About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Common Boundaries Act 1981 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 13 September 2002. It also includes any amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 13 September 2002.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

- (1) Where the court is satisfied that the making of an application for a determination, or for the variation of a determination, under this division was unreasonable, whether or not it makes the determination or variation, the court may make an order that the applicant pay to the other party to the application such sum in respect of the costs incurred by that party in connection with the application as the court thinks proper.
- (2) Where—
- (a) the court makes or varies a determination under this division; and
  - (b) the court is satisfied that the making of the application for the determination or for the variation of the determination, as the case may be, was occasioned by the unreasonable conduct of the party other than the applicant;

the court may make an order that that party pay to the applicant such sum in respect of the costs incurred by the applicant in connection with the application as the court thinks proper.

- (3) Where, on an application under section 11, the court determines that it is reasonable that a person be required to contribute to the cost of the erection of a fence, the court shall also determine—
  - (a) the amount that should be contributed; and
  - (b) the manner in which, and the time within which that amount should be paid to the applicant.
- (4) For the purposes of determining the amount that should be contributed under subsection (3) (a), the court shall adopt the principle that—
  - (a) in the case of an application under section 11 (1)—the amount should be an amount equal to  $\frac{1}{2}$  of the cost of erecting the fence referred to in section 11 (1) (a) or an amount equal to  $\frac{1}{2}$ of the amount that would have represented the cost of erecting that fence if that fence had been a basic fence, whichever is the less; and

- (b) in the case of an application under section 11 (2)—the amount should be a reasonable amount but, in any event, the amount should not exceed  $\frac{1}{2}$  of the cost of erecting the fence or  $\frac{1}{2}$  of the amount that would have represented the cost of erecting the fence if the fence had been a basic fence, whichever is the less.

15 Application may be heard together

- (1) Where the same person is a party to 2 or more applications to the court under the same section of this division, the court may, if it is satisfied that the circumstances so warrant, direct that the applications be dealt with together.
- (2) Where a direction is given under subsection (1), the court shall conduct 1 inquiry in respect of all of the applications to which the direction relates.

18 Service of documents

- (c) in any other case—by sending the document by post addressed to the occupier at his or her address last-known to the person sending the document or at the parcel of land.
- (2) Where 2 or more persons are the occupiers of a parcel of land, a document that has been served on 1 of those persons shall be deemed to have been served on both or all of those persons, as the case may be.

- (3) This section is to be read together with the Magistrates Court (Civil Jurisdiction) Act 1982, section 408 and division 22.8.

- (2) The court shall not give directions under this section in relation to the entry of persons upon land other than land—
- (a) occupied by a party to the application; or
  - (b) occupied by a sublessee, tenant, licensee or other person in possession from a party to the application;
- on which the directions were given.
- (3) Where a person has been given a direction under this section, he or she may, at all reasonable times, enter upon land in accordance with that direction for the purpose of undertaking such work as may be necessary for the erection, repair or replacement of a fence specified in that direction.

Division 2.2 Fences required by Minister

23 Boundary between leased and unleased land

3 Legislation history

This Act was originally a Commonwealth ordinance—the Dividing Fences Ordinance 1981 No 39 (Cwlth).

The Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth), s 34 (4) converted most former Commonwealth ordinances in force in the ACT into ACT enactments. This allowed the ACT Legislative Assembly to amend and repeal the laws. This Act was converted into an ACT enactment on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

As with most ordinances in force in the ACT, the name was changed from Ordinance to Act by the Self-Government (Citation of Laws) Act 1989 No 21, s 5 on 11 May 1989 (self-government day). It was later renamed by the Land (Planning and Environment) (Consequential Provisions) Act 1991 (see s 20).

Before 11 May 1989, ordinances commenced on notification day unless otherwise stated (see Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910 (Cwlth), s 12).

After 11 May 1989 and before 10 November 1999, Acts commenced on their notification day unless otherwise stated (see Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth) s 25).
