

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

Duties Amendment Act 2000

No 5 of 2000

An Act to amend the Duties Act 1999

[Notified in ACT Gazette S8: 1 March 2000]

The Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory enacts as follows:

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Duties Amendment Act 2000.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on the day it is notified in the Gazette.

3 Act amended

This Act amends the Duties Act 1999.

4 Insertion

After section 213 the following section is inserted:

“213A Registration charges consequent on Vehicle Registration Act

“(1) Duty under this Chapter is not chargeable on an application to register a motor vehicle if—

- (a) the person or people in whose names the vehicle is to be registered differ from the person or people in whose name the vehicle was last registered only because of a difference between the Motor Traffic

Act 1936 (as in force immediately before its repeal) and the Vehicle Registration Act; and

(b) the Minister has, by writing, exempted the application from duty.

“(2) An exemption under paragraph (1) (b) is a disallowable instrument.

“(3) This section ceases to have effect on 1 March 2002.”.

5 Rectification of errors in registration

Section 224 is amended by adding at the end the following subsections:

“(2) However, duty is not chargeable under this section on an application to register a motor vehicle if—

(a) the registration details sought to be rectified were included in an application for registration on which duty was not chargeable because of section 213A; and

(b) the Minister has, by writing, exempted the application for rectification from duty.

“(3) An exemption under paragraph (2) (b) is a disallowable instrument.

“(4) Subsections (2) and (3) and this subsection cease to have effect on 31 March 2002.”.
