Australian Capital Territory

Integrity Commission Act 2018

A2018-52

An Act to establish the ACT Integrity Commission, and for other purposes

The Legislative Assembly for the Australian Capital Territory enacts as follows:

Chapter 1 Preliminary

Part 1.1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Integrity Commission Act 2018.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on 1 July 2019.

Note The naming and commencement provisions automatically commence on the notification day (see Legislation Act, s 75 (1)).

3 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act, and includes references (signpost definitions) to other terms defined elsewhere.

For example, the signpost definition ‘registered party—see the Electoral Act 1992, dictionary.’ means that the term ‘registered party’ is defined in that dictionary and the definition applies to this Act.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary (including a signpost definition) applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

4 Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See the Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

5 Offences against Act—application of Criminal Code etc

Other legislation applies in relation to offences against this Act.

Note 1 Criminal Code

The Criminal Code, ch 2 applies to all offences against this Act (see Code, pt 2.1).

The chapter sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility (including burdens of proof and general defences), and defines terms used for offences to which the Code applies (eg conduct, intention, recklessness and strict liability).

Note 2 Penalty units

The Legislation Act, s 133 deals with the meaning of offence penalties that are expressed in penalty units.

6 Objects of Act

The objects of this Act include—

- (a) providing for the identification, investigation and exposure of corrupt conduct; and
- (b) providing for the commission to prioritise the investigation and exposure of serious corrupt conduct and systemic corrupt conduct; and
- (c) achieving a balance between the public interest in exposing corruption in public administration and the public interest in avoiding undue prejudice to a person's reputation; and
- (d) assisting in the prevention of corrupt conduct; and
- (e) cooperating with other integrity bodies; and

- (f) educating public officials and the community about the detrimental effects of corrupt conduct on public administration and the community and the ways in which corrupt conduct can be prevented; and
- (g) assisting in improving the capacity of the public sector to prevent corrupt conduct.

7 Application of Act—Parliamentary privilege

- (1) This Act does not affect the law relating to the privileges of—
 - (a) the Legislative Assembly; or
 - (b) any Australian Parliament; or
 - (c) any house of any Australian Parliament.
- (2) This section is subject to section 178 (Parliamentary privilege—taken to be waived for MLAs’ declarations of interests etc).

8 Application of Act—conduct that happened before the commencement of this Act

- (1) This Act applies in relation to conduct that happened after self-government day and before the commencement of this section if the conduct—
 - (a) is conduct by an entity (whether or not still in existence) that would have been a public official or public sector entity under this Act had this Act been in force at the time the conduct happened; and
 - (b) would have been corrupt conduct under this Act had this Act been in force at the time the conduct happened.

- (2) However, the commission must not conduct an investigation under chapter 3 (Commission—investigating corrupt conduct) in relation to conduct of a judicial officer that happened after self-government day and entirely before the commencement of this section if the matter directly relates to—
- (a) the merits of a decision made by the judicial officer; or
 - (b) an order made by the judicial officer; or
 - (c) a judgment given by the judicial officer.
- (3) Also, the commission need not conduct an investigation under chapter 3 (Commission—investigating corrupt conduct) in relation to conduct that happened after self-government day and entirely before the commencement of this section if satisfied on reasonable grounds that the matter does not justify investigation because—
- (a) the conduct is trivial; or
 - (b) the conduct is unrelated to the functions of the commission; or
 - (c) the corruption report is frivolous or vexatious or not made in good faith; or
 - (d) the corruption report lacks substance or credibility; or
 - (e) the corruption report was not made genuinely or was made primarily for a mischievous purpose; or
 - (f) another investigatory body has already appropriately investigated, or decided not to investigate, the conduct; or
 - (g) the conduct happened too long ago to justify investigation.
- (4) In addition, the commission may conduct an investigation under chapter 3 in relation to conduct that happened after self-government day and entirely before the commencement of this section only if satisfied on reasonable grounds that—
- (a) it is in the public interest for the commission to investigate the conduct; and

- (b) in all the circumstances, it is appropriate for the commission to investigate the conduct, having regard to the commission's function of investigating conduct that is alleged to be corrupt conduct.
- (5) In this section:
- investigatory body* means—
- (a) an integrity body; or
 - (b) another entity (whether or not still in existence) with power to require the production of documents or the answering of questions.

Part 1.2 Important concepts
