child exploitation material

7 New section 9 (1A) and (1B)

insert

(1A) A person is not a registrable offender if—

(a) the person was a young person at the time the registrable offence was committed; and

(b) a court considers, on application by the defence, that including the person on the register is inappropriate in the circumstances of the case.

(1B) In making a decision for subsection (1A) (b), the court must consider—

(a) the severity of the offence and the seriousness of the circumstances surrounding the commission of the offence; and

(b) the age of the person at the time of the offence; and

(c) the level of harm to the victim and the community caused by the offence; and

(d) any attempts at rehabilitation by the person; and

(e) whether the person poses a risk to the lives or sexual safety of 1 or more people or of the community; and

(f) any other circumstances that the court considers relevant.

1 8 Section 14

2 substitute

3 Division 2.2.1 Child sex offender registration
4 orders—generally

5 14 What is a child sex offender registration order?

6 A child sex offender registration order, in relation to a person, is—

7 (a) an order made under section 15 (1) or section 18C; or 8 (b) a corresponding child sex offender registration order.

9 Division 2.2.2 Orders for offenders guilty of offence
10 other than class 1 or class 2 offence

11 9 New division 2.2.3

12 insert

13 Division 2.2.3 Orders for certain previous offenders

14 18A Meaning of previous offender—div 2.2.3

15 For this division, a person is a previous offender if the person has 16 been found guilty of a class 1 offence before the commencement of 17 this Act.

18 18B Application for child sex offender registration order in 19 relation to previous offender

20 (1) The chief police officer may apply to the Magistrates Court for a 21 child sex offender registration order in relation to a person if the 22 chief police officer believes on reasonable grounds that—

23 (a) the person is a previous offender; and

- 1 (b) the person poses a risk to the lives or sexual safety of 1 or more 2 people or of the community.
- 3 (2) For subsection (1) (b), it is not necessary for the court to be satisfied 4 of a risk to a particular person or class of people.
- 5 (3) The application must include—
- 6 (a) any information or material relevant to the application 7 (regardless of whether the information or material supports the 8 application); and
- 9 (b) details of whether an application under this section has 10 previously been made in relation to the person.

11 18C Court may make child sex offender registration order in 12 relation to previous offender

- 13 (1) The Magistrates Court may, on application under section 18B, make 14 a child sex offender registration order in relation to a person if, by 15 evidence on oath and after taking into account anything it considers 16 appropriate, the court is satisfied that—
- 17 (a) the person is a previous offender; and
- 18 (b) the person poses a risk to the lives or sexual safety of 1 or more 19 people or of the community; and
- 20 (c) making the order will reduce the risk; and
- 21 (d) having regard to the matters in section 18D, the order is 22 appropriate.
- 23 (2) The application for the order may be heard, and the order made, in 24 the person's absence if the court is satisfied that the application was 25 served—
- 26 (a) personally on the person; and
- 27 (b) on anyone else as directed by the court.

- 1 18D Matters court must consider before making registration
2 order in relation to previous offender
- 3 (1) For section 18C (1) (d), the matters are as follows:
- 4 (a) for each offence for which the person is a previous offender—
- 5 (i) the seriousness of the offence; and
- 6 (ii) the period since the offence was committed; and
- 7 (iii) the person’s and victim’s ages, and the difference in age
- 8 between them, when the person committed the offence;
- 9 (b) the person’s age;
- 10 (c) the seriousness of the person’s criminal history;
- 11 (d) whether the level of risk that the person may commit another
- 12 registrable offence outweighs the effect of the order on the
- 13 person;
- 14 (e) the person’s circumstances, to the extent that they relate to the
- 15 order sought.
- 16 Examples
- 17 1 the person’s accommodation, employment, health, cultural and social
- 18 needs
- 19 2 the need to integrate the person into the community
- 20 Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend,
- 21 but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it
- 22 appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).
- 23 (2) The court may have regard to anything else the court considers
- 24 relevant.
- 25 (3) In this section:
- 26 criminal history, about a person, means a finding of guilt against the
- 27 person for a class 1 or class 2 offence.

1 18E Keeping documents connected with order

2 If the Magistrates Court makes a child sex offender registration 3 order in relation to a previous offender, the chief police officer must, 4 for the duration of the order, keep a copy of—

- 5 (a) the application made under section 18B; and 6 (b) any document relied upon for the application.

7 10 Section 37

8 substitute

9 37 Offence—offender must report annually

10 (1) A registrable offender must—

- 11 (a) attend, at a relevant time each year, an approved reporting 12 place; and
13 (b) report any changes to the offender's personal details to the 14 chief police officer at the approved reporting place; and 15 (c) if the offender has been in government custody since the 16 offender last reported under this Act—report to the chief police 17 officer details of when and where the custody happened.

18 Note 1 For the offender's personal details, see s 59.

19 Note 2 A registrable offender reports in person at a place only if the offender 20 reports by personally attending at the place (see dict, def in person).
21 However, special provision has been made for young offenders and 22 offenders with a disability (see s 65 and s 66).

23 Note 3 For approved reporting places, see s 64.

24 (2) A registrable offender commits an offence if the offender—

- 25 (a) is required to report under subsection (1); and 26 (b) is reckless as to whether the offender is required to report; and

- 1 (c) fails to report as required.
2 Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units, imprisonment for 5 years or 3 both.
- 4 (3) Strict liability applies to subsection (2) (c).
5 (4) This section does not apply if the offender's reporting period has 6 ended before the relevant time for the offender's report in the year.
7 (5) In this section:
8 relevant time, in relation to a report by a registrable offender in a 9 year, means before the end of the month in the year when the 10 anniversary of the day the offender first reported under this Act or a 11 corresponding law falls.
- 12 Example
13 J first reported his personal details to the chief police officer on 14 October 2015.
14 J must make a further report of any changes to J's details on or before 31 October 15 2016, 31 October 2017 (and so on).
- 16 Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but 17 does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see 18 Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

19 11 Exception—offender in government custody
20 Section 38

- 21 omit
22 offender's reporting month
23 substitute
24 relevant time for the offender's report

1 12 Exception—offender outside ACT
2 Section 39

3 omit

4 of the offender's reporting month

5 substitute

6 before the relevant time for the offender's report

7 13 Offence—offender in ACT must report change of details
8 Section 54 (2) (b), new examples

9 before the notes, insert

10 Examples—other changes in personal details

11 1 ceasing employment with a particular employer

12 2 starting new employment

13 14 Section 54 (2) (b), new note

14 insert

15 Note 5 An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend, but 16 does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it appears (see 17 Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

18 15 What are personal details?
19 Section 59 (1) (h)

20 after

21 registration number,

22 insert

23 details of any modifications made,

1 16 Section 78

2 substitute

3 78 Photographing offender

4 (1) A police officer receiving a report made in person by or for a 5 registrable offender may require the offender—

6 (a) to be photographed; or

7 (b) to expose any part of the offender's body to enable that part of 8 the body to be photographed by the officer or another person 9 authorised by the officer.

10 Note See s 79 (1A) for a restriction relevant to par (b).

11 (2) Force may not be used in photographing a registrable offender 12 except in accordance with an order of a magistrate under 13 section 78A.

14 (3) Before a registrable offender's photograph is taken, the police 15 officer must tell the offender, in language likely to be understood by 16 the offender—

17 (a) why the photographs are being taken; and

18 (b) that it is an offence not to comply with the requirement to be 19 photographed; and

20 (c) that the photographs will be kept by the chief police officer.

21 (4) A registrable offender commits an offence if—

22 (a) a police officer requires the offender to be photographed under 23 this section; and

24 (b) the offender does not comply with the requirement.

25 Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units, imprisonment for 5 years or 26 both.

- 1 78A Order allowing use of force for photographing offender
- 2 (1) A magistrate may, on application by a police officer, order the
- 3 photographing of a registrable offender if satisfied on the balance of
- 4 probabilities that—
- 5 (a) a police officer has required the offender to be photographed
- 6 under section 78 and the offender has failed to comply with the
- 7 requirement; and
- 8 (b) there are reasonable grounds to believe that photographing the
- 9 offender is likely to assist law enforcement, crime prevention
- 10 or child protection purposes; and
- 11 (c) allowing reasonable force to be used in photographing the
- 12 offender is justified in all the circumstances.
- 13 (2) For subsection (1) (c), the magistrate must consider the following:
- 14 (a) the seriousness of the circumstances surrounding the
- 15 commission of each offence that resulted in the offender being
- 16 on the register and the severity of each offence;
- 17 (b) the age, mental health and cultural background of the offender,
- 18 to the extent that they are known by the magistrate;
- 19 (c) if the offender gives any reasons for not complying with the
- 20 requirement—the reasons;
- 21 (d) any other circumstances that the magistrate considers relevant.
- 22 (3) An application under this section must be—
- 23 (a) made in writing; and
- 24 (b) supported by evidence on oath or by affidavit dealing with the
- 25 matters mentioned in this section.

1 17 Right to privacy when being photographed
2 Section 79 (1)

3 after

4 section 78

5 insert

6 or section 78A

7 18 New section 79 (1A)

8 insert

9 (1A) A police officer cannot require an offender who is to be 10 photographed under section 78 or section 78A to expose for that 11 purpose—

12 (a) the offender's genitals; or

13 (b) the anal area of the offender's buttocks; or

14 (c) if the offender is female, or a transgender or intersex person 15 who identifies as female—the offender's breasts.

16 19 Right to have support person when being photographed
17 Section 80

18 after

19 section 78

20 insert

21 or section 78A

1 20 When reporting period begins
2 Section 83

3 substitute

4 83 When reporting period begins

5 (1) A registrable offender's (other than a previous offender's) reporting 6 period for a registrable offence begins at the later of the following 7 times:

8 (a) when the offender is sentenced for the offence;

9 (b) if the offender is in, or begins, full-time government custody
10 on the day the offender is sentenced for the registrable
11 offence—when the offender stops being in full-time 12 government custody.

13 (2) A previous offender's reporting period for a registrable offence 14 begins at the later of the following times:

15 (a) when the offender was sentenced for the offence;

16 (b) if the offender was in full-time government custody on the day 17 the offender was sentenced for the registrable offence—when 18 the offender stopped or stops being in full-time government 19 custody.

1 21 New parts 3.10 and 3.11

2 insert

3 Part 3.10 Failure to comply with reporting
4 obligations—public notices

5 116A Chief police officer may issue public notice in certain 6 circumstances

- 7 (1) The chief police officer or a deputy chief police officer may publish 8 a notice about a registrable offender if—
- 9 (a) satisfied that the offender—
- 10 (i) has failed to comply with a reporting obligation under 11 this chapter; and
- 12 (ii) cannot be located; and
- 13 (b) the offender is not a young person; and
- 14 (c) the officer believes on reasonable grounds that—
- 15 (i) the offender poses a risk to the lives or sexual safety of 16 1 or more people or of the community; and
- 17 (ii) publishing the notice will reduce the risk.
- 18 (2) For subsection (1) (c) (i), it is not necessary for the officer to 19 identify a risk to particular people, or a particular class of people.
- 20 (3) The notice must—
- 21 (a) include 1 or more of the following:
- 22 (i) the offender's name;
- 23 (ii) a photograph of the offender;
- 24 (iii) a description of the offender; and

- 1 (b) state that the offender is required by police to answer
2 questions; but
3 (c) not state that the offender is a registrable offender.

4 Part 3.11 Entry and search warrants

5 Division 3.11.1 Preliminary

6 116B Definitions—pt 3.11

7 In this part:

8 entry and search warrant means a warrant authorising entry and 9 search of the premises of a registrable offender for the purpose of 10 verifying—

- 11 (a) the offender's personal details; or 12 (b) if the offender is subject to an order under chapter 5A (Orders 13 prohibiting offender conduct)—whether the offender has 14 breached, or is likely to breach, the order.

15 executing officer, of an entry and search warrant, means—

- 16 (a) the police officer named in the warrant as the police officer 17 authorised to execute the warrant; or 18 (b) if that police officer does not intend to be present at the 19 execution of the warrant—another police officer whose name 20 has been written in the warrant by the police officer named 21 under paragraph (a); or 22 (c) another police officer whose name has been written in the 23 warrant by the police officer named in the warrant under 24 paragraph (b).

- 1 occupier, of a premises, includes—
- 2 (a) a person believed on reasonable grounds to be an occupier of
- 3 the premises; and
- 4 (b) a person apparently in charge of the premises.
- 5 offensive weapon—see the Crimes Act 1900, dictionary.
- 6 person assisting, in relation to an entry and search warrant, means a
- 7 person who has been authorised by an executing officer to assist in
- 8 executing the warrant.
- 9 premises includes the following:
- 10 (a) land (whether vacant or occupied);
- 11 (b) any structure, building, vehicle or place (whether built or not);
- 12 (c) any part of a structure, building, vehicle or place.
- 13 public official—see the Criminal Code, section 300.

14 Division 3.11.2 Entry and search warrants—general

15 116C Entry and search warrant—application

- 16 (1) The chief police officer, a deputy chief police officer or a police
- 17 officer of or above the rank of sergeant may apply to the Magistrates
- 18 Court for an entry and search warrant.
- 19 (2) The application must—
- 20 (a) state—
- 21 (i) the name of the applicant; and
- 22 (ii) the name of the executing officer; and
- 23 (iii) the nature and duration of the warrant sought; and

- 1 (iv) whether the registrable offender has previously been 2 subject to a search authorised under a territory law in 3 relation to similar information or material; and
- 4 (v) whether a previous application has been made under this 5 section in relation to the offender; and
- 6 (b) subject to subsection (3), be supported by an affidavit setting 7 out the grounds on which the warrant is sought.
- 8 (3) The application may be made without a supporting affidavit if the 9 applicant believes that—
- 10 (a) the immediate use of an entry and search warrant is necessary 11 for the purpose of verifying the offender's personal details; and
- 12 (b) it is impracticable for an affidavit to be prepared or sworn 13 before the application is made.
- 14 (4) If subsection (3) applies, the applicant must—
- 15 (a) give as much information as the court considers reasonably 16 practicable in the circumstances; and
- 17 (b) if the court issues the warrant—send the supporting affidavit to 18 the court as soon as practicable; and
- 19 (c) if the court refuses to issue the warrant—make a written record 20 of the application and the reasons for the warrant not being 21 issued.

22 116D Application for entry and search warrant—supporting 23 information

- 24 (1) In making an application under section 116C, the applicant must, as 25 part of the affidavit, provide the Magistrates Court with any 26 information or material relevant to the application (regardless of 27 whether the information or material supports the application).

- 1 (2) The applicant must keep a copy of any affidavit or information or 2 material relied on under this part for 1 year after the registrable 3 offender stops being subject to a reporting obligation.

4 116E Entry and search warrant—remote application

- 5 (1) If the applicant believes that it is impracticable for an application for 6 an entry and search warrant to be made in person, the application 7 may be made by telephone, fax, email or any other means of 8 communication.
- 9 (2) As soon as practicable after making a remote application, the 10 applicant must make a written record of the application.
- 11 (3) If practicable, the Magistrates Court must fax or email a copy of the 12 warrant to the applicant.

13 116F Entry and search warrant—deciding application

14 The Magistrates Court may issue an entry and search warrant if 15 satisfied on reasonable grounds that—

- 16 (a) either—
- 17 (i) the registrable offender has incorrectly reported, or is 18 likely to incorrectly report, personal details; or
- 19 (ii) if the registrable offender is subject to an order under 20 chapter 5A (Orders prohibiting offender conduct)—the 21 offender has breached, or is likely to breach, the order; 22 and
- 23 (b) for an application without affidavit—it would have been 24 impracticable for an affidavit to have been prepared and sworn 25 before the application was made; and
- 26 (c) for a remote application—it would have been impracticable for 27 the application to have been made in person.

1 116G Content of entry and search warrant

- 2 (1) An entry and search warrant must include statements of the 3 following matters:
- 4 (a) a description of the premises, or the name or description of the 5 registrable offender to which the warrant relates;
- 6 (b) the kinds of material to be searched for under the warrant;
- 7 (c) the name of the police officer who is to be responsible for 8 executing the warrant;
- 9 (d) the period, not exceeding 7 days, for which the warrant 10 remains in force;
- 11 (e) the times when the search is authorised;
- 12 (f) any conditions subject to which premises may be entered under 13 the warrant;
- 14 (g) the things under section 116H the warrant authorises the 15 executing officer or an assisting officer to do.
- 16 (2) For subsection (1) (e), an entry and search warrant must not 17 authorise a search during the period beginning at 9 pm on a day and 18 ending at 6 am on the next day unless the Magistrates Court is 19 satisfied that—
- 20 (a) it is necessary to prevent the concealment, loss or destruction 21 of evidential material in relation to an offence; or

1 (b) it would not be practicable to conduct the search at another 2 time.

3 Examples—when not practicable to conduct search at another time

4 1 conducting the search during normal hours may increase the risk to the 5 safety of officers

6 2 conducting the search during normal hours may compromise another 7 investigation

8 Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend,
9 but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it
10 appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

11 (3) In deciding any conditions under subsection (1) (f), the Magistrates 12 Court must have regard to the personal privacy of a third party who 13 may be affected by the warrant.

14 (4) Subsection (1) (d) does not prevent the issue of successive warrants 15 in relation to the same premises or person.

16 116H What an entry and search warrant may authorise

17 (1) An entry and search warrant may authorise the executing officer or 18 an assisting officer to—

19 (a) enter the warrant premises, by force if necessary, and to remain 20 at the premises for as long as reasonably necessary (but not 21 longer than 2 hours) to exercise any power authorised under 22 the warrant; and

23 (b) if the premises is a vehicle—enter the vehicle, by force if 24 necessary, wherever it is; and

25 (c) search the premises for the kinds of material specified in the 26 warrant, and anything else relevant to the purpose of the 27 warrant, and to seize things of those kinds found at the 28 premises; and

- 1 (d) seize other things found at the premises in the course of the 2 search that the executing officer or an assisting officer believes 3 on reasonable grounds to be connected to an offence 4 punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or longer; and
- 5 (e) conduct an ordinary search or a frisk search of a person at or 6 near the premises if the executing officer or an assisting officer 7 suspects on reasonable grounds that the person has any 8 evidential material in relation to an offence or seizable items in 9 the person's possession, and to seize things of that kind; and
- 10 (f) seize other things found in the course of searching the person 11 that the executing officer or an assisting officer believes on 12 reasonable grounds to be connected to an offence punishable 13 by imprisonment for 12 months or longer; and
- 14 (g) seize a thing found while searching the person or premises that 15 may be used as an offensive weapon, if the executing officer or 16 an assisting officer believes on reasonable grounds that seizure 17 of the thing is necessary to prevent an imminent risk of harm to 18 a person or property; and
- 19 (h) take a photograph of a thing found while searching the person 20 or premises that the executing officer or assisting officer 21 believes on reasonable grounds to be evidential material in 22 relation to an offence, material that may assist an investigation, 23 or a seizable item; and
- 24 (i) stop and detain a person at the premises for as long as 25 reasonably necessary (but not longer than 2 hours) to assist the 26 executing officer or an assisting officer to exercise any power 27 authorised under the warrant; and
- 28 (j) if a registrable offender has refused access to data on an 29 electronic device under section 116Q—access the information 30 for as long as reasonably necessary (but not longer than 31 4 hours) to assist the executing officer or assisting officer to 32 exercise any power authorised under the warrant; and

- 1 (k) exercise a power under this section in relation to part of a 2 premises occupied exclusively by a person other than a
3 registrable offender, if the executing officer or assisting officer 4 believes on reasonable grounds that the part of the premises is 5 used by the offender; and
- 6 (l) do anything else authorised by the Magistrates Court.
- 7 (2) If a transgender or intersex person is searched under this section, the 8 person may require that the search be conducted by either a male or 9 a female.
- 10 (3) Despite paragraphs (1) (a), (i) and (j), an entry and search warrant 11 may authorise the executing officer or an assisting officer to—
- 12 (a) remain at the premises or stop and detain a person at the 13 premises for up to 4 hours if the court is satisfied that the 14 warrant cannot be executed within 2 hours; and
- 15 (b) access data on a registrable offender’s electronic device for up 16 to 8 hours, and remain at premises for that purpose, if satisfied 17 that the warrant cannot be executed within 4 hours.
- 18 (4) An entry and search warrant may not authorise a strip search or a 19 search of a person’s body cavities.

20 116I Extension and amendment of entry and search warrant

- 21 (1) The chief police officer, deputy chief police officer or police officer 22 of or above the rank of sergeant to whom an entry and search 23 warrant has been issued may apply, at any time before the expiry of 24 the warrant, for an—
- 25 (a) extension of the warrant; or
- 26 (b) amendment of any condition of the warrant.
- 27 (2) The application need not be made to the same magistrate who first 28 issued the warrant.

- 1 (3) Section 116C (Entry and search warrant—application), 2 section 116D (Application for entry and search warrant—supporting 3 information) and section 116E (Entry and search warrant—remote 4 application) apply, with any necessary changes, to an application 5 under this section as if it were an application for the warrant.
- 6 (4) The Magistrates Court may grant an application under this section 7 only if satisfied that the warrant requires extension or amendment to 8 be properly executed.
- 9 (5) If the court grants the application, it must endorse the new expiry 10 date or the other amended condition on the original warrant.
- 11 (6) An application may be made more than once under this section.
- 12 (7) However, an application may only be made once under this section 13 for an extension of time under section 116G (4) or section 116H (3).

14 116J Revocation of entry and search warrant

- 15 (1) An entry and search warrant may be revoked at any time before the 16 end of the period of validity stated in it by the Magistrates Court.
- 17 (2) The court may revoke the warrant if satisfied that—
- 18 (a) the information supporting the application for the warrant was 19 false or misleading; or
- 20 (b) the warrant contains an error; or
- 21 (c) the grounds for issue of the warrant no longer exist; or
- 22 (d) revoking the warrant is in the interests of justice.
- 23 (3) The court must give notice of the revocation of an entry and search 24 warrant to the executing officer to whom the warrant was issued.

- 1 (4) If the chief police officer, a deputy chief police officer or a police 2 officer of or above the rank of sergeant is satisfied that the grounds 3 for issue of an entry and search warrant to an executing officer no 4 longer exist, the officer must ensure that an application is made for 5 the revocation of the warrant under this section.
- 6 (5) If the executing officer to whom an entry and search warrant has 7 been issued, or who is primarily responsible for executing an entry 8 and search warrant, believes that the grounds for issue of the 9 warrant no longer exist, the officer must tell the chief police officer, 10 a deputy chief police officer or a police officer of or above the rank 11 of sergeant immediately.

12 Division 3.11.3 Executing entry and search warrants

13 116K Use of force and availability of assistance in executing
14 entry and search warrant

- 15 (1) An executing officer, assisting officer or a person assisting who is 16 not a police officer may use force in executing an entry and search 17 warrant against people and things that is necessary and reasonable in 18 the circumstances.
- 19 (2) An executing officer may obtain the assistance in executing the 20 warrant that is necessary and reasonable in the circumstances.

21 116L Announcement before entry

- 22 (1) An executing officer must, before anyone enters premises under an 23 entry and search warrant—
- 24 (a) announce that the person is authorised to enter the premises;
25 and
- 26 (b) give anyone at the premises an opportunity to allow entry to 27 the premises; and
- 28 (c) if the occupier of the premises is present—identify themselves to 29 that person.

- 1 (2) The executing officer is not required to comply with subsection (1) 2 if the officer believes on reasonable grounds that immediate entry to 3 the premises is required to ensure—
4 (a) the safety of anyone (including any police officer or person 5 assisting); or
6 (b) that the effective execution of the warrant is not frustrated.

7 116M Details of warrant to be given to occupier etc

- 8 (1) If an entry and search warrant in relation to premises is being 9 executed and the occupier of the premises is present at the premises, 10 the executing officer or an assisting officer must make available to 11 that person a copy of the warrant.
12 (2) The executing officer or an assisting officer must provide the 13 registrable offender in relation to whom the warrant relates with a 14 copy of the warrant.
15 (3) If a person is searched under a warrant in relation to premises, the 16 executing officer or an assisting officer must show the person a copy 17 of the warrant.
18 (4) The executing officer must identify themselves to the person at the 19 premises or the person being searched.
20 (5) The copy of the warrant mentioned in subsections (1) and (2) need 21 not include the signature of the magistrate.

22 116N Occupier entitled to be present during search etc

- 23 (1) If an occupier of premises is present at the premises while an entry 24 and search warrant is being executed, the occupier is entitled to 25 observe the search being conducted.
26 Note The Crimes Act 1914 (Cwlth), pt 1C applies in relation to the 27 investigation of certain ACT offences.
28 (2) However, the occupier is not entitled to observe the search if to do 29 so would impede the search.

- 1 (3) This section does not prevent 2 or more areas of the premises being 2 searched at the same time.

3 1160 Use of equipment to examine or process things

- 4 (1) An executing officer or an assisting officer may bring to the 5 premises equipment reasonably necessary for the examination or 6 processing of a thing found at the premises, to determine whether it 7 is a thing that may be seized under an entry and search warrant.
- 8 (2) The thing may be moved to another place for examination or 9 processing if—
- 10 (a) it is not practicable to examine or process it at the premises; or 11 (b) the occupier of the premises consents in writing.
- 12 (3) If a thing is moved to another place under subsection (2), the 13 executing officer must, if practicable—
- 14 (a) tell the occupier the address of the place, and when the 15 examination or processing will be conducted; and
- 16 (b) allow the occupier or occupier's representative to be present 17 during the examination or processing.
- 18 (4) The executing officer or an assisting officer may operate equipment 19 already at the premises to examine or process a thing to determine 20 whether it is a seizable item, if the officer believes on reasonable 21 grounds that—
- 22 (a) the equipment is suitable for the examination or processing;
23 and
- 24 (b) the examination or processing can be conducted without 25 damage to the equipment or thing.

- 1 116P Use of electronic equipment at premises
- 2 (1) An executing officer or an assisting officer may operate electronic 3 equipment at the premises to access data (including data not held at 4 the premises) if the officer believes on reasonable grounds that—
- 5 (a) the data may assist the officer in verifying—
- 6 (i) the registrable offender’s personal details; or
- 7 (ii) if the offender is subject to an order under chapter 5A
8 (Orders prohibiting offender conduct)—whether the 9 offender has breached, or is likely to breach, the order;
10 and
- 11 (b) the equipment can be operated without damaging it.
- 12 (2) If the executing officer or assisting officer believes that any data 13 accessed by operating the electronic equipment may assist the 14 officer under subsection (1) (a), the officer may—
- 15 (a) copy the data to a storage device brought to the premises; or
- 16 (b) if the occupier of the premises agrees in writing—copy the data 17 to a data storage device at the premises.
- 18 (3) The executing officer or assisting officer may take the device from 19 the premises.
- 20 (4) The executing officer or assisting officer may do the following 21 things if the officer finds that any material that may assist the officer 22 under subsection (1) (a) is accessible using the equipment:
- 23 (a) seize the equipment and any data storage device;
- 24 (b) if the material can, by using facilities at the premises, be put in 25 documentary form—operate the facilities to put the material in 26 that form and seize the documents produced.

- 1 (5) A police officer may seize equipment under subsection (4) (a) only 2 if—
3 (a) it is not practicable to copy the data as mentioned in 4 subsection (2) or put the material in documentary form as 5 mentioned in subsection (4) (b); or 6 (b) possession of the equipment or material could be an offence.

7 116Q Order requiring registrable offender to assist with access 8 to data etc

- 9 (1) The chief police officer, a deputy chief police officer or a police
10 officer of or above the rank of sergeant may apply to the Magistrates 11 Court for an order requiring the registrable offender to provide any 12 information or assistance that is reasonably necessary to allow the 13 executing officer or an assisting officer to do any of the following:
14 (a) access data held in or accessible from electronic equipment 15 that is on the premises;
16 (b) copy the data to a data storage device;
17 (c) convert the data into documentary form.
18 (2) The court may make an order if satisfied on reasonable grounds 19 that—
20 (a) the registrable offender has failed to provide the information or 21 assistance; or
22 (b) evidential material in relation to an offence is held in or 23 accessible from the equipment and subject to subsection (4), it 24 is likely that the material would be admissible in a criminal 25 proceeding.
26 (3) A registrable offender commits an offence if the offender—
27 (a) is ordered to provide information or assistance under this 28 section; and

- 1 (b) is reckless as to the requirement to provide information or 2 assistance; and
- 3 (c) fails to provide the information or assistance as ordered.
- 4 Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units, imprisonment for 5 years or 5 both.
- 6 (4) Any material obtained under this section is inadmissible in a 7 proceeding other than a proceeding—
- 8 (a) under this Act; or
- 9 (b) under the Criminal Code, part 3.4 (False or misleading 10 statements, information and documents).
- 11 (5) The provisions of this part relating to the issue of entry and search 12 warrants apply, with any necessary changes, to the making of an 13 order under this section.

14 116R Damage etc to be minimised

- 15 (1) In the exercise, or purported exercise of a function in relation to 16 electronic equipment under section 116O, section 116P or 17 section 116Q, a police officer must take all reasonable steps to 18 ensure that the officer, and any person assisting who is not an 19 officer, causes as little damage as practicable.
- 20 (2) If the police officer or person assisting damages anything in the 21 exercise or purported exercise of a function under section 116O, 22 section 116P or section 116Q, the police officer or person assisting 23 must give written notice of the particulars of the damage to the 24 person the police officer or person assisting believes on reasonable 25 grounds is the owner of the thing.
- 26 (3) If the damage happens on premises entered under this part in the 27 absence of the occupier, the notice may be given by securing it in a 28 conspicuous place on the premises.

1 116S Compensation

- 2 (1) A person may claim reasonable compensation from the Territory if 3 the person suffers loss or expense because of the exercise, or 4 purported exercise, of a function in relation to electronic equipment 5 under section 116O, section 116P or section 116Q by a police 6 officer or a person assisting who is not a police officer.
- 7 (2) Compensation may be claimed and ordered in a proceeding for—
- 8 (a) compensation brought in a court of competent jurisdiction; or
- 9 (b) an offence against this Act or another territory law brought 10 against the person making the claim for compensation.

11 Division 3.11.4 Seized things

12 116T Copies of seized things to be provided

- 13 (1) If the occupier is present at the premises while an entry and search 14 warrant is executed, the occupier may ask a police officer to give the 15 occupier a copy of a seized thing or information that is—
- 16 (a) a document, film, computer file or other thing that can be 17 readily copied; or
- 18 (b) a data storage device in which the information can be readily 19 copied.
- 20 (2) The police officer must give the occupier a copy of a seized thing or 21 information as soon as practicable after the seizure.
- 22 (3) However, the police officer is not required to give the occupier a 23 copy of a seized thing or information if—
- 24 (a) the thing was seized under section 116P (Use of electronic 25 equipment at premises); or
- 26 (b) possession by the occupier of the thing or information could be 27 an offence.

1 116U Receipt for things seized

- 2 (1) As soon as practicable after a thing is seized under this part, the 3 executing officer or assisting officer must give the person from 4 whom it was seized—
- 5 (a) a receipt for the thing; and
- 6 (b) a summary of the process by which things can be seized and 7 returned under this part.
- 8 (2) The receipt must include a description of the thing seized.
- 9 (3) The summary must give the information that a person reasonably 10 needs to understand this part, including—
- 11 (a) a description of the process for seizure, forfeiture, return and 12 destruction; and
- 13 (b) if an order is made under section 116Q (Order requiring 14 registrable offender to assist with access to data etc)—a 15 description of that section.

16 116V Return or destruction of things seized

- 17 (1) A police officer who has seized a thing under this part must take 18 reasonable steps to return the thing to the person from whom it was 19 seized, or to the owner if that person is not entitled to possess it, if—
- 20 (a) the reason for the thing's seizure no longer exists or the thing is 21 not required to be produced in evidence in a proceeding; or
- 22 (b) the thing has been seized for more than 1 year, and no further 23 period has been authorised under subsection (2).
- 24 (2) A police officer of or above the rank of superintendent may 25 authorise the keeping of a seized thing for a further period, if the 26 officer is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the thing—
- 27 (a) is likely to be required to be produced in evidence in a future 28 proceeding; or

- 1 (b) has evidential value in relation to an ongoing inquiry.
- 2 (3) On application by a police officer, the Magistrates Court may 3 approve the destruction of a seized thing or data contained in a 4 seized thing under this part if satisfied on reasonable grounds that—
- 5 (a) a registrable offender is refusing to assist an executing officer 6 or assisting officer with information or assistance in relation to 7 data contained in the seized thing and the officer has been 8 unable to access the data within 30 days of seizing the thing; or
- 9 (b) a registrable offender has been assisting an executing officer or 10 assisting officer but the data contained in the seized thing 11 cannot be accessed by the officer; or
- 12 (c) the seized thing or data contained in the seized thing contains 13 material that is likely to constitute an offence.
- 14 (4) Before a seized thing is returned under subsection (1), a police 15 officer must remove any material that possession of which would be 16 an offence under this Act or another law.

17 116W Application for order disallowing seizure

- 18 (1) A person claiming to be entitled to anything seized under this part 19 may apply to a court for an order disallowing the seizure.
- 20 (2) In deciding whether to make an order under this section, the court 21 must consider whether—
- 22 (a) the applicant has a legal or equitable interest in the thing; and
- 23 (b) the thing has evidential value in relation to a prosecution, 24 including—
- 25 (i) the seriousness of any charge or likely charge; and

- 1 (ii) whether evidence about the thing can be presented
2 without tendering the thing (for example, by tendering a 3 photograph of the thing); and

4 Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may 5 extend, but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in 6 which it appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).

- 7 (c) the thing has been replaced; and 8 (d) the applicant or another person requires the thing for business 9 purposes or for the generation of income; and 10 (e) the seizure of the thing will cause hardship to the applicant or 11 another person; and
12 (f) the thing has sentimental value to the applicant or another 13 person.

14 (3) However, the court must not make an order if—

- 15 (a) possession of the thing by the applicant or another person 16 would be an offence; or 17 (b) it would be dangerous or unsafe for the applicant or another 18 person to possess the thing; or 19 (c) the thing is the subject of an application under the Confiscation 20 of Criminal Assets Act 2003; or 21 (d) the thing may be seized or forfeited under another territory 22 law.

23 (4) If the court refuses to make an order disallowing the seizure under 24 this section, the court may order that the thing be destroyed.

1 116X Forfeiture and disposal of seized things

2 (1) This section applies if—

3 (a) a police officer is required to return a thing under section 116V 4 or another territory law, but the officer cannot locate the person 5 from whom it was seized or the owner after taking reasonable 6 steps having regard to—

7 (i) the estimated value of the thing; and

8 (ii) whether the thing can be easily replaced; and

9 (iii) the period of time that police have been in possession of 10 the thing; and

11 (iv) the resources likely to be required to locate the person;
12 and

13 (v) whether the thing has sentimental value to the person;
14 and

15 (b) an application for disallowance of the seizure under 16 section 116W has not been made, or has been refused or 17 withdrawn before a decision in relation to the application had 18 been made.

19 (2) The seized thing—

20 (a) is forfeited to the Territory; and 21 (b) may be sold, destroyed or otherwise disposed of.

22 (3) However, a police officer must attempt to sell the thing before 23 destroying or disposing of it, unless—

24 (a) possession of the thing would be an offence; or

25 (b) it would be dangerous or unsafe for a person to possess the 26 thing; or

27 (c) selling the thing would likely require more resources than 28 destroying or disposing of it.

- 1 (4) The police officer may recover the costs of carrying out the sale 2 from the proceeds of the sale.
- 3 (5) If the seized thing is a computer, data may be removed and 4 destroyed before the computer is sold, destroyed or otherwise 5 disposed of.
- 6 (6) The Minister may, in writing, authorise the chief police officer to 7 keep a forfeited item without selling, destroying or otherwise 8 disposing of it.

9 Division 3.11.5 Miscellaneous

10 116Y Offence—refusal of entry to premises

11 A person commits an offence if the person—

- 12 (a) is required to allow an executing officer, assisting officer or 13 person assisting who is not a police officer entry to premises 14 under this part; and
- 15 (b) refuses entry to the premises to the officer, assisting officer or 16 person assisting.

17 Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units, imprisonment for 5 years or 18 both.

19 116Z Admissibility of evidence

20 Any material obtained under this part (other than under 21 section 116Q (Order requiring registrable offender to assist with 22 access to data etc)) is inadmissible in a proceeding, other than a
23 proceeding—

- 24 (a) under this Act; or
- 25 (b) in relation to a class 1 or class 2 offence; or
- 26 (c) under the Criminal Code, part 3.4 (False or misleading 27 statements, information and documents).

1 22 New sections 122A to 122C

2 in chapter 4, insert

3 122A Order for removal of registrable offender—application by 4 chief police officer

- 5 (1) The chief police officer may apply to the Magistrates Court for an 6 order that a registrable offender be removed from the child sex 7 offenders register.
- 8 (2) The court may make the order if satisfied on reasonable grounds that 9 it would be inappropriate for the offender to remain on the register.
- 10 (3) In making a decision under subsection (2), the court must 11 consider—
- 12 (a) the severity of each offence that resulted in the offender being 13 on the register; and
- 14 (b) the age of the offender at the time of each offence; and
- 15 (c) the level of harm to the victim and the community caused by 16 each offence; and
- 17 (d) the period for which the offender has been included on the 18 register; and
- 19 (e) compliance by the offender with any reporting and sentencing 20 obligations; and
- 21 (f) any attempts at rehabilitation by the offender; and
- 22 (g) whether the offender poses a risk to the lives or sexual safety 23 of 1 or more people or of the community; and
- 24 (h) any other circumstances that the court considers relevant.
- 25 (4) The director of public prosecutions may appear in the court on 26 behalf of the victim.

1 122B Notice to victim of proposed application for order

- 2 (1) Before making an application under section 122A, the chief police 3 officer must take reasonable steps to identify, and give notice of the 4 proposed application to, each victim of the registrable offender.
- 5 (2) A notice must include the following:
- 6 (a) an invitation for the victim, a person nominated by the victim, 7 or a member of the victim's family to make a written 8 submission to the chief police officer about the offender being 9 removed from the register, including the likely effect on the 10 victim or the victim's family;
- 11 (b) a statement that any submission made in writing to the chief 12 police officer within the period stated in the notice will be 13 considered in deciding whether to make an application under 14 section 122A;
- 15 (c) information about the offender to assist the victim, nominee or 16 family member to make a submission;
- 17 Example—information
18 the registrable offender's conduct while the offender has been included on 19 the register
- 20 Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend,
21 but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it
22 appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).
- 23 (d) information about any assistance available to the victim, 24 nominee or family member to make the submission.
- 25 (3) For subsection (2) (b), the period stated must be a reasonable time 26 (not less than 7 days after the day the victim is given the notice) to 27 allow the victim, nominee or family member to make a written 28 submission.
- 29 (4) The notice may include anything else the chief police officer 30 considers appropriate.

1 (5) Before giving notice to a victim under this section, the chief police 2 officer must consult with the victims of crime commissioner.

3 122C Order for removal of registrable offender who was young
4 offender at time of offence—application by offender

5 (1) This section applies to an offender who was—6 (a) immediately before the commencement day, a registered 7 offender on the child sex offenders register; and 8 (b) a young offender at the time a registrable offence was 9 committed.

10 (2) The offender may apply to the Magistrates Court for an order that 11 the offender be removed from the child sex offenders register.

12 (3) The offender may apply only once.

13 (4) A copy of the application must be served on—

14 (a) the victims of crime commissioner; and 15 (b) the chief police officer; and 16 (c) the director of public prosecutions.

17 Note For how documents may be served, see the Legislation Act, pt 19.5.

18 (5) After receiving a copy of the application, the chief police officer 19 must take reasonable steps to identify, and give notice of the 20 application to, each victim of the registrable offender.

21 (6) A notice must—

22 (a) state that the victim, a person nominated by the victim, or a 23 member of the victim's family may make a written submission 24 to the court about the offender being removed from the 25 register, including the likely effect on the victim or the victim's 26 family; and

- 1 (b) include information about the offender to assist the victim, 2 nominee or family member to make a submission; and
- 3 Example—information
4 the registrable offender’s conduct while the offender has been included on 5 the register
- 6 Note An example is part of the Act, is not exhaustive and may extend,
7 but does not limit, the meaning of the provision in which it
8 appears (see Legislation Act, s 126 and s 132).
- 9 (c) include information about any assistance available to the
