4 New section 9A

insert

9A Members of Legislative Assembly acting in offices

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the tribunal has determined an additional amount of remuneration payable to a member of the Legislative Assembly in relation to holding 1 of the following offices:
 - (i) Chief Minister;
 - (ii) Minister;
 - (iii) Speaker;
 - (iv) an office mentioned in section 9 (3); and
 - (b) another member of the Legislative Assembly acts in the office for a continuous period of 60 days or more.
- (2) The additional amount of remuneration is payable to the other member of the Legislative Assembly for the whole of the period the member acts in the office.

- (3) However, if the other member of the Legislative Assembly would, apart from this subsection, be entitled to be paid 2 or more amounts of additional remuneration, the member is entitled to be paid only the higher or highest amount of additional remuneration.
- (4) For this section, a member of the Legislative Assembly acts in an office if the member exercises the functions of the office in accordance with—
- (a) any territory law or law of the Commonwealth that applies to the office; and
 - (b) the instrument by which the member was appointed, engaged, authorised or requested to exercise the functions of the office.
