About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Victims of Crime (Financial Assistance) Act 1983 effective 21 December 2000 to 28 March 2001.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, part 3, division 2 authorised the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, s 14 and s 16). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

- (b) it would otherwise cease to be extremely serious.

12 No financial assistance for primary victims or responsible persons

(1) The court shall not award financial assistance to a primary victim or a person responsible for the maintenance of a primary victim—

(2) If the court is satisfied that the assisted person has paid the Territory an amount under Division 2 in respect of the relevant criminal conduct—

- (a) where the amount paid under Division 2 is equal to or greater than the amount of restitution under the provisional order—the court shall discharge the order; or
- (b) where the amount paid under Division 2 is less than the amount of restitution under the provisional order—if the provisional order is confirmed, the court shall vary the order to reduce the amount of restitution so that it is equal to the difference between the amount paid under Division 2 and the amount of the relevant final award.

57 Confirmation of provisional order—recovery proceedings in court

(1) If the defendant files a notice of objection to a provisional order for restitution within 28 days after notice of the provisional order was duly served on the defendant, the court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether the provisional order should be confirmed.

restitution so that it is equal to the difference between the amount paid under Division 2 and the amount of the relevant final award.

58 Arrangements for payment pursuant to order for restitution

63 Access to information about defendant's whereabouts

- (1) For the purposes of serving a provisional order for restitution on a defendant, or taking any action against the defendant to enforce an order for

- (2) The levy is in addition to, and does not form part of, any pecuniary penalty imposed in respect of the offence.

ENDNOTES

1 About this republication

This is a republication of the Victims of Crime (Financial Assistance) Act 1983 as in force on 21 December 2000. It includes all amendments made to the Act up to Act 2000 No 80.

Amending laws are annotated in the table of legislation and table of amendments.

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office currently prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws: authorised printed republications to which the Legislation (Republication) Act 1996 applies and unauthorised electronic republications. The status of a republication appears on its cover and is indicated by its republication number.

A republication number without a letter (eg 1, 2, 3 etc) indicates that the republication is an authorised printed republication. A number with a letter (eg 1A, 1B, 1C etc) indicates that the republication is an unauthorised electronic republication.

Section 13 of the Legislation (Republication) Act 1996 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel, in preparing a law for republication, to make textual amendments of a formal nature which the Parliamentary Counsel considers desirable in accordance with current legislative drafting practice. The amendments do not effect a substantive change in the law.

In preparing this republication, amendments have not been made under section 13.

Not all amendments made under section 13 are annotated in the table of amendments. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

2 About the republished Act

The Victims of Crime (Financial Assistance) Act 1983 was originally the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act 1983. It was renamed by the Victims of Crime (Financial Assistance) (Amendment) Act 1999 (see pt 2).
