Trade Measurement (Administration) Act 1991 No 57

Republication No 4

Effective: 1 November 2003 - 11 April 2007

Republication date: 1 November 2003

Last amendment made by A2003-47

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Trade Measurement (Administration) Act 1991 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 1 November 2003. It also includes any amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 1 November 2003.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

The value of a penalty unit for an offence against this republished law at the republication date is—

- (a) if the person charged is an individual—$100; or
- (b) if the person charged is a corporation—$500.

Trade Measurement (Administration) Act 1991

An Act relating to the administration of the Trade Measurement Act 1991, and for related matters

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Trade Measurement (Administration) Act 1991.

3 Definitions for Act

In this Act:

commissioner means the commissioner for fair trading.

inspector means a person appointed under section 7 (1).

Measurement Act means the Trade Measurement Act 1991.

trade measurement legislation means this Act or the Measurement Act.

Note 1 A definition applies except so far as the contrary intention appears (see Legislation Act 2001, s 155).

Note 2 A reference to an Act includes a reference to the statutory instruments made or in force under the Act, including regulations (see Legislation Act 2001, s 104).

4 Incorporation of Trade Measurement Act 1991

The Measurement Act is incorporated and shall be read as one with this Act.

Part 2 Administration

6 Administering and licensing authorities

For the Measurement Act, the commissioner is the administering authority and the licensing authority.

7 Inspectors

- (1) The commissioner may, in writing, appoint a public servant to be an inspector for the trade measurement legislation.
- (2) An inspector shall, subject to the trade measurement legislation, perform such duties as the commissioner directs.
- (3) The commissioner may exercise the powers and discharge the functions that, under the trade measurement legislation, may be exercised or discharged by an inspector.

8 Commissioner and inspectors may hold Commonwealth appointments

- (1) The commissioner may—
 - (a) with the approval of the chief executive, hold an appointment under the National Measurement Regulations 1999 (Cwlth); and
 - (b) exercise any function given to the holder of such an appointment.
- (2) An inspector may—
 - (a) with the approval of the commissioner, hold an appointment under the National Measurement Regulations 1999 (Cwlth); and
 - (b) exercise any function given to the holder of such an appointment.

8A Identity cards

- (1) The commissioner must issue an identity card to each inspector.
- (2) The identity card must state that the person is an inspector for this Act.
- (3) The identity card must also—
 - (a) include a recent photograph of the person; and
 - (b) state—
 - (i) the person's name; and
 - (ii) the date of issue of the card; and
 - (iii) a date of expiry for the card; and
 - (c) include anything else prescribed under the regulations.
- (4) A person who ceases to be an inspector must return his or her identity card to the commissioner as soon as practicable, but within 21 days, after ceasing to be an inspector.

Maximum penalty (subsection (4)): 1 penalty unit.

8B Power not to be exercised before identity card shown

An inspector may exercise a power under a Territory law in relation to a person only if the inspector first shows the person his or her identity card.

9 Consent to entry of premises

- (1) An inspector who seeks a person's consent to the entering of premises under the Measurement Act, section 60 (2) (a) shall inform the person that he or she may refuse to give the consent.
- (2) Where an inspector obtains the consent of a person to enter premises under the Measurement Act, section 60 (2) (a), the inspector shall ask the person to sign a written acknowledgment—

- (a) that the person has been informed that he or she may refuse to so consent; and
 - (b) that the person has consented; and
 - (c) of the day on which, and the time at which, the person consented.
- (3) Where it is material, in any proceedings, for a court to be satisfied that a person has consented to the entry of premises by an inspector under the Measurement Act, section 60 (2) (a) and an acknowledgment in accordance with subsection (2) signed by the person is not produced in evidence, it shall be presumed that the person did not consent, unless the contrary is established.

Part 3 Fees

12 Determination of fees

- (1) The Minister may, in writing, determine fees for the trade measurement legislation.

Note The Legislation Act 2001 contains provisions about the making of determinations and regulations relating to fees (see pt 6.3).

- (2) A determination under this section is a disallowable instrument.

Note A disallowable instrument must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act 2001.

Part 4 Proceedings

14 Limitation of time for commencing prosecutions

A prosecution for an offence against the Measurement Act, section 28 (1) or 32 (1) (a) shall not be commenced later than 1 year after the discovery by an inspector of the apparent commission of the alleged offence.

- (c) specify particular hours during which the entry is authorised or state that the entry is authorised at any time of the day or night; and
 - (d) include a description of the kind of things in relation to which the powers under the trade measurement legislation may be exercised; and
 - (e) specify a day, not being later than 1 month after the day of the issue of the warrant, on which the warrant ceases to have effect.
- (4) If, in the course of a search carried out under the authority of a warrant issued under this section—
- (a) an inspector finds anything that he or she believes on reasonable grounds to be connected with an offence specified in the warrant or any other offence under the trade measurement legislation; and
 - (b) the inspector believes on reasonable grounds that, in order to prevent the continuation, commission or repetition of the offence, it is necessary to exercise any of the powers that, under the trade measurement legislation, may be exercised by an inspector;

the warrant is to be taken to authorise the exercise of that power in relation to that thing.

16 Access to and return of seized records

- (1) Where a record or document is seized and retained under the Measurement Act, section 61 or 62 the inspector shall permit the person otherwise entitled to possession of it, or his or her agent, to inspect, make copies of or take extracts from the record or document.

- (2) The provisions of the Measurement Act, sections 64 (1) and (2) apply to a record seized and retained under section 61 or 62 of that Act as if such a record were an article.

17 Approved forms

- (1) The administering authority may, in writing, approve forms for the trade measurement legislation.
- (2) If the administering authority approves a form for a particular purpose, the approved form must be used for that purpose.
- (3) An approved form is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.

18 Regulation-making power

The Executive may make regulations for the trade measurement legislation.

Note Regulations must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act 2001.

Endnotes

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws and expiries are listed in the legislation history and the amendment history. These details are underlined. Uncommenced provisions and amendments are not included in the republished law but are set out in the last endnote.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.

If the republished law includes penalties, current information about penalty unit values appears on the republication inside front cover.
