Republication No 12

Effective: 13 May 2011 – 3 October 2011

Republication date: 13 May 2011

Last amendment made by A2011-15

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Spent Convictions Act 2000 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 13 May 2011. It also includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting the republished law to 13 May 2011.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced or is affected by an uncommenced amendment, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the uncommenced provision or amendment appears only in the last endnote.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

At the republication date, the value of a penalty unit for an offence against this law is $110 for an individual and $550 for a corporation (see Legislation Act 2001, s 133).

Spent Convictions Act 2000

An Act to limit the effect of a person's conviction for certain offences if the person completes a period of crime-free behaviour, to make provision about quashed convictions and pardons, and for other purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Spent Convictions Act 2000.

3 Overview of Act

- (1) This Act provides a scheme to limit the effect of a person's conviction for certain offences if the person completes a period of crime-free behaviour.
- (2) Under the scheme, after completion of a period of crime-free behaviour, a conviction to which the scheme applies is regarded as spent and, subject to certain exceptions, does not form part of the person's criminal history and may only be used for certain purposes.

Note See the Discrimination Act 1991, s 7 (1) (o) for discrimination on the ground of spent conviction.

- (3) This Act also deals with the effect of the quashing of a conviction and the pardoning of an offence.

4 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere.

For example, the signpost definition 'conviction—see section 6.' means that the term 'conviction' is defined in that section and the definition applies to this Act.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

5 Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See Legislation Act 2001, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

6 Meaning of convicted

For this Act, a person is convicted of an offence if—

- (a) the person is convicted of the offence, whether summarily or on indictment; or
- (b) the person is charged with the offence and a court finds the person guilty of the offence.

Examples for par (b)

- 1 the court makes an order under the Crimes (Sentencing) Act 2005, s 17 (Non-conviction orders—general)
- 2 the court makes an order under the Children and Young People Act 1999, s 98 (Disposition without proceeding to conviction)

Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

7 Meaning of spent conviction

- (1) For this Act, the conviction of a person for an offence is spent if—
 - (a) the conviction is spent under section 12 (When is a conviction spent?); or
 - (b) the conviction is quashed; or
 - (c) the person is granted a pardon for the offence.
- (2) In this Act, a reference to a conviction that is spent includes a reference to the charge to which the spent conviction related.

8 Meaning of quash

For this Act, a person's conviction for an offence is quashed if—

- (a) the conviction is quashed or set aside; or
- (b) the finding that the charge was proved is quashed or set aside (except to impose a penalty for the offence).

9 Act applies to convictions for offences against non-ACT laws

- (1) This Act applies to convictions for Commonwealth offences, State offences and foreign offences as well as convictions for ACT offences.
- (2) This Act applies to convictions imposed for Commonwealth offences, State offences and foreign offences with the changes necessary to enable its provisions to apply to those offences in a way that corresponds as closely as possible to the way it applies to ACT offences.

Note The Crimes Act 1914 (Cwlth), pt VIIC deals with spent convictions. In particular, s 85ZV (1) of that Act provides, among other things, that a person is not required, in a State or Territory, to disclose to any person, for any purpose, the fact that the person has been charged with, or convicted of, a Commonwealth offence if the person's conviction for the offence is spent under that Act. (Division 6 of that part provides exclusions.) The subsection is expressed to apply despite, among other things, any state or territory law. Under the Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth), s 28 a provision of a Territory enactment has no effect to the extent to which it is inconsistent with a Commonwealth law in force in the Territory.

10 Act applies to existing convictions

This Act applies in relation to a person convicted of an offence whether the person is convicted before or after the commencement of this Act.

Part 2 Spent convictions

11 Which convictions can become spent?

- (1) Any conviction (other than a conviction mentioned in subsection (2)) can become spent.
- (2) The following convictions cannot become spent convictions:
 - (a) a conviction for which a sentence of imprisonment of longer than 6 months has been imposed;
 - (b) a conviction for a sexual offence;
 - (c) a conviction of a corporation;
 - (d) a conviction prescribed under the regulations.
- (3) In this section:

sentence of imprisonment—

 - (a) includes a period of a sentence of imprisonment to be served by periodic detention under the Crimes (Sentence Administration) Act 2005; but
 - (b) does not include the detention of a person under a control order.

12 When is a conviction spent?

- (1) A conviction is spent on completion of the relevant crime-free period, unless it is earlier spent under this section.
- (2) If a charge for an offence is dismissed under either of the following provisions, the finding of guilt for the offence (however described) is spent on the dismissal of the charge:
 - (a) the Crimes (Sentencing) Act 2005, section 17 (Non-conviction orders—general);

(b) the Children and Young People Act 1999, section 98 (Disposition without proceeding to conviction).

Note An order under the Crimes Act 1900, s 402 (Conditional release of offenders without proceeding to conviction) (repealed) is taken to be a non-conviction order that is a good behaviour order under the Crimes (Sentencing) Act 2005 (see Crimes (Sentence Administration) Act 2005, s 336).

- (3) If an order under the Crimes (Sentencing) Act 2005, section 17 (Non-conviction orders—general) is a good behaviour order subject to a condition, the order is spent only when the condition is completely satisfied.
- (4) An order reprimanding a person under the Children and Young People Act 1999, section 96 (1) (or 98 (2) (b)) or the Children's Services Act 1986, section 47 (1) (or 48 (k)) is spent on the making of the order.
- (5) A conditional discharge order, order for the payment of reparation or compensation, or attendance centre order, under the Children and Young People Act 1999, section 96 (1) (or 98 (2) (b)) or the Children's Services Act 1986, section 47 (1) (or 48 (k)) is spent on satisfactory compliance with the order.
- (6) A probation order under the Children and Young People Act 1999, section 96 (1) (or 98 (2) (b)) or the Children's Services Act 1986, section 47 (1) (or 48 (k)) is spent at the end of the period for which the order is in force.
- (7) A conviction for an offence of a kind that has ceased, by operation of law, to be an offence is spent when the offence ceased to be an offence, if the offence is prescribed under the regulations to be an offence to which this subsection applies.

13 What is the crime-free period?

(1) In this section:

relevant period, in relation to the conviction of a person for an offence, means—

- (a) if the person was not dealt with as an adult in relation to the conviction—5 consecutive years; or
- (b) in any other case—10 consecutive years.

(2) The crime-free period for a person for an offence is the relevant period during which the person has not been—

- (a) subject to a control order; or
- (b) convicted of an offence punishable by imprisonment; or
- (c) in prison because of a conviction for an offence; or
- (d) unlawfully at large in relation to an offence.

Note Under s 14, convictions for traffic offences are considered separately from non-traffic offences in defining the crime-free period.

14 How are traffic offences to be dealt with?

(1) In this section:

drive—see the Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Act 1999, dictionary.

driver trainer—see the Road Transport (Alcohol and Drugs) Act 1977, dictionary.

motor vehicle—see the Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Act 1999, dictionary.

non-traffic offence means any offence except a traffic offence.

road transport legislation—see the Road Transport (General) Act 1999, section 6.

traffic offence means any offence arising out of the use of a motor vehicle, and includes any offence against the road transport legislation.

trailer—see the Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Act 1999, dictionary.

use a motor vehicle or trailer includes drive, stop or park the motor vehicle or trailer.

- (2) A conviction for a traffic offence, and any period of imprisonment imposed because of such a conviction, are disregarded in calculating the crime-free period for a conviction for a non-traffic offence.

Note A conviction for a traffic offence is relevant only in calculating the crime-free period for a conviction for an earlier traffic offence.

- (3) A conviction for a non-traffic offence, and any period of imprisonment imposed because of such a conviction, are disregarded in calculating the crime-free period for a conviction for a traffic offence.

Note A conviction for a non-traffic offence is relevant only in calculating the crime-free period for an earlier non-traffic offence.

- (4) However, a conviction for any of the following offences is relevant in calculating the crime-free period for any conviction (whether for a traffic offence or a non-traffic offence):

- (a) an offence against the Crimes Act 1900, section 29 (Culpable driving);
- (b) any other offence against the Crimes Act 1900 where a necessary fact to constitute the offence is that someone dies or is injured because of, or as a result of, the way the convicted person drove a motor vehicle;
- (c) an offence against the Road Transport (Alcohol and Drugs) Act 1977, part 3 (which is about drivers and driver trainers having the prescribed concentration of alcohol in blood or breath, driving or driver training with a prescribed drug in oral fluid or blood, refusing to provide a breath sample, oral fluid, blood test for analysis, failing to stay for a drug screening test and driving or driver training under the influence of intoxicating liquor);

- (d) an offence against the Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Act 1999, section 6 (1) (which is about negligent driving) that occasions death or grievous bodily harm (within the meaning of that subsection);
- (e) an offence against the Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Act 1999, section 7 (1) (which is about furious, reckless and dangerous driving);
- (f) an offence against the Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Act 1999, section 8 (1) or (2) (which are about menacing driving);
- (g) an offence prescribed under the regulations for this subsection.

15 Spent convictions generally not revived

- (1) A conviction of a person for an offence (the first offence) that is spent is not revived by the subsequent conviction of the person for another offence (the later offence).
- (2) However, if the later offence was committed during the crime-free period for the first offence and—
 - (a) the person is convicted summarily of the later offence by an ACT court—the court may order that this part ceases to apply to the person in relation to the first offence until the crime-free period for the later offence has ended; or
 - (b) the person is convicted on indictment of the later offence by an ACT court—this part automatically ceases to apply to the person in relation to the first offence until the crime-free period for the later offence has ended; or

- (c) the person is convicted of the later offence by a court of the Commonwealth, a State or Territory or a foreign country—this part automatically ceases to apply to the person in relation to the first offence until the crime-free period for the later offence has ended.
- (3) While this part does not apply to the person in relation to the first offence, the conviction of the person for the first offence is not a spent conviction.

Part 3 Consequences of a conviction becoming spent 16 What are the consequences of a conviction becoming spent?

If a conviction of a person is spent—

- (a) the person is not required to disclose information about the spent conviction to anyone; and
- (b) a question about the person's criminal history is taken not to refer to the spent conviction, but to refer only to any of the person's convictions that are not spent; and
- (c) in applying an Act to the person—
 - (i) a reference to a conviction (however expressed) is taken not to refer to the spent conviction, but to refer only to any of the person's convictions that are not spent; and
 - (ii) a reference to the person's character (however expressed) does not allow or require anyone to take the spent conviction into account.

Note A reference to an Act includes a reference to the statutory instruments made or in force under the Act, including regulations (see Legislation Act 2001, s 104).

17 Unlawful disclosure of a conviction becoming spent

- (1) A person who has access to records of convictions kept by or on behalf of a public authority must not, without lawful authority, disclose any information about a spent conviction.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, imprisonment for 6 months or both.

- (2) It is not an offence for an archive or library (or an authorised officer or employee of an archive or library) to make available to a member of the public, or to another archive or library, in accordance with the normal procedures of the archive or library, material that is normally available for public use and that contains information about a spent conviction.

- (3) It is not an offence for a law enforcement agency (or an authorised officer or employee of a law enforcement agency) in the exercise of its functions (or of the functions of the authorised officer or employee) to make information about a spent conviction available to another law enforcement agency or to a court.

18 Improperly obtaining information about spent convictions

A person must not fraudulently or dishonestly obtain information about a spent conviction from records of convictions kept by or on behalf of a public authority.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, imprisonment for 6 months or both.
