- (b) the Chairperson believes on reasonable grounds that, if a summons were not issued for the production of the thing, that thing might be concealed, lost, mutilated, destroyed or disposed of.

(2) A search warrant shall authorise a police officer or an authorised person named in the warrant with such assistance, and by such force, as is necessary and reasonable—

(5) If, in the course of searching under a search warrant for a thing of a relevant kind—

- (c) give directions prohibiting or restricting the disclosure to some or all of the persons present at a hearing of evidence given before, or the contents of a document lodged with or received in evidence by, the Commission.

(4) In considering whether to give a direction under subsection (3), a Commission shall take as the basis of its consideration the principle that it is desirable that hearings be in public and that evidence given before, or the contents of documents lodged with or received in evidence by, the Commission should be made available to the public and to all persons present at the hearing, but shall pay due regard to any reasons given to the Commission why the hearing should be held in private or why publication or disclosure of the evidence or the matter contained in the document should be prohibited or restricted.

(c) the person to whom it is addressed.

(4) The person executing a warrant may, with such assistance, and by such force, as is necessary and reasonable, enter any premises for the purpose of executing the warrant.

Refusal to be sworn or give evidence

37. (1) A person appearing as a witness at a hearing before a Commission shall not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail—

Penalty: $50,000 or imprisonment for 5 years.

(3) If all the elements of an offence against subsection (2) other than the reason for the employer's action are proved, the onus of proving that the dismissal or prejudice was not because the employee appeared or was to appear as a witness or gave evidence is on the employer.
