Residential Tenancies Act 1997

A1997-84

Republication No 83

Effective: 1 November 2025 – 25 November 2025

Republication date: 1 November 2025

Last amendment made by A2025-22

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Residential Tenancies Act 1997 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 1 November 2025. It also includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting this republished law to 1 November 2025.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. Any uncommenced amendments that affect this republished law are accessible on the ACT legislation register (www.legislation.act.gov.au). For more information, see the home page for this law on the register.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see the Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

At the republication date, the value of a penalty unit for an offence against this law is $160 for an individual and $810 for a corporation (see Legislation Act 2001, s 133).

Residential Tenancies Act 1997

An Act relating to residential tenancies and occupancy agreements

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Residential Tenancies Act 1997.

2 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere.

For example, the signpost definition 'energy efficiency rating statement'—see the Construction Occupations \(Licensing\) Act 2004, s 123AC' means that the term 'energy efficiency rating statement' is defined in that section and the definition applies to this Act.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

3 Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See the Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

3A Offences against Act—application of Criminal Code etc

Other legislation applies in relation to offences against this Act.

Note 1 Criminal Code

The Criminal Code, ch 2 applies to all offences against this Act (see Code, pt 2.1).

The chapter sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility (including burdens of proof and general defences), and defines terms used for offences to which the Code applies (eg conduct, intention, recklessness and strict liability).

Note 2 Penalty units

The Legislation Act, s 133 deals with the meaning of offence penalties that are expressed in penalty units.

4 Application of Act

This Act does not apply in relation to—

- (a) accommodation provided by a registered provider under the Aged Care Act 2024 (Cwlth); or
- (b) premises prescribed by regulation.

4A Objects of Act

In recognition of the importance of stable and secure housing for people in the ACT community, the main objects of this Act are to—

- (a) define the rights and obligations of tenants and lessors under residential tenancy agreements; and
- (b) set out minimum contractual requirements for occupancy agreements; and
- (c) enable prospective tenants and occupants to make informed choices; and

- (d) ensure that parties to residential tenancy agreements and occupancy agreements can easily access suitable, low cost, informal and timely ways to enforce their rights under those agreements; and
- (e) protect parties to residential tenancy agreements and occupancy agreements from unfair practices; and
- (f) facilitate the availability of stable and secure housing in the ACT.

Part 1A Meaning of residential tenancy agreement

5 Who is a lessor?

- (1) A person is a lessor if the person grants a right of occupation under a residential tenancy agreement.

 - section 6D (Certain kinds of agreements not residential tenancy agreements)
 - section 6E (Certain people given right of occupation not tenants).

- (b) is in writing; and
- (c) expressly states that it is a residential tenancy agreement.

6C Residential tenancy agreement if agreement part of employment

Despite section 6A (4), an agreement mentioned in section 6A (1) to (3) is a residential tenancy agreement if the person who is given the right to occupy the premises occupies the premises as the person's home under the terms and conditions of the person's employment.

6D Certain kinds of agreements not residential tenancy agreements

- (1) A residential tenancy agreement does not include an agreement—
 - (a) arising under a mortgage entered into honestly in relation to the premises; or

 - (i) a group of adjacent premises is owned by a company; and
 - (ii) the tenants who have rights to occupy the adjacent premises are people who jointly have a controlling interest in the company; or

- (a) endorse the inconsistent term;
 - (b) substitute the equivalent standard residential tenancy term for the inconsistent term.

- (3) In making a decision under subsection (2), the ACAT must consider—
 - (a) the criteria determined under subsection (6); and

- (4) The ACAT must not endorse a term that is inconsistent with this Act (other than a standard residential tenancy term).

 - (c) made by the lessor or tenant in accordance with an order of the ACAT stating that money is to be paid from an amount of bond.

Note 1 If a form is approved under s 133 for this provision, the form must be used.

Note 2 Section 34E deals with applications mentioned in s (1) (c).

- (2) On receiving an application under subsection (1) (a), the Territory must pay out of the trust account—
- (a) to the tenant—the amount claimed as the bond in the application, less any amount claimed by the lessor as a deduction from the bond; and
 - (b) to the lessor—any amount claimed as a deduction;
- (3) On receiving an application under subsection (1) (b), the Territory must pay out of the trust account the amount claimed as the bond to the person mentioned in the application as the recipient.
- (4) The amount paid out of the trust account under subsection (2) or (3) must not exceed the amount of bond paid into the trust account in relation to the residential tenancy agreement.

34E Bond release application—ACAT order

- (1) This section applies if a lessor or tenant makes a bond release application, to the Territory, in relation to a residential tenancy agreement that is in accordance with an order of the ACAT stating an amount of money is to be paid from an amount of bond.

Note If a form is approved under s 133 for this provision, the form must be used.

- (2) On receiving the application, the Territory must—
- (a) give written notice of the application (a notice of application) to the party to the agreement who did not make the application; and
 - (b) pay out of the trust account an amount of bond in accordance with the application.
- (3) The amount paid out of the trust account must not exceed the amount of bond paid into the trust account in relation to the residential tenancy agreement.

34F Bond release application—discrepancy in named tenant

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a lessor or tenant makes a bond release application to the Territory in relation to a residential tenancy agreement; and
 - (b) the name of a tenant in the bond release application does not match the name of the tenant that has been notified to the Territory under—
 - (i) section 23 (3) (b) (Deposit of bond by lessor); or
 - (ii) section 24 (1) (b) (Deposit of bond by tenant); or
 - (iii) section 35B (2) (b) (Repayment of bond to leaving co-tenant); or

- (iv) section 35BA (2) (b) (Repayment of bond to former co-tenant—consecutive tenancy agreement); or
 - (v) section 35F (2) (b) (Payment of bond by new co-tenant); or
 - (vi) section 35FA (2) (b) (Payment of bond by new co-tenant—consecutive tenancy agreement).
- (2) The Territory may refer the bond release application to the ACAT.
- (3) If a bond release application is referred to the ACAT, the ACAT must—
 - (a) decide who is entitled to receive the released bond; and
 - (b) make an order directing the Territory to release the bond in accordance with the decision.

35 Disputes about all or part of bond

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a tenant or lessor is given a notice (a notice of application) about a bond release application under section 34B (2) (a) (Bond release application—application by tenant) or section 34C (2) (a) (Bond release application—application by lessor); and
 - (b) the tenant or lessor gives the Territory a written notice (a notice of dispute) disputing the application within 2 weeks after the day the notice of application is given to the tenant or lessor.
- (2) The Territory must refer the application and notice of dispute to the ACAT as a tenancy dispute.
- (3) The referral of the application and notice of dispute is taken to be an application to the ACAT about a tenancy dispute.

- (4) However, the Territory need not refer the application and notice of dispute to the ACAT if the application is in accordance with an order of the ACAT stating that an amount is to be paid from an amount of bond.
- (5) If a notice of dispute relates to only part of an amount of bond claimed, the Territory must, before referring the application and notice of dispute to the ACAT, release the amount of the bond that is not in dispute to the appropriate person.

Part 3A Co-tenancies

35A Co-tenant may leave residential tenancy agreement

- (1) A co-tenant (the leaving co-tenant) may stop being a party to a residential tenancy agreement only—

 - (b) at least 21 days before the day the leaving co-tenant intends to stop being a party to the residential tenancy agreement (the proposed leaving day).
- (3) The lessor and each remaining co-tenant—
 - (a) if the proposed leaving day is during the term of a fixed term agreement—may refuse consent whether or not it is reasonable to do so; but
 - (b) if the residential tenancy agreement is a periodic agreement on the proposed leaving day—must not unreasonably refuse consent.
- (4) For subsection (1) (a), the lessor and a remaining co-tenant is taken to consent if—

- (6) For subsection (5), a co-tenant stops being a party to a residential tenancy agreement on—

Example—reasonable costs for damage caused to the premises by the leaving co-tenant

- (4) A leaving co-tenant is not entitled to payment of any other amount of the bond under the residential tenancy agreement.

- (4) For subsection (3) (a), the existing tenant must seek the consent of the lessor and any other existing tenant—

 - (b) at least 14 days before the day it is proposed the new person will become a co-tenant under the residential tenancy agreement (the proposed joining day).
- (5) The lessor must—
 - (a) not unreasonably refuse consent; and
 - (b) if the lessor refuses consent—tell the existing tenant and the new person, in writing, the reason for refusing consent.
- (6) For subsection (3) (a), the lessor and any other existing tenant are taken to consent if they do not respond within 14 days after receiving the consent application.
- (7) If consent is given to the new person becoming a co-tenant under the residential tenancy agreement—
 - (a) the agreement continues with the new person becoming a co-tenant with the existing tenants; and

- (4) For subsections (2) and (3), a person becomes a co-tenant on the day agreed between the parties.

35EA Becoming a co-tenant at start of consecutive tenancy agreement

- (1) This section applies if a person becomes a co-tenant under a consecutive tenancy agreement on the day the agreement starts.

Note See s 35C for becoming a co-tenant at any time after the day the consecutive tenancy agreement starts.

- (2) The consecutive tenancy agreement starts with the person becoming a co-tenant with the existing tenants.
- (3) The existing tenants must give the other person a copy of the original condition report and any subsequent condition report for the premises not later than the day after the day the agreement starts.

existing tenant—see section 35C (1) (a).

new person—see section 35C (1) (a).

Part 4 Termination of residential tenancy agreements

Division 4.1 General

- (a) if a fixed term agreement ends and the tenant vacates the premises on or after the end of the agreement;
- (b) if a party serves a termination notice in accordance with the standard residential tenancy terms and the tenant vacates the premises in accordance with the notice;
- (c) if a tenant terminates the agreement and vacates the premises under section 46A because the tenant has accepted aged care or social housing accommodation;
- (d) if the agreement is a fixed term agreement—the tenant terminates the agreement and vacates the premises under section 46B because the lessor is offering the premises for sale;
- (e) if the ACAT terminates the agreement under division 4.3, division 4.4 or division 6.5A;
- (f) if a tenant terminates the agreement in accordance with division 4.3A;
- (g) if the ACAT makes a termination and possession order in relation to the premises that are the subject of the agreement under division 4.4 , division 4.5, division 6.5 or division 6.5A;
- (h) if the tenant abandons the premises that are the subject of the agreement;

- (j) if the tenant and lessor agree in writing to terminate the agreement and the tenant vacates the premises in accordance with the agreement to terminate;
- (k) if the tenant and the lessor are the same person;
- (l) if—
 - (i) a party to the agreement repudiates the agreement; and
 - (ii) the other party accepts the repudiation; and
 - (iii) the tenant vacates the premises;
- (m) for crisis accommodation—if the lessor—
 - (i) gives the tenant 4 weeks notice to terminate the agreement; and

Note Eligible impacted property—see the Civil Law \(Sale of Residential Property\) Act 2003, s 9A (1).

37 Entry for eviction purposes

- (1) A person must not enter premises or any part of premises of which someone else has prescribed possession for the purpose of recovering possession of the premises or part except in accordance with a warrant issued by the registrar, an order or a warrant of the ACAT or an order or judgment of the Supreme Court.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), if a person enters premises in contravention of subsection (1) (the offender), the ACAT must, on application, order the offender to pay to the person who had prescribed possession of the premises the compensation that the ACAT considers appropriate.
- (3) In considering how much compensation is appropriate for subsection (2), the ACAT must consider whether the lessor reasonably believed that the premises had been abandoned by the tenant.
- (4) If an offender mentioned in subsection (2) is not the lessor but is acting on behalf of a lessor with the lessor's consent, the ACAT must make any order for compensation that it would otherwise have made against the offender against the lessor.
- (5) For this section, the following possession is prescribed:
 - (a) possession under a residential tenancy agreement;
 - (b) possession as a former tenant continuing to reside in the premises.
- (6) This section is subject to section 61A (Lessor may enter premises to confirm abandonment).

38 General duty to mitigate

A person who, apart from this section, would be entitled to compensation under this Act is not entitled to the compensation, or part of it, if the loss, or part of the loss, to be compensated could have been reasonably avoided.

39 Content of termination and possession orders

- (1) If the ACAT makes a termination and possession order the order must specify the following:
 - (a) the date the tenancy terminates;
 - (b) that the tenant must vacate the premises on or before the date of termination;
 - (c) either that, should the tenant fail to vacate the premises as specified—
 - (i) the lessor may request the registrar to issue a warrant for the eviction of the former tenant; or
 - (ii) the termination and possession order has effect as if it were a warrant for eviction.
- (2) If a termination and possession order specifies that it has effect as if it were a warrant for eviction issued by the ACAT under division 4.2, the order must comply with section 40.

Division 4.2 Warrants for eviction

40 Content of warrant

- (1) A warrant issued under this part must—
 - (a) authorise any police officer to take appropriate action, with any necessary and reasonable assistance, to evict a named person, or a named person and everyone else on the premises, within the period stated in the warrant; and
 - (b) require a police officer to give the named person not less than 2 days notice of the proposed eviction.
- (2) Subsection (1) (b) does not apply if the registrar believes on reasonable grounds that—
 - (a) there are exceptional circumstances; and

- (b) it would be inappropriate to give the notice required by subsection (1) (b).
- (3) A regulation may prescribe what is, or is not, appropriate action to be taken under a warrant.

41 Warrant—termination and possession order

On application by a lessor, the registrar must issue a warrant for the eviction of a tenant if—

- (a) the ACAT has made a termination and possession order in relation to the tenant; and
- (b) the tenant fails to vacate the premises in accordance with the order.

Note The ACAT must also direct the registrar to issue a warrant for the eviction of a tenant if it makes a termination and possession order under s 49C.

Division 4.3 Termination initiated by tenant

43 Breach of standard residential tenancy terms

- (1) On application by a tenant, the ACAT may terminate a residential tenancy agreement if satisfied that—
 - (a) the lessor has breached the standard residential tenancy terms; and
 - (b) the breach of the standard residential tenancy terms was not in accordance with a term of the residential tenancy agreement endorsed by the ACAT; and
 - (c) the breach justifies the termination of the tenancy.

(2) If—

- (a) the ACAT decides to terminate a residential tenancy agreement in accordance with subsection (1); and
- (b) the ACAT is satisfied that—
 - (i) the tenant would suffer significant hardship if the agreement were not terminated within 2 weeks after the making of the decision to terminate; and
 - (ii) that hardship would be greater than the hardship the lessor would suffer if the tenancy were terminated within 2 weeks after that day;

the ACAT must order that the agreement be terminated at a specified time within 2 weeks after the making of the decision to terminate the tenancy.

(3) If—

- (a) the ACAT decides to terminate a residential tenancy agreement in accordance with subsection (1); and
- (b) the ACAT is not satisfied in relation to the matters mentioned in subsection (2) (b);

the ACAT must order that the agreement be terminated at a specified time not less than 2 weeks after the making of the decision to terminate.

44 Significant hardship

- (1) On application by a tenant, the ACAT may terminate a fixed term agreement in accordance with this section if satisfied that—
 - (a) the tenant would suffer significant hardship were the agreement to continue; and

- (b) the level of hardship is such that it is appropriate and just to terminate the agreement during its fixed term.

Example—significant hardship

Chris and Jamie share premises under a residential tenancy agreement. The Magistrates Court makes an interim order under the Family Violence Act 2016 that prohibits Chris (the respondent) from being on premises where Jamie (the protected person) lives. Jamie wishes to end the residential tenancy agreement and leave the premises. If the agreement were to continue, Jamie would suffer significant hardship.

- (2) If—
 - (a) the ACAT decides to terminate a residential tenancy agreement in accordance with this section; and
 - (b) the ACAT is satisfied that—
 - (i) the tenant would suffer significant hardship if the agreement were not terminated within 8 weeks after the making of the decision to terminate; and
 - (ii) that hardship would be greater than the hardship the lessor would suffer if the agreement were terminated within 8 weeks after that day;

the ACAT must—

- (c) specify the day, less than 8 weeks after the making of the decision to terminate, when the termination is to happen; and
 - (d) give the lessor the notice of the proposed termination that is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (3) If—
 - (a) the ACAT decides to terminate a residential tenancy agreement in accordance with this section; and

- (b) the ACAT is not satisfied about the matters mentioned in subsection (2) (b);

the ACAT must—

- (c) taking into consideration the need to comply with paragraph (d), specify the day, not less than 8 weeks after the making of the decision to terminate, when the termination is to happen; and
- (d) give the lessor not less than 8 weeks notice of the proposed termination.

45 Damage, injury or intention to damage or injure

On application by a tenant, the ACAT may terminate a residential tenancy agreement effective immediately if satisfied that the lessor has intentionally or recklessly caused or permitted, or is likely to so cause or permit—

- (a) serious danger to the premises or to property of the tenant; or
- (b) injury to the tenant or a member of the tenant's family.

45A Threats, harassment, intimidation or abuse by lessor etc

- (1) This section applies if a tenant believes that the lessor has engaged in any of the following conduct against a tenant or related person:
 - (a) conduct that is threatening, intimidating, harassing or abusive;
 - (b) conduct that the tenant or related person is reasonably likely to find threatening, intimidating, harassing or abusive.
- (2) The tenant may apply to the ACAT for an order terminating the residential tenancy agreement.
- (3) The tenant must, not later than 7 days before making an application under subsection (2), give the lessor written notice that includes the details of the conduct mentioned in subsection (1) that the tenant believes the lessor has engaged in.

- (4) On receiving an application under subsection (2), the registrar must list the hearing before the ACAT not earlier than 14 days after the day the tenant gives the lessor notice in accordance with subsection (3).
- (5) The ACAT may—
 - (a) terminate a residential tenancy agreement if satisfied that—
 - (i) the lessor has engaged in the conduct mentioned in subsection (1); and
 - (ii) at least 14 days has passed since the tenant gave the lessor notice in accordance with subsection (3); and
 - (iii) it is appropriate to make the order; and
 - (b) make any other order the ACAT considers appropriate.
- (6) In deciding whether it is appropriate to terminate the agreement, the ACAT must take the following into account:
 - (a) the nature, frequency and duration of the conduct;
 - (b) the circumstances of the conduct, including any behaviour of the tenant or related person;
 - (c) whether the conduct is likely to continue;
 - (d) whether the lessor has—
 - (i) stopped the conduct; or
 - (ii) agreed to stop the conduct and is reasonably likely to stop the conduct in accordance with the agreement;
 - (e) any family violence order or protection order made against the lessor by the Magistrates Court;

- (f) any order under a law of a State or a foreign country that has the same effect, or substantially the same effect, as an order mentioned in paragraph (e);

Note State includes the Northern Territory (see Legislation Act, dict, pt 1).

- (g) the effect of the conduct on the tenant and any related person;
- (h) whether any other order under this Act is reasonably available;

Example

an order under s 83

 - (b) the lessor has served a termination notice on the tenant based on that ground; and
 - (c) the tenant has not vacated the premises as required by the termination notice; and
 - (d) if the application relates to a termination notice served by the lessor in accordance with a community housing provider termination clause, public housing termination clause, subsidised accommodation clause or temporary housing assistance termination clause—the termination is reasonable and proportionate.
- (2) If the ACAT makes a termination and possession order under subsection (1), the ACAT may suspend the operation of the termination and possession order for a stated period of not more than 3 weeks if satisfied that—
 - (a) the tenant would suffer significant hardship if the operation of the order was not suspended for the period; and
 - (b) the tenant's hardship would be greater than the hardship that would be suffered by the lessor if the operation of the order was not suspended for the period; and
 - (c) it is appropriate to suspend the operation of the order for the period.

- (3) For subsection (1) (d), the ACAT must consider the following in deciding whether the termination is reasonable and proportionate:
- (a) the history and length of the tenancy;
 - (b) the functions of the lessor in providing public or subsidised housing, including—
 - (i) if the lessor is the housing commissioner—the objects of the Housing Assistance Act 2007 and the commissioner's functions under that Act; and
 - (ii) any funding requirements or contractual obligations on the lessor in relation to the provision of subsidised accommodation; and
 - (iii) the lessor's interest in the efficient management of public or subsidised housing (including other premises) provided by the lessor; and
 - (iv) the public interest in the efficient management and availability of public or subsidised housing; and
 - (v) the financial impact on the lessor or owner if the residential tenancy agreement is not terminated;
 - (c) the conduct of the tenant and the lessor or owner in relation to matters that are relevant to the notice for termination being served on the tenant;
 - (d) any hardship that the tenant will, or is likely to, suffer if the residential tenancy agreement is terminated, including—
 - (i) financial hardship; and
 - (ii) difficulties in finding suitable alternative premises; and
 - (iii) any risk of the tenant experiencing a prolonged period of homelessness; and
 - (iv) impacts on the tenant's physical or mental health;

- (e) any other matter the ACAT considers relevant.
- (4) In considering whether to make an order under subsection (1), the ACAT must not—
 - (a) if the application relates to a termination notice served by the lessor in accordance with a public housing termination clause requiring the tenant to transfer to another public housing dwelling—review the housing commissioner’s decision to require the tenant to transfer to another public housing dwelling; or
 - (b) if the application relates to a termination notice served by the lessor in accordance with a public housing termination clause because the housing commissioner decides to stop giving housing assistance to the tenant—review the housing commissioner’s decision to stop giving housing assistance to the tenant.
- (5) To remove any doubt, subsection (4) does not limit the operation of the Human Rights Act 2004, section 40C (2) (b).

community housing provider termination clause means the clause in schedule 2, section 2.2.

public housing termination clause means a clause in schedule 2, section 2.3.

 - (a) satisfied that—
 - (i) the tenant has breached the standard residential tenancy terms (other than by failing to pay rent that has become payable); and
 - (ii) the lessor has served a termination notice on the tenant based on the breach; and
 - (iii) the tenant did not vacate the premises in accordance with the notice; and
 - (iv) the breach of the standard residential tenancy terms was not in accordance with a term of the residential tenancy agreement endorsed by the ACAT; and
 - (v) the breach justifies the termination of the tenancy; or
 - (b) the ACAT—
 - (i) has made an order under section 83 (1) (b); and
 - (ii) is satisfied that the tenant has breached that order; and
 - (iii) is satisfied that the breach justifies the termination of the tenancy.
- (2) The ACAT may, if satisfied that it is appropriate and just to do so in relation to an application mentioned in subsection (1)—
 - (a) refuse to make a termination and possession order if—
 - (i) the tenant has remedied the relevant breach; or
 - (ii) the tenant undertakes to remedy the breach within a reasonable specified period and is reasonably likely to do so; or

- (b) make a termination and possession order but suspend it for a period of no more than 3 weeks if satisfied that—
 - (i) were the order not suspended for a specified period of no more than 3 weeks the tenant would suffer significant hardship; and
 - (ii) that hardship would be greater than the hardship that would be suffered by the lessor if the order were suspended for the specified period.
- (3) For subsection (1) (a) (i), if the application is about the use of premises for an illegal purpose, the ACAT must also be satisfied that—
 - (a) the tenant has used the premises, or permitted the premises to be used, for an illegal purpose; and
 - (b) the illegal use justifies the termination of the tenancy.
- (4) For subsection (3), the matters the ACAT may consider include the following:

 - (ii) the ACAT considers it just and appropriate to do so.
- (4) If the ACAT makes a termination and possession order, it may suspend the order for a stated period of not more than 3 weeks if satisfied that—
 - (a) were the order not suspended for the stated period, the tenant would suffer significant hardship; and
 - (b) the tenant's hardship would be greater than the hardship that would be suffered by the lessor if the order were suspended for the stated period.

49A Failure to pay rent—payment order

- (1) This section applies if a lessor applies to the ACAT for a termination and possession order under section 49 (2).
- (2) Instead of making a termination and possession order, the ACAT may make an order (a payment order) requiring the tenant to pay 1 or both of the following:
 - (a) the rent, or a stated part of the rent, that has become payable;
 - (b) future rent as it becomes payable.

- (3) The ACAT must not make a payment order unless satisfied—

 - (i) the lessor has made more than 2 applications for a termination and possession order under section 49 (2) in the 12-month period immediately before the day the ACAT makes the order; and
 - (ii) it is in the interests of justice to do so.

- (5) A payment order—
- (a) expires on the date stated in the order (which must not be more than 1 year after the day the order is made); and
 - (b) must state that if the tenant fails to comply with the payment order, the lessor may apply for a termination and possession order under section 49B.
- (6) On application to the ACAT, an order under this section may be varied if—
- (a) both parties agree to the variation; and
 - (b) the variation does not postpone the expiry date of the order; and
 - (c) the ACAT considers it just and appropriate to vary the order.

49B Failure to comply with payment order

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the tenant has failed to comply with a payment order in the last 60 days; and

 - (a) must direct the registrar to issue a warrant for the eviction of the tenant; and
 - (b) may make an order to pay any unpaid rent that is payable.
- (3) If the ACAT refuses to make a termination and possession order, the ACAT may—
 - (a) confirm the payment order; or
 - (b) make another payment order; or
 - (c) set aside the payment order.
- (4) If the ACAT makes a termination and possession order, it may suspend the order for a stated period of not more than 3 weeks if satisfied that—

 - (b) the tenant's hardship would be greater than the hardship that would be suffered by the lessor if the order were suspended for the stated period.

50 Significant hardship

 - (i) the lessor would suffer significant hardship if the agreement were not terminated within 8 weeks after the making of the decision to terminate; and
 - (ii) that hardship would be greater than the hardship the tenant would suffer if the agreement were terminated within 8 weeks after that day;

the ACAT must—

 - (c) specify the day, less than 8 weeks after the making of the decision to terminate, when the termination is to happen; and
 - (d) give the tenant the notice of the proposed termination that is reasonable in the circumstances.

(3) If—

- (a) the ACAT decides to terminate a residential tenancy agreement in accordance with this section; and
- (b) the ACAT is not satisfied about the matters mentioned in subsection (2) (b);

the ACAT must—

- (d) give the tenant no less than 8 weeks notice of the proposed termination.

51 Damage, injury or intention to damage or injure

On application by a lessor, the ACAT may make a termination and possession order effective immediately if satisfied that the tenant has intentionally or recklessly caused or allowed, or is likely to cause or allow—

 - (b) the lessor has given the tenant written notice under section 64AA (Termination—affected residential premises) terminating the tenancy agreement; and
 - (c) the tenant has not vacated the premises as required by the notice.
- (2) The ACAT may suspend the operation of the termination and possession order for a stated period of up to 3 weeks if satisfied that—
 - (a) the tenant would suffer significant hardship if the order were not suspended for the stated period; and
 - (b) the hardship would be greater than the hardship the lessor would suffer if the order were suspended for the stated period.

55B Eligible impacted property

- (1) On application by a lessor, the ACAT may make a termination and possession order if satisfied that—
 - (a) the premises are an eligible impacted property; and Note Eligible impacted property—see the Civil Law (Sale of Residential Property) Act 2003, s 9A (1).
 - (b) the lessor has given the tenant written notice under section 64AB (Termination—eligible impacted property) terminating the tenancy agreement; and
 - (c) the tenant has not vacated the premises as required by the notice.

- (2) The ACAT may suspend the operation of the termination and possession order for a stated period of up to 3 weeks if satisfied that—
- (a) the tenant would suffer significant hardship if the order were not suspended for the stated period; and
 - (b) the hardship would be greater than the hardship the lessor would suffer if the order were suspended for the stated period.

56 Compensation to lessor

If a person to whom a termination and possession order is directed fails to vacate the specified premises in accordance with the order, the ACAT may, on application made within 4 weeks after the date when the person was to vacate the premises, order the person to pay to the applicant such of the following as it considers appropriate:

- (a) an amount equal to the rent that would have been payable to the applicant if the premises had been tenanted during the period for which the person was in possession of the premises after termination of the residential tenancy agreement;
- (b) an amount equal to the reasonable costs incurred by the applicant in applying for a warrant for eviction and having the warrant executed.

57 Retaliatory applications

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a lessor has applied for a termination and possession order under this part; and
 - (b) the ACAT is satisfied that—
 - (i) 1 or more of the following happened:
 - (A) the tenant applied to the ACAT for an order in relation to the lessor;

- (B) the tenant complained to a government entity in relation to the lessor;
- (C) the tenant took reasonable action to secure or enforce the tenant's rights;

Example

the tenant sought legal advice or mediation

- (D) the ACAT made an order in favour of the tenant against the lessor;
- (E) the tenant published information, or disclosed information that was published, about the premises, the residential tenancy agreement, or the lessor; and
- (ii) for the event mentioned in subparagraph (i) (E)—the tenant did not, knowingly or recklessly, publish or disclose information that was false or misleading; and
- (iii) the lessor was motivated to apply for the termination and possession order because of an event mentioned in subparagraph (i).

(2) The ACAT must not make the termination and possession order.

(3) In this section:

information includes an allegation, complaint or opinion.

publish includes communicate.

Division 4.5 Defective termination notices

58 Lessor's defective termination notice if tenant vacates

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the lessor purports to give a termination notice to a tenant; and
 - (b) the notice is a defective termination notice; and

- (c) the tenant vacates the premises in accordance with the defective termination notice.
- (2) The residential tenancy agreement terminates on the day the tenant vacates the premises.
- (3) If a tenant vacates premises in accordance with a defective termination notice (other than a notice that was defective because it was not given to the tenant in accordance with this Act), the former tenant may apply to the ACAT for either or both of the following orders:
 - (a) an order for compensation for wrongful eviction;
 - (b) an order for reinstatement as tenant in possession of the premises.
- (4) The ACAT must not make an order mentioned in subsection (3) (b) unless satisfied that—
 - (a) the premises are vacant; and
 - (b) the lessor has not entered into a residential tenancy agreement with another tenant; and
 - (c) it is appropriate to make the order.

59 Lessor's defective termination notice if tenant does not vacate

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a lessor purports to give a termination notice to a tenant; and
 - (b) the notice is a defective termination notice for any reason, other than because it is not given in accordance with this Act.
- (2) The lessor may apply to the ACAT for—
 - (a) an order correcting the defect; and
 - (b) a termination and possession order.

- (3) The ACAT must not make an order under subsection (2) unless satisfied that the defective termination notice did not, and is not likely to, place the tenant in a significantly worse position than the tenant would have been in had the notice not been a defective termination notice.

60 Tenant's defective termination notice

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a tenant purports to give a termination notice to the lessor; and
 - (b) the notice is a defective termination notice; and
 - (c) the tenant vacates the premises in accordance with the defective termination notice.
- (2) The residential tenancy agreement terminates on the day the tenant vacates the premises.
- (3) On application by the former lessor, the ACAT may make an order for compensation for the former tenant's abandonment of the premises.
- (4) However, the ACAT may only make the order if satisfied the former lessor is in a significantly worse position because of the defective termination notice than the former lessor would have been had the notice not been defective.

Division 4.6 Abandonment of premises

61 Effect of abandonment

If a tenant abandons premises that the tenant occupies under a residential tenancy agreement, the agreement terminates on the day of abandonment.

Note If there is a dispute about the date of abandonment, the parties may apply to the ACAT for an interim order declaring when the premises were abandoned (see ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008, s 53).

61A Lessor may enter premises to confirm abandonment

- (1) This section applies if a lessor of premises under a residential tenancy agreement has taken all reasonable steps to contact the tenant and believes on reasonable grounds that the premises have been abandoned by the tenant.

Example

David has a fixed-term residential tenancy agreement with Michael to rent Michael's house. David hasn't paid his rent for 4 weeks so Michael tries to call David on the telephone number David gave him as a contact number. After several unsuccessful attempts to call him, Michael then sends letters to David's postal and email addresses but gets no response. Michael also drives by the house on several occasions at different times and notices that there is never any activity there. He also notices a smashed window and broken glass on the ground. Michael has taken all reasonable steps to contact David and has reasonable grounds for believing the premises have been abandoned by David.

- (2) The lessor may, without the tenant's consent, and without giving notice to the tenant, enter the premises during the residential tenancy agreement to confirm whether the premises have been abandoned.
- (3) However, the lessor must not enter the premises—
- (a) on Sunday; or
 - (b) on a public holiday; or
 - (c) before 8 am or after 6 pm.

62 Abandonment during fixed term

- (1) If a tenant abandons premises before the end of a fixed term agreement, the former lessor may apply to the ACAT for the following compensation:
- (a) compensation for the loss of the rent that the former lessor would have received had the agreement continued to the end of its term;
 - (b) compensation for the reasonable costs of advertising the premises for lease and of giving a right to occupy the premises to another person.

- (2) On application, the ACAT may award compensation of the kind mentioned in subsection (1) (a) and (b).
- (3) The amount of compensation the ACAT may award—
 - (a) under subsection (1) (a) must not exceed an amount equal to 25 weeks rent; and
 - (b) under subsection (1) (b) must not exceed an amount equal to 1 week's rent.
- (4) In deciding the amount of compensation that may be awarded under subsection (2) in relation to costs, the ACAT must have regard to when, apart from the abandonment of the premises—
 - (a) the agreement would have ended; and
 - (b) the lessor would have incurred the costs mentioned in subsection (1) (b).

63 Abandonment during periodic agreement

If a tenant abandons premises of which the tenant has possession under a periodic agreement, the former lessor may claim from the former tenant compensation of an amount equivalent to 3 weeks rent.

Division 4.7 Miscellaneous

64 Successor in title to lessor

- (1) A person other than a lessor who, apart from section 36, would be entitled to possession of premises, may terminate the residential tenancy agreement relating to the premises by—
- (a) notifying the tenant as soon as practicable after becoming so entitled that the person would be entitled to possession apart from section 36 and that the person who was lessor is no longer lessor; and

- (1) This section applies if premises that are the subject of a residential tenancy agreement are affected residential premises.

Note Affected residential premises—see the dictionary.

- (2) A party to the residential tenancy agreement may, by written notice to the other party, terminate the agreement.
- (3) If the tenant terminates the agreement, the tenant must—
- (a) state the date the tenant intends to terminate the agreement; and
 - (b) give the lessor at least 2 days notice.
- (4) If the lessor terminates the agreement, the lessor must—
- (a) state the date the lessor intends to terminate the agreement; and
 - (b) give the tenant at least 1 week's notice.
- (5) If the tenant vacates the premises on or before the date stated in the notice, the agreement ends on the date stated in the notice.
- (6) However—
- (a) if the tenant gives notice and does not vacate the premises on or before the date stated in the notice—
 - (i) the notice is taken to be withdrawn; and
 - (ii) the agreement continues; or
 - (b) if the lessor gives notice and the tenant does not vacate the premises on or before the date stated in the notice—
 - (i) the notice remains in force; and
 - (ii) the lessor may apply to the ACAT under section 55A for a termination and possession order in relation to the premises.

- (7) The break lease fee clause does not apply if a fixed term agreement is terminated under this section.

64AB Termination—eligible impacted property

- (1) This section applies if premises that are the subject of a residential tenancy agreement are an eligible impacted property.

Note Eligible impacted property—see the Civil Law (Sale of Residential Property) Act 2003, s 9A (1).

- (2) A party to the residential tenancy agreement may, by written notice to the other party, terminate the agreement.
- (3) The party terminating the agreement must—
- (a) state the date the party intends to terminate the agreement; and
 - (b) give the other party at least 28 working days notice.
- (4) If the tenant vacates the premises on or before the date stated in the notice, the agreement ends on the date stated in the notice.
- (5) However—
- (a) if the tenant gives notice and does not vacate the premises on or before the date stated in the notice—
 - (i) the notice is taken to be withdrawn; and
 - (ii) the agreement continues; or
 - (b) if the lessor gives notice and the tenant does not vacate the premises on or before the date stated in the notice—
 - (i) the notice remains in force; and
 - (ii) the lessor may apply to the ACAT under section 55B for a termination and possession order in relation to the premises.
- (6) The break lease fee clause does not apply if a fixed term agreement is terminated under this section.

64AC No new residential tenancy agreements etc for affected residential premises

- (1) This section applies in relation to affected residential premises that are included in the affected residential premises register.
- (2) Despite any other provision in this Act, a residential tenancy agreement for the premises entered into on or after 1 July 2020 is void.

- (4) Despite any other provision in this Act, an occupancy agreement for the premises entered into on or after 1 July 2020 is void.
- (5) Despite any other provision in this Act, a person may apply to the ACAT for an order for the following:

 - (b) that the tenant of the premises pay the person compensation for the money paid by the person under an agreement to sublet the premises that is void under this section;
 - (c) that the grantor of an occupancy agreement for the premises pay the person compensation for the money paid by the person under the agreement that is void under this section.

64AD Disallowing retaliatory notices to vacate

- (1) This section applies if—

- (b) the tenant makes an application for an order disallowing the termination notice before the end of the notice period stated in the notice; and
- (c) the ACAT is satisfied that—
 - (i) 1 or more of the following happened:
 - (A) the tenant applied to the ACAT for an order in relation to the lessor;
 - (B) the tenant complained to a government entity in relation to the lessor;
 - (C) the tenant took reasonable action to secure or enforce the tenant's rights;
Example
the tenant sought legal advice or mediation
 - (D) the ACAT made an order in favour of the tenant against the lessor;
 - (E) the tenant published information, or disclosed information that was published, about the premises, the residential tenancy agreement, or the lessor; and
 - (ii) for the circumstance mentioned in subparagraph (i) (E)—the tenant did not, knowingly or recklessly, publish or disclose information that was false or misleading; and

Part 5 Rental rate increases

64AE Meaning of rental rate increase—pt 5

In this part:

rental rate increase, for premises, means either of the following:

- (a) an increase in the rental rate for the premises under a residential tenancy agreement (including an existing consecutive tenancy agreement);
- (b) an increase in the rental rate for the premises that will take effect under a proposed consecutive tenancy agreement.

64A Pre-amendment fixed term agreements—increase in rent

- (1) This section applies only in relation to a fixed term agreement entered into before the commencement of the Housing and Consumer Affairs Legislation Amendment Act 2024, section 76.
- (2) The rental rate under the agreement must not be increased during the fixed term unless the amount of the increase, or a method for working it out, is set out in the agreement.

64AAA Limitation on rent increases—frequency

- (1) A lessor must not increase the rental rate under a residential tenancy agreement unless the increase takes effect at least 12 months after—
 - (a) for the first increase under the agreement—the day the residential tenancy agreement started; or
 - (b) for a later increase under the agreement—the day the last increase in rental rate took effect.

- (2) However, for a consecutive tenancy agreement, the lessor must not increase the rental rate unless the increase takes effect at least 12 months after the day the last increase in rental rate took effect, whether under the consecutive tenancy agreement or a terminated residential tenancy agreement.

64AAB Rent increases—housing commissioner

- (1) This section applies if the housing commissioner—
 - (a) is the lessor under a residential tenancy agreement (including a consecutive tenancy agreement); and
 - (b) has decided to increase the rental rate after a review under the Housing Assistance Act 2007, section 23.
- (2) Despite section 64AAA, the housing commissioner may increase the rental rate under the residential tenancy agreement.
- (3) However, if a previous review of the rental rate has been undertaken, the increase under subsection (2) must not take effect earlier than 12 months after the day the last increase in rental rate took effect.

64B Limitation on rent increases—amount

- (1) A rental rate increase for premises must not be more than the amount prescribed by regulation unless—
 - (a) for a fixed term agreement to which section 64A applies—the agreement allows the lessor to increase the rental rate by the higher amount; or
 - (b) after the lessor gives notice under subsection (2), the tenant agrees, in writing, to the increase; or
 - (c) the lessor obtains the ACAT’s prior approval.

- (2) For subsection (1) (b), the lessor must give the tenant a written notice stating—
- (a) the day the proposed increase takes effect (being a day at least 8 weeks after the day the notice is given); and
 - (b) the amount of the proposed increase; and
 - (c) whether the amount of the proposed increase is more than the amount prescribed under subsection (1); and
 - (d) if the proposed increase is more than the amount prescribed under subsection (1)—that if the tenant does not agree to the increase, the lessor may only make the proposed increase with the prior approval of the ACAT.

64C Tenant may apply for review

- (1) A tenant may apply to the ACAT for review of a proposed rental rate increase.
- (2) An application must be made not less than 2 weeks before the day on which the proposed increase is to come into effect.

65 Waiver of notice requirements

- (1) The ACAT may hear an application for the review of a rental rate increase even though the application is made less than 2 weeks before the day when the proposed increase is to come into effect, if the ACAT is satisfied that—
 - (a) the application is late because of special circumstances; and
 - (b) to hear the application will not place the lessor in a significantly worse position than the lessor would have been had the applicant applied as prescribed.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if—
 - (a) a tenant purports to give a termination notice to the lessor because of a rental rate increase; and

- (b) the notice is a defective termination notice; and
 - (c) the tenant vacates the premises in accordance with the defective termination notice.
- (3) On application by the former tenant, the ACAT may make an order correcting the defect in the defective termination notice if satisfied that the order would not put the former lessor in a significantly worse position than the former lessor would have been had the notice not been defective.

66 Freezing rents

If an application for review of a rental rate increase has been made but not decided, no increase in the rental rate happens unless allowed by the ACAT.

68 Guideline for orders

- (1) This section applies if an application is made to the ACAT under section 64B (1) (c) or section 64C (1) in relation to a rental rate increase.
- (2) The ACAT must allow a rental rate increase if—
- (a) for a fixed term agreement to which section 64A applies—the increase is allowed under the agreement and is not excessive; or
 - (b) in any other case—the increase is not excessive.
- (3) For subsection (2)—
- (a) unless the tenant satisfies the ACAT otherwise, a rental rate increase is not excessive if it is equal to or less than the amount prescribed by regulation; and
 - (b) unless the lessor satisfies the ACAT otherwise, a rental rate increase is excessive if it is more than the amount prescribed by regulation.

- (4) If a tenant or lessor proposes that a rental rate increase is or is not excessive, the ACAT, in considering whether it is satisfied about the proposal, must consider the following matters:
- (a) the rental rate before the proposed increase;
 - (b) if the lessor previously increased the rental rate while the relevant tenant was tenant—
 - (i) the amount of the last increase before the proposed increase; and
 - (ii) the period since that increase;
 - (c) outgoings or costs of the lessor in relation to the premises;
 - (d) services provided by the lessor to the tenant;
 - (e) the value of fixtures and goods supplied by the lessor as part of the tenancy;
 - (f) the state of repair of the premises;
 - (g) rental rates for comparable premises;
 - (h) the value of any work performed or improvements carried out by the tenant with the lessor's consent;
 - (i) any other matter the ACAT considers relevant.
- (5) If the ACAT considers a proposed rental rate increase is excessive but a lesser increase would not be, it may disallow so much of the increase as is excessive.

68A Orders

The ACAT may make the following orders in relation to an application to allow or to review a rental rate increase:

- (a) an order allowing the increase applied for or the other increase that the ACAT considers just;
- (b) an order disallowing the increase;

- (c) an order disallowing part of the increase.

69 Effect of orders

- (1) If the ACAT makes an order under section 68A (a) or (c), the rental rate increase takes effect from the date when the proposed increase would, apart from section 66, have taken place.
- (2) The ACAT may, on application, grant a tenant time to pay rent owed because of the operation of subsection (1).
- (3) If—
 - (a) the ACAT makes an order mentioned in section 68A (b) or (c); and
 - (b) despite section 66, the tenant has paid the lessor the full amount of the rental rate increase proposed by the lessor;

the ACAT may order the lessor to pay to the tenant the difference between the amount the tenant paid to the lessor and the amount that was payable.

70 Further increases

If a proposed rental rate increase has been reviewed by the ACAT, any further purported increase in the rental rate for a period of 12 months after the day the proposed increase was to take effect is void.

71 Reduction of existing rent

- (1) On application by a tenant, the ACAT must order a reduction in the rental rate payable under a residential tenancy agreement if it considers that the tenant's use or enjoyment of the premises has diminished significantly as a result of any of the following:
 - (a) the loss or diminished utility of an appliance, furniture, a facility or a service supplied by the lessor with the premises as a result of—
 - (i) the withdrawal of the appliance, furniture, facility or service by the lessor; or
 - (ii) the failure by the lessor to maintain the premises and any appliance, furniture or facility supplied with the premises in a reasonable state of repair, having regard to their condition at the commencement of the residential tenancy agreement; or
 - (iii) the failure by the lessor to provide and maintain the locks or other security devices necessary to ensure that the premises are reasonably secure;
 - (b) the loss of the use of all or part of the premises;
 - (c) interference with the tenant's quiet enjoyment of the premises or the tenant's ability to use the premises in reasonable peace, comfort and privacy by the lessor or anyone claiming through the lessor or having an interest in, or title to, the premises.
- (2) To remove any doubt and for subsection (1), a tenant's quiet enjoyment of premises is interfered with if there is substantial interference with, or a significant lessening of freedom in exercising, the tenant's rights.

- (3) A reduction in the rental rate ordered under subsection (1)—
 - (a) takes effect from the day the tenant's use or enjoyment of the premises diminished, or the later date that the ACAT specifies; and
 - (b) remains in force for the period, not longer than 12 months, specified by the ACAT.
- (4) The ACAT may order a lessor to pay to the tenant the difference between the rent paid and the rent payable as a result of an order for a rental rate reduction.
- (5) Any purported rental rate increase in relation to premises for which a reduction order is in force is void and any amount paid above and beyond the reduced rental rate in accordance with a purported increase is a debt owing by the lessor to the tenant.

71AAA Rent reduction for lessor's failure to comply with a minimum housing standard

- (1) On application by a tenant, the ACAT may order a reduction in the rental rate payable under a residential tenancy agreement (a rent reduction order) if the lessor fails to ensure premises comply with a minimum housing standard in accordance with section 19B.
- (2) However, the ACAT may refuse to make an order under subsection (1) if the tenant has failed to provide the lessor with reasonable access in accordance with clause 82 of the standard residential tenancy terms.
- (3) A rent reduction order—
 - (a) takes effect from the day the premises fail to comply, or no longer comply, with the minimum housing standard, or any later date stated by the ACAT; and
 - (b) remains in force for the period stated by the ACAT.

- (4) The ACAT may order a lessor to pay to the tenant the difference between the rent paid and the rent payable as a result of a rent reduction order.
- (5) Any purported rental rate increase in relation to premises for which a reduction order is in force is void and any amount paid above the reduced rental rate in accordance with a purported increase is a debt owing by the lessor to the tenant.

- (2) The tenant may apply, in writing, to the lessor for the lessor's consent.
- (3) The lessor—
 - (a) for a special modification—may refuse consent only if the lessor obtains the ACAT's prior approval; and
 - (b) in any other case—must not unreasonably refuse consent.
- (4) The lessor may impose a reasonable condition on consent.

Example

requiring the proposed renovation, alteration or addition to be done in a stated way to minimise damage to the premises

- (5) For an application under subsection (2) in relation to a special modification, the lessor is taken to consent to the tenant's application unless, within 14 days of receiving the application, the lessor applies to the ACAT under section 71AC.

71AC Lessor to apply to ACAT for refusal—special modifications

- (1) A lessor may apply to the ACAT for an order approving the lessor's refusal of the tenant's application under section 71AB (2) for consent to a special modification.
- (2) The ACAT must—
 - (a) approve the lessor's application; or
 - (b) refuse the lessor's application; or
 - (c) order that the lessor consent to the tenant's application but impose stated conditions on the consent.

Example—par (c)

the work be undertaken by a qualified tradesperson

- (3) The ACAT may make an order under subsection (2) (a) or (c) if satisfied—
 - (a) the lessor would suffer significant hardship; or
 - (b) the special modification would be contrary to a territory law; or
 - (c) the special modification is likely to require modifications to other residential premises or common areas; or
 - (d) the special modification would result in additional maintenance costs for the lessor; or
 - (e) of any other matter prescribed by regulation.

71AD Tenant may apply to ACAT for review of refusal—other modifications

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a tenant makes an application under section 71AB (2) for the lessor's consent to renovate, or make an alteration or addition to, premises; and

- (3) The ACAT must—
 - (a) approve the tenant's application; or
 - (b) refuse the tenant's application; or
 - (c) order that the lessor consent to the tenant's application but impose stated conditions on the consent.

Example—par (c)

the work be undertaken by a qualified tradesperson

- (4) In making a decision under subsection (3), the ACAT must consider—
 - (a) whether the modification—
 - (i) would cause the lessor to suffer significant hardship; and
 - (ii) would be contrary to a territory law; and
 - (iii) is likely to require modifications to other residential premises or common areas; and
 - (iv) would result in additional maintenance costs for the lessor; and
 - (v) is otherwise reasonable in the circumstances; and
 - (b) any other matter prescribed by regulation.

71AE Process for tenant seeking consent—animals

- (1) This section applies if, under a residential tenancy agreement, the tenant is required to obtain the lessor's consent to keep an animal on the premises.
- (2) The tenant may apply, in writing, to the lessor for the lessor's consent.
- (3) The lessor may refuse consent only if the lessor obtains the ACAT's prior approval.
- (4) The lessor may impose a condition on consent—
 - (a) if the condition is a reasonable condition about—
 - (i) the number of animals kept on the premises; or
 - (ii) the cleaning or maintenance of the premises; or
 - (b) with the prior approval of the ACAT.

Note A tenant may apply to the ACAT to resolve a tenancy dispute, including a dispute about whether a condition imposed under s (4) (a) is a reasonable condition (see pt 6).
- (5) The lessor is taken to consent to the tenant's application under subsection (2) unless, within 14 days of receiving the application, the lessor applies to the ACAT under section 71AF.

71AF Lessor to apply to ACAT for refusal—animals

 - (a) other personal information about the person in the database is attached to the person's name; and

- (b) the other personal information is not required to be removed under subsection (1) or another law.

Example

Larry Tate is listed in a residential tenancy database in relation to two breaches of residential tenancy agreements. The first breach occurred 3 years ago. The second breach occurred 2 years ago. The database operator is required under s 97 (1) to remove the reference to the first breach from the database. On 1 August, Ziggy gives the lessor the information the lessor requested and the first notice to vacate is taken to be withdrawn. Taking into account the new information, the housing commissioner decides that Ziggy is no longer eligible to receive the housing assistance. Ziggy does not seek the tribunal's review of the commissioner's decision. The lessor may give Ziggy a second notice to vacate, but the second notice must not have a notice period that ends before 30 December.

 - (c) the tenant is no longer able to ask for a review of the housing commissioner's decision to require the tenant to move to the alternate rental premises.
 - (2) The lessor may give the tenant at least 26 weeks notice to vacate the premises.

 - (ii) are physically unable to live in the premises; or
 - (iii) are legally unable to live in the premises; or

2.5 Subsidised accommodation clauses

What are subsidised accommodation eligibility requirements?

- 108 For this agreement, subsidised accommodation eligibility requirements, in relation to premises under a residential tenancy agreement, means any rule or requirement against which—
- (a) the tenant's eligibility to live in the premises will be assessable during the tenancy; or
 - (b) the lessor's eligibility to receive government funding or assistance in relation to the premises will be assessable during the tenancy.

Lessor's obligations in relation to eligibility requirements

- 109 If a subsidised accommodation eligibility requirement is amended during the tenancy, the lessor must give the tenant a copy of the amended requirements not later than 2 weeks after the lessor is informed of or makes the amendments.

Tenant must provide information relating to eligibility requirements

- 110
- (1) The lessor may ask the tenant, in writing, to give the lessor any information that is reasonably necessary for assessing—
 - (a) the lessor's or owner's eligibility for government funding or assistance for the premises; or
 - (b) the tenant's eligibility to live in the premises.
 - (2) If the lessor makes a request under subclause (1), the lessor must give the tenant a reasonable period to comply with the request.
 - (3) The tenant agrees to give the lessor any information requested under subclause (1) within the period stated in the lessor's request.
 - (4) A tenant's failure to comply with subclause (3) is not taken to be a breach of this agreement.

Termination if tenant fails to provide information relating to eligibility requirements

- 111
- (1) If the tenant does not give the lessor information in accordance with the lessor's request for information within the period stated in the lessor's request, the lessor may give the tenant at least 26 weeks notice to vacate the premises.
 - (2) A notice to vacate given under subclause (1) must include the following information:
 - (a) a statement that the tenant did not give the lessor the information requested by the lessor;
 - (b) the name and contact details of a legal or advocacy service that may be able to provide the tenant with advice about the tenant's legal rights;

 - (a) the end of the period in the notice given under subclause (1); and
 - (b) 12 weeks after notice is given under this subclause.

Example

On 1 July, Poppy's lessor gives Poppy a notice to vacate because Poppy did not provide the lessor with information about Poppy's eligibility for subsidised housing within the required period. The notice to vacate gives Poppy the required 26 weeks notice, meaning Poppy must vacate the premises by 30 December. On 1 August, Poppy gives the lessor the information the lessor requested and the first notice to vacate is taken to be withdrawn. Taking into account the new information, the lessor determines that Poppy is no longer eligible to live in the premises. The lessor may give Poppy a second notice to vacate, but the second notice must not have a notice period that ends before 30 December.

- (6) A notice to vacate given under subclause (5) must include the name and contact details of a legal or advocacy service that may be able to provide the tenant with advice about the tenant's legal rights.
- (7) If the lessor gives a tenant a notice to vacate under this clause, the tenant may vacate the premises at any time before the date stated in the lessor's notice to vacate provided the tenant gives the lessor—
 - (a) at least 2 weeks notice of the tenant's intention to vacate; or
 - (b) in the last 2 weeks before the date stated in the lessor's notice to vacate—at least 4 days notice of the tenant's intention to vacate.
- (8) The residential tenancy agreement terminates on the day the tenant vacates the premises.

6 Expired transitional or validating provisions

This Act may be affected by transitional or validating provisions that have expired. The expiry does not affect any continuing operation of the provisions (see Legislation Act 2001, s 88 (1)).

Expired provisions are removed from the republished law when the expiry takes effect and are listed in the amendment history using the abbreviation ‘exp’ followed by the date of the expiry.

To find the expired provisions see the version of this Act before the expiry took effect. The ACT legislation register has point-in-time versions of this Act.
