(see r 39)

Notice disputing genuineness of memorandum, or notice by employer objecting to memorandum being recorded

[Heading as in memorandum.]

(1) Notice disputing genuineness of memorandum.

TAKE NOTICE that [state name of party disputing], a party [or parties] interested, disputes [or dispute] the genuineness of the memorandum sent to you for registration in this matter on the following grounds:

[here state the grounds, as eg]

- (a) That no such agreement has in fact been entered into; or
- (b) That the terms of the agreement are not correctly stated in the memorandum of agreement; or
- (c) That the agreement is no longer subsisting or enforceable; or
- (d) That the agreement is not enforceable by reason of its having been entered into under a mutual mistake [or having been obtained by fraud] [or undue influence] [or improper means].

Dated:

[To be signed by the party disputing or his or her solicitor (or agent), or in case of employers by their duly authorized official, employee, or agent.]

To the Registrar of the Magistrates Court, Canberra.

(2) Notice by employer objecting to memorandum being recorded.

TAKE NOTICE that [state name of employer] objects [or object] to the memorandum sent to you for registration in this matter being recorded on the ground that [worker] has in fact returned to work and is earning the same wages as he or she did before the injury.

Dated:

[To be signed by the employer or his or her solicitor (or agent) or duly authorized official, employee, or agent.]

To the Registrar of the Magistrates Court, Canberra.
