PART II—TRANSFER FOR PRISONER'S WELFARE

Requests for, and orders of, transfer

- (b) is of the opinion that the prisoner should be transferred to that State or Territory in the interests of his or her welfare;

the Minister shall—

Effect of orders under this Part on joint prisoners

7. An order of transfer issued under this Part in relation to a joint prisoner has no effect—

- (a) to the extent that, but for this section, it authorises or requires the doing of an act or thing under this Act in relation to that person in the person's capacity as a person upon whom a Commonwealth sentence of imprisonment has been imposed; and
- (b) unless and until—
 - (i) a transfer order corresponding to the order of transfer under this Part is in force under the Commonwealth Act in respect of the person; or “transfer request”, in relation to a prisoner serving a sentence of imprisonment in the Territory, means a written request for the transfer of the prisoner to a participating State, or to a non-participating Territory, to be dealt with according to law.

Necessary consents

12. (1) An order of transfer shall be issued under this Part only if—

- (a) the Attorney-General of the Territory has, in writing, consented to the transfer;
- (b) in the case of the transfer of a prisoner to a participating State (including a transfer to which subparagraph (c) (ii) applies)—the Attorney-General of that State has, in writing, either consented to or requested the transfer; and
- (c) in the case of a request for transfer—
 - (i) to a non-participating Territory; or
 - (ii) for the purpose of an arrest warrant issued in accordance with the law of the Commonwealth;

the Attorney-General of the Commonwealth has, in writing, either consented to or requested the transfer.

(2) A certificate signed by a person holding an office or position prescribed by the regulations certifying that any consent or request for the purposes of subsection (1) for the transfer of a prisoner to a specified participating State or non-participating Territory has been given or made is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, proof that the consent or request has been given or made.

Order for prisoner to be brought before Magistrates Court

13. (1) The Magistrates Court, upon proof to its satisfaction that subsection 12 (1) applies in relation to a prisoner, shall by order in writing direct the gaoler of the prison where the prisoner is being held to bring the prisoner before the court at a specified place, on a specified date and at a specified time, for determination as to whether an order of transfer should be issued.

(2) Notice of an order under subsection (1) shall be served on the Attorney-General and on the prisoner to whom the order relates.

 - (i) it would be harsh, oppressive or not in the interests of justice to do so; or
 - (ii) the trivial nature of the charge or complaint against the prisoner does not warrant the transfer.

Review of decision of Magistrates Court

15. (1) Within 14 days after a decision is made under section 14, any of the following persons may apply to the Supreme Court for the review of the decision:

- (a) the prisoner;

Effect of orders under this Part on joint prisoners

16. An order of transfer issued under this Part in relation to a joint prisoner has no effect—

- (a) to the extent that, but for this section, it authorises or requires the doing of an act or thing under this Act in relation to that person in the person's capacity as a person upon whom a Commonwealth sentence of imprisonment has been imposed; and
- (b) unless and until—
 - (i) a transfer order corresponding to the order of transfer under this Part is in force under the Commonwealth Act in respect of the person; or the Attorney-General of the Territory shall—

- (d) consent, or refuse to consent, to the transfer; and
- (e) give to the Attorney-General of the participating State written notice of that consent or refusal.

PART IV—TRANSFER BACK TO ORIGINAL STATE OR TERRITORY

Return of prisoner to participating State

20. (1) The Minister shall, subject to section 21, issue an order for the return transfer of a prisoner to a participating State or a non-participating Territory where—

- (a) the prisoner was transferred to this Territory pursuant to an order issued under—
 - (i) the provision of the interstate law of that State that corresponds to section 14 or subsection 15 (8); or
 - (ii) Part III of the Commonwealth Act; and

- (b) so far as the Minister is aware, each complaint or information alleging an offence by the person against the law of this Territory or of the Commonwealth has been finally dealt with according to law, and as a result—
 - (i) the prisoner did not become liable to serve any sentence of imprisonment in this Territory; or
 - (ii) in any other case—the total period of imprisonment which the prisoner is liable to serve in this Territory (including any period of imprisonment under any translated sentence originally imposed by a court of this Territory) is shorter than the total period of imprisonment remaining to be served under—
 - (A) any translated sentence (not including a translated sentence originally imposed by a court of this Territory); and
 - (B) any sentence of imprisonment imposed for an offence against a law of the Commonwealth or of a non-participating Territory.
- (2) For the purpose of paragraph (1) (b), a complaint or information alleging an offence by a prisoner is to be taken to be finally dealt with if—
 - (a) the prisoner is tried for the offence, and—
 - (i) the time has expired within which an appeal against the decision may be lodged, a review of the decision applied for, or a retrial ordered; and
 - (ii) any such appeal or review has been determined or withdrawn, or any proceedings (including appeals) in relation to such a retrial have been concluded; or
 - (b) the complaint or information is withdrawn, or a nolle prosequi (or similar instrument) is filed in respect of the offence.
- (3) For the purpose of determining the period, or the total period, remaining to be served under a sentence or sentences of imprisonment referred to in subparagraph (1) (b) (ii)—
 - (a) any entitlement to remissions is to be disregarded;
 - (b) a period of imprisonment including a period to be served under an indeterminate sentence is to be taken to be longer than any period of imprisonment not including such a period; and

- (c) where an ACT sentence of imprisonment which the prisoner became liable to serve in the Territory (not being a translated sentence) is cumulative with any translated sentence originally imposed by a court other than a court of the Territory, any such last-mentioned sentence is deemed—
 - (i) not to be a translated sentence; and
 - (ii) to be a sentence which the prisoner is liable to serve in the Territory.

(4) This section does not apply to a prisoner where an indeterminate sentence (not being a translated sentence) is imposed upon the prisoner by a court of the Territory.

Prisoner's request to serve sentence in the Territory

21. (1) Section 20 does not apply in respect of a prisoner if, upon the prisoner's written request to the Minister, the Minister and the relevant Minister (or relevant Ministers) agree in writing that it is in the interests of the welfare of the prisoner to serve his or her imprisonment in the Territory.

- (a) to the extent that, but for this section, it authorises or requires the doing of an act or thing under this Act in relation to that person in the person's capacity as a person upon whom a Commonwealth sentence of imprisonment has been imposed; and

 - (i) a transfer order corresponding to the order of transfer under this Part is in force under the Commonwealth Act in respect of the person; or

(2) An order of transfer under an interstate law, or under the Commonwealth Act, or both, for the transfer of a prisoner to the Territory authorises the person or persons escorting the prisoner pursuant to that law or Act (while in the Territory) to have custody of the prisoner for the purpose of conveying him or her to the prison specified in the order and delivering him or her into the custody of the gaoler.

(3) In this section—

- (a) for the purpose of an appeal against, or review of, a conviction, judgment or sentence of a court of this Territory;
- (b) in relation to any period of imprisonment served by the prisoner in this Territory; or
- (c) in relation to any remittance of money to the Minister paid in discharge (or partial discharge) of a sentence of default imprisonment originally imposed upon the prisoner by a court of this Territory.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a sentence of imprisonment where a person has completed serving that sentence.

Information sent to participating State

25. (1) Where, pursuant to an order of transfer, a prisoner is conveyed to a participating State, the Minister shall cause to be sent to the corresponding Minister of that State, or to a person designated by him or her for that purpose—

- (b) the warrant of commitment, or any other authority for commitment, for any sentence of imprisonment which the prisoner was serving, or was liable to serve, immediately before he or she left the Territory;
- (c) a report, and other documents, under subsection (2) relating to the prisoner; and
- (d) details of any subsequent variations to the information contained in such a report, accompanied by any relevant orders or other documents.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1) (c), a report relating to a prisoner shall—

 - (v) the prisoner's release on probation or parole.

(3) A reference in this section to an order or other document is to be read as a reference to the original or a copy certified in the manner prescribed by the regulations.

Translated sentences

- 26. (1) This section applies where—
- (a) an interstate sentence of imprisonment is imposed, or a translated sentence within the meaning of an interstate law is taken to be imposed under that law, on a person by a court of a participating State; and
 - (b) that person is brought into the Territory in accordance with an order under an interstate law of that State for the person's transfer to the Territory.
- (2) Where this section applies in relation to a person—
- (a) the sentence referred to in paragraph (1) (a) is deemed to have been lawfully imposed on the person by a corresponding court of the Territory;
 - (b) a direction or order given or made by a court of the participating State in relation to the commencement of such a sentence is (so far as practicable) deemed to have been lawfully given, or made, by the corresponding court of the Territory; and
 - (c) subject to this Act, the laws of the Territory apply as if such a sentence, direction or order were a lawful sentence, direction or order of the corresponding court of the Territory.

Provisions relating to translated sentences

27. (1) Where, in relation to a translated sentence, a court of the relevant participating State has fixed a minimum term of imprisonment (being a shorter term than the translated sentence) during which the person subject to the sentence is not entitled to be released on parole, then, subject to this Act, the minimum term is deemed to have been fixed by the corresponding court of the Territory.

(2) Where a translated sentence or a minimum term deemed under subsection (1) to have been fixed by a corresponding court of the Territory—

- (a) is varied or quashed on review by (or appeal to) a court of the relevant participating State—the sentence or minimum term is deemed to have been varied to the same extent, or to have been quashed, by a corresponding court of the Territory; or
- (b) otherwise is varied or ceases to have effect as a result of action taken by any person or authority in that participating State—the sentence is deemed to have been varied to the same extent, or to have ceased to have effect, as a result of action taken by an appropriate person or authority in the Territory.

(3) Nothing in this Act operates to permit in the Territory any appeal against or review of any conviction, judgment, sentence or minimum term made, imposed or fixed in relation to a person by a court of a participating State.

(4) Where a translated sentence is an indeterminate sentence requiring that the person who is the subject of the sentence be detained during the pleasure of the Queen or of the Governor of the participating State in which the sentence was imposed, the person shall be detained during the pleasure of the Governor-General.

(5) If a person is subject to a translated sentence—

- (a) the Executive may grant a pardon to the person under section 557 of the Crimes Act 1900; or
- (b) the Governor-General may exercise the royal prerogative of mercy in favour of the person;

as if the person were an offender convicted in a court of the Territory, or convicted within the Territory before a judge or magistrate of the Territory.

(6) If a person is subject to a translated sentence, and the Governor of the participating State in which the sentence of imprisonment was imposed on the person has given an indication as to what he or she may have done had the person not been transferred to the Territory—

- (a) the Executive may give effect to that indication in granting a pardon to that person under section 557 of the Crimes Act 1900; or
- (b) the Governor-General may give effect to that indication in exercising the royal prerogative of mercy in favour of that person.

(7) Subsection (5) does not apply in relation to the conviction of a person for an offence against a law of a non-participating Territory, but that does not prevent the Governor-General from exercising the royal prerogative of mercy pursuant to subsection 24 (2) of the Commonwealth Act in relation to that conviction.

(8) A person who is subject to a translated sentence is deemed to have served in the Territory such period of the translated sentence as, up to the time of transfer to the Territory, the person has served in respect of that sentence in a participating State, including—

- (a) any period deemed by the provision of an interstate law that corresponds to this subsection to have been served in a participating State; and
- (b) any period spent in custody while being transferred to a prison in the Territory.

(9) A person who is subject to a translated sentence is, subject to subsection (10), deemed to be entitled under a remission instrument to any remission of his or her translated sentence for which, up to the time of transfer to the Territory, the person was eligible in respect of that sentence of imprisonment in the participating State, including any remission of sentence deemed by an interstate law to have been earned in a participating State.

(10) For the purposes of subsection (9), a remission of a translated sentence is not to be taken into account where—

- (a) the person subject to the sentence was eligible for remission up to the time of his or her transfer to the Territory; and
- (b) the remission is attributable to a part of the sentence not served or not to be served in the participating State from which that person was transferred.

(11) Any remission of a translated sentence under a remission instrument, except a remission referred to in subsection (9), is to be calculated from the time of arrival in the Territory of the person subject to that sentence.

Translated sentences—default imprisonment

28. (1) This section applies where a person is serving a translated sentence by which default imprisonment was ordered.

(2) Where this section applies, and any portion of the default amount is paid by or on behalf of the prisoner to the gaoler of the prison in which he or she is held—

- (a) the term of default imprisonment is reduced by a period which bears to the term of default imprisonment the same proportion as the portion paid bears to the total amount that was payable;
- (b) the prisoner is entitled to be released on the expiry of the reduced period, subject to any other sentence of imprisonment; and
- (c) the gaoler shall remit the portion so paid to the corresponding Minister of the participating State where the translated sentence was originally imposed.

(3) Where this section applies, and on review by (or appeal to) a court of the participating State where the default sentence was imposed, or as a result of any other action taken by any person or authority in that participating State—

- (a) the default amount is reduced—
 - (i) the term of default imprisonment is reduced by a period which bears to the term of default imprisonment the same proportion as the amount of the reduction bears to the total of the default amount; and
 - (ii) the prisoner is entitled to be released on the expiry of that reduced period, subject to any other sentence of imprisonment; or
- (b) the obligation to pay the default amount is quashed—the prisoner is entitled to be released immediately, subject to any other sentence of imprisonment.

(4) In this section—

“default amount”, in relation to a sentence of default imprisonment, means the amount in default of payment of which the default imprisonment was ordered;

“prisoner” means the person referred to in subsection (1) in relation to whom this section applies.
