Postal vote for the ACT Legislative Assembly

Information for the elector

Am I entitled to a postal vote?

If you are on the ACT electoral roll you are entitled to cast a postal vote if:

- you expect to be unable to attend an early voting centre or a polling place on election day; or
- your address has been suppressed on the electoral roll.

Check your pre-printed name and enrolled address details. Please correct any errors.

If you are unable to vote without help, you can ask someone to assist you.

Privacy statement

The information sought on this form is required under the ACT Electoral Act 1992.

Your name and address details and the fact that you have completed a postal vote will be made publicly available after election day under the Electoral Act (except if your address is suppressed on the electoral roll, your address will not be made public).
