Freedom of Information Act 1989

A1989-46

Republication No 15

Effective: 1 July 2011 – 4 June 2012

Republication date: 1 July 2011

Last amendment made by A2011-22

Authorised by the ACT Parliamentary Counsel

About this republication

The republished law

This is a republication of the Freedom of Information Act 1989 (including any amendment made under the Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 (Editorial changes)) as in force on 1 July 2011. It also includes any commencement, amendment, repeal or expiry affecting this republished law to 1 July 2011.

The legislation history and amendment history of the republished law are set out in endnotes 3 and 4.

Kinds of republications

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office prepares 2 kinds of republications of ACT laws (see the ACT legislation register at www.legislation.act.gov.au):

- authorised republications to which the Legislation Act 2001 applies
- unauthorised republications.

The status of this republication appears on the bottom of each page.

Editorial changes

The Legislation Act 2001, part 11.3 authorises the Parliamentary Counsel to make editorial amendments and other changes of a formal nature when preparing a law for republication. Editorial changes do not change the effect of the law, but have effect as if they had been made by an Act commencing on the republication date (see Legislation Act 2001, s 115 and s 117). The changes are made if the Parliamentary Counsel considers they are desirable to bring the law into line, or more closely into line, with current legislative drafting practice.

This republication does not include amendments made under part 11.3 (see endnote 1).

Uncommenced provisions and amendments

If a provision of the republished law has not commenced, the symbol U appears immediately before the provision heading. Any uncommenced amendments that affect this republished law are accessible on the ACT legislation register (www.legislation.act.gov.au). For more information, see the home page for this law on the register.

Modifications

If a provision of the republished law is affected by a current modification, the symbol M appears immediately before the provision heading. The text of the modifying provision appears in the endnotes. For the legal status of modifications, see the Legislation Act 2001, section 95.

Penalties

At the republication date, the value of a penalty unit for an offence against this law is $110 for an individual and $550 for a corporation (see Legislation Act 2001, s 133).

Australian Capital Territory

Freedom of Information Act 1989

An Act to give members of the public rights of access to official documents of the Territory

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Freedom of Information Act 1989.

2 Object

- (1) The object of this Act is to extend as far as possible the right of the Australian community and, in particular, the citizens of the Territory, to access to information in the possession of the Territory by—
 - (a) making available to the public information about the operations of agencies and, in particular, ensuring that rules and practices affecting members of the public in their dealings with agencies are readily available to persons affected by those rules and practices; and
 - (b) creating a general right of access to information in documentary form in the possession of Ministers and agencies, limited only by exceptions and exemptions necessary for the protection of essential public interests and the private and business affairs of persons in respect of whom information is collected and held by agencies.
- (2) The provisions of this Act shall be interpreted so as to further the objects set out in subsection (1) and to ensure that discretions conferred by this Act are exercised as far as possible to facilitate and promote, promptly and at the lowest reasonable cost, the disclosure of information.

3 Dictionary

The dictionary at the end of this Act is part of this Act.

Note 1 The dictionary at the end of this Act defines certain terms used in this Act.

Note 2 A definition in the dictionary applies to the entire Act unless the definition, or another provision of the Act, provides otherwise or the contrary intention otherwise appears (see Legislation Act, s 155 and s 156 (1)).

3A Notes

A note included in this Act is explanatory and is not part of this Act.

Note See the Legislation Act, s 127 (1), (4) and (5) for the legal status of notes.

4 Entities not necessarily prescribed authorities

- (1) For this Act, an unincorporated body established under an enactment for the purpose of assisting, or exercising functions connected with, a prescribed authority is not taken to be a prescribed authority but is taken to be part of the prescribed authority.

Examples of bodies

A board, council and committee

Note 1 Body includes any group of people joined together for a common purpose (see Legislation Act, dict, pt 1).

Note 2 An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

- (2) For this Act, a person is not taken to be a prescribed authority only because the person holds or performs the duties of any of the following offices:
- (a) an office the duties of which the person performs as employment duties as an officer of an agency;

- (b) an office of a member of a body;
- (c) an office established by an enactment for a prescribed authority;
- (d) an office prescribed by regulation.

4A Abolished agencies

- (1) This section applies if an agency is abolished.
- (2) If the abolished agency's functions are acquired by another agency—
 - (a) any request made to the abolished agency is taken to have been made to the other agency; and
 - (b) any decision made by the abolished agency in relation to a request made to it is taken to have been made by the other agency.
- (3) If the abolished agency's functions are acquired by more than 1 other agency—
 - (a) any request made to the abolished agency is taken to have been made to whichever of the other agencies has acquired the functions of the abolished agency that are most clearly related to the subject matter of the request (the relevant acquiring agency); and
 - (b) any decision made by the abolished agency in relation to a request made to it is taken to have been made by the relevant acquiring agency.

- (4) If the documents of the abolished agency are held by the Australian archives on behalf of the Territory—
- (a) any request made to the abolished agency is taken to have been made to the agency that has functions that are most clearly related to the subject matter of the request (the relevant agency); and
 - (b) any decision made by the abolished agency in relation to a request made to it is taken to have been made by the relevant agency.
- (5) If the agency to which a request is taken to have been made, or by which a decision on a request is taken to have been made, under subsection (2), (3) or (4) was not itself in existence when the request or decision was taken to have been made, then, for the purposes only of dealing with the request or decision under this Act, that agency is taken to have been in existence at that time.

5 Act to apply to certain tribunals in respect of administrative matters

The regulations may specify that—

- (a) each tribunal, authority or body identified in the regulations is to be taken to be a prescribed authority; or
- (b) the holder of an office pertaining to a tribunal, authority or body identified in the regulations, being an office established by the enactment establishing the tribunal, authority or body, is not, in his or her capacity as the holder of that office, to be taken to be a prescribed authority or to be included in an administrative unit; or
- (c) a registry or other office of or under the charge of a tribunal, authority or body declared by the regulations to be a prescribed authority, and the staff of such a registry or other office when acting in a capacity as members of that staff, shall be taken to be part of the tribunal, authority or body;

but this Act does not apply to any request for access to a document of a tribunal, authority or body so identified unless the document relates to matters of an administrative nature.

6 Exemption of certain bodies

- (1) A territory-owned corporation or a subsidiary within the meaning of the Territory-owned Corporations Act 1990 is exempt from the operation of this Act in relation to documents in respect of its competitive commercial activities.
- (2) An agency is exempt from the operation of this Act in respect of documents that are health records within the meaning of the Health Records (Privacy and Access) Act 1997 (the Health Records Act).
- (3) The human rights commission is exempt from the operation of this Act in relation to documents created or received by the commission in relation to—
 - (a) a complaint made to the commission under the Health Records Act, section 18; or
 - (b) the exercise of a function under the Human Rights Commission Act 2005 in relation to a complaint mentioned in paragraph (a).

Note Exercise and function are defined in the Legislation Act, dict, pt 1.
- (4) The regulations may specify that—
 - (a) bodies identified in the regulations, or persons holding and performing the duties of offices so identified, are not prescribed authorities for this Act; or
 - (b) agencies identified in the regulations are exempt from the operation of this Act in relation to the documents referred to in the regulations in relation to them.

6A Exemption of lists of housing assistance properties

- (1) This Act does not apply to a document that is, or a part of a document that contains, a list of housing assistance properties identified as housing assistance properties.

Note For the exemption of documents in the possession of the housing commissioner containing protected information within the meaning of the Housing Assistance Act 2007, pt 5, see that Act, s 29.

- (2) In this section:

housing assistance property—see the Housing Assistance Act 2007, section 28 (2) (Meaning of protected information—pt 5).

6B How Act applies to certain older records

- (1) The disappplied provisions do not apply to a record of an agency if 20 years have elapsed since the record, or the original of which it is a copy, came into existence unless, before the end of the 20 years, the director makes a declaration (a section 28 declaration) under the Territory Records Act 2002, section 28 that the disappplied provisions apply.
- (2) However, if the director makes the declaration, part 4 of this Act (other than an excepted provision) ceases to apply to the record at the end of 20 years after the making of the declaration.
- (3) If—
 - (a) the disappplied provisions do not apply to a record of an agency because 20 years have elapsed since the record, or the original of which it is a copy, came into existence and the director did not make a section 28 declaration before the end of the 20 years; but
 - (b) the director makes a section 28 declaration in relation to the record after the end of the 20 years;

the disappplied provisions again apply to the record.

(4) However, if the director makes the declaration, part 4 of this Act (other than an excepted provision) does not again apply to the record.

(5) In this section:

agency—see the Territory Records Act 2002, section 7.

- (b) section 37 (Documents affecting enforcement of the law and protection of public safety);

Part 2 Publication of certain documents and information

7 Publication of information concerning functions and documents of agencies

- (1) The responsible Minister of an agency shall—
 - (a) cause to be published, as soon as practicable after the agency comes into existence but no later than 12 months after the agency came into existence—
 - (i) a statement setting out particulars of the organisation and functions of the agency, indicating, as far as practicable, the decision-making powers and other powers affecting members of the public that are involved in those functions; and
 - (ii) a statement setting out particulars of any arrangements that exist for bodies or persons outside the Executive or agencies to participate, either through consultative procedures, the making of representations or otherwise, in the formulation of policy by the agency, or in the administration by the agency of any enactment or scheme; and
 - (iii) a statement of the categories of documents that are maintained in the possession of the agency, being a statement that sets out, as separate categories of documents, categories of such documents (if any) as are referred to in section 11 (1) and categories of other documents (if any) as are customarily made available to the public, otherwise than under this Act, free of charge upon request; and
 - (iv) a statement of particulars of the facilities (if any) provided by the agency for enabling members of the public to obtain physical access to the documents of the agency;

and

- (b) during the year commencing on 1 January next following the publication, in respect of the agency, of the statement under paragraph (a) (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) or (v) that is the first statement published under that subparagraph, and during each succeeding year, cause to be published statements bringing up-to-date the information contained in the statement previously published under that subparagraph.

Note If a form is approved under s 81 (Approved forms) for a statement under this section, the form must be used.

- (2) The information to be published under this section must be published by including it—
 - (a) in a report prepared by the agency under the Annual Reports (Government Agencies) Act 2004; or
 - (b) if the agency is not required to prepare a report mentioned in paragraph (a)—in the annual report to which the affairs of the agency relate.
- (3) Nothing in this section requires the publication of information that is of such a nature that its inclusion in a document of an agency would cause that document to be an exempt document.

8 Certain documents to be available for inspection and purchase

- (1) This section applies, in respect of an agency, to documents that are provided by the agency for the use of, or are used by, the agency or its officers in making decisions or recommendations for the purposes of an enactment or scheme administered by the agency, with respect to rights, privileges or benefits, or to obligations, penalties or other detriments, to which persons are or may be entitled or subject, being—

- (a) manuals or other documents containing interpretations, rules, guidelines, practices or precedents including precedents in the nature of letters of advice providing information to bodies or persons outside the Territory administration; or
- (b) documents containing particulars of such a scheme, not being particulars contained in an enactment as published apart from this Act; or
- (c) documents containing statements of the manner, or intended manner, of administration or enforcement of such an enactment or scheme; or
- (d) documents describing the procedures to be followed in investigating breaches or evasions or possible breaches or evasions of such an enactment or of the law relating to such a scheme;

but not including documents that are available to the public as published otherwise than by an agency or as published by another agency.

- (2) The principal officer of an agency shall—
 - (a) cause copies of all documents to which this section applies in respect of the agency that are in use from time to time to be made available for inspection and for purchase by members of the public; and
 - (b) cause to be prepared, and as soon as practicable after preparation to be made available, for inspection and for purchase by members of the public, a statement (which may take the form of an index) specifying the documents copies of which are, at the time of preparation of the statement, available in accordance with paragraph (a) and the place or places where copies may be inspected and may be purchased; and

- (c) cause to be prepared, if possible within 3 months, and in any case not later than 12 months, after the preparation of the last preceding statement prepared in accordance with paragraph (b) or this paragraph, and as soon as practicable after the preparation to be made available, for inspection and for purchase by members of the public, a statement bringing up-to-date the information contained in that last preceding statement.
- (3) The principal officer is not required to comply fully with subsection (2) (a) within the period of 12 months after the agency comes into existence, but shall, within that period, comply with that paragraph as far as is practicable.
- (4) This section does not require a document of the kind referred to in subsection (1) containing exempt matter to be made available in accordance with subsection (2), but, if such a document is not so made available, the principal officer of the agency shall, if practicable, cause to be prepared a corresponding document, altered only to the extent necessary to exclude the exempt matter, and cause the document so prepared to be dealt with in accordance with subsection (2).
- (5) A report of a responsible Minister under section 79 (2) in respect of a year shall include a statement concerning compliance by each agency for which that Minister has responsibility with the requirements of this section during that year.
- (6) Where a person makes a request to inspect or to purchase a document of an agency concerning a particular enactment or scheme, being a document of a kind to which this section applies, the principal officer of the agency shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that the attention of that person is drawn to any document of the agency concerning that enactment or scheme that is relevant to the request and has become a document to which this section applies since the last occasion on which a statement in respect of documents of the agency was prepared and made available in accordance with subsection (2).

9 Unpublished documents not to prejudice public

- (1) If a document required to be made available in accordance with section 8, being a document containing a rule, guideline or practice relating to a function of an agency was not made available as referred to in that section, before the time at which a person did, or omitted to do, any act or thing relevant to the exercise of that function in relation to the person (whether or not the time allowed for publication of a statement in respect of the document had expired before that time), the person, if he or she was not aware of that rule, guideline or practice at that time, shall not be subjected to any prejudice only because of the application of that rule, guideline or practice in relation to the thing done or omitted to be done by the person if he or she could lawfully have avoided that prejudice had he or she been aware of that rule, guideline or practice.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to the time at which a person did, or omitted to do, any act or thing relevant to the exercise in relation to the person of a function of an agency does not include a reference to a time before the end of the period of 12 months after the day on which the agency came into existence.

- (3) A person is not entitled to obtain access under this part to a document or a part of a document that became a document of a Commonwealth agency or an official document of a Commonwealth Minister before 1 January 1977 unless—

- (b) the document or that part of the document is a document or a part of a document access to which is reasonably necessary to enable a proper understanding of a document of an agency or an official document of a Minister to which that person has lawfully had access.
- (4) Regulations may be made modifying subsection (3) so as to enable a person to obtain access under this part to documents to which, but for the making of those regulations, the person would not be entitled to access because of that subsection.

- (3) Where a person—

- (a) wishes to make a request to an agency; or
(b) has made a request to an agency that does not comply with this section;

 - (ii) the making of a transcript from a sound recording held in the agency or in an office of the Minister, as the case may be;

the agency or the Minister, as the case may be, shall deal with the request as if it were a request for access to a written document so produced and containing that information and, for that purpose, this Act applies as if the agency or the Minister, as the case may be, were in possession of such a document.

- (2) An agency or a Minister is not required to comply with subsection (1) if compliance would substantially and unreasonably divert the resources of the agency, or of an office of the Minister, as the case may be, from its other operations.

17 Access to documents to be given on request

- (1) If a request is made under section 14 (2) by a person to an agency or Minister for access to a document of the agency or an official document of the Minister, the person must be given access to the document under this Act.

- (1) If a request for access to a document that is made to an agency or Minister—

- (a) is expressed to be made under this Act; and
(b) is sent by post to the agency or Minister, or delivered to an officer of the agency or a member of the staff of the Minister, at the appropriate address of the agency or the Minister;

the agency or Minister shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that—

- (c) the applicant is notified of the day on which the request was received by or on behalf of the agency or Minister as soon as practicable but in any case not later than 14 days after the day on which it was so received; and
(d) the applicant is notified of a decision on the request (including a decision under section 20 to defer the provision of access to a document) as soon as practicable but in any case not later than 30 days after the day on which the request is received by or on behalf of the agency or Minister.

- (2) A Minister may, in relation to the Minister or an agency, state, in writing, an address (the appropriate address) as the address to which requests made under this Act may be sent or delivered under this section.
- (3) A statement under subsection (2) is a notifiable instrument.
Note A notifiable instrument must be notified under the Legislation Act 2001.
- (4) The period of 30 days mentioned in subsection (1) (d) must be extended by 30 days if the agency or Minister to whom the request was made determines, in writing, that the requirements of section 26, 27 or 27A make it appropriate to extend the period.
- (5) Where an agency or a Minister makes a determination in writing under subsection (4) in relation to a request, that agency or Minister shall, as soon as possible, inform the applicant of the extension.

19 Forms of access

- (1) Access to a document may be given to a person in 1 or more of the following forms:
 - (a) a reasonable opportunity to inspect the document;
 - (b) provision of a copy of the document;
 - (c) if the document is an article or thing from which sounds or visual images are capable of being reproduced—the making of arrangements for the person to hear or view those sounds or visual images;
 - (d) if the document is one by which words are recorded in a manner in which they are capable of being reproduced in the form of sound or in which words are contained in the form of shorthand writing or in codified form—provision of a written transcript of the words recorded or contained in the document.

- (2) Subject to subsection (3) and to section 21, where the applicant has requested access in a particular form, access shall be given in that form.
- (3) If the giving of access in the form requested by the applicant—
- (a) would interfere unreasonably with the operations of the agency, or the exercise by the Minister of his or her functions; or
 - (b) would be detrimental to the preservation of the document or, having regard to the physical nature of the document, would not be appropriate; or
 - (c) would, but for this Act, involve an infringement of copyright (other than copyright owned by the Territory or an agency) subsisting in matter contained in the document, being matter that does not relate to the affairs of an agency;
- access in that form may be refused and access given in another form.
- (4) Subject to section 16 (1), where a person requests access to a document in a particular form and, for a reason specified in subsection (3), access in that form is refused but access is given in another form, the applicant shall not be required to pay a charge in respect of the provision of access to the document that is greater than the charge that the applicant would have been required to pay if access had been given in the form requested.

20 Deferment of access

- (1) An agency which, or a Minister who, receives a request may defer the provision of access to the document concerned—
- (a) if the publication of the document concerned is required by law—until the end of the period within which the document is required to be published; or

- (b) if the document concerned has been prepared for presentation to the Legislative Assembly or for the purpose of being made available to a particular person or body or with the intention that it should be so made available—until the end of a reasonable period after its preparation for it to be so presented or made available; or
 - (c) if the premature release of the document concerned would be contrary to the public interest—until the occurrence of any event after which or the end of any period of time beyond which the release of the document would not be contrary to the public interest; or
 - (d) if a Minister considers that the document concerned is of such general public interest that the Legislative Assembly should be informed of the contents of the document before the document is otherwise made public—until the end of 5 sitting days of the Legislative Assembly after the Legislative Assembly is so informed.
- (2) Where the provision of access to a document is deferred in accordance with subsection (1), the agency or Minister shall, in informing the applicant of the reasons for the decision, indicate, as far as practicable, the period for which the deferment will operate.
- (3) Section 60 (1) does not apply in relation to a deferment under subsection (1) (d) of this section.

21 Deletion of exempt matter

- (1) Where—
- (a) a decision is made not to grant a request for access to a document on the ground that it is an exempt document; and
 - (b) it is possible for the agency or Minister to make a copy of the document with such deletions that the copy would not be an exempt document and would not, because of the deletions, be misleading; and

- (c) it is reasonably practicable for the agency or Minister, having regard to the nature and extent of the work involved in deciding on and making those deletions and the resources available for that work, to make such a copy;

the agency or Minister shall, unless it is apparent from the request or as a result of consultation by the agency or Minister with the applicant, that the applicant would not wish to have access to such a copy, make, and grant access to, such a copy.

- (2) Where access is granted to a copy of a document in accordance with subsection (1)—
 - (a) the applicant shall be informed—
 - (i) that it is such a copy; and
 - (ii) of the provision of this Act by virtue of which any matter deleted is exempt matter; and
 - (b) section 25 does not apply to the decision that the applicant is not entitled to access to the whole of the document unless the applicant requests the agency or Minister to give to the applicant a notice in writing in accordance with that section.

22 Decisions to be made by authorised persons

A decision in respect of a request made to an agency may be made, on behalf of the agency, by the responsible Minister or the principal officer of the agency or, subject to the regulations, by an officer of the agency acting within the scope of authority exercisable by the officer in accordance with arrangements approved by the responsible Minister or the principal officer of the agency.

23 Requests may be refused in certain cases

- (1) An agency or Minister may refuse to grant access to documents in accordance with a request without processing the request if—
 - (a) the request is expressed to relate to all documents, or to all documents of a stated class, that contain information of a stated kind or relate to a stated subject matter; and
 - (b) the agency or Minister is satisfied that the work involved in giving access to all documents to which the request relates would substantially and unreasonably—
 - (i) divert the resources of the agency from its other operations; or
 - (ii) interfere with the performance by the Minister of his or her functions.
- (2) In deciding, for subsection (1), whether to refuse to grant a request, the agency or Minister—
 - (a) must have regard to the number and volume of the documents and the resources that would have to be used in—
 - (i) identifying, locating and collating the documents (including documents held in the Minister's office or by contractors outside the agency); and
 - (ii) examining the documents and consulting on the documents with any entity in relation to the request; and
 - (iii) copying the documents; and
 - (iv) preparing an itemised schedule of the documents; and
 - (v) notifying the applicant of any interim or final decision on the request; but
 - (b) must not have regard to—
 - (i) any fee or charge payable for processing the request; or

- (ii) any reason that the person requesting access gives for requesting access; or
 - (iii) the agency's or Minister's belief as to the person's reasons for requesting access.
- (3) Subsection (2) (a) does not limit the matters the Minister may have regard to.
- (4) Where, in respect of a request of a kind referred to in subsection (1) (a), it is apparent from the nature of the documents as described in the request that all of the documents to which the request is expressed to relate are exempt documents and that no obligation would arise under section 21 in relation to any of those documents to grant access to a copy of the document with deletions, the agency or Minister may refuse to grant access to the documents in accordance with the request without having identified any or all of the documents to which the request relates and without specifying, in respect of each document, the provision of this Act under which that document is claimed to be an exempt document.
- (5) An agency or Minister shall not refuse to grant access to a document in accordance with a request—
 - (a) on the ground that the request does not comply with section 14 (2); or
 - (b) in accordance with subsection (1);without first giving the applicant a reasonable opportunity of consultation with a view to the making of the request in a form that would remove the ground for refusal.

24 Information as to existence of certain documents

- (1) Nothing in this Act shall be taken to require an agency or Minister to give information as to the existence or non-existence of a document where that information, if included in a document of an agency, would cause the lastmentioned document to be an exempt document under section 34, section 37 (1) or section 37A.

- (2) Where a request relates to a document that is, or if it existed would be, of a kind referred to in subsection (1), the agency or Minister dealing with the request may give notice in writing to the applicant that the agency or the Minister, as the case may be, neither confirms nor denies the existence, as a document of the agency, of such a document but that, assuming the existence of such a document, it would be an exempt document under section 34, section 37 (1) or section 37A and, where such a notice is given—
- (a) section 25 applies as if the decision to give such a notice were a decision referred to in that section; and
 - (b) the decision shall, for part 7, be taken to be a decision refusing to grant access to the document in accordance with the request for the reason that the document would, if it existed, be an exempt document under section 34 or 37 (1).

25 Reasons and other particulars of decisions to be given

- (1) Where, in relation to a request, a decision is made relating to a refusal to grant access to a document in accordance with the request or deferring provision of access to a document, the decision-maker shall cause the applicant to be given notice in writing of the decision—
- (a) stating the findings on any material questions of fact, referring to the material on which those findings were based, and stating the reasons for the decision; and
 - (b) where the decision relates to a document of an agency—stating the name and the designation of the person giving the decision; and

- (c) giving to the applicant appropriate information concerning—
 - (i) his or her rights with respect to review of the decision; and
 - (ii) his or her rights to make a complaint to the ombudsman in relation to the decision; and
 - (iii) the procedure for the exercise of those rights; including (where applicable) particulars of the manner in which an application for review under section 59 may be made.

- (2) The Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1989, section 13 does not apply to a decision referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) A notice under this section is not required to contain any matter that is of such a nature that its inclusion in a document of an agency would cause that document to be an exempt document.

26 Procedure on request in respect of documents likely to affect relations between the Territory and the Commonwealth or a State

- (1) Where arrangements have been entered into between the Territory and the Commonwealth or the Territory and a State with regard to consultation under this section and it appears that—
 - (a) a document that is the subject of a request originated with, or was received from, or contains information that originated with, or was received from, the Commonwealth or the State or an authority of the Commonwealth or the State; and
 - (b) the Commonwealth or the State may reasonably wish to contend that the document is an exempt document under section 34;

a decision to grant access to the document shall not be made by the agency or Minister concerned unless consultation has taken place between the Territory and the Commonwealth or the Territory and the State in accordance with those arrangements.

- (2) Where, after consultation between the Territory and the Commonwealth or the Territory and a State as mentioned in subsection (1) in relation to a document, a decision is made that the document is not an exempt document under section 34 or under any other provision of this Act—
- (a) the agency or Minister making the decision shall, in accordance with the arrangements, cause notice in writing of the decision to be given to the Commonwealth or the State, as the case may be, as well as to the person who made the request; and
 - (b) access shall not be given to the document or, in the case of a document that contains information that originated with or was received from the Commonwealth, the State or an authority of the Commonwealth or the State, to the document so far as it contains that information, unless—
 - (i) the time for the Commonwealth or State to apply to the ACAT under section 68 (Review of certain decisions in respect of documents relating to the Commonwealth or a State) ends and no application is made; or
 - (ii) an application is made, but the ACAT—
 - (A) dismisses the application; or
 - (B) makes a decision in relation to the application in accordance with terms agreed by the parties; or
 - (iii) an application is made and the ACAT confirms the decision to which the application relates.

 - (b) it appears to the officer or Minister dealing with the request, or to a person reviewing under section 59 a decision refusing the request, that the person or organisation, or the proprietor of the undertaking, referred to in paragraph (a) might reasonably wish to contend that the document is an exempt document under section 43;
- a decision to grant access under this Act to the document, so far as it contains the information referred to in paragraph (a), shall not be made unless, where it is reasonably practicable to do so having regard to all the circumstances, including the application of section 18—
- (c) the agency or Minister has given to that person or organisation or the proprietor of that undertaking a reasonable opportunity of making submissions in support of a contention that the document is an exempt document under section 43; and
 - (d) the person making the decision has had regard to any submissions so made.
- (2) Where, after any submissions have been made in accordance with subsection (1), a decision is made that the document, so far as it contains the information referred to in subsection (1) (a), is not an exempt document under section 43—

- (a) the agency or Minister shall cause notice in writing of the decision to be given to the person who made the submissions, as well as to the person who made the request; and

 - (i) the time for the person to apply to the ACAT under section 69 (Review of certain decisions in respect of documents relating to business affairs etc) ends and no application is made; or
 - (ii) an application is made, but the ACAT—
 - (A) dismisses the application; or

 - (b) it appears to the person dealing with the request that the person mentioned in paragraph (a), or if that person has died, the person's legal representative, might reasonably wish to submit that the document is an exempt document under section 41

(Documents affecting personal privacy) so far as it contains personal information.

- (2) A decision to grant access under this Act to the document, so far as it contains the personal information, must not be made unless, if it is reasonably practicable to do so having regard to all the circumstances (including the application of section 18)—
- (a) the person dealing with the request has given the person or the legal representative of the person, a reasonable opportunity to make a submission that the document, so far as it contains the personal information, is an exempt document under section 41; and
 - (b) the person making the decision has considered any submission made in relation to the request.
- (3) In deciding, for subsection (1), whether a person might reasonably wish to submit that a document, so far as it contains personal information, is an exempt document under section 41, the person dealing with the request, must have regard to the following:

 - (i) the person who made the request;
 - (ii) a person who made a submission in relation to the request; and 29 Charge may be remitted

- (1) An applicant may make application, in writing, to the agency to which or the Minister to whom the applicant made a request seeking the total or partial remission of any charge paid by the applicant, or notified as being a charge that the applicant is liable to pay, in respect of that request or in respect of the provision of access to a document to which the request relates.
- (2) Where an application is made under subsection (1), the agency or Minister—
 - (a) may remit the charge to which the application relates in whole or in part; and
 - (b) shall take all reasonable steps to enable the applicant to be notified of a decision on the application as soon as practicable but in any case not later than 28 days after the day on which the application was received by or on behalf of the agency or Minister.

- (3) Without limiting the matters which the agency or Minister may take into account for the purpose of determining whether or not to remit a charge under subsection (2), the agency or Minister shall take into account—
- (a) whether the payment of the charge or of any part of the charge would cause or has caused financial hardship to the applicant or to a person on whose behalf the application was made; and
 - (b) whether the document to which the applicant seeks access relates to personal information about the applicant or a person on whose behalf the application was made; and
 - (c) whether the giving of access is in the general public interest or in the interest of a substantial section of the public.

- (4) Where—

- (a) an application has been made to an agency or Minister under subsection (1); and
- (b) notice of a decision on the application has not been received by the applicant within the period of 28 days commencing on the day on which the application was received by or on behalf of the agency or Minister;

- (2) For subsection (1), the relevant day in relation to a request made by an applicant to whom a notification has been given under section 28 setting out the applicant's liability to pay a specified charge is—

 - (b) if the applicant, not having paid the charge or deposit referred to in paragraph (a), makes an application under section 29 for the total or partial remission of the charge—
 - (i) if a decision is made upon that application to remit the whole of the charge—the day on which the applicant is notified under that section of that decision; or
 - (ii) if a decision is made on that application to remit part of the charge—the day on which the applicant pays the charge as so remitted or such deposit on account of the charge as so remitted as the applicant is required to pay under a determination in force under section 80; or

- (c) if the applicant, not having paid the charge or deposit referred to in paragraph (a), makes an application to the ACAT under section 60 for a review of the decision referred to in section 28—
 - (i) if a decision is made by the ACAT setting aside the decision referred to in section 28—the day on which the applicant is notified by the ACAT of that decision; or
 - (ii) if the ACAT sets aside the decision referred to in section 28 and makes another decision in substitution for that decision—the day on which the applicant pays the charge specified in the substituted decision or such deposit on account of that charge as the applicant is required to pay under a determination in force under section 80.

- (3) Where a complaint is made to the ombudsman under the Ombudsman Act 1989 concerning action taken by an agency in the exercise of functions under this Act, an application to the ACAT for a review of the decision shall not be made before the ombudsman has informed the applicant of the result of the complaint in accordance with the Ombudsman Act 1989, section 15.

57 Ombudsman may represent persons in proceedings before the ACAT

- (1) The ombudsman may represent, or arrange for another person to represent, any person who makes application to the ACAT, under section 60, for review of a decision (not being a decision made by a Minister) in the proceedings before the ACAT pursuant to that application if the ombudsman is of the opinion, in all the circumstances of the case, that it is reasonable to do so.

For this part, unless the contrary intention appears—

- (b) a claim that a document would, if it exists, be an exempt document under section 34, section 35 or section 37A shall be taken to be a claim that the document is an exempt document under that section notwithstanding that the existence or non-existence of the document is not acknowledged.

59 Internal review

- (1) Where a decision has been made in relation to a request to an agency otherwise than by the responsible Minister or principal officer of the agency, being—

- (3) Subsection (2) does not prevent an application to the ACAT in respect of a decision where—
 - (a) the person concerned has applied under section 59 for a review of the decision; and
 - (b) a period of 14 days has elapsed since the day on which that application was received by or on behalf of the agency concerned; and
 - (c) the person has not been informed of the result of the review; and such an application to the ACAT may be treated by the ACAT as having been made within the time allowed by subsection (4) if it appears to the ACAT that there was no unreasonable delay in making the application.

- (4) Despite the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2008, section 10 (d), and subject to any extension of time granted by the ACAT, an applicant may make an application under subsection (1) in relation to a decision under section 54 (3) within 28 days after the day the ombudsman informs the applicant under section 54 (3).

 - (c) notice of a decision on the request has not been received by the applicant;

the principal officer of the agency or the Minister shall, for the purpose of enabling an application to be made to the ACAT under section 60, be taken to have made a decision refusing to grant access to the document on the last day of that period.

- (2) Where a complaint is made to the ombudsman under the Ombudsman Act 1989 concerning failure to make and notify to the applicant a decision on a request (whether the complaint was made before or after the end of the period referred to in subsection (1)), an application to the ACAT under section 60 of this Act by virtue of this section shall not be made before the ombudsman has informed the applicant of the result of the complaint in accordance with the Ombudsman Act 1989, section 15.
- (3) Where such a complaint is made before the end of the period referred to in subsection (1), the ombudsman may, after having investigated the complaint, if he or she is of the opinion that there has been unreasonable delay by an agency in connection with the request, grant to the applicant a certificate stating that he or she is of that opinion and, if the ombudsman does so, the principal officer of the agency or the Minister shall, for the purpose of enabling an application to be made to the ACAT under section 60, be taken to have made a decision refusing to grant access to the document on the day on which the certificate is granted.

- (4) The ombudsman shall not grant a certificate under subsection (3) where the request to which the complaint relates was made to, or has been referred to, a Minister and is awaiting decision by the Minister.
- (5) Where, after an application has been made to the ACAT by virtue of this section but before the ACAT has finally dealt with the application, a decision, other than a decision to grant, without deferment, access to the document in accordance with the request is given, the ACAT may, at the request of the applicant, treat the proceedings as extending to a review of that decision in accordance with this part.
- (6) Before dealing further with an application made by virtue of this section, the ACAT may, on the application of the agency or Minister concerned, allow further time to the agency or Minister to deal with the request.

62 Powers of ACAT

- (1) Subject to this section, in proceedings under this part, the ACAT has power, in addition to any other power, to review any decision that has been made by an agency or Minister in respect of the request and to decide any matter in relation to the request that, under this Act, could have been, or could be, decided by an agency or Minister, and any decision of the ACAT under this section has the same effect as a decision of the agency or Minister.
- (2) Where, in proceedings under this Act, it is established that a document is an exempt document, the ACAT does not have power to decide that access to the document, so far as it contains exempt matter, is to be granted.

- (3) Where a certificate under section 37A is in force in respect of a document, the powers of the ACAT do not extend to reviewing the decision to give the certificate but the ACAT, constituted in accordance with section 64, may determine such question in relation to that certificate as is provided for in whichever of subsections (4) and (5) applies to that certificate.
- (4) Where an application is made to the ACAT for the review of a decision refusing to grant access to a document in accordance with a request, being a document that is claimed to be an exempt document under section 37A and in respect of which a certificate (other than a certificate of a kind referred to in subsection (5)) is in force under that section, the ACAT shall, if the applicant so requests, determine the question whether reasonable grounds exist for that claim.
- (5) If application is made to the ACAT for review of a decision refusing to grant access to a document in relation to which a certificate is in force under section 37A (4), the ACAT must, if the applicant requests, determine whether reasonable grounds exist for the claim that information about the existence or non-existence of the document would cause the document to be an exempt document under section 37A (1).
- (6) The powers of the ACAT under this section extend to matters relating to charges payable under this Act in relation to a request.
- (7) Where—
 - (a) application is made to the ACAT for review of a decision refusing to grant a person access to a document in accordance with a request; and
 - (b) the agency to which or the Minister to whom the request was made—

- (i) has given to the applicant a notice under this Act of the decision, being a notice that does not include a statement to the effect that access to the document is being refused because of the operation of section 11 (3) or of that subsection as modified by regulations under section 11 (4); or
- (ii) informs the ACAT, either before or in the course of the proceeding for the review of the decision, that the agency or the Minister does not intend, or does not any longer intend, to refuse access to the document for the reason referred to in subparagraph (i);

then, for the review by the ACAT of that decision, section 11 (3) and (4) shall be disregarded.

63 Proceedings on exercise of certain powers

- (1) Where, in considering a question referred to in section 62 (4) or (5) in relation to a document in respect of which a certificate has been given, the ACAT determines that there are not reasonable grounds for the claim to which the question relates, the appropriate Minister shall, not later than 28 days after the determination of the ACAT is communicated to him or her, make a decision—

3 Legislation history

This Act was originally a Commonwealth ordinance—the Freedom of Information Ordinance 1989 No 46 (Cwlth).

The Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988 (Cwlth), s 34 (4) converted most former Commonwealth ordinances in force in the ACT into ACT enactments. This allowed the ACT Legislative Assembly to amend and repeal the laws. This Act was converted into an ACT enactment on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).

As with most ordinances in force in the ACT, the name was changed from Ordinance to Act by the Self-Government (Citation of Laws) Act 1989 No 21, s 5 on 11 May 1989 (self-government day).
