Freedom of Information Act 2016

A2016-55

Republication No 8

Effective: 1 January 2022 – 23 May 2023

Republication date: 1 January 2022

Last amendment made by A2021-33

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Freedom of Information Act 2016 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 1 January 2022. It also includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting this republished law to 1 January 2022.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. Any uncommenced amendments that affect this republished law are accessible on the ACT legislation register (www.legislation.act.gov.au). For more information, see the home page for this law on the register.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see the Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

At the republication date, the value of a penalty unit for an offence against this law is $160 for an individual and $810 for a corporation (see Legislation Act 2001, s 133).

Australian Capital Territory

Freedom of Information Act 2016

An Act to give public access to government information, and for other purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Freedom of Information Act 2016.

3 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere.

For example, the signpost definition ‘public official—see the Criminal Code, section 300.’ means that the term ‘public official’ is defined in that section and the definition applies to this Act.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

4 Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See the Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

5 Offences against Act—application of Criminal Code etc

Other legislation applies in relation to offences against this Act.

Note 1 Criminal Code

The Criminal Code, ch 2 applies to all offences against this Act (see Code, pt 2.1).

The chapter sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility (including burdens of proof and general defences), and defines terms used for offences to which the Code applies (eg conduct, intention, recklessness and strict liability).

Note 2 Penalty units

The Legislation Act, s 133 deals with the meaning of offence penalties that are expressed in penalty units.

Part 2 Objects and important concepts

6 Objects of Act

The objects of this Act are to—

- (a) provide a right of access to government information unless access to the information would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest; and
- (b) recognise the importance of public access to government information for the proper working of representative democracy; and
- (c) enable the public to participate more effectively in government processes and to promote improved decision-making within government; and
- (d) make the people and bodies that are responsible for governing the Territory more accountable to the public; and
- (e) ensure that, to the fullest extent possible, government information is freely and publicly available to everyone; and
- (f) facilitate and promote, promptly and at the lowest reasonable cost, the disclosure of the maximum amount of government information; and
- (g) ensure that personal information held by the Territory is accurate, complete, up-to-date and not misleading.

7 Right of access to government information

- (1) Subject to this Act, every person has an enforceable right to obtain access under this Act to government information.
- (2) This section applies to information even if it came into existence before the commencement of this Act.

8 Informal requests for government information

- (1) An agency is authorised to release government information held by the agency to a person in response to an informal request by the person.
- (2) This section is subject to a provision of another law that prohibits the disclosure of information.

9 Promoting access to government information

It is the intention of the Legislative Assembly that this Act be administered with a pro-disclosure bias and discretions given under it be exercised as far as possible in favour of disclosing government information.

10 Act not intended to prevent or discourage publication etc

This Act is not intended to prevent or discourage agencies or Ministers from publishing or giving access to government information (including contrary to the public interest information) otherwise than under this Act.

11 Relationship with other laws requiring disclosure

This Act does not affect the operation of any other law that—

- (a) requires government information to be made available to the public; or
- (b) enables a member of the public to obtain access to government information; or
- (c) requires publication of government information.

12 Relationship with Health Records (Privacy and Access) Act 1997

This Act does not apply to information in a health record under the Health Records \(Privacy and Access\) Act 1997.

13 Relationship with Territory Records Act 2002

- (1) This Act does not apply to—
 - (a) a record of an agency if a person is entitled to access the record under the Territory Records Act 2002, part 3 (Agency records—access); or
 - (b) an accessible executive record.
- (2) If the director makes a declaration under the Territory Records Act 2002, section 28 (Declaration applying provisions of FOI Act) in relation to a record, this Act applies to the record while the declaration is in force.

Note Unless sooner revoked, a declaration under the Territory Records Act 2002, s 28 is in force for 10 years or any shorter period stated in the declaration.

- (3) If the principal officer makes a release restraint determination under the Territory Records Act 2002, section 31G (2) (b) (Release delayed or denied) in relation to a record, this Act applies to the record while the determination is in force.
- (4) In this section:

accessible executive record—see the Territory Records Act 2002, section 31B.

director—see the Territory Records Act 2002, dictionary.

principal officer, of an agency—see the dictionary.

record—see the Territory Records Act 2002, dictionary.

14 What is government information?

In this Act:

government information—

- (a) means information held by an agency or Minister; but
- (b) does not include information—
 - (i) relating to a Minister’s personal or political activities; or
 - (ii) created or received by a Minister in the Minister’s capacity as a member of the Legislative Assembly.

held—information is held by an agency or Minister if it is—

- (a) contained in a record held by the agency or Minister; or
- (b) contained in a record that the agency or Minister is entitled to access.

15 Meaning of agency

(1) In this Act:

agency means—

- (a) an administrative unit; or
- (b) a statutory office-holder and the staff assisting the statutory office-holder; or
- (c) a territory authority; or
- (d) a territory instrumentality; or
- (e) a territory-owned corporation or a subsidiary of a territory-owned corporation; or
- (f) the Office of the Legislative Assembly; or
- (g) an officer of the Assembly; or
- (h) the Supreme Court; or

- (i) the Magistrates Court or Coroner's Court; or
 - (j) the ACAT; or
 - (k) a board of inquiry under the Inquiries Act 1991; or
 - (l) a judicial commission under the Judicial Commissions Act 1994; or
 - (m) a royal commission under the Royal Commissions Act 1991; or
 - (n) an entity prescribed by regulation.
- (2) In this section:

territory authority means a body established for a public purpose under an Act or statutory instrument but does not include—

- (a) the judicial council established under the Judicial Commissions Act 1994, section 5A; or
- (b) the law society established under the Legal Profession Act 2006, section 576.

territory instrumentality means a corporation that is established under an Act or statutory instrument, or under the Corporations Act, and—

- (a) is comprised of people, or has a governing body comprised of people, a majority of whom are appointed by a Minister or an agency or instrumentality of the Territory; or
- (b) is subject to control or direction by a Minister.

16 What is contrary to the public interest information?

In this Act:

contrary to the public interest information means information—

- (a) that is taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose under schedule 1; or
- (b) the disclosure of which would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest under the test set out in section 17.

17 Public interest test

- (1) An agency or Minister, in deciding whether disclosure of information would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest, must take the following steps:
 - (a) identify any factor favouring disclosure that applies in relation to the information (a relevant factor favouring disclosure), including any factor mentioned in schedule 2, section 2.1;
 - (b) identify any factor favouring nondisclosure that applies in relation to the information (a relevant factor favouring nondisclosure), including any factor mentioned in schedule 2, section 2.2;
 - (c) balance any relevant factor or factors favouring disclosure against any relevant factor or factors favouring nondisclosure;
 - (d) decide whether, on balance, disclosure of the information would be contrary to the public interest;
 - (e) unless, on balance, disclosure would be contrary to the public interest, allow access to the information subject to this Act.

- (2) The following factors must not be taken into account when deciding whether disclosure of information would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest:
- (a) access to the information could result in embarrassment to the government, or cause a loss of confidence in the government;
 - (b) access to the information could result in a person misinterpreting or misunderstanding the information;
 - (c) the author of the information was (or is) of high seniority in an agency;
 - (d) access to the information could result in confusion or unnecessary debate;
 - (e) access to the information could inhibit frankness in the provision of advice from the public service;
 - (f) the applicant's identity, circumstances, or reason for seeking access to the information.

Part 3 Information officers

18 Information officers—appointment

- (1) The principal officer of an agency must appoint a person as the agency's information officer for this Act.

Note 1 For the making of appointments (including acting appointments), see the Legislation Act, pt 19.3.

Note 2 In particular, a person may be appointed for a particular provision of a law (see Legislation Act, s 7 (3)) and an appointment may be made by naming a person or nominating the occupant of a position (see Legislation Act, s 207).

- (2) An appointment is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act.

19 Information officers—functions

- (1) The information officer of an agency has the following functions:
- (a) to deal with access applications made to the agency under part 5;
 - (b) at the request of the principal officer of another agency—to deal with access applications made to the other agency under part 5;
 - (c) to deal with requests made of the agency under part 6;
 - (d) to ensure that the agency meets its obligation to publish open access information under part 4;
 - (e) to consider the appropriateness of the agency's publication undertakings under part 4;
 - (f) to proactively consider whether and how public access may be given to other government information held by the agency.
- (2) An information officer may delegate a function mentioned in subsection (1) (a), (b) or (c) to a staff member in the information officer's agency.

- (3) However, the information officer must not delegate the function of—
- (a) deciding an access application; or
 - (b) refusing to deal with an application; or
 - (c) deciding a request to amend personal information.

20 Information officers not subject to directions

- (1) An information officer of an agency is not subject to direction in the exercise of a function under this Act unless the direction is given under subsection (2).
- (2) The following people may direct the information officer of an agency to disclose information:
- (a) the Minister responsible for the agency;
 - (b) the principal officer of the agency.

21 Information officers may act for other agencies

The information officer of an agency may, at the request of the principal officer of another agency, deal with an access application made to the other agency.

22 Information officers may consult with other information officers

- (1) An information officer may, in the exercise of a function under this Act, consult with another information officer.
- (2) In consulting with another information officer under subsection (1), an information officer is authorised to disclose government information that relates to the exercise of the function.

Part 4 Open access information

23 What is open access information?

(1) In this Act:

open access information, of an agency, means government information held by the agency that came into existence on or after 1 January 2018 and that is or is in 1 or more of the following:

- (a) functional information including a statement setting out particulars of the agency, including agency structure, functions, kinds of government information held and how requests for information may be made;
- (b) information about the agency or the work of the agency contained in any document tabled in the Legislative Assembly by or for the agency;
- (c) the agency's policy documents;
- (d) budget papers and Appropriation Acts presented to the Legislative Assembly under the Financial Management Act 1996;
- (e) information about government grants made or administered by the agency;
- (f) the agency's disclosure log;
Note Disclosure log—see s 28.
- (g) a statement listing all boards, councils, committees, panels and other bodies that have been established by the agency (whether under an Act or otherwise) for the purpose of advising the agency or a Minister responsible for the agency;
- (h) any report or recommendation prepared by a body mentioned in paragraph (g);

- (i) any of the following ministerial briefs prepared by the agency that are 5 or more years old:
 - (i) incoming ministerial briefs;
 - (ii) parliamentary estimates briefs;
 - (iii) annual reports briefs;
 - (iv) question time briefs;
 - (j) information an agency undertakes to make publicly available under section 29 (Agency publication undertakings);
 - (k) information declared by the ombudsman to be open access information;
- Note* See s 65 (Open access information declarations).
- (l) information prescribed by regulation.

open access information, of a Minister—

- (a) means government information held by the Minister that came into existence on or after 1 January 2018 and is, or is in, 1 or more of the following:
 - (i) the Minister's disclosure log;
 - (ii) information about ministerial and ministerial staff travel and hospitality expenses;
 - (iii) a copy of the Minister's diary that sets out all meetings, events and functions attended by the Minister that relate to the Minister's responsibilities;
 - (iv) information declared by the ombudsman to be open access information;
 - (v) information prescribed by regulation; and

- (b) for the Chief Minister—
- (i) includes the following information about each Cabinet or Cabinet committee decision made after the commencement of this Act:
 - (A) a summary of the decision;
 - (B) the decision reference number;
 - (C) the date when the decision was made;
 - (D) the wellbeing impact assessment for the decision on ACT Government priorities and emerging issues; but
 - (ii) does not include information about a decision of Cabinet or a Cabinet committee in relation to a proposed budget for the Territory if the proposed budget has not been presented to the Legislative Assembly under the Financial Management Act 1996, section 10 (Budget papers).
- (2) In this section:
- policy document—
- (a) includes any of the following:
 - (i) a document containing interpretations, rules, guidelines, statements of policy, practices or precedents;
 - (ii) a document containing a statement about how an Act or administrative scheme is to be administered;
 - (iii) a document describing the procedures to be followed in investigating a contravention or possible contravention of an Act or administrative scheme;
 - (iv) another document of a similar kind used to assist the agency to exercise its functions; but
 - (b) does not include a draft of a document mentioned in paragraph (a).

24 Availability of open access information

- (1) An agency or Minister must make open access information of the agency or Minister publicly available unless the information is contrary to the public interest information.

Note Contrary to the public interest information—see s 16.

- (2) If open access information is not made available because it is contrary to the public interest information, the agency or Minister must publish—

- (a) a description of the information unless the disclosure of the description would, or could reasonably be expected to—

- (i) endanger the life or physical safety of a person; or
- (ii) be an unreasonable limitation on a person's rights under the Human Rights Act 2004; or
- (iii) significantly prejudice an ongoing criminal investigation; and

- (b) for information not made available because it is taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose the information under schedule 1—

- (i) the ground under schedule 1 for the nondisclosure; and
- (ii) the findings on any material questions of fact referring to the evidence or other material on which the findings were based; and

- (c) for information not made available because disclosure of the information would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest under the test set out in section 17, a statement of reasons for the decision setting out—

- (i) the findings on any material questions of fact referring to the evidence or other material on which the findings were based; and

- (ii) the relevant factors favouring disclosure; and
 - (iii) the relevant factors favouring nondisclosure; and
 - (iv) how the factors were balanced; and
 - (v) the harm to the public interest that can reasonably be expected to occur from the disclosure; and
- (d) a statement that a person may apply to the ombudsman for review of a decision not to make open access information publicly available; and
- (e) a statement on how to make the application for review of the decision; and
- (f) a statement of the other options available under ACT laws to have the decision reviewed.
- (3) If open access information is not made available because it is contrary to the public interest information and the agency or Minister decides not to publish a description of the information for a reason mentioned in subsection (2) (a), the agency or Minister must tell the ombudsman about the decision and the reason for it.

25 Open access information—quality of information

Open access information published by an agency or Minister must as far as practicable be accurate, up-to-date and complete.

26 Open access information—deletion of contrary to the public interest information

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a record containing open access information of an agency or Minister also contains contrary to the public interest information; and
 - (b) it is practicable to make publicly available a copy of the record from which the contrary to the public interest information has been deleted.
- (2) The agency or Minister must—
 - (a) make a copy of the record publicly available; and
 - (b) publish a statement that the original record contained contrary to the public interest information that has been deleted from the copy.

27 Open access information—effect of policy documents not being available

A person must not be subjected to any prejudice because of the application of the provisions of an agency's policy document (other than provisions it is permitted to delete from a copy of the document) to any act or omission of the person if, at the time of the act or omission—

- (a) the policy document was not publicly available; and
- (b) the person was not aware of the provisions of the policy document; and
- (c) the person could lawfully have avoided the prejudice had the person been aware of the provisions.

28 Requirement for disclosure log

- (1) An agency and Minister must keep a record of access applications made to the agency or Minister (a disclosure log).
- (2) The disclosure log must include the following for each access application:
 - (a) the access application;
 - (b) the decision notice or notices given under section 51;
 - (c) if government information was given to the applicant in response to the application—the information;
 - (d) if additional government information was given to the applicant under section 36—the information;
 - (e) a statement of—
 - (i) the amount of any fees paid or waived in relation to the application; and
 - (ii) the amount of time spent dealing with the application;
 - (f) details of any decision made by the ombudsman in relation to the application;
 - (g) any additional information the ombudsman decides to disclose when making a decision mentioned in paragraph (f);
 - (h) details of any decision made by the ACAT in relation to the application;
 - (i) any additional information the ACAT decides to disclose when making a decision mentioned in paragraph (h).

- (3) If an agency or Minister decides not to disclose government information in response to an access application, the disclosure log must also include a statement about—
 - (a) who may apply to the ombudsman for review of the decision; and
 - (b) how to make the application for review of the decision; and
 - (c) the other options available under ACT laws to have the decision reviewed.
- (4) The information required to be recorded in the disclosure log under subsections (2) and (3) must be included in the disclosure log not earlier than 3, and not later than 10, working days after the day the decision notice is given to the applicant.
- (5) An agency's disclosure log may also include government information released by the agency in response to an informal request.
- (6) A disclosure log must not include—
 - (a) an access application for personal information; or
 - (b) information about an applicant's business, commercial, financial or professional affairs, the publication of which would be unreasonable in the circumstances.

Example

information about unsubstantiated food safety allegations made against the applicant's business, the publication of which could unduly damage the reputation of the applicant's business

29 Agency publication undertakings

- (1) An agency may publish a statement setting out the kinds of government information it holds, that would not otherwise be open access information, that the agency will make publicly available (a publication undertaking).

Note Information an agency undertakes to make publicly available becomes open access information (see s 23 (1) (j)).

- (2) Every 12 months an agency must review its publication undertaking or, if the agency does not have a publication undertaking, consider whether it has information it could include in a publication undertaking.

Part 5 Access applications

Division 5.1 Making access applications

30 Making access application

- (1) A person may apply for access to government information to the agency or Minister responsible for the information.

Note 1 If a form is approved under s 108 for an application, the form must be used.

Note 2 A fee may be determined under s 104 for an application.

- (2) The application must include—
- (a) enough detail to enable an agency or Minister to identify the government information applied for; and
 - (b) an email or postal address to which notices under this Act may be sent to the applicant.
- (3) If the application is for access to personal information about the applicant, the application must also include—
- (a) evidence of identity for the applicant; and
 - (b) if an agent is acting for the applicant—evidence of the agent's authorisation and evidence of identity for the agent.

Examples—agent's authorisation

- 1 the ACAT order appointing the agent as the applicant's guardian
- 2 the client agreement authorising a lawyer to act for the applicant

- (4) The application may include a statement of the applicant's views on the public interest in disclosing the information.

31 Application not in accordance with requirements

- (1) This section applies if an agency or Minister receives an application that does not comply with the requirements under section 30.
- (2) The agency or Minister must take reasonable steps to assist the person and give the person reasonable time to make the application comply.
- (3) The application is taken to have been made when it is made in accordance with the requirements.
- (4) The agency or Minister need not deal further with the application if, despite the agency or Minister taking reasonable steps and giving the person reasonable time (but not less than 3 months) under subsection (2), the application is still not made in accordance with the requirements under section 30.

32 Notice of date application received

- (1) An agency or Minister that receives an application complying with the requirements under section 30 must give the applicant written notice of—
 - (a) the day on which the application was received; and
 - (b) the date by which a decision is to be made (unless additional time is given under section 40, section 41 or section 42).
- (2) The notice must be given to the applicant as soon as practicable but in any case not later than 10 working days after the day the application was received.

Division 5.2 Deciding access applications

33 Who deals with access applications

- (1) An access application made to an agency must be dealt with by—
 - (a) the information officer of the agency; or

- (b) at the request of the principal officer of the agency—the information officer of another agency.
- (2) An access application made to a Minister may be dealt with by the person the Minister directs.

34 Deciding access—identifying information within scope of application

- (1) An agency or Minister deciding an access application (the respondent) must take reasonable steps to identify all government information within the scope of the application.
- (2) The respondent is not required to search for the information from a backup system (but may if appropriate).
- (3) The respondent may, at any time, contact the applicant to clarify the scope of the application (a clarification request).
- (4) The respondent may suspend an access application if—
 - (a) the respondent has taken all reasonable steps to contact the applicant about a clarification request; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) the respondent is unable to contact the applicant; or
 - (ii) the applicant does not respond to the clarification request.
- (5) If the access application is suspended, the respondent must, in writing, tell the applicant—
 - (a) that the application has been suspended; and
 - (b) about the effect of subsection (6).
- (6) The respondent—
 - (a) must decide the application if the applicant responds to the clarification request within 3 months after the request was made; but

- (b) need not deal further with the application if it is suspended under subsection (4) for 3 months or longer.
- (7) Subsection (6) (b) does not prevent the applicant from making another access application for the same information.

35 Deciding access—how applications are decided

- (1) The respondent decides an access application for government information by deciding—
 - (a) to give access to the information; or
 - (b) that the information is not held by the respondent; or
 - (c) to refuse to give access to the information because the information is contrary to the public interest information; or
 - (d) to refuse to deal with the application (see section 43); or
 - (e) to refuse to confirm or deny that the information is held by the respondent because—
 - (i) the information is contrary to the public interest information; and
 - (ii) doing so would, or could reasonably be expected to—
 - (A) endanger the life or physical safety of a person; or
 - (B) be an unreasonable limitation on a person's rights under the Human Rights Act 2004; or
 - (C) significantly prejudice an ongoing criminal investigation.
- (2) An access application may be decided in more than 1 way.

36 Deciding access—additional government information

- (1) This section applies if, after deciding an access application, the respondent finds additional government information that was held by the respondent when the application was decided.
- (2) The respondent may make a further decision under section 35 in relation to the additional information.
- (3) If the respondent does not make a further decision in relation to the additional information, the respondent must tell the applicant that—
 - (a) additional information has been found; and
 - (b) an access application for the additional information may be made; and
 - (c) no fee is payable for the application, but a fee may be payable for any additional information provided.

37 Deciding access—considering applicant’s views on public interest

In deciding an access application, the respondent must consider any statement in the application of the applicant’s views on the public interest in disclosing the government information applied for.

38 Deciding access—relevant third parties

- (1) This section applies if the respondent to an access application considers that—
 - (a) some or all of the government information applied for is not contrary to the public interest information; but
 - (b) disclosure of the information may reasonably be expected to be of concern to a person or another entity other than the Territory (a relevant third party).
- (2) The respondent must take reasonable steps to consult with the relevant third party before deciding to give access to the information.

- (3) Disclosure of government information may reasonably be expected to be of concern to a relevant third party if—
- (a) for a relevant third party that is an individual—
 - (i) the information is personal information about the individual; or
 - (ii) the disclosure of the information would, or could reasonably be expected to, affect the person’s rights under the Human Rights Act 2004; or
 - (b) for a relevant third party that is a government or government agency—the information concerns the affairs of the government or agency; or
 - (c) the information concerns the trade secrets, business affairs, or research of the relevant third party.
- (4) If disclosure of government information may reasonably be expected to be of concern to a person because the information is personal information about the person but the person is deceased, subsection (2) applies as if an eligible family member of the person were a relevant third party.
- (5) The respondent, in consulting with a relevant third party, must—
- (a) ask the relevant third party whether it objects to the disclosure of the government information; and
 - (b) if the relevant third party objects to the disclosure—invite the relevant third party to provide its views, within 15 working days, on whether the information is contrary to the public interest information; and
 - (c) tell the relevant third party that if access is given to the information in response to the application, the information (other than personal information) will be made available to the public through the disclosure log of the respondent under section 28.

- (6) After obtaining the views of a relevant third party, the respondent must—
- (a) tell the relevant third party of the respondent’s decision on the access application; and
 - (b) if the relevant third party has told the respondent that it objects to the disclosure of the government information—defer giving access to the information of concern to the relevant third party until after—
 - (i) the respondent is given written notice by the relevant third party that it does not intend to make an application for review of the decision; or
 - (ii) if notice is not given under subparagraph (i) and no application for review under part 8 is made by the end of the review period—the end of the review period; or
 - (iii) if an application for review under part 8 is made during the review period—the review has ended.
- (7) The respondent must give the applicant written notice when access is no longer deferred under subsection (6) (b).
- (8) In this section:
- eligible family member*, of a deceased person—see schedule 2 (Factors to be considered when deciding the public interest), section 2.3.

review period means the period within which an application for review under part 8 may be made.

39 Deciding access—decision not made in time taken to be refusal to give access

- (1) If a respondent does not decide an access application within the time allowed under section 40 or extended under section 41 or section 42, the respondent—
 - (a) is taken to have decided to refuse to give access to the government information applied for; and
 - (b) must refund any fee paid by the applicant relating to the application; and
 - (c) must give written notice to the ombudsman that a decision relating to the application was not made within time.
- (2) Also, the respondent must give written notice to the ombudsman that a decision relating to an access application was not made within the time allowed if—
 - (a) under section 78, the ombudsman extends the time for the respondent to decide the access application (the extended time); and
 - (b) the respondent does not decide the access application within the extended time.
- (3) However, the respondent may continue to deal with the application and give notice of a decision on the application.
- (4) If notice is given to the ombudsman under subsection (1) (c), the relevant Minister must ensure that a copy of the notice is presented to the Legislative Assembly within 3 sitting days after the access application (including any review or appeal) is finally decided.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply if the ombudsman extended the time for the respondent to decide the access application under section 78.

(6) In this section:

relevant Minister means—

- (a) for a notice relating to an access application for which a Minister is the respondent—the Minister; or
- (b) for a notice relating to an access application for which an agency is the respondent—the Minister responsible for the agency.

40 Deciding access—time to decide

- (1) A respondent to an access application must decide the application not later than 20 working days after receiving it.
- (2) The period under subsection (1) is extended by—
 - (a) if the respondent consults with a relevant third party under section 38—15 working days; or
 - (b) if the respondent makes a clarification request under section 34 (3)—the number of working days the applicant takes to respond to the clarification request; or
 - (c) if the respondent contacts the applicant under section 106 (2)—the number of working days the applicant takes to confirm or vary the application; or
 - (d) if the applicant makes an application to the agency or Minister to waive a fee under section 107—the number of working days the agency or Minister takes to decide the waiver application.

Example—par (b)

The respondent receives an access application on 1 February. The respondent contacts the applicant to clarify an aspect of the application and the applicant gives the respondent an answer 10 working days later. The respondent must decide the application not later than 30 working days after 1 February, being the 20 working days allowed under section 40 (1) plus the 10 working days the applicant took to answer the clarification request.

41 Deciding access—respondent may ask for additional time to decide

- (1) A respondent to an access application may ask the applicant for an additional stated amount of time to decide the application.
- (2) The request must be made—
 - (a) before the end of the period for deciding the application under section 40; or
 - (b) for a second or subsequent request—before the end of the additional time last granted.
- (3) If—
 - (a) the respondent has asked the applicant for an additional stated amount of time; and
 - (b) the applicant has not, within 7 working days after receiving the respondent's request, refused the request; and
 - (c) the respondent has not received notice that the applicant has applied for review under part 8;the respondent may decide the application before the end of the additional time requested.
- (4) The respondent must not ask the applicant for additional time under this section if the effect of the applicant agreeing to the additional time would be to give the respondent more than 12 months from the day of receiving the access application to decide the application.

Example

The respondent receives an access application on 1 March 2019. Under section 40, the respondent must make a decision on the application by no later than 1 April 2019 (20 working days after 1 March 2019). Before 1 April 2019, the respondent asks the applicant for an additional 9 months to decide the application. The applicant agrees and the respondent is then required to decide the application by 1 January 2020. Before 1 January 2020, the respondent asks the applicant for a further extension. The maximum extension that the respondent may ask for under subsection (4) is 2 months.

42 Deciding access—extension of time given by ombudsman

- (1) A respondent to an access application may apply to the ombudsman for an extension of time to decide the application if—
 - (a) the respondent has asked the applicant for an additional stated amount of time under section 41 and the applicant has refused the request; or
 - (b) section 41 (4) prevents the respondent from asking the applicant for an additional amount of time to decide the application.
- (2) The application to the ombudsman must be made—
 - (a) before the end of the period for deciding the application under section 40; or
 - (b) if the time to decide the application has already been extended under section 41 or this section—before the end of the additional time last granted.
- (3) The ombudsman may, on application under subsection (1), extend the time to decide an access application if the ombudsman believes it is not reasonably possible for the respondent to deal with the application within the period for deciding the application under section 40 or the period as extended under section 41 or this section because—
 - (a) the application involves dealing with a large volume of information; or
 - (b) the application is complex; or
 - (c) there are other exceptional circumstances.

Example—complex application

multiple, conflicting public interest factors apply to the information covered by the application and extensive third party consultation is required

- (4) The ombudsman may extend the time to decide the access application for the period the ombudsman considers reasonable in the circumstances, having regard to—
- (a) the objects of this Act; and
 - (b) the importance of encouraging timely resolution of access applications.
- (5) The ombudsman may extend the time to decide the access application subject to conditions.

Examples—conditions

- 1 the respondent provides the ombudsman with regular updates on progress with the application
 - 2 the respondent agrees to a timetable to progress the application
 - 3 the respondent provides information progressively
- (6) The ombudsman may cancel or amend an extension under subsection (4) if—
- (a) the ombudsman considers it appropriate, having regard to the matters mentioned in subsection (4); or
 - (b) the respondent has not complied with a condition under subsection (5).
- (7) The ombudsman must tell the respondent and the applicant about any extension, or cancellation or amendment of an extension, under this section.

Division 5.3 Refusing to deal with applications

43 Refusing to deal with application—general

- (1) A respondent may refuse to deal with an access application wholly or in part only if—
- (a) dealing with the application would require an unreasonable and substantial diversion of the respondent's resources (see section 44); or

- (b) the application is frivolous or vexatious; or
 - (c) the application involves an abuse of process; or
 - (d) the government information is already available to the applicant (see section 45); or
 - (e) the access application is expressed to relate to government information of a stated kind and government information of that kind is taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose under schedule 1; or
 - (f) an earlier access application for the same government information—
 - (i) was made in the 12 months before the application was made; and
 - (ii) access to the information was refused; and
 - (iii) the relevant public interest factors are materially the same as those considered in deciding the earlier application.
- (2) A respondent is entitled to consider 2 or more applications as 1 application if the applications are related and are made by the same applicant or by people acting together in relation to the applications.
- (3) An applicant is not entitled to a refund of any application fee paid if the respondent refuses to deal with the application.
- (4) In this section:
- abuse of process includes—
- (a) harassment or intimidation of a person; and
 - (b) an unreasonable request for personal information about a person.

44 Refusing to deal with application—unreasonable and substantial diversion of resources

- (1) For section 43 (1) (a), dealing with an access application would require an unreasonable and substantial diversion of the respondent's resources only if—
 - (a) the resources required to identify, locate, collate and examine any information held by the respondent, including the resources required in obtaining the views of relevant third parties under section 38, would substantially inhibit the ability of the respondent to exercise its functions; and
 - (b) the extent to which the public interest would be advanced by giving access to the information does not justify the use of the required resources.
- (2) For subsection (1), the respondent—
 - (a) is not required to have regard to any extension by agreement between the applicant and the respondent of the period within which the application is required to be decided; and
 - (b) must not have regard to—
 - (i) any reasons the applicant gives for applying for access; or
 - (ii) the respondent's belief about the applicant's reasons for applying for access.

45 Refusing to deal with application—information already available to applicant

For section 43 (1) (d), government information is already available to the applicant only if the information—

- (a) is made publicly available by the respondent or by another agency or Minister; or

- (b) is available to the applicant from, or for inspection at, a place the respondent, another agency or Minister operates, free of charge; or
- (c) is available as part of a public register established under a territory law; or
- (d) is available to the applicant because it has been produced in accordance with a subpoena or court order; or
- (e) has previously been given to the applicant under this Act or the Freedom of Information Act 1989 (repealed); or
- (f) has otherwise previously been given to the applicant; or
- (g) is usually available for purchase.

46 Refusing to deal with application—consulting applicant before refusing to deal with certain applications

- (1) Before refusing to deal with an access application on a ground mentioned in section 43 (1) (a), (b), (c), (e) or (f), the respondent must—
 - (a) tell the applicant, in writing, of—
 - (i) the intention to refuse to deal with the application; and
 - (ii) the ground for refusal; and
 - (iii) the period for consultation on the proposed refusal (the consultation period); and
 - (b) give the applicant—
 - (i) a reasonable opportunity to consult with the respondent and to provide any additional information relevant to the application during the consultation period; and
 - (ii) any information that may assist the applicant make an application in a form that would remove the ground for refusal.

- (2) After any consultation with the respondent, the applicant may give the respondent an amended application.
- (3) If an amended application is given to the respondent under subsection (2), the original application is taken to have been made at the time the amended application is given.
- (4) In this section:
consultation period means—
 - (a) the period of 10 working days starting on the day after the day the notice was given under subsection (1) (a); or
 - (b) any longer period agreed between the respondent and the applicant before or after the end of the 10 working days.

Division 5.4 Giving access to information

47 Giving access—form of access

- (1) Access to government information under this part may be given to a person in 1 or more of the following ways:
 - (a) by giving a copy of an electronic record containing the information;
 - (b) by giving a printed copy of the record containing the information;
 - (c) if the information is contained in a sound recording or a record in which words are in shorthand writing or in a codified form—by giving a written transcript of words contained in the record;
 - (d) if the application relates to information that is not contained in a written record held by an agency or Minister—by providing a written document using equipment usually available to the agency or Minister for retrieving or collating stored information.

- (2) For subsection (1) (a) to (c), a reference to government information or a record includes a reference to a copy from which information has been deleted under section 50.
- (3) As far as practicable, access to government information under this part must be given—
- (a) either—
- (i) in a way that complies with the web content accessibility guidelines, level AA; or
- Note* The guidelines are accessible at www.w3.org.
- (ii) if another way is prescribed by regulation—in that way; and
- (b) in a form that provides at least the same range of functions to the applicant as was available to the respondent before the access was given.
- Examples—par (b)
- 1 electronically searchable text document
- 2 unsecured text document that allows a user to copy and paste from the document
- (4) Subject to this section and section 50, if an applicant has requested access in a particular form, access must be given in that form.
- (5) Access may be given in a form other than that requested by the applicant if access in the form requested—
- (a) would interfere unreasonably with the exercise of the respondent's functions; or
- (b) would involve an infringement of the copyright of a person other than the Territory.
- (6) If an applicant is given access to government information in a form different to the form requested by the applicant, the applicant must not be required to pay a fee that is more than would have been payable if access had been given in the form requested by the applicant.

48 Giving access—access to be unconditional

If access to government information is given under this part, the access must be unconditional.

49 Giving access—deferral of access

- (1) The respondent to an access application may defer giving access to government information for a reasonable period (not longer than 3 months) if—
 - (a) the information was prepared with the intention that it be formally published within a stated time; and
 - (b) the information has not been published as intended.

Examples—formal publication

- 1 formal release of a report at an event
 - 2 media release
 - 3 presentation to the Legislative Assembly
- (2) Also, the respondent to an access application may defer giving access to government information if the applicant has not paid the fee payable in relation to the application.

50 Giving access—deletion of contrary to the public interest information

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an access application is made for government information in a record containing contrary to the public interest information; and
 - (b) it is practicable to give access to a copy of the record from which the contrary to the public interest information has been deleted.
- (2) Subject to section 35 (1) (e), the respondent must—
 - (a) give access to a copy of the record; and

- (b) tell the applicant the original record contained contrary to the public interest information that has been deleted from the copy.

Division 5.5 Notice of access decisions and reasons

51 Notice of decision to be given

- (1) The respondent to an access application must give written notice (a decision notice) to the applicant of the decision on the application.
- (2) If the respondent makes a further decision on the application, the respondent must give a decision notice to the applicant of the further decision.
- (3) The respondent is not required to include any contrary to the public interest information in a decision notice.

52 Content of notice—access to information given

- (1) For a decision to give access to government information, the decision notice must include a statement of the following:
 - (a) an itemisation of any fee payable by the applicant;
 - (b) that the access application and information given in response to the application (other than personal information) will be made available to the public through the disclosure log of the respondent under section 28;
 - (c) if access is given to a copy of a record that had information deleted from it under section 50—the fact that the record is a copy.
- (2) If the giving of access to government information is deferred under section 38 (6), the decision notice must include a statement—
 - (a) that a relevant third party objected to the disclosure; and

- (b) that the relevant third party may apply for review of the decision; and
 - (c) of the period under section 38 (6) (b) for which access may be deferred.
- (3) If the giving of access to government information is deferred under section 49, the decision notice must include a statement of—
- (a) the reason for the deferral; and
 - (b) when access will be given.

53 Content of notice—information not held by respondent

If an access application relates to government information that is not held by the respondent, the decision notice must state that the information is not held by the respondent.

54 Content of notice—refusing to give access to information

- (1) If a decision is made to refuse to give access to government information because it is taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose the information under schedule 1, the decision notice must include—
- (a) a description of the information; and
 - (b) the ground under schedule 1 for the refusal; and
 - (c) the findings on any material questions of fact referring to the evidence or other material on which the findings were based.
- (2) If a decision is made to refuse to give access to government information because disclosure of the information would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest under the test set out in section 17, the decision notice must include—
- (a) a description of the information; and

- (b) a statement of reasons for the decision setting out—
 - (i) the findings on any material questions of fact referring to the evidence or other material on which the findings were based; and
 - (ii) the relevant factors favouring disclosure; and
 - (iii) the relevant factors favouring nondisclosure; and
 - (iv) how the factors were balanced; and
 - (v) the harm to the public interest that can be reasonably expected to occur from disclosure.

55 Content of notice—refusal to deal with application

For a decision to refuse to deal with an application, the decision notice must include a statement of the following:

- (a) the ground under section 43 (1) for the refusal;
- (b) the findings on any material questions of fact referring to the evidence or other material on which the findings were based;
- (c) if the ground is that the government information is already available to the applicant—how the applicant can access the information;
- (d) that the applicant is not entitled to a refund of any application fee paid if the respondent refuses to deal with the application.

56 Content of notice—refusing to confirm or deny existence of information

For a decision to refuse to confirm or deny the existence of government information, the decision notice must include a statement of reasons for the decision setting out why the information, if it did exist—

- (a) would be contrary to the public interest information; and

- (b) would, or could reasonably be expected to, have a result mentioned in section 35 (1) (e) (ii).

Division 5.6 Access applications for information held by other agencies or Ministers

57 Transfer of access applications

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) an access application has been made to an agency or Minister; and
 - (b) the government information to which the application relates is not held by the agency or Minister but the agency or Minister believes it may be held by another agency or Minister (the transferee); and
 - (c) the transferee agrees it may hold the information.
- (2) The agency or Minister must transfer the application to the transferee.
- (3) An access application transferred under this section is taken to have been made to the transferee at the time it was transferred.
- (4) The transferee receiving an access application must give the applicant written notice of—
- (a) the day on which the application was received; and
 - (b) the date by which a decision is to be made (unless additional time is given under section 40, section 41 or section 42).
- (5) The notice must be given to the applicant as soon as practicable but in any case not later than 10 working days after the day the application was received.

58 Access applications if two or more agencies or Ministers hold relevant information

- (1) If the respondent to an access application believes that it holds government information relevant to an application and relevant information may also be held by another agency or Minister (the other entity), the respondent must give a copy of the access application to the other entity.
- (2) If the other entity believes that it may hold relevant government information, the other entity must—
 - (a) tell the respondent that it may hold relevant information; and
 - (b) take reasonable steps to identify all relevant information within the scope of the application; and
 - (c) if it identifies relevant information—
 - (i) give the relevant information to the respondent; or
 - (ii) tell the respondent and the applicant that it will decide the application, or part of the application, as if it were the respondent.
- (3) If the other entity gives the relevant government information to the respondent, the respondent is, for the purpose of making a decision on the application, taken to hold the information.
- (4) If the other entity is to decide the application, or part of the application, as if it were the respondent—
 - (a) the application is taken to have been made to the other entity when it received the application under subsection (1); and
 - (b) the other entity must give the applicant written notice of—
 - (i) the day on which the application was received; and
 - (ii) the date by which a decision is to be made (unless additional time is given under section 40, section 41 or section 42).

- (5) The notice must be given to the applicant as soon as practicable but in any case not later than 10 working days after the day the application was received.
- (6) If the other entity believes it does not hold relevant information, it must tell the respondent of the belief.

Part 6 Amendment of personal information

59 Requesting amendment of personal information

- (1) This section applies if a person who has access to government information held by an agency or Minister considers that the information—
- (a) contains personal information about the person; and
 - (b) is incomplete, incorrect, out-of-date or misleading; and
 - (c) is used, has been used or is available for use by the agency or Minister.

- (2) The person may, in writing, request the agency or Minister to amend the information.

Note If a form is approved under s 108 for this provision, the form must be used.

- (3) The request must—
- (a) include enough detail to enable an agency or Minister to identify the government information to be amended; and
 - (b) state how the government information is incomplete, incorrect, out-of-date or misleading; and
 - (c) state the amendments the person considers necessary for the information to be complete, correct, up-to-date or for it to be no longer misleading; and
 - (d) include an email or postal address to which notices under this Act may be sent to the person.

60 Who deals with requests to amend personal information

- (1) A request under section 59 made to an agency must be dealt with by the information officer of the agency.
- (2) A request under section 59 made to a Minister may be dealt with by the person the Minister directs.

61 Deciding requests to amend personal information

- (1) An agency or Minister receiving a request from a person under section 59 must decide to—
 - (a) amend the government information; or
 - (b) refuse to amend the government information.
- (2) The agency or Minister must amend the government information if the information is incomplete, incorrect, out-of-date or misleading.
- (3) Before refusing to amend the government information, the agency or Minister must—
 - (a) tell the person of the intention to refuse to amend the information; and
 - (b) give the person a reasonable opportunity to respond and to provide any additional information relevant to the request.
- (4) The agency or Minister must keep a record of amendments of government information made under this section.

62 Time to decide request

- (1) An agency or Minister that receives a request under section 59 must decide the request not later than 20 working days after receiving it.
- (2) The 20 working days does not include any time given to the person under section 61 (3) (b) to respond and provide additional information relevant to the request.

63 Notifying person affected of decision

An agency or Minister that makes a decision under section 61 must—

- (a) tell the person of the agency's or Minister's decision; and
- (b) if the decision is to amend the information—give the person a copy of the amended information; and
- (c) if the decision is to refuse to amend the information—give the person a statement of reasons for the refusal.

Part 7 Role of ombudsman

Division 7.1 Ombudsman functions and general powers

64 Ombudsman—functions

- (1) The ombudsman has the following functions for this Act:
 - (a) to review decisions under division 8.2;
 - (b) to grant extensions of time under section 42;
 - (c) to monitor the operation of this Act including—
 - (i) the publication of open access information by agencies; and
 - (ii) the publication of open access information by Ministers; and
 - (iii) agency compliance with the expectations set out in the Chief Minister’s annual statement under section 95 and with the Act generally;
 - (d) to make open access information declarations under section 65;
 - (e) to make guidelines under section 66;
 - (f) to report on the operation of this Act under section 67;
 - (g) to investigate complaints made under section 69.

- (2) The ombudsman may delegate the ombudsman's functions under this Act to a person mentioned in the Ombudsman Act 1989, section 32.

Note Under the Ombudsman Act 1989, s 32, the ombudsman may delegate the ombudsman's functions to any person, including the deputy ombudsman, a member of the ombudsman's staff, a public servant, a contractor or consultant, or an authorised person. However, the ombudsman must not delegate a function to a person who is not a public employee without first being satisfied that the function needs to be exercised by a person who is not a public employee (see that Act, s 32 (2)).

65 Open access information declarations

- (1) The ombudsman may declare government information to be open access information.

Note Power to make a statutory instrument includes power to make different provision for different categories (see Legislation Act, s 48).

- (2) Before making a declaration, the ombudsman—
- (a) must consult—
 - (i) for information held by an agency—the information officer of each agency; and
 - (ii) for information held by a Minister—each Minister; and
 - (b) may consult anyone else the ombudsman considers appropriate.
- (3) The ombudsman must not declare government information that came into existence before 1 January 2018 to be open access information.
- (4) A declaration is a disallowable instrument.

Note A disallowable instrument must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act.

66 Guidelines for Act

- (1) The ombudsman may make guidelines for this Act.
- (2) The guidelines may make provision for 1 or more of the following:
 - (a) the release of government information in response to an informal request;
 - (b) the application of the public interest test set out in section 17;
 - (c) how, for section 25, open access information is to be kept accurate, up-to-date and complete;
 - (d) circumstances in which, for section 107 (2) (Fee waiver), information may be of special benefit to the public generally;
 - (e) anything else consistent with the objects of this Act.
- (3) Before making a guideline, the ombudsman—
 - (a) must consult the information officer of each agency; and
 - (b) may consult anyone else the ombudsman considers appropriate.
- (4) A guideline is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act.

67 Annual report on operation of Act

The ombudsman must, for each financial year, prepare a report on the operation of this Act during the year and give the report to the Speaker for presentation to the Legislative Assembly.

68 Access to information for ombudsman review

The ombudsman, in undertaking an ombudsman review, is entitled to full and free access at reasonable times to all relevant government information of the agency or Minister concerned.

Division 7.2 Complaints to ombudsman

69 Complaints to ombudsman

- (1) A person may complain to the ombudsman about an agency's or Minister's action, or failure to take action, in relation to any of the agency's or Minister's functions under this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), a complaint may be about—
 - (a) the adequacy of an agency's or Minister's response to an access application; or
 - (b) for an agency that has published a publication undertaking—the agency's failure to comply with the undertaking or with section 29 (2).
- (3) Nothing in this Act is intended to limit the ombudsman's powers under the Ombudsman Act 1989.

Part 8 Notification and review of decisions

Division 8.1 Review of decisions—definitions and notices

70 Definitions—pt 8

In this part:

decision-maker, for a reviewable decision, means the agency or Minister that made the decision.

reviewable decision means a decision mentioned in schedule 3, column 3 under a provision of this Act mentioned in column 2 in relation to the decision.

71 FOI reviewable decision notices and reviewable decision notices

- (1) If a decision-maker makes a reviewable decision mentioned in schedule 3, item 2, 5 or 7, the decision-maker must give notice (an FOI reviewable decision notice) to each entity mentioned in schedule 3, column 4 in relation to the decision.
- (2) If a decision-maker makes a reviewable decision mentioned in schedule 3, item 3, 4 or 6, the decision-maker must give notice (also an FOI reviewable decision notice) to the applicant for the access application that the decision relates to.
- (3) A decision-maker required to give an FOI reviewable decision notice to a person under subsection (1) or (2) must give the notice to the person with the decision.

- (4) The FOI reviewable decision notice must state—
- (a) the decision; and
 - (b) that the person may apply to the ombudsman for review of the decision; and
 - (c) how to make the application; and
 - (d) the other options available under ACT laws to have the decision reviewed.
- (5) If the ombudsman makes a decision on an ombudsman review, the ombudsman must give a reviewable decision notice to the participants in the review.
- Note 1* The requirements for a reviewable decision notice are prescribed under the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008.
- Note 2* The decision-maker must also take reasonable steps to give a reviewable decision notice to any other person whose interests are affected by the decision (see ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008, s 67A).
- (6) A failure to comply with this section in relation to a reviewable decision does not affect the validity of the decision.

72 Onus

In a review under this part, a person seeking to prevent disclosure of government information has the onus of establishing that the information is contrary to the public interest information.

Division 8.2 Ombudsman review

73 Ombudsman review of certain decisions

An entity mentioned in schedule 3, column 4 in relation to a reviewable decision may apply to the ombudsman for review of the reviewable decision (ombudsman review).

Note A fee may be determined under s 104 for an application.

74 Applications for ombudsman review

- (1) An application for ombudsman review must be made within—
 - (a) 20 working days after—
 - (i) the day notice of the decision was published in the disclosure log; or
 - (ii) for a decision in relation to an access application for personal information—the day the respondent gave the applicant a decision notice in relation to the application under section 51; or
 - (iii) for a deemed decision—the day the decision was taken to have been made; or
 - (iv) for a decision not to make open access information available because it is contrary to the public interest information—the day the matters under section 24 (2) were published; or
 - (b) any longer period allowed by the ombudsman.

Note 1 If a form is approved under s 108 for an application, the form must be used.

Note 2 The ombudsman may extend the period even if it has ended (see Legislation Act, s 151C).

- (2) In this section:

deemed decision means a decision taken to have been made under section 39 (1) (a) (Deciding access—decision not made in time taken to be refusal to give access).

75 Notice of ombudsman review

If the ombudsman receives an application for ombudsman review, the ombudsman must tell the decision-maker for the decision of the application.

76 Decision-maker to tell relevant third parties etc

- (1) The decision-maker, on receiving notice under section 75 of an application, must tell each relevant third party consulted under section 38 of the application.
- (2) The decision-maker must also take reasonable steps to tell any other person or entity of the application if a decision by the ombudsman to disclose government information that relates to the ombudsman review may reasonably be expected to be of concern to the person or entity because—
 - (a) for an individual—
 - (i) the information is personal information about the individual; or
 - (ii) the disclosure of the information would, or could reasonably be expected to, affect the person's rights under the Human Rights Act 2004; or
 - (b) for an entity that is a government or government agency—the information concerns the affairs of the government or agency; or
 - (c) the information concerns the trade secrets, business affairs, or research of the person or entity.
- (3) If disclosure of government information may reasonably be expected to be of concern to a person because the information is personal information about the person but the person is deceased, subsection (2) applies as if an eligible family member of the person were the person.

77 Participants in ombudsman reviews

- (1) The applicant for ombudsman review and the decision-maker for the relevant reviewable decision are participants in the review.
- (2) Any other person may apply to the ombudsman to participate in the review.
- (3) The ombudsman may allow the person to participate in the review in the way the ombudsman directs.

78 Ombudsman review—extension of time when decision not made in time

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the respondent to an access application has not made an application under section 42 (Deciding access—extension of time given by ombudsman); and
 - (b) a decision to refuse access to information is taken to have been made under section 39 (Deciding access—decision not made in time taken to be refusal to give access) (the deemed decision); and

Note A decision to refuse access to information is a reviewable decision (see sch 3, item 4).

- (c) the ombudsman is reviewing the decision.
- (2) The respondent may apply to the ombudsman—
 - (a) to set aside the deemed decision; and
 - (b) for an extension of time to deal with the access application.
- (3) The ombudsman may, on application under subsection (2)—
 - (a) set aside the deemed decision; and
 - (b) extend the time to decide the access application.

- (4) An extension of time given by the ombudsman may be for the period the ombudsman considers reasonable in the circumstances, having regard to—
 - (a) the objects of this Act; and
 - (b) the importance of encouraging timely resolution of access applications.
- (5) The ombudsman may extend the time to decide subject to conditions.
- (6) If the respondent does not decide the access application within the extended time given by the ombudsman under this section, the respondent is taken to have refused to give access to the government information applied for.

79 Notice to give information or attend ombudsman review

- (1) If the ombudsman has reason to believe that a person has information relevant to an ombudsman review, the ombudsman may give the person a written notice requiring the person to give the information to the ombudsman.

Note The Legislation Act, s 170 and s 171 deal with the application of the privilege against self-incrimination and client legal privilege.

- (2) A notice under subsection (1) must state—
 - (a) how the information is to be given to the ombudsman; and
 - (b) a reasonable time at which, or a reasonable period within which, the information must be given.
- (3) If the ombudsman has reason to believe that a person has information relevant to an ombudsman review, the ombudsman may give the person a written notice requiring the person to attend before the ombudsman at a reasonable time and place stated in the notice to answer questions relevant to the review.

80 Ombudsman direction to conduct further searches

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the ombudsman is undertaking an ombudsman review in relation to an access application; and
 - (b) it appears that not all government information within the scope of the application has been identified.
- (2) The ombudsman may, at the request of a participant in the review or on the ombudsman's own initiative, direct the decision-maker or another agency or Minister to conduct a further search for information.
- (3) In this section:
conduct a further search, for information, includes make inquiries to locate the information.

80A Informal resolution

- (1) This section applies if the ombudsman considers that a matter to which an application for ombudsman review relates may be resolved by an informal process.
- (2) The ombudsman may—
 - (a) assist the respondent and applicant to resolve the matter informally; and
 - (b) suspend the application of section 82 for up to 30 working days for the purpose of paragraph (a).

81 Mediation for applications

- (1) This section applies if the ombudsman considers that a matter (the subject matter) to which an application for an ombudsman review relates—
 - (a) is suitable for mediation; and
 - (b) is reasonably likely to be resolved by mediation.
- (2) The ombudsman may—
 - (a) refer the subject matter to an accredited mediator for mediation; and
 - (b) require the parties to attend the mediation; and
 - (c) suspend the application of section 82 for up to 30 working days for the purpose of paragraphs (a) and (b).
- (3) If the parties resolve the matter by mediation, the parties must tell the ombudsman that the matter is resolved.

Note If the respondent to an access application makes a further decision on the application as a result of the mediation, the respondent must give a decision notice to the applicant (see s 52).

- (4) Unless the ombudsman directs otherwise, the decision-maker—
 - (a) must pay the costs of conducting the mediation; but
 - (b) is not required to pay the costs incurred by the applicant or any other person who participates in the review.

Examples—par (a)

- 1 cost of hiring the venue for the mediation
- 2 fees for the accredited mediator

Examples—par (b)

- 1 legal costs
- 2 travel costs
- 3 income lost due to participation in mediation

- (5) In this section:

accredited mediator means a person who is entered as a mediator in the register of nationally accredited mediators maintained by the Mediator Standards Board.

Mediator Standards Board means the incorporated body registered under the Corporations Act as the Mediator Standards Board Limited (ACN 145 829 812).

82 Ombudsman review

- (1) This section applies to an application for ombudsman review.
- (2) Unless resolved informally under section 80A or by mediation under section 81, the ombudsman must review the decision and—
 - (a) confirm the decision; or
 - (b) vary the decision; or
 - (c) set aside the decision and make a substitute decision.
- (3) The ombudsman must make a decision under subsection (2) within 30 working days after—
 - (a) if the ombudsman has, under section 80A (2) or section 81 (2), suspended the application of this section—the end of the period for which the application of this section is suspended; or
 - (b) in any other case—the day the application for ombudsman review was made.

Example—par (a)

The ombudsman receives an application for ombudsman review and makes attempts over a period of 20 working days to assist the parties to resolve the matter by an informal process under section 80A, but without success. The ombudsman must make a decision within 30 working days after the end of the 20 working days devoted to the attempts under section 80A.

- (4) The ombudsman may exercise any function given under this Act to the agency or Minister for making the decision.

Note A reference to an Act includes a reference to the statutory instruments made or in force under the Act, including any regulation (see Legislation Act, s 104).

- (5) The ombudsman may decide not to review the decision if—
- (a) the applicant for review does not give the ombudsman enough information to review the decision; or
 - (b) there is no reasonable prospect that the original decision would be varied or set aside; or
 - (c) the respondent makes a decision on the access application or otherwise resolves the application; or
 - (d) the ombudsman is satisfied that the review application is frivolous or vexatious or involves an abuse of process; or
 - (e) the ombudsman has been unable to contact the applicant for review despite making reasonable efforts.

Note If, under par (a) or (e), the ombudsman has decided not to review a decision and the applicant wishes to make a new application for ombudsman review, the longer period necessary for making the new application may be allowed by the ombudsman under s 74 (1).

- (6) If the ombudsman decides to vary or set aside the decision, the ombudsman may direct that any fee paid by the applicant for the application for review be refunded.
- (7) The ombudsman must publish the ombudsman's decision and the reasons for the decision as soon as practicable after making the decision.

Note The ombudsman must also give a reviewable decision notice to the participants in the review (see s 71 (5)).

83 Questions of law to ACAT

- (1) The ombudsman may, at the request of a participant in a review or on the ombudsman's own initiative, refer a question of law arising on the review to the ACAT.
- (2) For this section, the ACAT must be constituted by 3 members as follows:
 - (a) at least 1 member must be a presidential member;
 - (b) any other member must be a senior member who is a lawyer and has been a lawyer for 5 years or more.
- (3) The ombudsman must not make a decision on the review while the reference is pending.
- (4) The ombudsman is bound by the ACAT's decision.

Division 8.3 ACAT review

84 Review of decisions by ACAT

- (1) If the ombudsman makes a decision under section 82 (2) on an ombudsman review, an entity that was a participant in the review may apply to the ACAT for review of the decision.

Note If a form is approved under the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008 for an application, the form must be used.

- (2) The application must be made within—
 - (a) 20 working days after the day the ombudsman's decision was published under section 82 (7); or
 - (b) any longer period allowed by the ACAT.

Note The ACAT may extend the period even if it has ended (see Legislation Act, s 151C).

(3) For the review, the ACAT must be constituted by 3 members as follows:

- (a) at least 1 member must be a presidential member;
- (b) any other member must be a senior member.

Note The tribunal may join a person as a new party to the application if the person has an interest in the application (see ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008, s 29).

85 Participants in review by ACAT

- (1) The applicant for ACAT review and the decision-maker for the relevant reviewable decision are participants in the review.
- (2) Any other person may apply to the ACAT to participate in the review.
- (3) The ACAT may allow the person to participate in the review in the way the ACAT directs.

86 ACAT direction to conduct further searches

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the ACAT is reviewing a decision under this division in relation to an access application; and
 - (b) it appears that not all government information within the scope of the application has been identified.
- (2) The ACAT may, at the request of a participant in the review or on the ACAT's own initiative, direct the decision-maker or another agency or Minister to conduct a further search for information.

(3) In this section:

conduct a further search, for information, includes make inquiries to locate the information.

Division 8.4 Costs of review by ACAT or appeal to Supreme Court

87 Costs of review by ACAT

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a decision-maker applies for review under section 84 (Review of decisions by ACAT); and
 - (b) the decision that is the subject of the review is a decision to give access to information that the decision-maker had refused to give access to.
- (2) The decision-maker must pay the costs of the review.

88 Costs of appeal to Supreme Court

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a decision-maker makes an application to the Supreme Court to appeal the decision of the ACAT on an application to the ACAT under section 84; and
 - (b) the decision that is the subject of the appeal is a decision to give access to information that the decision-maker had refused to give access to.
- (2) The decision-maker must pay the costs of the appeal.

Part 9 Offences

89 Making decision contrary to Act

A person commits an offence if the person—

- (a) purports to make a decision under this Act; and
- (b) knows the decision is not a decision that can be made under this Act.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

90 Giving direction to act contrary to Act etc

(1) A person commits an offence if—

- (a) the person gives a direction to someone else who is required to exercise a function under this Act; and
- (b) the direction is to engage in conduct that is contrary to the requirements of this Act; and
- (c) the person knows the conduct is contrary to the requirements of this Act.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

(2) A person commits an offence if—

- (a) the person gives a direction to someone else to engage in conduct; and
- (b) the person gives the direction with the intention that the conduct would prevent the disclosure of government information; and
- (c) the disclosure of the information would, or could reasonably be expected to, be required under this Act.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

92 Failing to identify information

A person commits an offence if the person—

- (a) is required under this Act to identify government information within the scope of an access application; and
- (b) intentionally fails to identify the information (or any part of it).

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

93 Improperly influencing exercise of function

A person commits an offence if the person—

- (a) influences the conduct of someone else who is required to exercise a function under this Act; and
- (b) does so with the intention of causing the other person to engage in conduct that is contrary to the requirements of this Act.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

94 Gaining unlawful access to government information

A person commits an offence if the person—

- (a) intentionally deceives or misleads a person who is exercising a function under this Act; and
- (b) does so with the intention of gaining access to government information.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

Part 10 Miscellaneous

95 Annual statements by Chief Minister

- (1) Each year the Chief Minister must issue a statement about improving the public accessibility of government information.
- (2) The statement must set out the government's—
 - (a) aims for increasing proactive disclosure of government information and reducing the need for members of the public to make access applications; and
 - (b) expectations of agencies for the provision of government information; and
 - (c) response to address information access issues identified by the ombudsman in the previous 12 months.
- (3) In preparing the statement, the Chief Minister must—
 - (a) consider the ombudsman's most recent report under section 67 (Annual report on operation of Act) and may ask the ombudsman for additional information; and
 - (b) consult the information officer of each agency.
- (4) A statement is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act.

96 Annual reports to Legislative Assembly

- (1) The principal officer of an agency must, for each financial year, prepare a report on the operation of this Act in relation to the agency during the year (an agency annual report).

- (2) Each Minister must, for each financial year—
- (a) prepare a report on the operation of this Act in relation to the Minister during the year (the Minister's annual report); and
 - (b) present the Minister's annual report and the agency annual report of each agency the Minister is responsible for, to the Legislative Assembly when the report for the agency under the Annual Reports (Government Agencies) Act 2004 must be presented to the Assembly.
- (3) An agency annual report and a Minister's annual report must set out particulars of the operations of the agency or Minister under this Act during the year, including—
- (a) the number of each of the following:
 - (i) decisions to publish open access information under section 24 (1);
 - (ii) decisions not to publish open access information under section 24 (1);
 - (iii) decisions under section 24 (2) (a) not to publish a description of open access information not made available;
 - (iv) access applications received;
 - (v) access applications decided within the time to decide under section 40;
 - (vi) access applications not decided within the time to decide under section 40;
 - (vii) access applications where access to all information requested was given;
 - (viii) access applications where access to only some of the information requested was given;

- (ix) access applications where access to the information requested was refused;
- (x) requests made to amend personal information under section 59; and
- (b) the number of applications made to the ombudsman under section 74 and particulars of the results of the applications; and
- (c) the number of applications made to the ACAT under section 84 and particulars of the results of the applications; and
- (d) for each access application mentioned in subsection (3) (a) (vi)—the number of days taken to decide the application over the time to decide under section 40; and
- (e) for each request to amend personal information mentioned in subsection (3) (a) (x)—the decision made under section 61; and
- (f) the total charges and application fees collected from access applications.

97 How government information to be published

- (1) If an agency or Minister responsible for government information is required under a territory law to publish the information or make it publicly available, the agency or Minister must (in addition to any other requirement under that law)—
 - (a) publish the information on a website under its control, or include on the website a link to another website where the information is published; and
 - (b) make a hard copy of the information available for public inspection on request and without charge during ordinary working hours at the agency's or Minister's place of business.

- (2) The agency or Minister must as far as practicable publish the information—
- (a) either—
- (i) in a way that complies with the web content accessibility guidelines, level AA; or
- Note* The guidelines are accessible at www.w3.org.
- (ii) if another way is prescribed by regulation—in that way; and
- (b) in a form that provides at least the same range of functions to the user of the information as was available to the agency or Minister before the information was published.

Examples—par (b)

- 1 electronically searchable text document
- 2 unsecured text document that allows a user to copy and paste from the document

Note This Act does not affect the operation of another law requiring disclosure (see s 11).

98 Access applications taken not to include application for access to metadata

- (1) An access application for government information is taken not to include an application for access to metadata about a record containing the information unless the access application expressly states that it does.
- (2) If an access application for government information expressly states that access to metadata about a record containing the information is sought, access to the metadata does not need to be given unless access is reasonably practicable.
- (3) In this section:
- metadata* about a record, includes information about the record's content, author, publication date and physical location.

99 Administrative unit entitled to access information of entity performing regulatory function

If an entity that is not an agency performs a regulatory function under a territory law, the administrative unit responsible for the law is entitled to access information held by the entity that relates to the exercise of the function.

100 Agency entitled to access to information about government contracts

- (1) This section applies to an agency if a service is, or is to be, provided under a government contract in connection with the exercise of a function of the agency.
- (2) The agency is entitled to access information that—
 - (a) is created by, or is in the possession of—
 - (i) a contracted service provider for the government contract; or
 - (ii) a subcontractor for the government contract; and
 - (b) relates to the performance of the government contract and not to the entry into the contract.
- (3) In this section:

contracted service provider, for a government contract, means an entity that is, or was—

 - (a) a party to the government contract; and
 - (b) responsible for the provision of services under the government contract.

government contract means a contract to which the following apply:

- (a) the Territory or an agency is, or was, a party to the contract;
- (b) under the contract, services are or were to be provided—
 - (i) by another party; and
 - (ii) for an agency; and
 - (iii) to a person who is not the Territory or an agency;
- (c) the services are in connection with the exercise of the functions of an agency.

subcontractor, for a government contract, means an entity—

- (a) that is, or was, a party to a contract (the subcontract)—
 - (i) with a contracted service provider for the government contract; or
 - (ii) with another subcontractor for the government contract (under a previous application of this definition); and
- (b) that is, or was, responsible under the subcontract for the provision of services for the purposes (whether direct or indirect) of the government contract.

101 Government information of abolished agencies

- (1) This section applies if an agency is abolished.
- (2) Any access application made to the abolished agency, and any decision made by the abolished agency in relation to an access application, is taken to have been made to or by—
 - (a) the agency that acquired the abolished agency's functions; or
 - (b) if the abolished agency's functions are acquired by more than 1 other agency—whichever of the other agencies has acquired the functions of the abolished agency that are most clearly related to the subject matter of the application; or

- (c) if no agency acquired the abolished agency's functions—the agency with functions most similar to those functions.
- (3) If the agency to which an access application is taken to have been made, or by which a decision on an access application is taken to have been made, under subsection (2) was not itself in existence when the application or decision was taken to have been made, then, for the purpose only of dealing with the request or decision under this Act, that agency is taken to have been in existence at that time.

102 Transfer of Ministerial responsibility

A Minister in possession of government information relating to an agency the Minister is responsible for must, when no longer responsible for the agency, give the information to the agency.

103 Protection from liability

- (1) An official is not civilly or criminally liable for conduct engaged in honestly and without recklessness—
- (a) in the exercise of a function under this Act; or
 - (b) in the reasonable belief that the conduct was in the exercise of a function under this Act.
- (2) In this section:

conduct means an act or omission to do an act.

official means—

- (a) a Minister; or
- (b) the principal officer of an agency; or
- (c) the information officer of an agency; or
- (d) the ombudsman; or
- (e) anyone else exercising a function under this Act.

104 Determination of fees

- (1) The Minister may determine fees for this Act.

Note The Legislation Act contains provisions about the making of determinations and regulations relating to fees (see pt 6.3).

- (2) A fee for a service must not vary according to—
- (a) the identity of an applicant, agency or Minister; or
 - (b) the amount of time spent by an agency or Minister in—
 - (i) searching for or retrieving information; or
 - (ii) making, or doing things related to making, a decision on an access application.
- (3) A fee for a service may vary according to the amount of information provided in response to the application.
- (4) However, the first 50 pages of information provided in response to an application must be provided free of charge.
- (5) The Minister must consult the ombudsman before determining a fee.
- (6) A determination is a disallowable instrument.

Note A disallowable instrument must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act.

- (7) In this section:

fee includes charge.

105 No fees for certain matters

- (1) A fee must not be determined for—
- (a) making an access application for personal information about the applicant; or
 - (b) making an access application for additional information as mentioned in section 36 (3); or

- (c) making an application for ombudsman review of a decision refusing to give access to information if the decision is taken to have been made under section 39.
- (2) Subsection (1) (b) does not prevent a fee being determined for providing information in response to an application mentioned in that subsection.

106 Fee estimate

- (1) The respondent to an access application may give the applicant a written estimate of the fee (if any) likely to be payable for information provided in response to the application (the fee estimate).
- (2) If the fee estimate is that a fee is payable, the respondent must ask the applicant to confirm or vary the access application.
- (3) The respondent may suspend an access application if—
 - (a) the respondent has taken all reasonable steps to contact the applicant about the fee estimate; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) the respondent is unable to contact the applicant; or
 - (ii) the applicant does not confirm or vary the application.
- (4) If the access application is suspended, the respondent must, in writing, tell the applicant—
 - (a) that the application has been suspended; and
 - (b) about the effect of subsection (5).
- (5) The respondent—
 - (a) must decide the application if the applicant confirms or varies the application within 3 months after the request was made; but
 - (b) need not deal further with the application if it is suspended under subsection (3) for 3 months or longer.

- (6) Subsection (5) (b) does not prevent the applicant from making another access application for the same information.

107 Fee waiver

- (1) A person making an access application to an agency or Minister may apply to the agency or Minister for waiver of a fee associated with the application.
- (2) The agency or Minister must waive the fee if—
- (a) the information that is the subject of the request was previously publicly available but is no longer publicly available; or
 - (b) the information that is the subject of the request is of special benefit to the public; or
- Note* The ombudsman may make guidelines about circumstances in which information may be of special benefit to the public generally (see s 66).
- (c) the applicant is a concession card holder and demonstrates a material connection with the information requested; or
 - (d) the applicant is a not-for-profit organisation and the application relates to the activities or purposes of the organisation; or
 - (e) the applicant is a member of the Legislative Assembly.
- (3) Also, the agency or Minister must waive or refund the fee if—
- (a) the fee is for providing information; and
 - (b) the information was not publicly available when the application was made; and
 - (c) the agency makes the information publicly available before or within 3 working days after giving it to the applicant.

(4) In this section:

concession card means any of the following cards:

- (a) a current health care card issued under the Social Security Act 1991 (Cwlth);
- (b) a current pensioner concession card issued under the Social Security Act 1991 (Cwlth);
- (c) a current pensioner concession card issued in relation to a pension under the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 (Cwlth) or the Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2004 (Cwlth);
- (d) a current gold card;
- (e) a card prescribed by regulation.

gold card means a card known as the 'Repatriation Health Card—For All Conditions' that evidences a person's eligibility, under the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 (Cwlth) or the Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 2004 (Cwlth), to be provided with treatment for all injuries or diseases.

108 Approved forms

- (1) The Minister may approve forms for this Act.
- (2) If the Minister approves a form for a particular purpose, the approved form must be used for the purpose.

Note For other provisions about forms, see the Legislation Act, s 255.

- (3) An approved form is a notifiable instrument.

Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act.

109 Regulation-making power

- (1) The Executive may make regulations for this Act.

Note A regulation must be notified, and presented to the Legislative Assembly, under the Legislation Act.

- (2) The Executive must consult the ombudsman before making a regulation for this Act.

110 Review of Act

- (1) The Minister must arrange for an independent entity to review the operation of this Act as soon as practicable after the end of its 5th year of operation.
- (2) The Minister must present a report of the review to the Legislative Assembly within 6 months after the day the review is started.
- (3) The Minister must consult the ombudsman on the entity to undertake the review.
- (4) This section expires 7 years after the day it commences.

Schedule 1 Information disclosure of which is taken to be contrary to the public interest

(see s 16)

Information mentioned in this schedule is taken to be contrary to the public interest to disclose unless the information identifies corruption or the commission of an offence by a public official or that the scope of a law enforcement investigation has exceeded the limits imposed by law.

1.1 Information disclosure of which would be contempt of court or Legislative Assembly etc

Information the disclosure of which would, apart from this Act and any immunity of the Crown—

- (a) be in contempt of court; or
- (b) be contrary to an order made or direction given by a tribunal or other entity having power to take evidence on oath; or

Examples

- (4) Information that is protected information under the Crimes (Restorative Justice) Act 2004, section 64.
- (5) Information that is protected information under the Housing Assistance Act 2007, section 28 other than information disclosed to a person to whom the information relates.
- (6) Any other information the disclosure of which is prohibited by a secrecy provision of a law.
- (7) In this section:
 - secrecy provision*—a provision of a law is a secrecy provision if it—
 - (a) applies to information obtained in the exercise of a function under the law; and
 - (b) prohibits people mentioned in the provision from disclosing the information, whether the prohibition is absolute or subject to stated exceptions or qualifications.

1.4 Sensitive information

Information the disclosure of which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of sensitive information about any individual (including a deceased person).

1.5 Information in possession of auditor-general

Information in the possession of the auditor-general that has been obtained or generated in relation to an audit under the Auditor-General Act 1996.

1.6 Cabinet information

- (1) Information—
 - (a) that has been submitted, or that a Minister proposes to submit, to Cabinet for its consideration and that was brought into existence for that purpose; or

- (b) that is an official record of Cabinet; or
 - (c) that is a copy of, or part of, or contains an extract from, information mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b); or
 - (d) the disclosure of which would reveal any deliberation of Cabinet (other than through the official publication of a Cabinet decision).
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to purely factual information that—
- (a) is mentioned in subsection (1) (a); or
 - (b) is mentioned in subsection (1) (b) or (c) and is a copy of, or part of, or contains an extract from, a document mentioned in subsection (1) (a);

unless the disclosure of the information would involve the disclosure of a deliberation or decision of Cabinet and the fact of the deliberation or decision has not been officially published.

- (3) In this section:

Cabinet includes a Cabinet committee or subcommittee.

1.7 Examinations under Australian Crime Commission (ACT) Act 2003

- (b) a complaint made under the Human Rights Commission Act 2005, part 4.

1.9 Identities of people making disclosures

- (1) Information that would, or could reasonably be expected to, disclose the identity of a person who has made—
 - (a) a public interest disclosure under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2012; or
 - (b) a mandatory or voluntary report under the Children and Young People Act 2008; or
 - (c) a confidential report under the Children and Young People Act 2008, section 876.
- (2) Information that would, or could reasonably be expected to, disclose the identity of a person who gives information, produces a document or answers a question in relation to an investigation of a public interest disclosure under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2012.

1.10 Information relating to requests to cost election commitments

Information about requests to cost election commitments under the Election Commitments Costing Act 2012, section 5 unless the costing period in which the request was made has ended.

1.11 Information in electoral rolls and related documents

- (1) Information in any of the following documents other than information disclosed to a person to whom it relates:
 - (a) an electoral roll, whether in printed or electronic form or on microfiche or microfilm;
 - (b) a copy of a document mentioned in paragraph (a);
 - (c) a document setting out particulars of only 1 enrolled person that was used in keeping an electoral roll;

- (d) a copy of a document mentioned in paragraph (c);
 - (e) a document containing only copies mentioned in paragraph (d);
 - (f) a document derived from an electoral roll setting out particulars of enrolled people.
- (2) In this section:
- electoral roll* means—
- (a) a roll of electors kept under the Electoral Act 1992; or
 - (b) a roll extract within the meaning of the Electoral Act 1992.

1.12 Information in possession of ombudsman

Information in the possession of the ombudsman that has been obtained or generated in relation to—

- (a) an ombudsman review; or
- (b) an investigation undertaken by the ombudsman under the Ombudsman Act 1989, section 9; or
- (c) a function exercised under the Ombudsman Act 1989, division 2.2A (Reportable conduct).

1.13 National, Territory or State security information

- (1) Information the disclosure of which would, or could reasonably be expected to damage the security of the Commonwealth, the Territory or a State.
- (2) For subsection (1), the security of the Commonwealth includes—
 - (a) matters relating to detecting, preventing or suppressing activities, whether within or outside Australia, that are subversive of, or hostile to, the interests of the Commonwealth or a country allied or associated with the Commonwealth; and

- (b) the security of a communications system or cryptographic system of the Commonwealth or another country used for—
 - (i) the defence of the Commonwealth or a country allied or associated with the Commonwealth; or
 - (ii) the conduct of the international relations of the Commonwealth.
- (3) For subsection (1), the security of the Territory or State includes matters relating to detecting, preventing or suppressing activities within or outside the Territory or State, that are subversive of, or hostile to, the interests of the Territory or a State.

1.14 Law enforcement or public safety information

- (1) Information the disclosure of which would, or could reasonably be expected to—
 - (a) prejudice the investigation of a contravention or possible contravention of the law in a particular case; or
 - (b) identify the existence or identity of a confidential source of information in relation to the enforcement or administration of the law; or
 - (c) endanger a person's life or physical safety; or
 - (d) result in a person being subject to a serious act of harassment or intimidation; or
 - (e) prejudice a person's fair trial or the impartial adjudication of a matter before a court or tribunal; or
 - (f) prejudice the effectiveness of a lawful method or procedure for preventing, detecting, investigating or dealing with a contravention or possible contravention of the law; or

- (g) prejudice the maintenance or enforcement of a lawful method or procedure for protecting public safety; or
 - (h) endanger the security of a building, structure or vehicle; or
 - (i) prejudice a system or procedure for the protection of people, property or the environment; or
 - (j) facilitate a person's escape from lawful custody; or
 - (k) prejudice the wellbeing of a cultural or natural resource or the habitat of animals or plants.
- (2) Information given in the course of an investigation of a contravention or possible contravention of the law if the information was given under compulsion under an Act that abrogated the privilege against self-incrimination.
- (3) Information obtained, used or prepared for an investigation by an entity prescribed by regulation in the exercise of a function prescribed by regulation.
- (4) However this section does not apply to—
- (a) information revealing that the scope of a law enforcement investigation has exceeded the limits imposed by law; or
 - (b) information containing a general outline of the structure of a program adopted by an agency for dealing with a contravention or possible contravention of the law; or
 - (c) a report on the degree of success achieved in a program adopted by an agency for dealing with a contravention or possible contravention of the law; or

- (d) a report prepared in the course of a routine law enforcement inspection or investigation by an agency whose functions include that of enforcing the law (other than the criminal law or the law relating to corruption); or
 - (e) a report on a law enforcement investigation that has already been disclosed to the entity the subject of the investigation.
- (5) In this section:
- law* includes law of the Commonwealth, a State or a foreign country.

Schedule 2 Factors to be considered when deciding the public interest

(see s 17 (1))

2.1 Factors favouring disclosure in the public interest

The following are factors favouring disclosure in the public interest:

- (a) disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to do any of the following:
 - (i) promote open discussion of public affairs and enhance the government's accountability;
 - (ii) contribute to positive and informed debate on important issues or matters of public interest;
 - (iii) inform the community of the government's operations, including the policies, guidelines and codes of conduct followed by the government in its dealings with members of the community;
 - (iv) ensure effective oversight of expenditure of public funds;
 - (v) allow or assist inquiry into possible deficiencies in the conduct or administration of an agency or public official;
 - (vi) reveal or substantiate that an agency or public official has engaged in misconduct or negligent, improper or unlawful conduct or has acted maliciously or in bad faith;
 - (vii) advance the fair treatment of individuals and other entities in accordance with the law in their dealings with the government;
 - (viii) reveal the reason for a government decision and any background or contextual information that informed the decision;

- (ix) reveal that the information was—
 - (A) incorrect; or
 - (B) out-of-date; or
 - (C) misleading; or
 - (D) gratuitous; or
 - (E) unfairly subjective; or
 - (F) irrelevant;
- (x) contribute to the protection of the environment;
- (xi) reveal environmental or health risks or measures relating to public health and safety;
- (xii) contribute to the maintenance of peace and order;
- (xiii) contribute to the administration of justice generally, including procedural fairness;
- (xiv) contribute to the administration of justice for a person;
- (xv) contribute to the enforcement of criminal law;
- (xvi) contribute to innovation and the facilitation of research;
- (b) the information is personal information of—
 - (i) the person making the request; or
 - (ii) a child and the information is to be given to the child's parent or guardian and the disclosure of the information to the child's parent or guardian is reasonably considered to be in the best interests of the child; or
 - (iii) a deceased person and the person making the request for the information is an eligible family member of the deceased person.

2.2 Factors favouring nondisclosure in the public interest

The following are factors favouring nondisclosure in the public interest:

- (a) disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to do any of the following:
 - (i) prejudice the collective responsibility of Cabinet or the individual responsibility of members to the Assembly;
 - (ii) prejudice the protection of an individual's right to privacy or any other right under the Human Rights Act 2004;
 - (iii) prejudice security, law enforcement or public safety;
 - (iv) impede the administration of justice generally, including procedural fairness;
 - (v) impede the administration of justice for a person;
 - (vi) prejudice the security or good order of a correctional centre;
 - (vii) impede the protection of the environment;
 - (viii) prejudice the economy of the Territory;
 - (ix) prejudice the flow of information to the police or another law enforcement or regulatory agency;
 - (x) prejudice intergovernmental relations;
 - (xi) prejudice trade secrets, business affairs or research of an agency or person;
 - (xii) prejudice an agency's ability to obtain confidential information;
 - (xiii) prejudice the competitive commercial activities of an agency;

- (xiv) prejudice the conduct of considerations, investigations, audits or reviews by the ombudsman, auditor-general, integrity commission, integrity commission inspector or human rights commission;
 - (xv) prejudice the management function of an agency or the conduct of industrial relations by an agency;
 - (xvi) prejudice a deliberative process of government;
 - (xvii) prejudice the effectiveness of testing or auditing procedures;
 - (xviii) prejudice the conservation of any place or object of natural, cultural or heritage value, or reveal any information relating to Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander traditional knowledge;
- (b) the information—
- (i) is personal information of a child and the disclosure of the information is reasonably considered not to be in the best interests of the child; or
 - (ii) would be privileged from production in a legal proceeding on the ground of legal professional privilege; or
 - (iii) is personal information of a deceased person and the person making the request is an eligible family member of the deceased person and the disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to impact on the deceased person's privacy if the deceased person were alive; or
 - (iv) is information disclosure of which is prohibited by an Act of the Territory, a State or the Commonwealth; or
 - (v) is about unsubstantiated allegations of misconduct or unlawful, negligent or improper conduct and disclosure of the information could prejudice the fair treatment of an individual.

2.3 Meaning of eligible family member—sch 2

- (1) For this schedule, eligible family member, of a deceased person, means—
- (a) a domestic partner of the deceased person; or
 - (b) if a domestic partner is not reasonably available—an adult child of the deceased person; or
 - (c) if a domestic partner or adult child is not reasonably available—an adult sibling of the deceased person; or
 - (d) if a person mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) is not reasonably available and the deceased person was not an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person—the next nearest adult relative of the deceased person who is reasonably available; or
 - (e) if a person mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) is not reasonably available and the deceased person was an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person—a person who is an appropriate person according to the tradition or custom of the Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community to which the deceased person belonged and who is reasonably available.

Note Domestic partner—see the Legislation Act, s 169 (1).

- (2) For this section, a person is not reasonably available if a person of that description—
- (a) does not exist; or
 - (b) cannot reasonably be contacted; or
 - (c) is unable or unwilling to act as the eligible family member of the deceased person for the purposes of this Act.

1 About the endnotes

Amending and modifying laws are annotated in the legislation history and the amendment history. Current modifications are not included in the republished law but are set out in the endnotes.

Not all editorial amendments made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 are annotated in the amendment history. Full details of any amendments can be obtained from the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

Uncommenced amending laws are not included in the republished law. The details of these laws are underlined in the legislation history. Uncommenced expiries are underlined in the legislation history and amendment history.

If all the provisions of the law have been renumbered, a table of renumbered provisions gives details of previous and current numbering.

The endnotes also include a table of earlier republications.

6 Expired transitional or validating provisions

This Act may be affected by transitional or validating provisions that have expired. The expiry does not affect any continuing operation of the provisions (see Legislation Act 2001, s 88 (1)).

Expired provisions are removed from the republished law when the expiry takes effect and are listed in the amendment history using the abbreviation ‘exp’ followed by the date of the expiry.
