Australian Capital Territory

Commercial Arbitration Act 2017

A2017-7

An Act for the conduct of commercial arbitration, and for other purposes

The Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory enacts as follows:

Part 1A Preliminary

Note Sections of this Act that contain a reference to the ‘Model Law’ beneath the heading are substantially the same as the provisions of the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration (as adopted by the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law on 21 June 1985 with amendments as adopted by that Commission in 2006) so as to be as uniform as possible with the UNCITRAL Model Law.

Some changes have been made to those provisions of the Act based on the UNCITRAL Model Law to amend or supplement the provisions in their application to domestic arbitrations in the ACT or to accommodate modern drafting styles and conventions (for example, provisions drafted in gender neutral terms and archaisms are replaced with modern alternatives).

Notes draw attention to substantive changes.

The original numbering of the ‘articles’ of the UNCITRAL Model Law has been retained but converted to references to ‘sections’, and articles containing more than 1 have been re-formatted into subsections.

There are a number of additional provisions to those based on the UNCITRAL Model Law.

The Model Law contains provisions that are not needed in this Act—the article number and heading to the article appearing in the Model Law are included in this Act despite the omission of the body of the section.

1A Name of Act

This Act is the Commercial Arbitration Act 2017.

1B Commencement

This Act commences on a day fixed by the Minister by written notice.

Note 1 The naming and commencement provisions automatically commence on the notification day (see Legislation Act, s 75 (1)).

Note 2 A single day or time may be fixed, or different days or times may be fixed, for the commencement of different provisions (see Legislation Act, s 77 (1)).

Note 3 If a provision has not commenced within 6 months beginning on the notification day, it automatically commences on the first day after that period (see Legislation Act, s 79).

1C Paramount object of Act

- (1) The paramount object of this Act is to facilitate the fair and final resolution of commercial disputes by impartial arbitral tribunals without unnecessary delay or expense.
- (2) This Act aims to achieve its paramount object by—
 - (a) enabling parties to agree about how their commercial disputes are to be resolved (subject to subsection (3) and such safeguards as are necessary in the public interest); and
 - (b) providing arbitration procedures that enable commercial disputes to be resolved in a cost effective manner, informally and quickly.
- (3) This Act must be interpreted, and the functions of an arbitral tribunal must be exercised, so that (as far as practicable) the paramount object of this Act is achieved.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not affect the application of the Legislation Act, section 139 for the purposes of interpreting this Act.

1D Act to bind Crown

Note The Model Law includes a provision binding the Crown. The provision is unnecessary in the ACT (see Legislation Act, s 121).

1E Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere in this Act.

For example, the signpost definition 'arbitration agreement—see section 7.' means that the term 'arbitration agreement' is defined in that section and the definition applies to this Act.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

1F Notes

- (1) A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See the Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

- (2) In this section:

note includes material enclosed in brackets in section headings.

Note Some sections of this Act contain bracketed notes under their headings (eg Model Law art 1) drawing attention to equivalent or comparable (though not necessarily identical) provisions of the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration.

Part 1 General Provisions

1 Scope of application

(Model Law art 1)

- (1) This Act applies to domestic commercial arbitrations.

Note The International Arbitration Act 1974 (Cwlth) covers international commercial arbitrations and the enforcement of foreign arbitral awards.

- (2) The provisions of this Act, except section 8, section 9, section 17H, section 17I, section 17J, section 35 and section 36, apply only if the place of arbitration is in the ACT.

- (3) An arbitration is domestic if—

(a) the parties to an arbitration agreement have, at the time of the conclusion of that agreement, their places of business in Australia; and

(b) the parties have (whether in the arbitration agreement or in any other document in writing) agreed that any dispute that has arisen or may arise between them is to be settled by arbitration; and

(c) it is not an arbitration to which the Model Law (as given effect by the International Arbitration Act 1974 (Cwlth)) applies.

- (4) For subsection (3)—

(a) if a party has more than 1 place of business, the place of business is that which has the closest relationship to the arbitration agreement; and

(b) if a party does not have a place of business, reference is to be made to the party's habitual residence.

- (5) This Act does not affect any other Act by virtue of which certain disputes may not be submitted to arbitration or may be submitted to arbitration only according to provisions other than those of this Act.

- (6) Subject to subsection (5), this Act applies to arbitrations provided for in any other Act as if—
- (a) the other Act were an arbitration agreement; and
 - (b) the arbitration were pursuant to an arbitration agreement; and
 - (c) the parties to the dispute which, by virtue of the other Act, is referred to arbitration were the parties to the arbitration agreement;

except in so far as the other Act otherwise indicates or requires.

Note 1 A note to the model law states that the term ‘commercial’ should be given a wide interpretation so as to cover matters arising from all relationships of a commercial nature, whether contractual or not. Relationships of a commercial nature include, but are not limited to, the following transactions: any trade transaction for the supply or exchange of goods or services; distribution agreement; commercial representation or agency; factoring; leasing; construction of works; consulting; engineering; licensing; investment; financing; banking; insurance; exploitation agreement or concession; joint venture and other forms of industrial or business co-operation; carriage of goods or passengers by air, sea, rail or road.

Note 2 This section differs from the Model Law to the extent necessary to apply art 1 as incorporated in this Act to domestic commercial arbitrations. Section 40 contains provisions that also relate to the application of this Act.

2 Rules of interpretation

(Model Law art 2)

- (1) [omitted]

Note This section differs from the Model Law to the extent that the definitions in art 2 (1) are set out in the dictionary to this Act.

- (2) Where a provision of this Act, except section 28, leaves the parties free to determine a certain issue, such freedom includes the right of the parties to authorise a third-party, including an institution, to make that determination.

- (3) Where a provision of this Act refers to the fact that the parties have agreed or that they may agree or in any other way refers to an agreement of the parties, such agreement includes any arbitration rules referred to in that agreement.
- (4) Where a provision of this Act, other than section 25 (1) (a) and section 32 (2) (a), refers to a claim, it also applies to a counter-claim, and where it refers to a defence, it also applies to a defence to such counter-claim.

2A International origin and general principles

(Model Law art 2A)

- (1) Subject to section 1C, in the interpretation of this Act, regard is to be had to the need to promote, so far as practicable, uniformity between the application of this Act to domestic commercial arbitrations and the application of the provisions of the Model Law (as given effect by the International Arbitration Act 1974 (Cwlth)) to international commercial arbitrations and the observance of good faith.

Note This section differs from the Model Law. Art 2A (1) has been changed as a consequence of the application of the Act to domestic (instead of international) commercial arbitrations. Art 2A (2) is omitted because it is covered by the provision referred to in section 1C (4). Subsections (3) and (4) reflect the International Arbitration Act 1974 (Cwlth), s 17.

- (2) [omitted]
- (3) Without limiting subsection (1), in interpreting this Act, reference may be made to documents of—
 - (a) the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law that relate to the Model Law; and
 - (b) the Commission's working groups for the preparation of the Model Law.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not affect the application of the Legislation Act, section 141 (Non-legislative context generally) or section 142 (Non-legislative context—material that may be considered) for the purposes of interpreting this Act.

3 Receipt of written communications

(Model Law art 3)

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties—
 - (a) any written communication is taken to be received if—
 - (i) it is delivered to the addressee personally; or
 - (ii) it is delivered to the addressee’s place of business, habitual residence or mailing address; or
 - (iii) if none of these can be found after making a reasonable inquiry—it is delivered to the addressee’s last-known place of business, habitual residence or mailing address by registered letter or any other means which provides a record of the attempt to deliver it; and
 - (b) the communication is taken to have been received on the day it is delivered.
- (2) The provisions of this section do not apply to communications in court proceedings.

4 Waiver of right to object

(Model Law art 4)

A party who knows that any provision of this Act from which the parties may derogate or any requirement under the arbitration agreement has not been complied with and yet proceeds with the arbitration without stating the party’s objection to such non-compliance without undue delay or, if a time-limit is provided for stating the party’s objection, within such period of time, is taken to have waived the party’s right to object.

5 Extent of court intervention

(Model Law art 5)

In matters governed by this Act, no court must intervene except where so provided by this Act.

6 Court for certain functions of arbitration assistance and supervision

(Model Law art 6)

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the functions referred to in the following sections must be performed by the Supreme Court:
 - (a) section 11 (3) and (4);
 - (b) section 13 (4);
 - (c) section 14 (2);
 - (d) section 16 (9);
 - (e) section 17H, section 17I and section 17J;
 - (f) section 19 (6);
 - (g) section 27, section 27A, section 27B, section 27H, section 27I and section 27J;
 - (h) section 33D, section 34 and section 34A.
- (2) If—
 - (a) an arbitration agreement provides that the Magistrates Court is to have jurisdiction under this Act; or
 - (b) the parties to an arbitration agreement have agreed, in writing, that the Magistrates Court is to have jurisdiction under this Act and that agreement is in force;

the functions are to be performed, in relation to that agreement, by the Magistrates Court, as the case requires.

Note This section differs from the Model Law to the extent that it relates to functions conferred on the court with respect to domestic commercial arbitrations that are not referred to in the Model Law.

Part 2 Arbitration agreement

7 Definition and form of arbitration agreement

(Model Law art 7)

- (1) An arbitration agreement is an agreement by the parties to submit to arbitration all or certain disputes which have arisen or which may arise between them in respect of a defined legal relationship, whether contractual or not.
- (2) An arbitration agreement may be in the form of an arbitration clause in a contract or in the form of a separate agreement.
- (3) The arbitration agreement must be in writing.
- (4) An arbitration agreement is in writing if its content is recorded in any form, whether or not the arbitration agreement or contract has been concluded orally, by conduct, or by other means.
- (5) The requirement that an arbitration agreement be in writing is met by an electronic communication if the information contained in it is accessible so as to be useable for subsequent reference.
- (6) Also, an arbitration agreement is in writing if it is contained in an exchange of statements of claim and defence in which the existence of an agreement is alleged by 1 party and not denied by the other.
- (7) The reference in a contract to any document containing an arbitration clause constitutes an arbitration agreement in writing, provided that the reference is such as to make that clause part of the contract.
- (8) In this section:
data message means information generated, sent, received or stored by electronic, magnetic, optical or similar means, including, but not limited to, electronic data interchange (EDI), electronic mail, telegram, telex or telecopy.

electronic communication means any communication that the parties make by means of data messages.

Note This section is substantially the same as Option 1 set out in the Model Law, art 7.

8 Arbitration agreement and substantive claim before court
(Model Law art 8)

- (1) A court before which an action is brought in a matter which is the subject of an arbitration agreement must, if a party so requests not later than when submitting the party's first statement on the substance of the dispute, refer the parties to arbitration unless it finds that the agreement is null and void, inoperative or incapable of being performed.
- (2) Where an action referred to in subsection (1) has been brought, arbitral proceedings may nevertheless be commenced or continued, and an award may be made, while the issue is pending before the court.

9 Arbitration agreement and interim measures by court
(Model Law art 9)

It is not incompatible with an arbitration agreement for a party to request, before or during arbitral proceedings, from a court an interim measure of protection and for a court to grant the measure.

Part 3 Composition of arbitral tribunal

10 Number of arbitrators

(Model Law art 10)

- (1) The parties are free to determine the number of arbitrators.
- (2) Failing such determination, the number of arbitrators is to be 1.

Note Subsection (2) differs from the Model Law, art 10 (2), which provides for 3 arbitrators if the parties do not determine the number of arbitrators.

11 Appointment of arbitrators

(Model Law art 11)

- (1) [omitted]

Note The Model Law, art 11 (1) (which provides that no person is precluded by nationality from acting as an arbitrator unless otherwise agreed by the parties) has been omitted.

- (2) The parties are free to agree on a procedure of appointing the arbitrator or arbitrators, subject to subsections (4) and (5).
- (3) Failing such agreement—
 - (a) in an arbitration with 3 arbitrators and 2 parties, each party is to appoint 1 arbitrator, and the 2 arbitrators so appointed are to appoint the third arbitrator and if a party fails to appoint the arbitrator within 30 days of receipt of a request to do so from the other party, or if the 2 arbitrators fail to agree on the third arbitrator within 30 days of their appointment, the appointment is to be made, on the request of a party, by the court; and
 - (b) in an arbitration with a sole arbitrator, if the parties are unable to agree on the arbitrator, an arbitrator is to be appointed, on the request of a party, by the court; and
 - (c) in an arbitration with 2, 4 or more arbitrators or with 3 arbitrators and more than 2 parties the appointment is to be made, at the request of a party, by the court.

- (4) Where, under an appointment procedure agreed on by the parties—
- (a) a party fails to act as required under the procedure; or
 - (b) the parties, or 2 or more arbitrators, are unable to reach an agreement expected of them under the procedure; or
 - (c) a third-party, including an institution, fails to perform any function entrusted to it under the procedure;

any party may request the court to take the necessary measure, unless the agreement on the appointment procedure provides other means for securing the appointment.

- (5) A decision within the limits of the court's authority on a matter entrusted by subsection (3) or (4) to the court is final.
- (6) The court, in appointing an arbitrator, is to have due regard to any qualifications required of the arbitrator by the agreement of the parties and to such considerations as are likely to secure the appointment of an independent and impartial arbitrator.

Note This section (other than ss (3) (c), (5) and (6)) is substantially the same as the Model Law, art 11. Subsection (3) (c) is added to cover the contingency of the parties failing to agree on the procedure to appoint arbitrators in certain circumstances not covered by the Model Law as incorporated in this Act. It is based on the Arbitration Act 1996 (NZ), sch 1, cl 11 (6). Subsection (5) makes it clear that, although a decision of the court is generally final, review of a decision of the court that is not made within the limits of its powers and functions is not precluded. Subsection (6) does not include the requirement in the Model Law, art 11 (5) that the court take into account the advisability of appointing an arbitrator of a nationality other than those of the parties in appointing a sole or third arbitrator as this is not relevant in the context of domestic commercial arbitrations.

12 Grounds for challenge

(Model Law art 12)

- (1) When a person is approached in connection with the person's possible appointment as an arbitrator, the person must disclose any circumstances likely to give rise to justifiable doubts as to the person's impartiality or independence.
- (2) An arbitrator, from the time of the arbitrator's appointment and throughout the arbitral proceedings, must without delay disclose any circumstances of the kind referred to in subsection (1) to the parties unless they have already been informed of them by the arbitrator.
- (3) An arbitrator may be challenged only if circumstances exist that give rise to justifiable doubts as to the arbitrator's impartiality or independence, or if the arbitrator does not possess qualifications agreed to by the parties.
- (4) A party may challenge an arbitrator appointed by the party, or in whose appointment the party has participated, only for reasons of which the party becomes aware after the appointment has been made.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1), there are justifiable doubts as to the impartiality or independence of a person approached in connection with a possible appointment as arbitrator only if there is a real danger of bias on the part of the person in conducting the arbitration.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (3), there are justifiable doubts as to the impartiality or independence of an arbitrator only if there is a real danger of bias on the part of the arbitrator in conducting the arbitration.

Note This section (other than ss (5) and (6)) is substantially the same as the Model Law, art 12. Subsections (5) and (6) provide that the test for whether there are justifiable doubts as to the impartiality or independence of a person or arbitrator is whether there is a real danger of bias.

13 Challenge procedure

(Model Law art 13)

- (1) The parties are free to agree on a procedure for challenging an arbitrator, subject to subsection (4).
- (2) Failing such agreement, a party who intends to challenge an arbitrator must, within 15 days after becoming aware of the constitution of the arbitral tribunal or after becoming aware of any circumstance referred to in section 12 (3), send a written statement of the reasons for the challenge to the arbitral tribunal.
- (3) Unless the challenged arbitrator withdraws from office or the other party agrees to the challenge, the arbitral tribunal must decide on the challenge.
- (4) If a challenge under any procedure agreed on by the parties or under the procedure of subsections (2) and (3) is not successful, the challenging party may request, within 30 days after having received notice of the decision rejecting the challenge, the court to decide on the challenge.
- (5) A decision of the court under subsection (4) that is within the limits of the authority of the court is final.
- (6) While a request under subsection (4) is pending, the arbitral tribunal, including the challenged arbitrator, may continue the arbitral proceedings and make an award.

Note This section (other than s (5)) is substantially the same as art 13 of the Model Law. Subsection (5) makes it clear that, although a decision of the court is generally final, review of a decision of the court that is not made within the limits of its powers and functions is not precluded.

14 Failure or impossibility to act

(Model Law art 14)

- (1) If an arbitrator becomes in law or in fact unable to perform the arbitrator's functions or for other reasons fails to act without undue delay, the arbitrator's mandate terminates if the arbitrator withdraws from office or if the parties agree on the termination.

- (2) Otherwise, if a controversy remains concerning any of these grounds, any party may request the court to decide on the termination of the mandate.
- (3) A decision of the court under subsection (2) that is within the limits of the authority of the court is final.
- (4) If, under this section or section 13 (3), an arbitrator withdraws from office or a party agrees to the termination of the mandate of an arbitrator, this does not imply acceptance of the validity of any ground referred to in this section or section 12 (3).

Note This section (other than s (3)) is substantially the same as the Model Law, art 14. Subsection (3) makes it clear that, although a decision of the court is generally final, review of a decision of the court that is not made within the limits of its powers and functions is not precluded.

15 Appointment of substitute arbitrator

(Model Law art 15)

Where the mandate of an arbitrator terminates under section 13 or section 14 or because of the arbitrator's withdrawal from office for any other reason or because of the revocation of the arbitrator's mandate by agreement of the parties or in any other case of termination of the arbitrator's mandate, a substitute arbitrator must be appointed according to the rules that were applicable to the appointment of the arbitrator being replaced.

Part 4 Jurisdiction of arbitral tribunal

16 Competence of arbitral tribunal to rule on its jurisdiction (Model Law art 16)

- (1) The arbitral tribunal may rule on its own jurisdiction, including any objections with respect to the existence or validity of the arbitration agreement.
- (2) For that purpose, an arbitration clause which forms part of a contract is to be treated as an agreement independent of the other terms of the contract.
- (3) A decision by the arbitral tribunal that the contract is null and void does not of itself entail the invalidity of the arbitration clause.
Note The Model Law provides that such a decision does not 'ipso jure' entail the invalidity of the arbitration clause.
- (4) A plea that the arbitral tribunal does not have jurisdiction must be raised not later than the submission of the statement of defence.
- (5) A party is not precluded from raising such a plea by the fact that the party has appointed, or participated in the appointment of, an arbitrator.
- (6) A plea that the arbitral tribunal is exceeding the scope of its authority must be raised as soon as the matter alleged to be beyond the scope of its authority is raised during the arbitral proceedings.
- (7) The arbitral tribunal may, in the case of a plea referred to in subsection (4) or (6), admit a later plea if it considers the delay justified.
- (8) The arbitral tribunal may rule on a plea referred to in subsection (4) or (6) either as a preliminary question or in an award on the merits.
- (9) If the arbitral tribunal rules as a preliminary question that it has jurisdiction, any party may request, within 30 days after having received notice of that ruling, the court to decide the matter.
- (10) A decision of the court under subsection (9) that is within the limits of the authority of the court is final.

- (11) While a request under subsection (9) is pending, the arbitral tribunal may continue the arbitral proceedings and make an award.

Note This section (other than s (10)) is substantially the same as the Model Law, art 16. Subsection (10) makes it clear that, although a decision of the court is generally final, review of a decision of the court that is not made within the limits of its powers and functions is not precluded.

Part 4A Interim measures

Division 1 Interim measures

17 Power of arbitral tribunal to order interim measures

(Model Law art 17)

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the arbitral tribunal may, at the request of a party, grant interim measures.
- (2) An interim measure is any temporary measure, whether in the form of an award or in another form, by which, at any time prior to the issuance of the award by which the dispute is finally decided, the arbitral tribunal orders a party to—
 - (a) maintain or restore the status quo pending determination of the dispute; or
 - (b) take action that would prevent, or refrain from taking action that is likely to cause, current or imminent harm or prejudice to the arbitral process itself; or
 - (c) provide a means of preserving assets out of which a subsequent award may be satisfied; or
 - (d) preserve evidence that may be relevant and material to the resolution of the dispute.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), the arbitral tribunal may make orders with respect to any of the following:
 - (a) security for costs;
 - (b) discovery of documents and interrogatories;
 - (c) giving of evidence by affidavit;
 - (d) the inspection of any property which is or forms part of the subject-matter of the dispute;
 - (e) the taking of photographs of any property which is or forms part of the subject-matter of the dispute;

- (f) samples to be taken from, or any observation to be made of or experiment conducted on, any property which is or forms part of the subject-matter of the dispute;
- (g) dividing, recording and strictly enforcing the time allocated for a hearing between the parties (a stop clock arbitration).

Note Subsections (1) and (2) are substantially the same as the Model Law, art 17. There is no equivalent s (3) in the Model Law.

17A Conditions for granting interim measures

(Model Law art 17A)

- (1) The party requesting an interim measure under section 17 (2) (a), (b) or (c) must satisfy the arbitral tribunal that—
 - (a) harm not adequately reparable by an award of damages is likely to result if the measure is not ordered, and that harm substantially outweighs the harm that is likely to result to the party against whom the measure is directed if the measure is granted; and
 - (b) there is a reasonable possibility that the requesting party will succeed on the merits of the claim.
- (2) The determination on the possibility referred to in subsection (1) (b) does not affect the discretion of the arbitral tribunal in making any subsequent determination.

- (ii) the arbitral tribunal's decision with respect to the provision of security in connection with the interim measure issued by the arbitral tribunal has not been complied with; or
 - (iii) the interim measure has been terminated or suspended by the arbitral tribunal or, where so empowered, by the court of the State or other Territory in which the arbitration takes place or under the law of which that interim measure was granted; or
- (b) if the court finds that—

(Model Law art 20)

- (1) The parties are free to agree on the place of arbitration.
- (2) Failing such agreement, the place of arbitration is to be determined by the arbitral tribunal having regard to the circumstances of the case, including the convenience of the parties.

- (2) The parties may submit with their statements all documents they consider to be relevant or may add a reference to the documents or other evidence they will submit.
- (3) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, either party may amend or supplement the party's claim or defence during the course of the arbitral proceedings, unless the arbitral tribunal considers it inappropriate to allow such amendment having regard to the delay in making it.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not require a statement by a claimant or respondent to be in a particular form.

24 Hearings and written proceedings

(Model Law art 24)

- (1) Subject to any contrary agreement by the parties, the arbitral tribunal is to decide whether to hold oral hearings for the presentation of evidence or for oral argument, or whether the proceedings are to be conducted on the basis of documents and other materials.
- (2) However, unless the parties have agreed that no hearings are to be held, the arbitral tribunal must hold such hearings at an appropriate stage of the proceedings, if so requested by a party.
- (3) The parties must be given sufficient advance notice of any hearing and of any meeting of the arbitral tribunal for the purposes of inspection of goods, other property or documents.

- (4) All statements, documents or other information supplied to the arbitral tribunal by 1 party must be communicated to the other party.

25 Default of a party

(Model Law art 25)

 - (a) if the claimant fails to communicate the claimant's statement of claim in accordance with section 23 (1)—the arbitral tribunal may terminate the proceedings; or
 - (b) if the respondent fails to communicate the respondent's statement of defence in accordance with section 23 (1)—the arbitral tribunal may continue the proceedings without treating such failure in itself as an admission of the claimant's allegations; or
 - (c) if any party fails to appear at a hearing or to produce documentary evidence—the arbitral tribunal may continue the proceedings and make the award on the evidence before it.
- (2) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, if a party fails to do any other thing necessary for the proper and expeditious conduct of the arbitration the arbitral tribunal may—
 - (a) if satisfied that there has been inordinate and inexcusable delay on the part of the claimant in pursuing the claim—make an award dismissing the claim or may give directions (with or without conditions) for the speedy determination of the claim; or
 - (b) if without sufficient cause a party fails to comply with any order or direction of the arbitral tribunal—make an order requiring the party to comply with the terms of the earlier order or direction within the period specified by the arbitral tribunal (a peremptory order).
- (3) If a party fails to comply with a peremptory order, the arbitral tribunal may do any of the following:

- (c) proceed to an award on the basis of any materials that have been properly provided to the arbitral tribunal;
- (d) without limiting section 33B (4), in making an award give any direction or order that it thinks fit as to the payment of the costs of the arbitration incurred in consequence of the non-compliance.

- (2) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, if a party so requests or if the arbitral tribunal considers it necessary, the expert must, after delivery of the expert's written or oral report, participate in a hearing where the parties have the opportunity to put questions to the expert and present expert witnesses in order to testify on the points at issue.

27C Consolidation of arbitral proceedings

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, a party to arbitral proceedings may apply to the arbitral tribunal for an order under this section in relation to those proceedings and other arbitral proceedings (whether before that tribunal or any other tribunal) on the ground that—
- (a) a common question of law or fact arises in all those proceedings; or
 - (b) the rights to relief claimed in all those proceedings are in respect of, or arise out of, the same transaction or series of transactions; or
 - (c) for some other reason specified in the application, it is desirable that an order be made under this section.

- (7) If the tribunals are unable to make an order under subsection (6), the related proceedings are to proceed as if no application has been made under subsection (1).
- (8) Before making an order under this section, the arbitral tribunal or tribunals concerned must take into account whether any party would, or might suffer substantial hardship if the order were made.

- (6) If the parties do not consent under subsection (4), the arbitrator's mandate is taken to have been terminated under section 14 and a substitute arbitrator is to be appointed in accordance with section 15.
- (7) If confidential information is obtained from a party during mediation proceedings as referred to in subsection (2) (b) and the mediation proceedings terminate, the arbitrator must, before conducting subsequent arbitration proceedings in relation to the dispute, disclose to all other parties to the arbitration proceedings so much of the information as the arbitrator considers material to the arbitration proceedings.

- (4) The arbitral tribunal may, in making an award—
 - (a) direct to whom, by whom, and in what manner, the whole or any part of the costs that it awards are to be paid; and

- (2) For the purposes of this section, an arbitration is taken to have failed if—

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, where an arbitral tribunal makes an award for the payment of money (whether on a claim for a liquidated or an unliquidated amount), the arbitral tribunal may include in the sum for which the award is made interest, at such reasonable rate as the arbitral tribunal determines—
 - (a) on the whole or any part of the money; and

Part 7 Recourse against award

34 Application for setting aside as exclusive recourse against arbitral award

(Model Law art 34)

- (1) Recourse to the court against an arbitral award may be made only by an application for setting aside in accordance with subsections (2) and (3) or by an appeal under section 34A.

Note The Model Law does not provide for appeals as under s 34A.

- (2) An arbitral award may be set aside by the court only if—
- (a) the party making the application furnishes proof that—
 - (i) a party to the arbitration agreement referred to in section 7 was under some incapacity, or the arbitration agreement is not valid under the law to which the parties have subjected it or, failing any indication in it, under the law of the Territory; or
 - (ii) the party making the application was not given proper notice of the appointment of an arbitral tribunal or of the arbitral proceedings or was otherwise unable to present the party's case; or
 - (iii) the award deals with a dispute not contemplated by or not falling within the terms of the submission to arbitration, or contains decisions on matters beyond the scope of the submission to arbitration, provided that, if the decisions on matters submitted to arbitration can be separated from those not so submitted, only that part of the award which contains decisions on matters not submitted to arbitration may be set aside; or

- (iv) the composition of the arbitral tribunal or the arbitral procedure was not in accordance with the agreement of the parties, unless such agreement was in conflict with a provision of this Act from which the parties cannot derogate, or, failing such agreement, was not in accordance with this Act; or
- (b) the court finds that—
 - (i) the subject-matter of the dispute is not capable of settlement by arbitration under the law of the Territory; or
 - (ii) the award is in conflict with the public policy of the Territory.
- (3) An application for setting aside may not be made after 3 months have elapsed from the date on which the party making that application had received the award or, if a request had been made under section 33, from the date on which that request had been disposed of by the arbitral tribunal.
- (4) The court, when asked to set aside an award, may, where appropriate and so requested by a party, suspend the setting aside of proceedings for a period of time determined by it in order to give the arbitral tribunal an opportunity to resume the arbitral proceedings or to take such other action as in the arbitral tribunal's opinion will eliminate the grounds for setting aside.

34A Appeals against awards

- (1) An appeal lies to the court on a question of law arising out of an award if—
 - (a) the parties agree, before the end of the appeal period referred to in subsection (6), that an appeal may be made under this section; and
 - (b) the court grants leave.
- (2) An appeal under this section may be brought by any of the parties to an arbitration agreement.

- (3) The court must not grant leave unless it is satisfied—
 - (a) the determination of the question will substantially affect the rights of 1 or more of the parties; and
 - (b) the question is one which the arbitral tribunal was asked to determine; and
 - (c) on the basis of the findings of fact in the award—
 - (i) the decision of the tribunal on the question is obviously wrong; or
 - (ii) the question is one of general public importance and the decision of the tribunal is at least open to serious doubt; and
 - (d) despite the agreement of the parties to resolve the matter by arbitration, it is just and proper in all the circumstances for the court to determine the question.
- (4) An application for leave to appeal must identify the question of law to be determined and state the grounds on which it is alleged that leave to appeal should be granted.
- (5) The court is to determine an application for leave to appeal without a hearing unless it appears to the court that a hearing is required.
- (6) An appeal may not be made under this section after 3 months have elapsed from the date on which the party making the appeal received the award or, if a request had been made under section 33, from the date on which that request had been disposed of by the arbitral tribunal (in this section referred to as the appeal period).
- (7) On the determination of an appeal under this section the court may by order—
 - (a) confirm the award; or
 - (b) vary the award; or

- (c) remit the award, together with the court's opinion on the question of law which was the subject of the appeal, to the arbitrator for reconsideration or, where a new arbitrator has been appointed, to that arbitrator for consideration; or
 - (d) set aside the award in whole or in part.
- (8) The court must not exercise its power to set aside an award, in whole or in part, unless it is satisfied that it would be inappropriate to remit the matters in question to the arbitral tribunal for reconsideration.
 - (9) Where the award is remitted under subsection (7) (c) the arbitrator must, unless the order otherwise directs, make the award within 3 months after the date of the order.
 - (10) The court may make any leave which it grants under subsection (3) (c) subject to the applicant complying with any conditions it considers appropriate.
 - (11) Where the award of an arbitrator is varied on an appeal under this section, the award as varied has effect (except for this section) as if it were the award of the arbitrator.

Note There is no equivalent to this section in the Model Law.

Part 8 Recognition and enforcement of awards

35 Recognition and enforcement

(Model Law art 35)

- (1) An arbitral award, irrespective of the State or other Territory in which it was made, is to be recognised in the ACT as binding and, on application in writing to the court, is to be enforced subject to the provisions of this section and section 36.
- (2) The party relying on an award or applying for its enforcement must supply the original award or a copy of the original award.
- (3) If the award is not made in English, the court may request the party to supply a translation of it into English.

Note So much of the Model Law, art 35 (2) as provides for the translation of an award that is not in the official language of the enforcing State has been modified.

36 Grounds for refusing recognition or enforcement

(Model Law art 36)

- (1) Recognition or enforcement of an arbitral award, irrespective of the State or Territory in which it was made, may be refused only—
 - (a) at the request of the party against whom it is invoked, if that party furnishes to the court proof that—
 - (i) a party to the arbitration agreement was under some incapacity, or the arbitration agreement is not valid under the law to which the parties have subjected it or, failing any indication in it, under the law of the State or Territory where the award was made; or
 - (ii) the party against whom the award is invoked was not given proper notice of the appointment of an arbitrator or of the arbitral proceedings or was otherwise unable to present the party's case; or

- (iii) the award deals with a dispute not contemplated by or not falling within the terms of the submission to arbitration, or it contains decisions on matters beyond the scope of the submission to arbitration, provided that, if the decisions on matters submitted to arbitration can be separated from those not so submitted, that part of the award which contains decisions on matters submitted to arbitration may be recognised and enforced; or
 - (iv) the composition of the arbitral tribunal or the arbitral procedure was not in accordance with the agreement of the parties or, failing such agreement, was not in accordance with the law of the State or Territory where the arbitration took place; or
 - (v) the award has not yet become binding on the parties or has been set aside or suspended by a court of the State or Territory in which, or under the law of which, that award was made; or
- (b) if the court finds that—
- (i) the subject-matter of the dispute is not capable of settlement by arbitration under the law of the Territory; or
 - (ii) the recognition or enforcement of the award would be contrary to the public policy of the Territory.
- (2) If an application for setting aside or suspension of an award has been made to a court referred to in subsection (1) (a) (v), the court may, if it considers it proper, adjourn its decision and may also, on the application of the party claiming recognition or enforcement of the award, order the party to provide appropriate security.

Part 9 Miscellaneous

37 Death of party

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, if a party to an arbitration agreement dies the agreement is not discharged (either as respects the deceased or any other party) and the authority of an arbitral tribunal is not revoked by the death but that agreement is enforceable by or against the personal representative of the deceased.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) affects the operation of any enactment or rule of law by virtue of which a right of action is extinguished by the death of a person.

Note There is no equivalent to this section in the Model Law.

38 Interpleader

Where relief by way of interpleader is granted in any court and it appears to that court that the claims in question are matters to which an arbitration agreement (to which the claimants are parties) applies, the court must, unless it is satisfied that there is sufficient reason why the matters should not be referred to arbitration in accordance with the agreement, make an order directing the issue between the claimants to be determined in accordance with the agreement.

Note There is no equivalent to this section in the Model Law.

39 Immunity

- (1) An arbitrator is not liable for anything done or omitted to be done in good faith in his or her capacity as arbitrator.
