A1991-62

Republication No 4B

Effective: 9 June 2000 – 11 September 2001

Republication date: 25 August 2017

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Guardianship and Management of Property Act 1991 effective 9 June 2000 to 11 September 2001.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, part 3, division 2 authorised the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, s 14 and s 16). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

Guardianship and Management of Property Act 1991

An Act to provide for guardianship, and management of the property, of certain persons and for related purposes

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Guardianship and Management of Property Act 1991.

3 Principles to be observed

(1) Where, because of a physical, mental, psychological or intellectual condition, a person—

Guardianship and Management of Property Act 1991

- (a) needs assistance or protection from abuse, exploitation or neglect; or a person who exercises a function or power under or in relation to this Act in relation to the firstmentioned person shall observe the principles set out in subsection (2).

(2) The principles to be observed in accordance with subsection (1) are the following:

PART 2—GUARDIANS AND MANAGERS

Division 1—Appointment and powers

7 Appointment and powers of guardians

- (1) If, on application, the tribunal is satisfied that—
- (a) a person who resides in the Territory is unable, because of a physical, mental, psychological or intellectual condition—
    - (i) to make reasonable judgments about matters relating to his or her health or welfare; or
    - (ii) to do anything necessary for his or her health or welfare; and
  - (b) as a result, the person's health or welfare is, or is likely to be, substantially at risk;

the tribunal may, by order, appoint a guardian for the person, with such powers as are necessary to ensure that the person's health or welfare are adequately protected.

- (2) The powers that may be conferred on a person's guardian include the following powers:

- (a) to decide where and with whom the person is to live;
- (b) to decide what education or training the person is to receive;
- (c) to decide whether the person is to be allowed to work;
- (d) if the person is to be allowed to work—to decide the nature of the work, the place of employment and the employer;
- (e) to give for the person a consent required for a medical procedure or other treatment (other than a prescribed medical procedure);
- (f) to institute or maintain legal proceedings for or in the name of the person.

- (3) The powers that may be conferred on a person's guardian do not include the power to chastise the person or the power to do any of the following things for the person:

- (a) vote in an election;
- (b) make a will or other testamentary instrument;
- (c) consent to the adoption of a child;

- (d) give a consent in relation to a marriage;
- (e) give for the person a consent required for a prescribed medical procedure.

(4) A guardianship order may be made for a person below the age of 18 years, but it does not take effect until the person attains that age.

(5) If the Supreme Court gives a direction under subsection 428J (2A) of the Crimes Act, the tribunal shall appoint a guardian for the accused with power to make an election mentioned in that subsection.

8 Appointment and powers of managers

(1) If, on application, the tribunal is satisfied that—

- (a) a person is, because of a physical, mental, psychological or intellectual condition, legally incompetent to enter into a transaction relating to the person's property; and
- (b) either—
  - (i) it is likely that the question whether the person should enter into the transaction will arise; or
  - (ii) it is in the person's interests to preserve the person's property by preventing a purported disposition of the property;

the tribunal may, by order, appoint a person to manage all or a specified part of the property, with such powers as are necessary to allow the manager to enter into the transaction for the person or to prevent the disposition.

(2) The powers that may be conferred on a manager of a person's property are those that the person would have if he or she were legally competent to exercise them.

(3) The tribunal shall not, under subsection (1), appoint a manager for property in the Territory of a person who resides outside the Territory unless—

- (a) it is satisfied that it is impracticable for a manager for the property to be appointed in the place where the person resides; or
- (b) an order appointing a manager for the property under the law of that place cannot be registered under section 12.

(4) A management order may be made for a person below the age of 18 years, but it does not take effect until the person attains that age.

9 Who may be appointed

(1) The community advocate or a natural person may be appointed as a guardian.

(2) The community advocate, the public trustee, a trustee company or a natural person may be appointed as a manager.

(3) A person may be appointed both guardian and manager, and persons may be appointed jointly as guardians or managers, or both.

(4) The community advocate shall not be appointed as a person's guardian if a natural person who is otherwise suitable has consented to be appointed.

(5) The community advocate, the public trustee or a trustee company shall not be appointed as a manager of a person's property if a natural person who is otherwise suitable has consented to be appointed.

10 Considerations affecting appointment

(1) A person shall not be appointed as a guardian or manager unless the person consents in writing to the appointment.

(2) A person (except the community advocate, the public trustee or a trustee company) shall not be appointed as a guardian or manager unless the person has attained the age of 18 years and has informed the tribunal on oath or affirmation whether the person—

- (a) has been convicted or found guilty of an offence involving violence, fraud or dishonesty; or
- (b) has been, either in the Territory or elsewhere, refused appointment as a guardian or manager, or removed from office as a guardian or manager; or
- (c) is bankrupt or has applied to take the benefit of a law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors or has compounded with creditors or made an assignment of income for their benefit (and if so, has given particulars to the tribunal).

(3) A person (except the community advocate or the public trustee) shall not be appointed as a guardian or manager unless the tribunal is satisfied that the person will observe the principles set out in section 3 and is suitable for appointment.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the matters that the tribunal shall take into account include—

- (a) the views and wishes of the person for whom a guardian or manager is to be appointed; and
- (b) the desirability of preserving existing family relationships; and
- (c) whether the 2 persons are compatible; and
- (d) whether the proposed guardian or manager resides in the Territory; and
- (e) whether the proposed guardian or manager will be available and accessible to the other person; and
- (f) the nature of the functions and powers to be exercised under the order and whether the proposed guardian or manager is competent to exercise them; and
- (g) whether the interests and duties of the proposed guardian or manager are likely to conflict with the other person's interests to the detriment of the person's interests.

(5) The interests and duties of the spouse or a relative of a person shall not be taken to be likely to conflict with the interests of the person merely because of the fact of being the spouse or relative.

11 Powers to be least restrictive

The powers conferred on a person's guardian or on a manager of a person's property are to be no more restrictive of the person's freedom of decision and action than is necessary to achieve the purpose of the order.

12 Recognition of interstate etc guardians and managers

(1) The tribunal shall, upon application, register the appointment of a person who is, under a corresponding law—

- (a) a guardian for another person who resides outside the Territory; or
- (b) a manager of property of another person who resides outside the Territory.

(2) Upon registration, the person shall be taken to be a guardian, or manager of the property, of the other person, as the case requires, as if the appointment had been made by the tribunal.

(3) The tribunal shall not register an appointment unless the instrument of appointment, or a copy of it, has been lodged with the tribunal.

(4) In subsection (1)—

corresponding law means a law of a State or of another Territory, or a law of a prescribed country, that substantially corresponds to this Act.

13 Authority of guardian or manager

An act or omission of a guardian or manager under this Act has effect as if it were an act or omission of the represented person and that person had the legal capacity for that act or omission.

14 Obligations

(1) In exercising his or her powers as guardian for a person, or as manager of a person's property, the guardian or manager is to act, so far as is proper, as the person would have acted in the circumstances if he or she were not affected by the condition concerned.

(2) In exercising those powers, the matters that the guardian or manager shall take into account include—

- (a) the need to ensure, so far as possible, that the person does not become destitute; and
- (b) the desirability of maintaining, so far as is proper, the style of life of the person as it would have been if the person were not affected by the condition concerned.

(3) If, in a particular case, it is not possible to determine how the person would have acted, the guardian or manager shall act in the best interests of the person.

(4) Unless the tribunal, on application, by order, permits—

- (a) a manager of a person's property shall not enter into a transaction in relation to the property if the interests of the manager are in conflict, or may conflict, with the interests of the person; and
- (b) a manager of a person's property shall keep the manager's property separate from the person's property, but this does not apply to property jointly owned by the manager and the person.

15 Fees and expenses

- (1) A person who acts as a guardian or manager—
- (a) is entitled to be paid fees fixed by or in accordance with a determination under section 75; and
  - (b) is entitled to reimbursement of the reasonable expenses incurred in acting as guardian or manager.
- (2) Amounts payable under this section are payable out of, and are a charge on, the relevant person's property or, if the manager concerned is manager of part only of the relevant person's property, that part.

Division 2—Supervision

16 Directions by tribunal

- (1) The tribunal may, on application, give a direction to a guardian or manager about the exercise of his or her functions or powers.
- (2) A guardian or manager who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes a direction is guilty of an offence punishable on conviction by a fine not exceeding 50 penalty units, by imprisonment for a period not exceeding 6 months or both.

17 Restrictions on tribunal's power to give directions

Where an order of a court affects a person for whom there is a guardian under this Act, or in respect of whom a manager is appointed under this Act, the tribunal shall not give a direction that is inconsistent with that order.

18 Advice by tribunal

- (1) The tribunal may, on application by a guardian or manager, give an opinion or advice about the exercise of functions or powers by the guardian or manager.
- (2) A guardian or manager who acts in accordance with such an opinion or advice shall be taken to have acted properly and in accordance with this Act unless, in obtaining the opinion or advice, he or she acted fraudulently or wilfully misrepresented or concealed a material fact.

19 Regular review etc

(1) The tribunal may, at any time and whether on application or on its own motion, hold an inquiry into whether—

- (a) an order appointing a guardian or manager should be—
  - (i) varied; or
  - (ii) revoked on the ground that the need for guardianship or management no longer exists; or
- (b) a guardian or manager should be removed under section 31.

(2) The tribunal shall hold such an inquiry in respect of each order appointing a guardian or manager at least once every 3 years.

(3) If—

- (a) a guardian or manager dies; and
- (b) under the order of appointment, some other person thereupon becomes a replacement guardian or manager;

the tribunal shall hold an inquiry into the suitability of the replacement guardian or manager as soon as practicable.

(4) A reference in this section to an order shall, in relation to an order registered under section 12, be read as a reference to the registration of that order.

Division 3—Matters relating to management

20 Access to records

Unless the tribunal otherwise orders, a manager of a person's property is entitled to inspect a will or other testamentary instrument made by the person and to any other document relating to the property.

21 Payments for maintenance etc

(1) The manager of a person's property may, out of the property, pay reasonable amounts for the maintenance, advancement or education, or otherwise for the benefit, of the person and of the person's dependants (if any).

(2) The payments may be made to or on behalf of the person and, if the person has a guardian, to the guardian.

(3) The payments may be made out of income or capital.

Guardianship and Management of Property Act 1991

(4) In determining whether to make a payment, the matters that the manager shall take into account include—

- (a) the person's views and wishes; and
- (b) the amount and nature of the property; and
- (c) the amount and nature of any other of the person's property; and
- (d) the present and likely future needs of the person and any dependants.

22 Receipt of money

(1) Unless the tribunal otherwise orders, if a manager of a person's property receives money—

- (a) as interest or income in respect of the property; or
- (b) as the proceeds of the realisation of the property;

the manager becomes manager of the money.

(2) Unless the tribunal otherwise orders, if there is an accretion to property in respect of which a manager has been appointed, the manager becomes manager of the extra property.

23 Execution of instruments

An instrument executed by a manager of a person's property acting as manager has the same effect as if it had been executed by the person.

24 Investments

(1) A manager shall not invest money held in his or her capacity as manager except—

- (a) in investments in which trust money may, in accordance with the Trustee Act 1925, be invested; or
- (b) as the tribunal, by order, permits.

(1A) Subsection (1) has effect notwithstanding the Public Trustee Act 1985.

25 Real estate

- (a) give a manager directions in relation to the filing of the prescribed accounts and documents; and
- (b) direct a manager to have the accounts and documents audited by a specified auditor.

(4) A manager who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes a direction is guilty of an offence punishable on conviction by a fine not exceeding 50 penalty units, by imprisonment for a period not exceeding 6 months or both.

27 Examination of accounts

(1) The public trustee shall examine the accounts and documents referred to in subsection 26 (1) and may apply to the tribunal for the disallowance of any item in the accounts.

(2) The tribunal shall not make an order disallowing an item if the tribunal is satisfied that the manager acted in good faith and with reasonable care in the exercise of powers conferred on the manager.

(3) Where an item is disallowed by the tribunal, the manager concerned—

- (a) is not entitled to payment under section 15 of the amount of the item disallowed; and

Guardianship and Management of Property Act 1991

- (b) shall pay to the Territory the amount of the costs reasonably incurred by the public trustee in making the application to the tribunal.
- (4) Where the public trustee examines the accounts and other documents in respect of the management of property by a manager, the manager shall pay to the Territory a fee fixed by or in accordance with a determination under section 75 in respect of the examination.
- (5) An amount payable to the Territory under paragraph (3) (b) or subsection (4) is due for payment on the 28th day after notice in writing specifying the amount of the debt is given to the debtor by the public trustee.
- (6) The tribunal may, upon an application by the manager and with the consent of the public trustee, waive the payment of the whole or part of an amount payable to the Territory under paragraph (3) (b) or subsection (4).

Division 4—Cessation of guardianship or management

Amending laws are annotated in the table of legislation and table of amendments.

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office currently prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws: authorised printed republications to which the Legislation (Republication) Act 1996 applies and unauthorised electronic republications. The status of this republication appears on the cover.

Section 13 of the Legislation (Republication) Act 1996 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel, in preparing a law for republication, to make textual amendments of a formal nature which the Parliamentary Counsel considers desirable in accordance with current legislative drafting practice. The amendments do not effect a substantive change in the law.

In preparing this republication, amendments have not been made under section 13.

Not all amendments made under section 13 are annotated in the table of amendments. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.
