

A guide for people applying for Family Violence Orders (FVOs)

What do I need to complete?

To make an application please complete the forms and lodge at the ACT Magistrates Court, Knowles Place, Canberra

- An application for a family violence order (Form 1);
- A private and confidential form to provide to the police. This will assist the police to locate the respondent and serve your application and any orders made. This will not be provided to the respondent.
- A notice of address for service (this will be kept confidential unless you consent to its release);
- You may need to appoint someone to represent you, as a litigation guardian, if you are under 14 years of age or have impaired decision making ability. If so, you will need to have that person complete a Statement for appointment as a litigation guardian.

What is family violence?

It is behaviour by a person in relation to a family member that may include:

- a) Physical violence or abuse
- b) Sexual violence or abuse
- c) Emotional or psychological abuse;
- d) Economic abuse;
- e) Threatening behaviour
- f) Coercion or any other behaviour that:
 - Controls or dominates the family member; and
 - Causes the family member to feel fear for the safety or wellbeing of the family member or another person;
- g) Behaviour that causes a child to hear, witness or otherwise be exposed to behaviour mentioned above, or the effects of the behaviour;

Without limiting any of the above, that behaviour may include:

- Sexually coercive behaviour;
- Damaging property;
- Harming an animal;
- Stalking;
- Deprivation of liberty

A FAMILY MEMBER is a person is who is:

- A domestic partner or former domestic partner of the person;
- An intimate partner or former intimate partner of the person;
- A relative of the person; or
- A child of a domestic partner or former domestic partner;
- A parent of a child of the person.

A person applying for a FVO is called 'the applicant'. An applicant may also be an affected person, but the police, a parent or litigation guardian may apply for a protection order for an affected person.

COMMON TERMS EXPLAINED

Who is an AFFECTED PERSON?

- a person against whom family violence has been or is likely to be committed.

Who is a RESPONDENT?

- the person against whom you seek a family violence order or against whom a family violence order has been made.

Who is a PROTECTED PERSON?

- a person who is protected under a family violence order.

Who is a LITIGATION GUARDIAN?

- a person appointed to represent a person who has impaired decision making ability.

OBTAINING A FVO AGAINST A CHILD OR YOUNG PERSON

It is not possible to obtain a FVO against a child aged under 10. If the respondent is aged 10–14, the Court will usually require them to be represented by a parent, lawyer, or litigation guardian who can run the case for them.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF YOUR ADDRESS

It is not necessary for the Court to tell the respondent your address in order to make a FVO. If you do not want the respondent to know your address, do not put it on the application form. The Court will ask you to complete a notice of address for service. This will be kept confidential unless you give the Court consent to disclose it.

If you would like legal advice about your situation or have trouble with these forms, please call (02) 6207 1874 or drop in to the Legal Aid Protection Unit located in the ACT Magistrates Court.
