CORPORATE LICENSEES

“45 Intended change of executive officers—notification and objection

“(1) If a person (the prospective executive officer) intends becoming an executive officer of a corporate licensee, the person must notify that intention by notice published in a daily newspaper circulating in the Territory.

“(2) The notice must—

- (a) include the full name and current residential address of the prospective executive officer; and
- (b) include the name of the corporate licensee; and
- (c) state that, if a person wishes to object to the continuation of the licensee’s licence if the prospective executive officer becomes a an executive officer, the person must object by notice given to the registrar within 14 days at the registrar’s address stated in the notice.

“(3) The prospective executive officer must give a copy of the notice submitted to the newspaper to the chief police officer as soon as practicable after submitting it for publication.

“(4) The registrar must hold an inquiry to decide whether the prospective executive officer is a suitable person if—

- (a) the registrar receives an objection within the time mentioned in paragraph (2) (c); and
- (b) the registrar is satisfied that the objection is not frivolous or vexatious.

“46 Change of executive officers—objection by chief police officer

“(1) If a person (the new executive officer) becomes an executive officer of a corporate licensee, the licensee must, within 21 days after the new executive officer becomes an executive officer, give the registrar written notice that the new executive officer has become an executive officer.

“(2) The notice must—

- (a) state the full name and date of birth of the new executive officer; and
- (b) state the current residential address of the new executive officer and any other residential addresses during the last 3 years; and
- (c) if the person has, in the Territory or elsewhere, previously carried on the business of a dealer or been employed by a dealer—provide details of the business or employment.

“(3) The registrar must give a copy of the notice to the chief police officer.

“(4) The chief police officer may, by written notice given to the registrar, object to the continuation of the corporate licensee’s licence on the ground that the new executive officer is an unsuitable person.

“(5) The chief police officer must give the objection to the registrar within 21 days after the notice under subsection (1) is given to the registrar.

“47 Cancellation of licences by registrar

“(1) The registrar may cancel the licence of a corporate licensee if, after holding an inquiry, the registrar is satisfied that a person (the relevant person) who has become, or intends becoming, an executive officer of the licensee is an unsuitable person.

“(2) However, the registrar may cancel the licence of the corporate licensee without holding an inquiry if—

- (a) the registrar decided at an inquiry under subsection 45 (4) that the relevant person was an unsuitable person; and
- (b) the registrar believes on reasonable grounds that the relevant person has become an executive officer of the licensee.

“(3) The registrar must tell the licensee in writing of the cancellation of the licence.

“PART 6A—DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

“48 When registrar may take action in relation to licences

“(1) The registrar may take action under section 48A in relation to a licensee if—

- (a) the licence held by the person was granted, or renewed or varied, because of a false or misleading statement made, or false or misleading information provided, by the person in or in relation to the application for the licence or for renewal or variation of it; and
- (b) the person is no longer eligible to apply for, or for renewal of, a licence or the licence held by the person.

Examples of when individual licensees no longer eligible to apply

- 1 The licensee is an unsuitable person because the licensee has committed an offence against the Act.
- 2 The licensee has become bankrupt.
- 3 The licensee is unlikely to be able to continue to comply with the obligations applying to the licence.

- 4 If the licensee holds a vehicle sale licence, the licensee does not have sufficient material and financial resources to carry on the business in accordance with this Act.

Examples of when corporate licensees no longer eligible to apply

- 1 An executive officer of the licensee is an unsuitable person because the executive officer has committed an offence involving dishonesty.
- 2 If the licensee holds a vehicle sale licence, the licensee does not have sufficient material and financial resources to carry on the business in accordance with this Act.

“48A Procedures for registrar taking action in relation to licences

“(1) The registrar may take 1 or more of the following actions under this section in relation to a licence:

- (a) reprimand the licensee;
- (b) require the licensee to comply with a stated requirement within a stated period;
- (c) impose a condition on the licence;
- (d) suspend the licence for not longer than 1 year;
- (e) disqualify the licensee from holding a licence permanently or for a stated period;
- (f) cancel the licence.

“(2) Without limiting paragraph (1) (b), a requirement under the paragraph may require the licensee—

- (a) to make an additional contribution to the compensation fund within a stated period; or
- (b) to indemnify, within a stated time, the compensation fund to a stated extent if something happens because of anything done or omitted to be done by the licensee.

“(3) If the registrar proposes to take any action under this section in relation to a licence, the registrar must give the licensee a notice that—

- (a) states the proposed action, including any proposed suspension period and any proposed period of disqualification; and
- (b) states the grounds for the proposed action; and

- (c) invites the licensee to make written representations, within a stated period of at least 14 days after the licensee is given the notice, why the proposed action should not be taken.

“(4) If, after considering any written representations made by the licensee within the stated period, the registrar is satisfied on reasonable grounds that a ground mentioned in section 48 (When registrar may take action in relation to licences) exists to take action under this section in relation to the licensee, the registrar may take the following action:

- (a) if the proposed action included reprimanding the licensee—reprimand the licensee;
- (b) if the proposed action included requiring the licensee to comply with a stated requirement within a stated period—make the requirement, reprimand the licensee or both;
- (c) if the proposed action included imposing a condition on the licence—impose the condition, reprimand the licensee or both;
- (d) if the proposed action included disqualifying the licensee from applying for a licence for a stated period—cancel the licence, or suspend the licence for not longer than that period, and disqualify the person from applying for a licence for not longer than that period;
- (e) if the proposed action included disqualifying the licensee from applying for a licence permanently—cancel the licence, or suspend the licence for not longer than 1 year, and disqualify the person from applying for a licence permanently or for not longer than 5 years;
- (f) if the proposed action included suspending the licence for a stated period—suspend the licence not longer than that period or reprimand the licensee;
- (g) if the proposed action included cancelling the licence—cancel the licence, suspend the licence for not longer than 1 year or reprimand the licensee.

“(5) The registrar must tell the licensee in writing of the decision.

“(6) If the registrar decides to suspend or cancel the licence, or disqualify the licensee from applying for a licence, the registrar must also tell the licensee in writing when the suspension, cancellation or disqualification takes effect.

“(7) A suspension or cancellation must not take effect earlier than 7 days after the licensee is told about the decision.

“(8) If the registrar suspends a licensee’s licence, the licensee is, during the period of the suspension—

- (a) taken not to be licensed; and
- (b) disqualified from applying for a licence.

“(9) If a person is disqualified from applying for a licence under this section, the person is not eligible to apply for a licence while the person is disqualified.”.

- (k) an offence against a law of the Territory, the Commonwealth a State another Territory or foreign country punishable by imprisonment for a period of longer than 1 year; or
- (l) the sale of a motor vehicle without passing unencumbered title to the vehicle.

“(5) An executive officer of a person is taken to have committed a disqualifying act if the executive officer was an executive officer of a person at the time the lastmentioned person committed the disqualifying act.

“(6) However, even if the person has committed or engaged in a disqualifying act, the person is a suitable person if the registrar is satisfied that, in all the circumstances, it would be reasonable to regard the person as a suitable person.

“(7) In making a decision under subsection (6) in relation to the person, the registrar must have regard to—

- (a) the circumstances of the disqualifying act; and
- (b) whether the person cooperated in the investigation of the disqualifying act; and

- (c) the extent to which the person provided restitution for any loss suffered because of the disqualifying act; and
- (d) the time since the disqualifying act was committed or engaged in; and
- (e) whether the disqualifying act was an isolated event.

“(8) Subsection (7) does not limit the matters to which the registrar may have regard in making the decision.

“(4) In this section:

market means a market in which second-hand goods are sold, bought or otherwise dealt with (whether or not the market also deals with other goods), but does not include an event or activity prescribed under the regulations.

promoter, of a market, includes someone who manages, controls or organises the market.

“14 Register of licences

“(1) The commissioner must keep a register of licences under this Act.

“(2) The register must be available for public inspection at reasonable times.

“15 Keeping of register

“(1) The register may include information about licences given to the commissioner under this Act and any other information the commissioner considers appropriate.

“(2) The register may be kept in the form of, or as part of, 1 or more computer databases or in any other form the commissioner considers appropriate.

“(3) The commissioner may correct any mistake, error or omission in the register subject to the requirements (if any) of the regulations.

“(4) This section does not limit the functions of the commissioner in relation to the register.

“16 False or misleading information

A person must not, in relation to an application for a licence—

- (a) provide information that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular; or
- (b) omit information without which the application is, to the person’s knowledge, misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units, imprisonment for 6 months or both.

“17 Approved forms

“(1) The commissioner may approve forms for this Act.

“(2) An approved form may include a consent for a police officer to make inquiries about any criminal record of—

- (a) the applicant; or
- (b) if the applicant is a corporation—the applicant and each executive officer of the applicant.

“(3) If the commissioner approves a form for a particular purpose, the form must be used for that purpose.

“18 Determination of fees and charges

“(1) The Minister may determine fees and charges for this Act.

“(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a fee, charge or other amount may be determined—

- (a) by specifying the fee, charge or amount; or

- (b) by setting a rate, or providing a formula or other method, by which the fee, charge or amount is to be worked out.

“(3) A determination under this section—

- (a) must provide who is liable to pay a fee, charge or other amount; and
- (b) may make provision about when the fee, charge or other amount is payable and how it is to be paid (for example, as a lump sum or by instalments); and
- (c) may make provision about anything else relating to the fee, charge or other amount.

“(4) A determination under this section is a disallowable instrument.

“19 Fees payable to Territory in accordance with determinations

“(1) A fee determined under section 18 is payable to the Territory, in relation to the relevant matter mentioned in the determination and in accordance with the determination, by the person liable to pay the fee under the determination.

“(2) A fee determined under section 18 is payable in advance unless the determination provides otherwise.
