants such an extension—
- (a) the Minister shall cause to be laid before the Legislative Assembly, within 3 sitting days after the day on which he or she grants the extension, a copy of the statement furnished under subsection (4) in respect of the relevant application together with a statement specifying the extension granted and his or her reasons for granting the extension; and
 - (b) notwithstanding subsection (2) and any other Act, the person who made the application shall furnish the periodic report to the Minister within the extended period; and
 - (c) the Minister shall cause a copy of the report to be laid before the Legislative Assembly within 15 sitting days after the day on which he or she receives the report.
- (7) Where this or any other Act requires a person to furnish a periodic report to a Minister within a specified period or a period as extended under subsection (5) and that person fails to do so—
- (a) that person shall, within 14 days after the end of that specified period or extended period, as the case may be, furnish to the Minister a statement in writing explaining why the report was not furnished as required; and
 - (b) the Minister shall cause a copy of the statement to be laid before the Legislative Assembly within 3 sitting days after the day on which he or she receives the statement.

31 Power to make rules of court

The power of an authority to make rules of court in relation to a court shall be deemed to include a power to make rules of court for the purpose of any Act that directs or authorises anything to be done, in relation to that court, by rules of court.

31AA Provisions relating to bodies

- (1) If an Act authorises or requires a body to exercise a function or power, it may do so by resolution.
- (2) If an Act authorises or requires a signature by a person and the person is a body, the signature of a person authorised by the body for the purpose is taken to be the signature of the body.
- (3) If an Act gives a function or power to a body, the exercise of the function or power is not affected merely because of vacancies in the body's membership.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3), if a body does something in exercise of a function or power under an Act and the membership of the body changes, the thing done by the body continues in force but may be ended or changed by the body as constituted for the time being.

Division 4—Legal proceedings, offences and penalties

31A Jurisdiction of courts

Where a provision of an Act, whether expressly or by implication, authorises a civil or criminal proceeding to be instituted in a particular court of the Territory in relation to a matter—

- (a) that provision shall be—
 - (i) deemed to vest that court with jurisdiction in that matter; and
 - (ii) construed as providing that the jurisdiction is vested so far only as the Commonwealth Constitution permits; and
- (b) except so far as the contrary intention appears, the jurisdiction so vested is not limited by any limits to which any other jurisdiction of the court may be subject.

32 Corporation liable to, and may sue for, penalties

- (1) A provision of an Act relating to offences punishable on indictment or summary conviction shall be deemed to refer to corporations as well as to individuals, but where the penalty prescribed in respect of an offence is a period of imprisonment only, the court before which the offence is tried

may, if it thinks fit, in the case of a corporation, impose a pecuniary penalty not exceeding—

- (a) where the period of imprisonment does not exceed 6 months—50 penalty units; and
- (b) where the period of imprisonment exceeds 6 months but does not exceed 1 year—100 penalty units; and
- (c) where the period of imprisonment exceeds 1 year but does not exceed 2 years—200 penalty units; and
- (d) where the period of imprisonment exceeds 2 years but does not exceed 5 years—500 penalty units; and
- (e) where the period of imprisonment exceeds 5 years—1,000 penalty units.

(2) Where, under an Act, a forfeiture or penalty is payable to a party aggrieved, it is payable, where a corporation is the party aggrieved, to that corporation.

33 Penalties at foot of sections or subsections

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the penalty, pecuniary or other, set out—
- (a) at the foot of a section of an Act; or
 - (b) at the foot of a subsection of a section of an Act, but not at the foot of the section;

indicates that a contravention of the section or the subsection, respectively, whether by act or omission, is an offence against the Act, punishable upon conviction by a penalty not exceeding the penalty so set out.

(2) Where a penalty set out at the foot of a section, or subsection of a section, of an Act is expressed to apply to a part only of the section or subsection, it applies to that part only.

33AA Meaning of penalty unit etc

In an Act, if a penalty for an offence is expressed as a number (whether whole or fractional) of penalty units—

- (a) the penalty is a fine of that number of penalty units; and
- (b) the value of the penalty unit for the offence is—
 - (i) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
 - (ii) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

Example

Interpretation Act 1967

‘Maximum penalty: 10 penalty units.’ means that a person who is convicted of the relevant offence is liable to a maximum fine of 10 penalty units. If the person is an individual, the maximum fine is, therefore, $1,000 ($100x10). If the person is a corporation, the maximum fine is, therefore, $5,000 ($500x10).

Note Section 63 is a transitional provision applying to Acts and republications that predate this section.

33A Effect of alterations in penalties

(1) Where an Act increases the penalty or maximum penalty for an offence, the penalty or maximum penalty as increased applies only to offences committed after the commencement of the provision of the Act increasing the penalty or maximum penalty.

(2) Where an Act reduces the penalty or maximum penalty for an offence, the penalty or maximum penalty as reduced extends to offences committed before the commencement of the provision of the Act reducing the penalty or maximum penalty, but the reduction does not affect any penalty imposed before that commencement.

33B Continuing offences

(1) Where, under a provision of an Act, an act or thing is required to be done within a particular period or before a particular time, the obligation to do that act or thing continues, notwithstanding that that period has expired or that time has passed, until that act or thing is done.

(2) Where a refusal or failure to comply with a requirement referred to in subsection (1) is an offence under an Act, a person is guilty of an offence in respect of each day during which the person refuses or fails to comply with that requirement, including the day of a conviction for any such offence or any later day.

33C Joinder of charges

(1) Charges against the same person for any number of offences under the same provision of an Act may be joined in the same information or summons if those charges are founded on the same facts or form, or are part of, a series of offences of the same or a similar character.

(2) If a person is convicted of 2 or more offences referred to in subsection (1), being offences related to doing or failing to do the same act or thing, the court may impose 1 penalty in respect of both or all those offences, but that penalty shall not exceed the sum of the maximum penalties that could be imposed if a separate penalty were imposed in respect of each offence.

33D Indictable offences

An offence under any Act that is punishable by imprisonment for a period exceeding 1 year is an indictable offence.

33E Offences punishable on summary conviction

An offence under any Act that—

- (a) is punishable by imprisonment for a period not exceeding 1 year; or
- (b) not being punishable by imprisonment, is not declared to be an indictable offence;

is punishable on summary conviction.

33F Offences under 2 or more laws

(1) Where an act or omission constitutes an offence under each of 2 or more laws of the Territory, the offender is liable to be prosecuted and convicted under either or any of those laws but is not liable to be punished more than once in respect of that act or omission.

(2) Where an act or omission constitutes an offence under both—

- (a) a law of the Territory and a law of the Commonwealth; or
- (b) a law of the Territory and a law of a State; and the offender has been punished for the offence under the law of the Commonwealth or the law of the State, as the case may be, the offender is not liable to be punished for the offence under the law of the Territory.

33G Application of certain sections of Commonwealth Crimes Act to Territory Acts

The provisions of sections 13, 14, 15, 17, 19A, 21, 21B and 21C of the Crimes Act 1914 (Cwlth) shall, so far as they are applicable, apply in relation to all Acts as if an Act were a law of the Commonwealth.

34 Civil proceedings

Where moneys are due under an Act, the moneys are recoverable in a court having, in the Territory, civil jurisdiction to the extent of the amount due.

Division 5—Distance and Time

35 Measurement of distance

In the measurement of any distance for the purpose of an Act, that distance shall be measured in a straight line on a horizontal plane.

36 Reckoning of time

(1) Where, in an Act, a period of time, dating from a given day, act or event, is prescribed or allowed for any purpose, the time shall be reckoned exclusive of that day or of the day of that act or event.

(2) Where the last day of a period prescribed or allowed by an Act for the doing of anything falls on a Saturday, on a Sunday or on a day that is a public holiday in the place in which the thing is to be or may be done, the thing may be done on the first day following that is not a Saturday, a Sunday or a public holiday in that place.

Division 6—Repeal, expiry, amendment and modification of Acts

37 Definitions for div 6

In this Division—

Act includes a provision of an Act.

amend includes modify.

repeal includes expiry.

38 When repeal or expiry takes effect

If an Act is repealed or expires on a day, the Act continues in force until the end of the day and the repeal or expiry takes effect at midnight on the day.

39 Repealed and amended Acts not revived on repeal of repealing and amending Acts

(1) If an Act (the first Act) is repealed by another Act (the other Act), the first Act is not revived merely because the other Act is repealed.

Examples

- 1 Act A repeals Act B. Act A is repealed. The repeal of Act A does not revive Act B.
- 2 Act A repeals Act B. Act A is automatically repealed under section 43 of this Act. The repeal of Act A does not revive Act B.

Interpretation Act 1967

(2) If an Act (the first Act) is amended by another Act (the other Act), the continuing operation of the amendments made by the other Act is not affected merely because the other Act is repealed and, in particular, the first Act is not revived in the form in which it was in before the amendments took effect merely because of the repeal.

Examples

- 1 Act A amends Act B. Act A is repealed after it has commenced by a later Act C. The amendments made by Act A continue to operate, even though Act A has been repealed.
- 2 Act A amends Act B. Act A is automatically repealed under section 43 of this Act. The amendments made by Act A continue to operate, even though Act A has been repealed.

(3) This section is in addition to, and does not limit, any other provision of this Division or any provision of the Act by which the repeal is made.

40 Commencement not undone if omitted

If a provision of an Act provides for the commencement of the Act and the Act has commenced, the later omission of the provision does not affect the continuing operation of the Act.

41 Saving of operation of repealed Acts etc

- (1) The repeal or amendment of an Act does not—
- (a) revive anything not in force or existing when the repeal or amendment takes effect; or
 - (b) affect the previous operation of the Act or anything done, begun or suffered under the Act; or
 - (c) affect a right, privilege or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the Act; or
 - (d) affect a penalty or forfeiture incurred for an offence against the Act; or
 - (e) affect an investigation, proceeding or remedy in relation to a right, privilege, liability, penalty or forfeiture mentioned in paragraph (c) or (d).
- (2) The investigation, proceeding or remedy may be begun, continued or completed, and the right, privilege, liability or forfeiture may be enforced and the penalty imposed, as if the repeal or amendment had not happened.

Interpretation Act 1967

(3) Without limiting subsections (1) and (2), the repeal or amendment of an Act does not affect—

- (a) the proof of anything that has happened; or
- (b) any right, privilege or liability saved by the Act; or
- (c) any repeal or amendment made by the Act; or
- (d) any transitional or validating effect of the Act.

(4) This section is in addition to, and does not limit, any other provision of this Division or any provision of the Act by which the repeal or amendment is made.

42 Repeal does not end transitional or validating effect etc

(1) If an Act—

- (a) declares something for a transitional purpose (whether or not the Act is expressed to be made for that purpose); or
- (b) validates something that is or may otherwise be invalid; or
- (c) declares something for a purpose that is consequential on a declaration mentioned in paragraph (a) or a validation mentioned in paragraph (b) (whether or not the Act is expressed to be made for a purpose of that kind);

the declaratory or validating effect of the Act does not end merely because of the repeal of the Act.

Example of paragraph (a)

A provision stating that an existing licence under a repealed Act is taken to be a licence of a particular kind under another Act and authorising the imposition of conditions under the other Act.

Example of paragraph (b)

A provision declaring an instrument to have been validly made and acts done in reliance on the instrument to have been validly done.

Example of paragraph (c)

A provision stating that an instrument that is declared valid is taken to have been amended in a particular way.

(2) If an Act (the savings law) declares an Act (the declared law) to be an Act to which this section applies—

- (a) the effect of the declared law does not end merely because of its repeal; and

Interpretation Act 1967

- (b) the effect of the savings law does not end merely because of its repeal.
- (3) A declaration may be made for subsection (2) about an Act whether or not the Act is a law to which subsection (1) applies.
- (4) A declaration made for subsection (2) about an Act does not imply that, in the absence of a declaration about it, another Act is not a law to which this section applies.
- (5) This section is in addition to, and does not limit, any other provision of this Division or any provision of the Act by which the repeal is made.

43 Automatic repeal of amending Acts

- (1) An amending Act enacted after 1 January 2000 is automatically repealed on the day after all of its provisions have commenced.
- (2) A repeal under subsection (1) has effect for all purposes, including, for example, any other provisions of this Act about repeals.
- (3) This section is in addition to, and does not limit the operation of any other provision of this Division.
- (4) In this section—

amending Act means an Act that consists only of provisions of the following kinds:

- (a) the Act's long title;
- (b) the Act's preamble (if any);
- (c) a provision about the Act's name;
- (d) a provision about the Act's commencement;
- (e) a provision about the purposes of the Act or any of its provisions;
- (f) a provision providing for the amendment or repeal of an Act or instrument (including a provision identifying the amended or repealed Act or instrument);
- (g) a provision declaring an Act to be an Act to which section 42 applies;
- (h) a provision about the renumbering of an Act or instrument;

Interpretation Act 1967

- (i) a provision authorising or requiring something to be done under the Legislation (Republication) Act 1996.

Example 1

The Hypothetical Amending Act 2000 repeals and amends a number of Acts. The Act contains the following provisions:

- a long title
- a provision about the Act's name
- a provision about the Act's commencement
- repealing provisions (that is, a provision stating that the Act repeals the Acts mentioned in Schedule 1 and a schedule (Schedule 1) setting out the names of the repealed Acts)
- amending provisions (that is, a provision stating that the Act amends the Acts mentioned in Schedule 2 and a schedule (Schedule 2) setting out the amended Acts and the amendments made to them)
- a provision about the application of section 42 of this Act to a provision being repealed
- a provision requiring an amended Act (the XYZ Act 1990) to be renumbered under the Legislation (Republication) Act 1996 in the next republication of the XYZ Act 1990.

The Act contains no other provisions. Its repealing provisions, and its other provisions apart from the amending provisions, commence on the date of notification, 21 March 2000. Its amending provisions commence on a date fixed by the Minister by notice in the Gazette, 12 April 2000. Under subsection (1), the Hypothetical Amending Act 2000 is automatically repealed on 13 April 2000.

Example 2

The Example Act 2000 contains provisions establishing a new licensing scheme. It also amends several Acts and repeals others. Because it contains the scheme provisions, it is not an amending Act covered by subsection (1).

44 Act and amending Acts to be read as one

An Act and all Acts amending it are to be read as one.

45 Insertion of definitions by amending Act

If an Act amends a provision of another Act by inserting a definition that is to form part of a series of definitions, and does not specify where it is to be inserted in the provision, the definition is to be inserted in the appropriate alphabetical position decided on a letter-by-letter basis.

46 Amendment to be made wherever possible

If an Act amends another Act—

Interpretation Act 1967

- (a) by omitting a word; or
- (b) by substituting a word for another word; or
- (c) by inserting a word before or after a particular word;

the amendment is to be made wherever possible in the other Act.

47 Continuance of appointments etc made under amended provisions

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) an Act expressly or impliedly authorises or requires—
 - (i) the making of an appointment or statutory instrument; or
 - (ii) the delegation of a power or function; or
 - (iii) the doing of anything else; and
- (b) the Act is amended by another Act; and
- (c) under the amended Act—
 - (i) the appointment or statutory instrument may be made; or
 - (ii) the power or function may be delegated; or
 - (iii) the thing may be done.

(2) An appointment, statutory instrument, delegation or other thing mentioned in subsection (1) that was in force immediately before the commencement of the amendment continues to have effect after the commencement as if it had been made or done under the amended Act.

(3) In this section—

amend includes omit and re-enact in the same Act (with or without changes), but does not include omit and re-enact in another Act.

48 Status of modifications

(1) In this section—

law means an Act or subordinate law.

(2) If a law is modified by another law, the law operates as modified but the modification does not amend the text of the law.

49 Relocated provisions

(1) This section applies if a provision of an Act is relocated (with or without changes) to a different place in the same Act or to a different Act.

Interpretation Act 1967

- (2) The operation or meaning of the provision is not affected merely because of the provision's relocation.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), if before its relocation the provision was to be interpreted in a particular way, it is to be so interpreted in its new location.

Example

If a provision of an Act is to be interpreted as if it were an Act consolidating the provisions of another law or laws and it is relocated into another Act, it is to be interpreted in the same way in its new location.

- (4) However, the provision has effect subject to any changes made to it.

Division 7—References to Acts

50 References to Acts generally

- (1) Every Act may be referred to by the word Act alone.

Example

A former New South Wales Act that applies in the ACT may be referred to using its NSW short title, eg 'Truck Act 1900'. In other words, it is not necessary to add words such as 'of the State of New South Wales in its application in the Territory'.

- (2) In an Act, a reference to an Act includes a reference to the Act that contains the reference.

51 Citation of particular Acts

- (1) An Act may be cited—
- (a) by its short title or other name; or
 - (b) by reference to the year when it was enacted and its number.
- (2) A Commonwealth Act may be cited—
- (a) by its short title or other name; or
 - (b) in another way sufficient in a Commonwealth Act for the citation of a Commonwealth Act;

together with a reference to the Commonwealth (or an abbreviation of the Commonwealth).

- (3) An Act or ordinance of a State or another Territory may be cited—
- (a) by its short title or other name; or

Interpretation Act 1967

- (b) in another way sufficient in an Act or ordinance of the State or other Territory for the citation of such an Act or ordinance;

together with (unless it is a continued NSW Act) a reference to the State or other Territory (or an abbreviation of it).

(4) A UK Act may be cited—

- (a) by its short title or other name; or
- (b) in another way sufficient in a UK Act for the citation of a UK Act;

together with (unless it is a continued UK Act) a reference to the United Kingdom (or an abbreviation of the United Kingdom).

52 Citation of statutory instruments

(1) A statutory instrument may be cited—

- (a) by its citation or other name; or
- (b) by reference to—
 - (i) for an instrument that has been published or notified in the Gazette—the number, date and page or pages of the Gazette in which it was published or notified; or
 - (ii) for any other instrument—the date when it was made, together with a reference to the Act or statutory instrument under which it was made.

(2) An instrument made under a Commonwealth Act, or under an instrument made under a Commonwealth Act, may be cited—

- (a) by its citation or other name; or
- (b) in another way sufficient in a Commonwealth Act for the citation of such an instrument;

together with a reference to the Commonwealth (or an abbreviation of the Commonwealth).

(3) An instrument made under an Act or ordinance of a State or another Territory, or under an instrument made under such an Act or ordinance, may be cited—

- (a) by its citation or other name; or
- (b) in another way sufficient in an Act or ordinance of the State or other Territory for the citation of such an instrument;

Interpretation Act 1967

together with (unless it is a New South Wales instrument applying in the Territory) a reference to the State or other Territory (or an abbreviation of it).

(4) An instrument made under a UK Act, or under an instrument made under a UK Act, may be cited—

- (a) by its citation or other name; or
- (b) in another way sufficient in a UK Act for the citation of such an instrument;

together with (unless it is a UK instrument applying in the Territory) a reference to the United Kingdom (or an abbreviation of the United Kingdom).

53 References to provisions of laws

(1) A provision of a law or instrument may, if appropriate, be cited by reference to the provision of the law or instrument in which it is contained.

Example

Paragraph (b) in subsection (2) of section 10 of an Act may be cited by reference to the section and subsection, that is, as paragraph 10 (2) (b).

(2) In this section—

instrument means an instrument (other than a law) made under a law.

law means—

- (a) an Act or subordinate law; or
- (b) a law of the Commonwealth, a State or another Territory.

54 References taken to be included in citation of a law or instrument

(1) In an Act, a reference to a law (including the Act) or instrument includes a reference to the following:

- (a) the law or instrument as originally made, and as amended from time to time since it was originally made;
- (b) if the law or instrument has been repealed and remade (with or without change) since the reference was made—the law or instrument as remade, and as amended from time to time since it was remade;
- (c) if a relevant provision of the law or instrument has been omitted and remade (with or without change) in another law or instrument

since the reference was made—the other law or instrument as in force when the provision was remade, and as amended from time to time since the provision was remade.

(2) In an Act or instrument, a reference to a provision of a law (including the Act) or of an instrument (including the instrument) includes a reference to the following:

- (a) the provision as originally made, and as amended from time to time since it was originally made;
- (b) if the provision has been omitted and remade (with or without change and whether in the law or instrument or another law or instrument) since the reference was made—the provision as remade, and as amended from time to time since it was remade.

(3) In this section—

instrument means an instrument (other than a law) made under a law.

law means—

- (a) an Act or subordinate law; or
- (b) a law of the Commonwealth, a State or another Territory.

make includes enact.

55 References to changed short titles, citations and other names

(1) If the short title, citation or other name of an Act or instrument is changed, a reference in an Act to the name includes a reference to the name as amended.

(2) In this section—

instrument means an instrument (other than a law) made under a law.

law means—

- (a) an Act or subordinate law; or
- (b) a law of the Commonwealth, a State or another Territory.

PART 4—FORMER NSW ACTS

56 Interpretation of former NSW Acts

The purpose of this Part is to assist in the interpretation of former NSW Acts.

57 Certain references in former NSW Acts

A reference in a former NSW Act to something in column 2 of the following table is a reference to the person or thing set out opposite in column 3 of the table.

Table of references

column 1 item	column 2 reference in former NSW Act	column 3 meaning of reference
1	Act	NSW Act
2	Government Printer (in relation to instruments and documents printed before 1 January 1911)	Government Printer of New South Wales
3	Government Gazette	Gazette
4	British subject	an Australian citizen, or any other person who would, if Part 2 of the Australian Citizenship Act 1948 (Cwlth) (and the regulations made under that Act for the Part) had continued in force after 30 April 1987, have been a person who has the status of a British subject under that Part
5	Deputy Commissioner of Police	chief police officer
6	officer of police or member of a police force	police officer
7	member of a police force holding a stated rank that does not exist as a rank in the Australian Federal Police	police officer holding a rank that is declared by regulations under the Australian Federal Police Act 1979 (Cwlth) to be the equivalent of the stated rank
8	Registrar of Titles	the registrar-general in the exercise of functions or powers under the Land Titles Act 1925 or the Registration of Deeds Act 1957

PART 5—FORMER UK ACTS

58 Interpretation of former UK Acts

- (1) The purpose of this Part is to assist in the interpretation of former UK Acts.
- (2) Except as provided in sections 60 and 61, Schedule 2 applies to all former UK Acts according to its terms.
- (3) If a provision of Schedule 2 is inconsistent with another provision of this Act (except section 3), the provision of Schedule 2 prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3), if a provision of Schedule 2 dealing with a matter does not apply to all former UK Acts and another provision of this Act also deals with the matter (whether or not in the same way), then, for that subsection, the provision of Schedule 2 is taken to be intended to deal exclusively with the matter.

Example

Clause 12 of the Schedule, which deals with the measurement of distance, applies only to former UK Acts passed after 1889. Section 35 makes similar provision for measurement of distance for all Acts. Section 35 does not apply to former UK Acts passed during or before 1889.

59 Provisions applying to all former UK Acts

If the words ‘all former UK Acts’ are set out at the end of a provision of Schedule 2, the provision applies to all former UK Acts.

60 Provisions applying to former UK Acts passed after a stated year or date

If a year or a date is set out at the end of a provision of Schedule 2, the provision applies to former UK Acts passed after the year, or on or after the date.

61 Stated provisions applying to former UK Acts

- (1) If a reference to subsection (2), (3) or (4) is set out at the end of a provision of Schedule 2, the provision applies to former UK Acts as set out in the subsection.
- (2) Clause 10 of Schedule 2 applies—

Interpretation Act 1967

- (a) to former UK Acts passed before 1851 only in relation to offences punishable on indictment or summary conviction; and
 - (b) to former UK Acts passed after 1850.
- (3) Clause 13 of Schedule 2 applies to all former UK Acts, but only so far as they relate to subordinate legislation made after 1889.
- (4) Clause 15 of Schedule 2 applies to all former UK Acts passed after 1889 so far as they relate to rules, regulations and by-laws.

62 Words at end of provision of Schedule 2 do not form part of the provision

The words ‘all former UK Acts’, a year, date or reference to a subsection of section 61 set out at the end of a provision of Schedule 2 is set out for the application of this Part and does not form part of the provision.

PART 6—TRANSITIONAL

63 Transitional provisions about penalties

- (1) This section applies only to—
- (a) an Act (other than a republication of the Act) notified in the Gazette before the commencement day; or
 - (b) a republication of an Act republished as in force on a date (however expressed) before the commencement day.
- (2) In an Act, if a penalty for an offence is expressed to apply to a body corporate or corporation—
- (a) the penalty applies to any corporation; and
 - (b) the value of a penalty unit for the offence is $100, even though the person charged is a body corporate or another corporation.
- (3) If a provision of an Act authorises the regulations under the Act to prescribe offences and expressly limits the penalty (or maximum penalty) that may be prescribed for such an offence when committed by a body corporate or corporation—
- (a) such a penalty may be prescribed for such an offence when committed by any corporation; and
 - (b) a penalty prescribed under the regulations that would, apart from this subsection, apply only to a body corporate applies to any corporation; and
 - (c) the value of a penalty unit for the offence is $100, whether the person charged is an individual or a body corporate or another corporation.
- (4) Paragraph 33AA (b) is subject to this section.
- (5) In this section—

commencement day means the day when this section commences.

republication, of an Act, means a republication of an Act to which the Legislation (Republication) Act 1996 applies.

64 References to Standards Association of Australia

In an Act, a reference to the Standards Association of Australia is, in relation to anything done or to be done on or after 1 July 1999, a reference to Standards Australia.

65 Certain NSW and UK Acts taken to be Acts of the Legislative Assembly

- (1) An Act mentioned in column 2 of Schedule 1, to the extent that the Act was in force in the Territory immediately before the commencement of this section, is taken to be, for all purposes, a law made by the Legislative Assembly as if it had been enacted by the Assembly.
- (2) To remove any doubt, the provisions in a Part in Schedule 2 to the Imperial Acts (Substituted Provisions) Act 1986, to the extent that those provisions were in force in the Territory immediately before the commencement of this section and are located to another Act by the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1999, are taken to be, for all purposes, a law made by the Legislative Assembly as if it had been enacted by the Assembly.
- (3) This section is a provision to which section 42 of this Act applies.
- (4) This section expires 1 year after it commences.

SCHEDULE 2

(See pt 5)

RULES FOR INTERPRETING FORMER UK ACTS

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Meaning of subordinate legislation in sch 2

In this Schedule—

subordinate legislation means orders in council, orders, rules, regulations, schemes, warrants, by-laws and other instruments made under an Act.

2 References to an Act in sch 2

In a provision of this Schedule, a reference to an Act is a reference to an Act to which the provision applies, but this clause does not apply to references to enactments or to other Acts mentioned in subclause 19 (2).

PART 2—GENERAL PROVISIONS ABOUT ENACTMENT AND OPERATION

3 Words of enactment

Every section of a former UK Act takes effect as a substantive enactment without introductory words. (1850)

4 Judicial notice

Every former UK Act is a public Act to be judicially noticed as such. (all former UK Acts)

5 Time of commencement

A former UK Act, or provision of a former UK Act, is taken to have come into force—

- (a) if provision was made for it to come into force on a particular day—at the beginning of the day; or (1889)
- (b) if no provision was made for its coming into force—at the beginning of the day the Act received the royal assent. (1889)

Interpretation Act 1967

SCHEDULE 2—continued
PART 3—INTERPRETATION

6 Definitions

(1) In a former UK Act—

Bank of England means, as the context requires, the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or the bank of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England. (all former UK Acts)

British Islands means—

- (a) in a former UK Act passed after the year 1889 and before the establishment of the Irish Free State—the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man; and
- (b) in a former UK Act passed after the establishment of the Irish Free State—the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man and the Republic of Ireland.

British possession means any part of the dominions of the Crown outside the United Kingdom. (1889)

British subject means—

- (a) an Australian citizen; or
- (b) any other person who because of his or her citizenship of another country would, if Part 2 of the Australian Citizenship Act 1948 (Cwlth) (and the regulations made under that Act for the Part) had continued in force after 30 April 1987, have been a person who has the status of a British subject under that Part. (all former UK Acts)

colonial legislature and legislature, of a British possession, mean the authority, other than the United Kingdom Parliament or the Crown in Council, competent to make laws for the possession. (1889)

colony means any part of the dominions of the Crown outside the British Islands and, in a former UK Act passed in or after 1889 (the first Act), includes any part of those dominions that has, after the passing of the first Act, ceased, under a provision of a later UK Act, to be a colony, but only in the application of the first Act

before the commencement of the provision of the later Act, but does not include—

- (a) countries having fully responsible status within the Commonwealth of Nations; and
- (b) associated states. (1889)

commencement, for a former UK Act or enactment of such an Act, means the time when the Act or enactment comes into force. (all former UK Acts)

Commonwealth citizen means a person other than a British subject who would, if Part 2 the Australian Citizenship Act 1948 (Cwlth) (and regulations made under that Act for the Part) had continued in force after 30 April 1987, have been a person who has the status of a British subject under that Part. (all former UK Acts)

Comptroller and Auditor-General means the Comptroller-General of the receipt and issue of the Crown's Exchequer and Auditor-General of Public Accounts appointed under the Imperial Exchequer and Audit Departments Act 1866 (UK). (all former UK Acts) consular officer has the same meaning as in article 1 of the Vienna Convention set out in the Schedule to the Consular Privileges and Immunities Act 1972 (Cwlth). (all former UK Acts)

Governor-General, of a British possession, includes any person who for the time being has the powers of the Governor-General of the possession. (1889)

Governor, of a British possession, includes the officer for the time being administering the government of the possession. (1889)

- (b) in relation to a provision of a former UK Act passed in or after 1889—a body.

Privy Council means the Lords and others of the Crown’s Most Honourable Privy Council. (all former UK Acts) rules of court, in relation to a court, means rules made by the authority having power to make rules or orders regulating the practice and procedure of the court. (1889)

Secretary of State means a Principal Secretary of State of the Crown. (all former UK Acts)

statutory declaration includes a declaration made under a law of a State, Territory or foreign country that authorises a declaration to be made otherwise than in the course of a legal proceeding. (all former UK Acts)

United Kingdom means Great Britain and Northern Ireland. (12 April 1927)

7 References to courts

In a former UK Act, a reference to any court other than a court of summary jurisdiction is a reference to the Supreme Court. (all former UK Acts)

8 Dominions under central and local legislature

For the definitions of British possession and colony in clause 6, if any part of the dominions of the Crown outside the United Kingdom are under both a central and local legislature, all parts under the central legislature are taken to be a single British possession or colony, as the case requires. (1889)

9 Power to make rules of court

(1) The power to make rules of court includes power to make rules of court for any former UK Act that authorises or requires anything to be done by rules of court. (all former UK Acts)

Interpretation Act 1967

(2) In this clause—

rules of court—see clause 6. (all former UK Acts)

10 Gender and number

In a former UK Act—

- (a) words importing the masculine gender include the feminine; and
- (b) words importing the feminine gender include the masculine; and
- (c) words in the singular include the plural and words in the plural include the singular. (subsection 61 (2))

11 References to service by post

If a former UK Act authorises or requires a document to be served by post (whether the expression ‘serve’, ‘give’ or ‘send’ or any other expression is used), the service is taken to be made by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the document and, unless the contrary is proved, to have been made when the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post. (1889)

12 References to distance

In the measurement of any distance for a former UK Act, the distance is to be measured in a straight line on a horizontal plane. (1889)

13 Interpretation of subordinate legislation

If a former UK Act gives power to make subordinate legislation, expressions in subordinate legislation made under the Act have the meaning that they have in the Act. (subsection 61 (3))

PART 4—STATUTORY FUNCTIONS AND POWERS

14 Continuity of functions and powers

(1) If a former UK Act gives a function or power to an entity, the function or power may be exercised, from time to time. (1889)

(2) If a former UK Act gives a function or power to the occupant of a position, the function or power may be exercised by the person for the time being occupying the position.

Interpretation Act 1967

15 Implied power to amend

If a former UK Act gives power to make—

- (a) rules, regulations or by-laws; or
- (b) orders in council, orders or other subordinate legislation to be made by statutory instrument;

the power includes a power, exercisable in the same way and subject to the same conditions or limitations, to revoke, amend or re-enact any instrument made under the power. (subsection 61 (4))

PART 5—REPEALING ENACTMENTS

16 Repeal of repeal

If a former UK Act repeals a repealing enactment, the repeal does not revive any enactment previously repealed unless words are added reviving it. (1850)

17 General savings

(1) Without limiting clause 16, if a former UK Act repeals an enactment, the repeal does not—

- (a) revive anything not in force or existing when the repeal takes effect; or
- (b) affect the previous operation of the enactment repealed or anything done or suffered under the enactment; or
- (c) affect any right, privilege or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the enactment; or
- (d) affect any penalty or forfeiture incurred in relation to any offence committed against the enactment; or
- (e) affect any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in relation to that right, privilege, liability, penalty or forfeiture. (1889)

(2) The investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be begun, continued or enforced, and any such penalty or forfeiture may be imposed, as if the repealing Act had not been passed. (1889)

Interpretation Act 1967

18 Repeal and re-enactment

- (1) If a former UK Act repeals a previous enactment and substitutes provisions for the enactment repealed, the repealed enactment remains in force until the substituted provisions come into force. (1850)
- (2) If a former UK Act repeals and re-enacts, with or without change, a previous enactment—
- (a) any reference in any other enactment to the enactment so repealed is a reference to the enactment re-enacted; and (1889)
 - (b) so far as any subordinate legislation made or anything else done under the repealed enactment could have been made or done under the enactment re-enacted, it has effect as if made or done under that enactment. (all former UK Acts)

PART 6—MISCELLANEOUS

19 Citation of other UK Acts

- (1) If a former UK Act cites another UK Act by year, statute, session or chapter, or a provision of another UK Act by number or letter, the reference is a reference—
- (a) for Acts included in any revised edition of the UK statutes printed by authority—to that edition; and
 - (b) for Acts not so included but included in the edition prepared under the direction of the Record Commission—to that edition; and
 - (c) in any other case—to the Acts printed by the Printer to the Crown, or under the superintendence or authority of the Crown's Stationary Office. (1889)
- (2) A former UK Act may continue to be cited by the short title authorised by any enactment despite the repeal of the enactment. (all former UK Acts)

20 References to other enactments

- (1) If a former UK Act describes or cites a provision of an enactment by referring to words, sections or other parts from or to which (or from and to which) the provision extends, the provision described or cited includes the words, sections or other parts referred to. (1889)

(2) If a former UK Act refers to an enactment, the reference is a reference to the enactment as amended, and includes a reference to that enactment as extended or applied under any other enactment, including any other provision of that Act. (1889)

(3) However, if a former UK Act refers to another UK Act, the reference is a reference to the other Act as for the time being amended and in force in the Territory. (all former UK Acts)

21 Application to other instruments

Paragraph 5 (a), the definition of United Kingdom in clause 6, and clause 19, apply, so far as applicable, to subordinate legislation in force in the Territory under a former UK Act in the same way as they apply to former UK Acts. (all former UK Acts).
