Ombudsman Act 1989

A1989-45

Republication No 3A

Effective: 1 May 1996 – 22 September 1997

Republication date: 29 October 2024

Last amendment made by A1996-17

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Ombudsman Act 1989 effective from 1 May 1996 to 22 September 1997.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, part 3, division 2 authorised the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation (Republication) Act 1996, s 14 and s 16). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

Establishment of office of Ombudsman

4. (1) There shall be established the office of the Ombudsman.

(2) The functions of the Ombudsman are to investigate complaints made under this Act and to perform such other functions as are conferred by this Act or the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1994.

Functions

5. (1) Subject to this Act, the Ombudsman—

- (a) shall investigate action that relates to a matter of administration, being action—
 - (i) taken after the commencement of this Act by an agency and in respect of which a complaint has been made to the Ombudsman;

Ombudsman Act 1989

- (ii) in respect of which a complaint is transferred to the Ombudsman under section 28 of the A.C.T. Self-Government (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 of the Commonwealth; or
 - (iii) taken before the commencement of this Act and in respect of which a complaint is made to the Ombudsman after that commencement in a case where, if that complaint had been made to the Commonwealth Ombudsman before that commencement, that complaint would have been transferred to the Ombudsman under section 28 of the A.C.T. Self-Government (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) may, of his or her own motion, investigate action of that kind.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), action shall be deemed to have been taken by a delegate of a Minister notwithstanding that the action is taken under a power that is deemed by a provision of an enactment, when exercised by the delegate, to have been exercised by the Minister.

(5) For the purposes of the application of this Act in relation to the Ombudsman, action taken by an agency shall not be regarded as having been taken by a Minister only because the action was taken by the agency in relation to action taken or to be taken by a Minister personally.

(6) In this section—

“health service” means a service provided or to be provided in the Territory for, or purportedly for, the benefit of the health of a person and includes a service specified in Part I of the Schedule to the Health Complaints Act 1993, but not a service specified in Part II of that Schedule.

Discretion not to investigate certain complaints

6. (1) Where a complaint has been made to the Ombudsman with respect to action taken by an agency, the Ombudsman may, in his or her discretion, decide not to investigate the action or, if investigation has commenced, decide not to investigate the action further—

- (a) if the Ombudsman is satisfied that the complainant became aware of the action more than 12 months before the complaint was made to the Ombudsman; or
- (b) if, in the opinion of the Ombudsman—
 - (i) the complaint is frivolous or vexatious or was not made in good faith;
 - (ii) the complainant does not have a sufficient interest in the subject matter of the complaint; or
 - (iii) an investigation, or further investigation, of the action is not warranted having regard to all the circumstances.

(2) Where a person who makes a complaint to the Ombudsman with respect to action taken by an agency has not complained to the agency with respect to that action, the Ombudsman may, in his or her discretion, decide not to investigate the action unless the complainant informs the Ombudsman that no redress has been granted or that redress has been granted but the redress is not, in the opinion of the complainant, adequate.

(4) Where—

- (a) a person who has made a complaint to the Ombudsman with respect to action taken by an agency and who has complained to the agency with respect to that action informs the Ombudsman as provided by subsection (3) that no redress, or no adequate redress, has been granted by the agency; and
- (b) the Ombudsman is of the opinion—
 - (i) if no redress has been granted—that, since the complainant complained to the agency, a reasonable period has elapsed in which redress could have been granted; or
 - (ii) if redress has been granted—that the redress was not reasonably adequate;

the Ombudsman shall, subject to this section, investigate the action.

(5) Where a complainant has caused or causes action to which his or her complaint relates to be reviewed by a court, or by a tribunal constituted by or under an enactment, the Ombudsman shall not investigate, or continue to investigate, the action unless the Ombudsman is of the opinion that there are special reasons justifying the investigation or the continued investigation.

(6) Where the Ombudsman is of the opinion that a complainant has or had a right to cause the action to which the complaint relates to be reviewed by a court, or by a tribunal constituted by or under an enactment, but has not exercised that right, the Ombudsman may decide not to investigate the action or not to investigate the action further, if he or she is of the opinion that, in all the circumstances, it would be reasonable for the complainant to exercise, or would have been reasonable for the complainant to have exercised, that right.

(7) Where, before the Ombudsman commences, or after the Ombudsman has commenced, to investigate action taken by an agency, being action that is the subject matter of a complaint, the Ombudsman forms the opinion that adequate provision is made under an administrative practice for the review of action of that kind, the Ombudsman may decide not to investigate the action or not to investigate the action further—

- (a) if the action has been, is being or is to be reviewed under that practice at the request of the complainant; or
- (b) if the Ombudsman is satisfied that the complainant is entitled to cause the action to be reviewed under that practice and it would be reasonable for the complainant to cause it to be so reviewed.

(8) Where a complaint is made to the Ombudsman by a complainant at the request of another person or of a body of persons, this section applies as if references to the complainant were references to the person or the body of persons at whose request the complaint is made.

Discretion to refer complaint to another statutory office holder

6A. (1) If the Ombudsman forms the opinion that the action to which a complaint under this Act relates is such that—

- (a) a complaint in respect of the action, or an application or request for the action to be investigated or reviewed, could have been made to a statutory office holder other than the Ombudsman;

- (b) the matter could be more conveniently or effectively dealt with by that statutory office holder;
- (c) it would otherwise be appropriate in all the circumstances for the complaint to be referred to that statutory office holder; and
- (d) that statutory office holder consents to having the complaint referred to him or her;

the Ombudsman may decide not to investigate, or not to investigate further, the action, and if the Ombudsman so decides he or she shall refer the complaint, together with any relevant documents or information that are within his or her possession or control, to that statutory office holder.

(2) In this section, “statutory office holder” means the holder of an office established by a law of the Territory, the Commonwealth, a State or another Territory.

Mandatory referral of complaint

6B. Where the Ombudsman forms the opinion that a complaint falls within the jurisdiction of—

- (a) the Commissioner for the Environment; or
- (b) the Commissioner for Health Complaints;

the Ombudsman shall, whether or not he or she has commenced an inquiry, refer the complaint, together with relevant documents and information, to the Commissioner for the Environment or the Commissioner for Health Complaints (as the case requires).

Complaints

7. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a complaint under this Act may be made to the Ombudsman orally or in writing.

(2) Where a complaint is made orally to the Ombudsman, the Ombudsman may put the complaint in writing or at any time require the complainant to put the complaint in writing and, where the Ombudsman makes such a requirement of a complainant, the Ombudsman may decline to investigate the complaint, or to investigate the complaint further, until the complainant complies with the requirement.

- (3) A person who is detained in custody is entitled—
- (a) upon making a request to the person in whose custody he or she is detained or to any other person performing duties in connection with the detention (in this section called the “custodian”)—
 - (i) to be provided with facilities for preparing a complaint in writing under this Act, for giving in writing to the Ombudsman, after the complaint has been made, any other relevant information and for enclosing the complaint or the other information (if any) in a sealed envelope; and
 - (ii) to have sent to the Ombudsman, without undue delay, a sealed envelope addressed to the Ombudsman and delivered by the person in custody to the custodian; and
 - (b) to have delivered to him or her, without undue delay, any sealed envelope addressed to him or her and sent by the Ombudsman, that comes into the possession or under the control of the custodian.
- (4) Where—
- (a) a sealed envelope addressed to the Ombudsman is delivered by a person detained in custody to the custodian for sending to the Ombudsman; or
 - (b) a sealed envelope addressed to a person so detained and sent by the Ombudsman comes into the possession or under the control of the custodian;

the custodian is not entitled to open the envelope or to inspect any document enclosed in the envelope.

(5) For the purposes of subsections (3) and (4), the Ombudsman may make arrangements with the appropriate authority of the Commonwealth or of a State or a Territory for the identification and delivery of sealed envelopes sent by the Ombudsman to persons detained in custody.

Preliminary inquiries

8. (1) Where a complaint has been made to the Ombudsman with respect to action taken by an agency, or it appears to the Ombudsman that the Ombudsman may under paragraph 5 (1) (b) investigate action so taken, the Ombudsman may, for the purpose of—

Ombudsman Act 1989

- (b) if the Ombudsman is authorised to investigate the action—determining whether or not the Ombudsman may, in his or her discretion, decide not to investigate the action;

(2) The Ombudsman may from time to time make an arrangement with the principal officer of an agency with respect to the officers of whom all inquiries, or particular inquiries, are to be made by the Ombudsman under subsection (1) with respect to action taken by the agency.

Investigations

9. (1) The Ombudsman shall, before commencing an investigation under this Act of action taken by an agency, inform the principal officer of the agency that the action is to be investigated.

(2) The Ombudsman may from time to time make an arrangement with the principal officer of an agency with respect to the manner in which, and the period within which, the Ombudsman is to inform the principal officer that he or she proposes to investigate action taken by the agency, being action to which the arrangement relates.

(3) An investigation under this Act shall be conducted in private and, subject to this Act, in such manner as the Ombudsman thinks fit.

(4) Subject to this Act, the Ombudsman may, for the purposes of this Act, obtain information from such persons, and make such inquiries, as he or she thinks fit.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), it is not necessary for the complainant or any other person to be afforded an opportunity to appear before the Ombudsman or any other person in connection with an investigation by the Ombudsman under this Act.

(6) The Ombudsman shall not make a report in respect of an investigation under this Act in which he or she sets out opinions that are, either expressly or impliedly, critical of an agency or person unless, before completing the investigation, the Ombudsman has—

- (a) if the opinions relate to an agency—given the principal officer of the agency and the officer principally concerned in the action to which the investigation relates opportunities to appear before the Ombudsman or before an authorised person, and to make such submissions, either orally or in writing, in relation to that action as they think fit; and
- (b) if the opinions relate to a person—given that person an opportunity to appear before the Ombudsman or before an authorised person, and to make such submissions, either orally or in writing, in relation to the action to which the investigation relates as the person thinks fit.

(7) Where the Ombudsman gives the principal officer of an agency an opportunity to appear before the Ombudsman or before an authorised person under subsection (6), the principal officer may appear in person or a person authorised by the principal officer may appear on behalf of the principal officer.

(8) Where the Ombudsman gives a person other than the principal officer of an agency an opportunity to appear before the Ombudsman or before an authorised person under subsection (6), the person may, with the approval of the Ombudsman or of the authorised person, as the case may be, be represented by another person.

(9) Where, in relation to an investigation under this Act, the Ombudsman proposes to give a person an opportunity to appear before the Ombudsman or before an authorised person and to make submissions under subsection (6), or proposes to make a requirement of a person under section 11—

- (a) if a complaint was made orally with respect to the action and the complaint has not been put in writing—the complaint shall be put in writing; and
- (b) the Ombudsman shall, if he or she has not previously informed the responsible Minister that the action is being investigated, inform that Minister accordingly.

(10) The Ombudsman may, either before or after the completion of an investigation under this Act, discuss any matter that is relevant to the investigation with a Minister concerned with the matter.

(11) On the request of the responsible Minister, the Ombudsman shall consult that Minister before forming a final opinion on any of the matters referred to in subsection 18 (1) or (2) that are relevant to the action under investigation.

(12) Where the Ombudsman becomes of the opinion, either before or after completing an investigation under this Act, that there is evidence that a person, being an officer of an agency, has been guilty of a breach of duty or of misconduct and that the evidence is, in all the circumstances, of sufficient force to justify doing so, the Ombudsman shall bring the evidence to the notice of—

- (a) in the case of an administrative unit—
 - (i) if the person is the Chief Executive of the administrative unit—the responsible Minister of the administrative unit; or
 - (ii) if the person is a member of the administrative unit other than the Chief Executive—the Chief Executive of the administrative unit; or
