16 Division 12A.1              Preliminary

17 183A      Definitions—pt 12A

18            In this part:

19            amend, a firearm prohibition order—see section 183W.

20            final order means a final firearm prohibition order made under 21            section 183H.

22            firearm prohibition order means an interim order or final order.

23            interim order means an interim firearm prohibition order made under 24            section 183F.

1            timing notice, for a hearing of an application under this part, means a 2 written notice stating—

- 3            (a) the return date, time and place of the hearing; and 4            (b) that, if the respondent to the application does not appear at the 5 hearing, the court may decide the application in the respondent's
6 absence.

7            vary, a firearm prohibition order, includes:

- 8            (a) amend the order; and
9            (b) impose, amend or remove a condition on the order.

10    Division 12A.2        Making firearm prohibition orders

11    183B        Matters to be considered

12            (1) In deciding whether to make a firearm prohibition order, the 13 Magistrates Court must consider the following:

- 14            (a) to the extent it relates to the order sought—
15                    (i) the respondent's criminal history; and 16                    (ii) the respondent's behaviour; and 17                    (iii) the circumstances of the respondent;

18                    Example—par (iii)

19                    the respondent's age, housing, employment, health, cultural and social 20                    needs

- 21            (b) whether the respondent has, at any time, unlawfully acquired,
22 possessed or used or attempted to acquire, possess or use a
23 firearm or firearm-related item;
24            (c) the likelihood of the respondent acquiring, possessing or using 25 a firearm or firearm-related item if no order is made;

- 1 (d) whether the respondent associates with a person—
2 (i) who has been convicted of a serious offence; or 3 (ii) for the purpose of planning, organising, facilitating,
4 supporting or engaging in the commission of a serious
5 offence;
- 6 (e) the limits the order would have on the human rights of the 7 respondent;
- 8 (f) the limits the order would have on the human rights of any other 9 person affected by the order;
- 10 (g) whether the respondent poses a serious risk to a person or 11 property if no order is made;
- 12 (h) that, if the order is made, a police officer may exercise a power
13 mentioned in division 12A.10 (Enforcement);
- 14 (i) for a final order—whether the respondent was or is subject to an 15 interim order;
- 16 (j) any other information given in support of the application.
- 17 (2) The court may consider anything else it considers relevant in deciding 18 whether to make a firearm prohibition order.
- 19 (3) A failure to comply with subsection (1) in relation to a firearm
20 prohibition order does not affect the validity of the order.

21 183C Application for firearm prohibition order

- 22 (1) The chief police officer may apply to the Magistrates Court for a 23 firearm prohibition order in relation to an adult.

24 Note If a form is approved under the Court Procedures Act 2004, s 8 for an
25 application, the form must be used.

- 1           (2) The chief police officer must consider any matter set out in a
2           guideline made by the Minister under subsection (4) before making 3           an application.
- 4           (3) An application must—
- 5           (a) include the following information (to the extent that the 6           information is known to the chief police officer):
- 7               (i) the name of the respondent;
- 8               (ii) the respondent’s date of birth;
- 9               (iii) the address of any residence of the respondent;
- 10              (iv) the address of any other premises owned, leased or 11              occupied by the respondent;
- 12              Examples
- 13               • a storage facility leased to the respondent
- 14               • premises where the respondent conducts a business
- 15              (v) details of any firearm prohibition order to which the 16              respondent is or has been subject, including any order 17              (however described) made in relation to the respondent in 18              another State that is substantially similar to a firearm
19              prohibition order;
- 20              Note     State includes the Northern Territory (see Legislation Act, 21              dict, pt 1).
- 22              (vi) whether a registered firearm or firearm-related item is 23              stored at the respondent’s residence;
- 24              (vii) any other information prescribed by regulation; and
- 25           (b) set out the grounds on which the order is sought; and
- 26           (c) include the information supporting the grounds on which the 27           order is sought; and
- 28           (d) be accompanied by a supporting affidavit.

1 (4) The Minister may make guidelines about matters the chief police
2 officer must consider before making an application.

3 (5) A guideline is a notifiable instrument.

4 183D Interim order not sought

5 (1) If the Magistrates Court receives an application for a final order and 6 an interim order is not sought, the registrar of the court must—

7 (a) set a return date for a hearing of the application for the final
8 order, which is not later than 30 days after the day the
9 application is filed; and

10 (b) as soon as practicable, give the chief police officer a timing
11 notice for the hearing.

12 (2) As soon as practicable after receiving the timing notice, the chief 13 police officer must ensure the following are personally served on the 14 respondent:

15 (a) a copy of the application and supporting affidavit;

16 (b) a copy of the timing notice.

17 183E Interim order sought

18 (1) If the Magistrates Court receives an application for a final order and 19 an interim order is sought, the registrar of the court must set a return 20 date for a hearing of the application for an interim order, which is not 21 later than 2 days after the day the application is filed.

22 (2) An interim order is made in the absence of the respondent.

23 Note The hearing of an application for an interim order also takes place in 24 closed court (see s 183ZG).

- 1           (3) After the hearing of the application for the interim order, the registrar
2           of the court must—
- 3           (a) set a return date for a hearing of the application for the final
4           order, which is not later than 30 days after the day the
5           application is filed; and
- 6           (b) as soon as practicable, give the chief police officer a timing
7           notice for the hearing.
- 8           (4) As soon as practicable after receiving the timing notice, the chief 9           police officer must ensure the following are personally served on the 10          respondent:
- 11          (a) a copy of the application and supporting affidavit;
- 12          (b) if an interim order is made—a copy of the order;
- 13          (c) a copy of the timing notice.

14       183F      Making interim orders

- 15          (1) The Magistrates Court may, on application, make an interim order if 16          satisfied—
- 17          (a) it is in the public interest to make the order; and
- 18          (b) the order must be urgently made to reduce a significant risk of 19          serious harm to another person; and
- 20          (c) the making of the order in the absence of the respondent is 21          reasonable and justifiable; and
- 22          (d) the respondent has, at any time, unlawfully acquired, possessed 23          or used or attempted to acquire, possess or use a firearm or 24          firearm-related item; and

1 (e) the making of the order is otherwise reasonable and justifiable
2 in the circumstances.

3 Note The Magistrates Court must consider the matters mentioned in s 183B in 4 deciding whether to make an interim order.

5 (2) The court may be satisfied of the matters mentioned in 6 subsection (1) (d) whether or not the respondent has been found
7 guilty of an offence of unlawfully possessing or attempting to possess
8 a firearm or firearm-related item.

9 183G Notice of response—final order

10 (1) A respondent to an application for a final order may file a notice of 11 their response not later than 5 days before the day of the hearing of 12 the application.

13 Note If a form is approved under the Court Procedures Act 2004, s 8 for this 14 provision, the form must be used.

15 (2) The notice must—

16 (a) set out the facts the respondent intends to rely on at the hearing 17 of the application; and

18 (b) be accompanied by a supporting affidavit.

19 (3) The registrar of the Magistrates Court must serve a copy of the notice
20 of response on the chief police officer.

21 (4) The respondent does not waive any right of objection the respondent
22 may have in relation to the application only because the respondent
23 does not file a notice of response.

24 183H Making final orders

25 (1) The Magistrates Court may, on application, make a final order if 26 satisfied—

27 (a) it is in the public interest to make the order; and

- 1 (b) the respondent has, at any time, unlawfully acquired, possessed
2 or used or attempted to acquire, possess or use a firearm or
3 firearm-related item; and
- 4 (c) the making of the order is reasonable and justifiable in the 5 circumstances.
- 6 Note The Magistrates Court must consider the matters mentioned in s 183B in 7 deciding whether to make a final order.
- 8 (2) The court may be satisfied of the matters mentioned in 9 subsection (1) (b) whether or not the respondent has been found
10 guilty of an offence of unlawfully possessing or attempting to possess
11 a firearm or firearm-related item.
- 12 (3) The court may, on application under section 183C, make another final 13 order (a further final order) in relation to a respondent who at the 14 time the application is made is already subject to a final order 15 (a current order).
- 16 (4) However, the court may only make the further final order—17 (a) within 90 days before the end of the current order; or 18 (b) after the end of the current order.
- 19 (5) Subsection (4) does not limit the number of further final orders the 20 court may make.
- 21 (6) The chief police officer must ensure that a copy of a final order is 22 personally served on the respondent if the respondent is not present
23 at the hearing when the final order is made.

24 183I Period firearm prohibition order in force

- 25 (1) An interim order is in force for the period—
26 (a) beginning on the day the order is served on the respondent; and

- 1 (b) ending on the earliest of the following:
- 2 (i) the day the interim order is revoked;
- 3 (ii) the day the application for a final order in relation to the
- 4 interim order is withdrawn or dismissed;
- 5 (iii) the day a final order in relation to the interim order begins;
- 6 (iv) 30 days after the day the interim order begins.
- 7 (2) A final order is in force for the period beginning on—
- 8 (a) if the respondent is present when the order is made—the day the
- 9 order is made; or
- 10 (b) if the respondent is not present when the order is made—the day
- 11 the order is served on the respondent.
- 12 (3) A further final order is in force for the period beginning on—
- 13 (a) if the respondent is present when the further final order is
- 14 made—the day after the current order ends; or
- 15 (b) if the respondent is not present when the further final order is
- 16 made—
- 17 (i) if the further final order is served on the respondent before
- 18 the current order ends—the day after the current order
- 19 ends; or
- 20 (ii) if the further final order is served on the respondent after
- 21 the current order ends—the day the further final order is
- 22 served on the respondent.
- 23 (4) A final order ceases to be in force on the earlier of the following:
- 24 (a) the day the order is revoked;
- 25 (b) 3 years after the day the order begins.

1 (5) In this section:

2 current order—see section 183H (2).

3 further final order—see section 183H (2).

4 183J Explaining orders if respondent present

5 (1) This section applies if—

6 (a) the Magistrates Court intends to make a firearm prohibition
7 order; and

8 (b) the respondent is present at the hearing.

9 (2) On making the firearm prohibition order, the court must explain to 10 the respondent, in language likely to be readily understood by the 11 respondent—

12 (a) the purpose, terms and effect of the order; and

13 (b) the consequences that may follow if the respondent fails to 14 comply with the order; and

15 (c) how the order may be amended or reviewed.

16 (3) The court must also give the respondent a copy of the firearm
17 prohibition order.

18 (4) A failure of the court to comply with this section in relation to a 19 firearm prohibition order does not affect the validity of the order.

20 183K Contents of firearm prohibition order

21 (1) A firearm prohibition order must include the following information:

22 (a) a statement about when the order begins;

23 (b) the period for which the order is in force;

24 (c) any conditions imposed on the order under division 12A.3;

- 1 (d) the address of any residence of the person subject to the order;
- 2 (e) the address of any other premises owned, leased or occupied by
- 3 the person subject to the order.
- 4 Examples—par (e)
- 5 • a storage facility leased to the person subject to the order
- 6 • premises where the person subject to the order conducts a business
- 7 (2) Also, the firearm prohibition order must include information about
- 8 the following:
- 9 (a) the effect of—
- 10 (i) section 183M (Prohibition on acquiring, possessing or
- 11 using firearm or firearm-related item); and
- 12 (ii) section 183N (Suspension and cancellation of licences and
- 13 permits);
- 14 (b) the offences and related penalties mentioned in—
- 15 (i) section 183Q (Offence—acquire, possess or use of firearm
- 16 or firearm-related item); and
- 17 (ii) section 183R (Offence—fail to surrender licence or
- 18 permit); and
- 19 (iii) section 183S (Offence—fail to surrender firearm or
- 20 firearm-related item); and
- 21 (iv) section 183T (Offence—enter or remain at prohibited
- 22 premises); and
- 23 (v) section 183U (Offences—dispose of firearm or
- 24 firearm-related item to person subject to firearm
- 25 prohibition order); and
- 26 (vi) section 183V (Offence—fail to notify change of residence
- 27 or other premises);

- 1 (c) the powers of police under division 12A.10 (Enforcement);
2 (d) the person's right to seek an amendment of the order;
3 (e) the person's right of review and appeal under this part.

4 183L Reasons for order

5 If the Magistrates Court makes a firearm prohibition order, the court
6 must record the reasons for making the order.

7 Division 12A.3 Conditions of firearm prohibition
8 orders

9 183M Prohibition on acquiring, possessing or using firearm or 10 firearm-related item

11 If a firearm prohibition order is made in relation to a person, the 12 person must not acquire, possess or use a firearm or firearm-related 13 item while the order is in force.

14 183N Suspension and cancellation of licences and permits

- 15 (1) If an interim order is made in relation to a person who is the holder
16 of a licence or permit, the person's licence or permit is suspended.
17 (2) If a final order is made in relation to a person who is the holder of a 18 licence or permit, the person's licence or permit is cancelled.

19 183O Conditions in relation to licenses, permits, firearms and 20 firearm-related items

21 (1) The Magistrates Court must impose a condition on a firearm
22 prohibition order that a firearm or firearm-related item be removed 23 by a stated time from the residence of the person subject to the order
24 if the court is satisfied—

- 25 (a) a firearm or firearm-related item, owned by a person other than 26 the person subject to the order, is stored at the residence; and

- 1 (b) the person subject to the order intends to live at the residence
2 while the firearm prohibition order is in force.
- 3 (2) If the court is satisfied a person subject to the order holds a licence or 4 permit, the court may impose a condition that the person surrender
5 the licence or permit to a police officer within a stated time.
- 6 (3) If the court is satisfied a person subject to the order is in possession
7 of a firearm or firearm-related item, the court may impose a condition
8 that the person surrender the firearm or firearm-related item to a 9 police officer within a stated time.

10 183P Enter or remain at prohibited premises

- 11 (1) The Magistrates Court may impose a condition on a firearm
12 prohibition order that the person subject to the order may enter or 13 remain at prohibited premises if satisfied the person has a genuine 14 reason for entering or remaining at the premises.
- 15 (2) The condition may—
- 16 (a) state particular prohibited premises or other conditions about 17 entering or remaining at premises; and
- 18 (b) have effect for a period stated in the order that is shorter than the 19 length of the order.
- 20 (3) For this section, a person has a genuine reason for entering or 21 remaining at prohibited premises if—
- 22 (a) the premises are owned, leased or occupied by a relative of the 23 person and the relative consents to the person entering or 24 remaining at the premises; or
- 25 (b) the person is required to enter or remain at the premises in the 26 course of the person's lawful employment or a lawful business
27 carried on by the person; or

1 (c) the person has another reason that the court considers to be a
2 genuine reason; or

3 (d) the person has another reason prescribed by regulation.

4 Division 12A.4 Effect of firearm prohibition orders

5 183Q Offence—acquire, possess or use of firearm or
6 firearm-related item

7 (1) A person commits an offence if the person—

8 (a) is subject to a firearm prohibition order; and

9 (b) acquires, possesses or uses a firearm or firearm-related item.

10 Maximum penalty: imprisonment for 10 years.

11 (2) Strict liability applies to subsection (1) (a).

12 183R Offence—fail to surrender licence or permit

13 (1) A person commits an offence if the person—

14 (a) is subject to a firearm prohibition order; and

15 (b) recklessly or negligently fails to surrender each licence or permit
16 held by the person—

17 (i) if a police officer has personally served the order on the 18 person and the person has access to the licence or permit
19 when the order is served—to the officer when the order is 20 served; or

21 (ii) if a police officer has personally served the order on the 22 person and the person does not have access to the licence
23 or permit when the order is served—to a police officer in 24 the way directed by the police officer who serves the order, 25 and within 24 hours after the order is served; or

- 1 (iii) if the order is subject to a condition imposed under
2 section 183O (2) that the person surrender the licence or 3 permit within a stated time—to a police officer within the 4 stated time.

5 Maximum penalty: imprisonment for 5 years.

- 6 (2) Strict liability applies to subsection (1) (a).
7 (3) Subsection (1) does not apply if the defendant has a reasonable
8 excuse.

9 Note The defendant has an evidential burden in relation to the matters
10 mentioned in s (3) (see Criminal Code, s 58).

- 11 (4) Subsection (1) (b) (iii) applies in relation to a person whether or not—12 (a) the person was present when the firearm prohibition order was 13 made; or
14 (b) a police officer personally served the order on the person.

15 183S Offence—fail to surrender firearm or firearm-related item

- 16 (1) A person commits an offence if the person—
17 (a) is subject to a firearm prohibition order; and 18 (b) recklessly or negligently fails to surrender each firearm or 19 firearm-related item in the person’s possession—
20 (i) if a police officer has personally served the order on the 21 person and the person has access to the firearm or 22 firearm-related item when the order is served—to the 23 officer when the order is served; or

- 1 (ii) if a police officer has personally served the order on the
2 person and the person does not have access to the firearm
3 or firearm-related item when the order is served—to a
4 police officer in the way directed by the police officer who 5 serves the order, and within 24 hours after the order is 6 served; or
- 7 (iii) if the order is subject to a condition imposed under 8 section 183O (3) that the person surrender the firearm or 9 firearm-related item within a stated time—to a police
10 officer within the stated time.

11 Maximum penalty: imprisonment for 5 years.

- 12 (2) Strict liability applies to subsection (1) (a).
- 13 (3) Subsection (1) does not apply if the defendant has a reasonable
14 excuse.

15 Note The defendant has an evidential burden in relation to the matters
16 mentioned in s (3) (see Criminal Code, s 58).

- 17 (4) Subsection (1) (b) (iii) applies in relation to a person whether or not—
- 18 (a) the person was present when the firearm prohibition order was 19 made; or
- 20 (b) a police officer personally served the order on the person.

21 183T Offence—enter or remain at prohibited premises

- 22 (1) A person commits an offence if the person—
- 23 (a) is subject to a firearm prohibition order; and
- 24 (b) enters or remains at prohibited premises.

25 Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units, imprisonment for 1 year or 26 both.

- 27 (2) Strict liability applies to subsection (1) (a).

- 1 (3) Subsection (1) does not apply—
2 (a) if the defendant enters or remains at premises—
3 (i) in accordance with a condition of the firearm prohibition
4 order imposed under section 183P (1); or 5 (ii) to comply with a court order; or 6 (iii) while in lawful custody; or 7 (b) if the defendant enters or remains at premises in accordance with 8 a condition of the firearm prohibition order imposed under 9 section 183O (1); or
10 (c) if the defendant has a reasonable excuse.

11 Note The defendant has an evidential burden in relation to the matters
12 mentioned in s (3) (see Criminal Code, s 58).

13 183U Offences—dispose of firearm or firearm-related item to 14 person subject to firearm prohibition order

- 15 (1) A person commits an offence if the person—
16 (a) either—
17 (i) disposes of a firearm to another person; or 18 (ii) takes part in the disposal of a firearm to another person;
19 and
20 (b) knows that the other person is subject to a firearm prohibition
21 order.

22 Maximum penalty: imprisonment for 7 years.

- 23 (2) A person commits an offence if the person—
24 (a) either—
25 (i) disposes of a firearm-related item to another person; or

- 1 (ii) takes part in the disposal of a firearm-related item to 2 another person; and
- 3 (b) knows that the other person is subject to a firearm prohibition
4 order.
- 5 Maximum penalty: imprisonment for 3 years.
- 6 (3) For this section, a person takes part in the disposal of a firearm or 7 firearm-related item if the person—
- 8 (a) takes, or takes part in, a step in the process of the disposal, or 9 causes a step to be taken; or
- 10 (b) provides or arranges finance for a step in the process of disposal; 11 or
- 12 (c) provides access to the premises where a step in the process is 13 taken, or allows a step in the process to be taken at premises that 14 the person owns, leases or occupies.

15 183V Offence—fail to notify change of residence or other
16 premises

- 17 (1) A person subject to a firearm prohibition order must notify the chief 18 police officer of a change in a particular that relates to either of the 19 following within 7 days after the day the change occurs:
- 20 (a) the person's residence;
- 21 (b) any other premises owned, leased or occupied by the person.
- 22 (2) A person commits an offence if the person—
- 23 (a) is subject to a firearm prohibition order; and
- 24 (b) fails to notify the chief police officer of a change in a particular 25 that relates to either of the following within 7 days after the day
26 the change occurs:
- 27 (i) the person's residence;

1 (ii) any other premises owned, leased or occupied by the
2 person.

3 Maximum penalty: imprisonment for 5 years.

4 (3) Strict liability applies to subsection (2) (a).

5 (4) Subsection (2) does not apply if the defendant has a reasonable
6 excuse.

7 Note The defendant has an evidential burden in relation to the matters
8 mentioned in s (4) (see Criminal Code, s 58).

9 (5) On being notified of a change under subsection (1), the chief police 10 officer must apply to amend the firearm prohibition order under 11 section 183X.

12 Division 12A.5 Amendment of firearm prohibition 13 orders

14 183W Meaning of amend—pt 12A

15 In this part:

16 amend, a firearm prohibition order, means—

17 (a) impose, amend or remove a condition on the order to enter or 18 remain at prohibited premises; or

19 (b) amend information in the order in relation to a change in a 20 particular that relates to—

21 (i) the residence of the person subject to the order; or

22 (ii) any other premises owned, leased or occupied by the 23 person.

- 1 183X Application for amendment of firearm prohibition order
- 2 (1) The Magistrates Court may amend a firearm prohibition order
- 3 (the original order) on application by—
- 4 (a) the chief police officer; or
- 5 (b) the person subject to the order.
- 6 Note If a form is approved under the Court Procedures Act 2004, s 8 for an
- 7 application, the form must be used.
- 8 (2) An application for an amendment of an original order by the chief
- 9 police officer may be made on the following grounds only:
- 10 (a) a change in a particular that relates to the residence of the person
- 11 subject to the order;
- 12 (b) a change in a particular that relates to any other premises owned,
- 13 leased or occupied by the person.
- 14 (3) An application for an amendment by the person subject to an original
- 15 order may only be made to impose or change a condition to enter or
- 16 remain at prohibited premises.

17 183Y Amendment of firearm prohibition order

- 18 (1) If the Magistrates Court receives an application under section 183X,
- 19 the registrar of the court must do the following:
- 20 (a) set a return date for a hearing of the application, which is to be
- 21 as soon as practicable after the day the application is filed;
- 22 (b) as soon as practicable, give the applicant a timing notice for the
- 23 hearing;
- 24 (c) if the respondent is the chief police officer—personally serve on
- 25 the respondent—
- 26 (i) a copy of the application; and
- 27 (ii) a copy of the timing notice.

- 1 (2) However, if the application is made by the chief police officer
2 because section 183V (5) applies and the person subject to the order
3 agrees, the court may amend the order on the basis of documents,
4 without the chief police officer or the person subject to the firearm
5 prohibition order appearing at a hearing.
- 6 (3) If the applicant is the chief police officer, the chief police officer
7 must, as soon as practicable after receiving the timing notice, ensure
8 the following are personally served on the respondent:
- 9 (a) a copy of the application;
10 (b) a copy of the timing notice.
- 11 (4) The court may amend a firearm prohibition order only if satisfied the 12 order as amended could be made on application for a firearm
13 prohibition order.
- 14 (5) The chief police officer must ensure that a copy of the amended order 15 is personally served on the respondent if the respondent is the person 16 subject to the order and was not present when the court amended the 17 order.

18 Division 12A.6 Review of firearm prohibition orders

19 183Z Application for review

- 20 (1) The following people may apply to the Magistrates Court for review 21 of a firearm prohibition order:
- 22 (a) the chief police officer;
23 (b) the person subject to the order, but only with the court's leave;
24 (c) any other person affected by the order, but only with the court's 25 leave.

26 Note If a form is approved under the Court Procedures Act 2004, s 8 for an
27 application, the form must be used.

- 1           (2) On receiving an application to review a firearm prohibition order, the 2 registrar of the court must do the following:
- 3           (a) set a return date for a hearing of the application, which is to be 4 as soon as practicable after the day the application is filed;
- 5           (b) as soon as practicable, give the applicant a timing notice for the 6 hearing;
- 7           (c) if the respondent is the chief police officer—personally serve on 8 the respondent—
- 9                 (i) a copy of the application; and 10                (ii) a copy of the timing notice.
- 11          (3) If the applicant is the chief police officer, the chief police officer
12 must, as soon as practicable after receiving the timing notice, ensure 13 the following are personally served on the respondent:
- 14           (a) a copy of the application;
15           (b) a copy of the timing notice.
- 16          (4) If the court must give the applicant leave before hearing an 17 application to review a firearm prohibition order, the registrar of the 18 court must do the following:
- 19           (a) set a return date for a hearing of the application for leave;
20           (b) give the applicant a timing notice for the hearing.

21 183ZA Application for leave to review

- 22          (1) The Magistrates Court may give leave to a person subject to a firearm 23 prohibition order to apply to the court for review of the order only in 24 relation to any of the following:
- 25           (a) an administrative defect or error in the order;

- 1 (b) a change in the circumstances of the person;
- 2 Example
- 3 a change in the person's housing, employment, health or cultural and social
- 4 needs
- 5 (c) the effect of the order, including any conditions of the order or
- 6 the exercise of powers under division 12A.10 (Enforcement),
- 7 which limits the human rights of the person in a way that is not
- 8 reasonable or justifiable.
- 9 (2) The court may give leave to a person affected by the order to apply to
- 10 the court for review of the order only in relation to the ground
- 11 mentioned in subsection (1) (c).
- 12 (3) The court may give leave under subsection (1) or (2) only if satisfied
- 13 it is in the interests of justice to do so.
- 14 (4) The court may hear the application to review the firearm prohibition
- 15 order immediately following the giving of leave under this section.

16 183ZB Determination of review of firearm prohibition order

- 17 (1) On hearing an application under section 183Z to review a firearm
- 18 prohibition order (the original order), the Magistrates Court must—
- 19 (a) dismiss the application; or
- 20 (b) make an order to:
- 21 (i) confirm the original order; or
- 22 (ii) revoke the original order; or
- 23 (iii) vary the original order.
- 24 (2) Before making an order confirming or revoking the original order, the
- 25 court must consider the matters mentioned in section 183B.
- 26 (3) The court may consider anything else it considers relevant on hearing
- 27 the application.

- 1 (4) The court may make an order confirming the original order only if 2 satisfied—
- 3 (a) it continues to be in the public interest for the original order to 4 be in force; and
- 5 (b) it is reasonable and justifiable in the circumstances for the 6 original order to be in force.
- 7 (5) The court may make an order revoking the original order only if no
8 longer satisfied—
- 9 (a) it continues to be in the public interest for the original order to 10 be in force; and
- 11 (b) it is reasonable and justifiable in the circumstances for the 12 original order to be in force.
- 13 (6) The court may make an order varying the original order only if 14 satisfied the order as varied could be made on application for a 15 firearm prohibition order.
- 16 (7) The chief police officer must ensure that a copy of an order made 17 under subsection (1) (b) is personally served on the person subject to 18 the order if the person was not present when the court made the order.

19 Division 12A.7 Revocation of firearm prohibition
20 orders

21 183ZC Application for revocation

- 22 (1) The chief police officer must apply to the Magistrates Court for the 23 revocation of a firearm prohibition order in relation to a person if the 24 chief police officer no longer believes it is necessary for the person to 25 be subject to the order.

26 Note If a form is approved under the Court Procedures Act 2004, s 8 for an
27 application, the form must be used.

- 1 (2) An application for revocation must be accompanied by a supporting 2 affidavit.
- 3 (3) On receiving an application from the chief police officer to revoke a 4 firearm prohibition order, the registrar of the court must do the 5 following:
- 6 (a) set a return date for a hearing of the application, which is to be 7 as soon as practicable after the day the application is filed;
- 8 (b) as soon as practicable, give the applicant a timing notice for the 9 hearing.
- 10 (4) The chief police officer must, as soon as practicable after receiving 11 the timing notice, ensure the following are personally served on the 12 person subject to the firearm prohibition order:
- 13 (a) a copy of the application;
- 14 (b) a copy of the timing notice.

15 183ZD Determination of application for revocation

- 16 (1) On hearing an application under section 183ZC to revoke a firearm
17 prohibition order (the original order), the Magistrates Court must—
- 18 (a) dismiss the application; or
- 19 (b) make an order to:
- 20 (i) confirm the original order; or
- 21 (ii) revoke the original order.
- 22 (2) Before making an order confirming or revoking the original order, the 23 court must consider the matters mentioned in section 183B.
- 24 (3) The court may consider anything else it considers relevant on hearing
25 the application.

- 1 (4) The court may make an order confirming the original order only if 2 satisfied—
- 3 (a) it continues to be in the public interest for the original order to 4 be in force; and
- 5 (b) it is reasonable and justifiable in the circumstances for the 6 original order to be in force.
- 7 (5) The court may make an order revoking the original order only if no
8 longer satisfied—
- 9 (a) it continues to be in the public interest for the original order to 10 be in force; and
- 11 (b) it is reasonable and justifiable in the circumstances for the 12 original order to be in force.
- 13 (6) The chief police officer must ensure that a copy of an order made 14 under subsection (1) (b) is personally served on the person subject to 15 the order if the person was not present when the court made the order.

16 183ZE Revocation by consent

- 17 On application under section 183ZC, the Magistrates Court may 18 revoke a firearm prohibition order with the consent of the parties to 19 the proceeding—
- 20 (a) whether or not the parties have attended, or any party has 21 attended, before the court in relation to the application; and
- 22 (b) whether or not any ground for making the order under 23 section 183ZD has been made out; and
- 24 (c) whether or not the court has considered the matters mentioned 25 in section 183B.

1 Division 12A.8 Procedural matters

2 Subdivision 12A.8.1 Hearings

3 183ZF Hearings usually in public

4 The hearing of an application for an order or decision under this part 5 must be in public unless—

- 6 (a) section 183ZG applies; or 7 (b) the court makes an order under section 183ZH; or 8 (c) section 183ZZP applies.

9 183ZG Closed court for interim order hearings

10 The hearing of an application for an interim order must take place in 11 private and in the absence of—

- 12 (a) the person in relation to whom the order is sought; and 13 (b) the person's representative; and
14 (c) any other interested party.

15 183ZH Closed court in special circumstances

16 (1) This section applies if a court is hearing an application for an order or 17 decision under this part, other than an application for an interim order.

18 (2) If satisfied it is in the public interest or the interests of justice, the 19 court may make an order—

- 20 (a) permitting—
21 (i) the hearing, or part of the hearing, to take place in private;
22 and
23 (ii) only stated people to be present at the hearing; or

- 1 (b) prohibiting or restricting the publication of—
- 2 (i) evidence given at, or received for, the hearing, whether in
- 3 public or private; or
- 4 (ii) a matter mentioned in a document filed in the court for the
- 5 proceeding; or
- 6 (c) prohibiting or restricting the disclosure to some or all of the
- 7 parties to the proceeding of—
- 8 (i) evidence given, or received, at the hearing, whether in
- 9 public or private; or
- 10 (ii) a matter mentioned in a document filed in the court for the
- 11 proceeding.
- 12 (3) A person commits an offence if the person fails to comply with an
- 13 order under this section.
- 14 Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units, imprisonment for 1 year or
- 15 both.
- 16 (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if the defendant has a reasonable
- 17 excuse.
- 18 Note The defendant has an evidential burden in relation to the matters
- 19 mentioned in s (4) (see Criminal Code, s 58).

20 Subdivision 12A.8.2 Service of documents

21 183ZI Firearm prohibition order to be given to registrar

22 If the Magistrates Court makes a firearm prohibition order, the chief

23 police officer must give a copy of the order to the registrar.

24 183ZJ Alternative service

- 25 (1) This section applies if a document must be personally served on a
- 26 person under this part.

- 1 (2) If personal service is not reasonably practicable, the Magistrates
2 Court may order that the document be served in a way, stated in the 3 order, that the court considers is likely to bring the document to the 4 attention of the person.
- 5 (3) If the court makes an order under subsection (2), the court may, in the 6 order, provide that the document is taken to have been served—
- 7 (a) on the happening of a stated event; or 8 (b) at a stated time; or 9 (c) at the end of a stated period.

10 183ZK Dismissal of application for non-service

11 The Magistrates Court may dismiss an application for a final order if 12 satisfied—

- 13 (a) the copies of the application, supporting affidavit, timing notice 14 and, if relevant, interim order, cannot be served on the 15 respondent in accordance with section 183D (2) or section 183E
16 (3); and
- 17 (b) no alternative way of service would be effective to serve the 18 application on the respondent; and
- 19 (c) the respondent has not intentionally avoided service.

20 183ZL Affidavit of service of documents by police

21 If a police officer serves a document on a person under this part, an 22 affidavit of service by the officer may be sworn or affirmed before
23 another police officer of, or above, the rank of sergeant.

24 Note An affidavit may also be sworn or affirmed before a person mentioned in 25 the Oaths and Affirmations Act 1984, s 11.

1 Subdivision 12A.8.3 Non-attendance by party at proceeding

2 183ZM Meaning of order—sdiv 12A.8.3

3 In this subdivision:

4 order means—

- 5 (a) a final order; or
- 6 (b) an order amending a firearm prohibition order; or
- 7 (c) an order varying a firearm prohibition order; or
- 8 (d) an order revoking a firearm prohibition order; or
- 9 (e) any other order arising from the review of a firearm prohibition
- 10 order; or
- 11 (f) a decision in relation to the giving of leave to a person to apply
- 12 for the review of a firearm prohibition order.

13 183ZN Applicant not present at return of application

14 If the applicant is not present at the return of an application for an

15 order before the Magistrates Court, the court must—

- 16 (a) dismiss the application; or
- 17 (b) adjourn the proceeding for the application.

18 183ZO Respondent not present at return of application

19 (1) This section applies to the return of an application for an order before

20 the Magistrates Court if the respondent—

- 21 (a) has been served with copies of the application, supporting
- 22 affidavit (if relevant) and timing notice; and
- 23 (b) is not present at the return.

- 1           (2) The court must—
2               (a) decide the application in the respondent's absence; or 3               (b) adjourn the hearing.
- 4           (3) If the court adjourns the hearing, the court must—5               (a) give a direction that the respondent appear before the court on 6               the day the hearing is adjourned to; or 7               (b) issue a summons requiring the respondent to appear before the 8               court on the day the hearing is adjourned to.
- 9           (4) This section does not prevent the court from making an order in the 10           proceeding.

11   183ZP   Neither party present at return of application

12           If neither party to an application for an order is present at the return
13           of the application before the Magistrates Court, the court may order 14           the proceeding be dismissed.

15   Division 12A.9        Appeals

16   183ZQ   Appealable decisions and orders

17           The following decisions or orders by the Magistrates Court under this 18           part are appealable:

- 19           (a) the making, amending, confirming, varying or revoking of a 20           firearm prohibition order;
- 21           (b) a refusal to make, amend, confirm, vary or revoke a firearm
22           prohibition order;
- 23           (c) a refusal to give leave to a person to apply for the review of a 24           firearm prohibition order;
- 25           (d) a decision about whether information is security sensitive
26           information.

1 183ZR Appeals to Supreme Court

2 (1) A person may appeal to the Supreme Court against a decision or order
3 mentioned in section 183ZQ if the person was a party to the 4 proceeding in which the decision was made.

5 (2) The person must file a notice of appeal with the court not later than 6 28 days after—

7 (a) if the original decision or order was the making, amending or 8 varying of a final order and the person the subject of the order
9 was not present when the final order was made, amended or 10 varied—the day the final order, amendment or variation is 11 served on the person; or

12 (b) in any other case—the date of the original decision or order.

13 (3) However, the court may allow a person to file a notice of appeal after 14 the period mentioned in subsection (2) if satisfied it is appropriate.

15 183ZS Evidence on appeal

16 In an appeal, the Supreme Court must consider the evidence given in 17 the proceeding from which the appeal arose, and has power to draw
18 inferences of fact and, in its discretion, to receive further evidence.

19 183ZT Powers of Supreme Court on appeal

20 On an appeal, the Supreme Court may—

21 (a) confirm, reverse or vary the original decision or order; or

22 (b) make the decision or order that, in the circumstances, it
23 considers appropriate, or refuse to make an order; or

24 (c) set aside the original decision or order, completely or partly, and 25 remit the proceedings to the Magistrates Court for further
26 hearing, subject to the directions the Supreme Court considers 27 appropriate.

1 183ZU Effect of filing appeal

2 The filing of an appeal against the following does not affect the 3 operation of the original decision or order to which the appeal relates:

- 4 (a) the making, amending or varying of a firearm prohibition order;
5 (b) a decision about whether information is security sensitive
6 information.

7 Division 12A.10 Enforcement

8 Subdivision 12A.10.1 General

9 183ZV Disapplication of pt 14

10 Part 14 (Enforcement) does not apply to this division, unless 11 otherwise stated.

12 Subdivision 12A.10.2 Powers of police officers

13 183ZW Requirements before certain powers can be exercised

14 (1) This section applies to the exercise of any of the following powers by 15 a police officer in relation to a person subject to a firearm prohibition
16 order:

- 17 (a) searching the person under section 183ZX;
18 (b) entering premises without a warrant under section 183ZY;
19 (c) entering premises without a warrant under section 183ZZ.

20 (2) The police officer must not exercise the power unless satisfied 21 exercising the power is reasonably required to determine that the 22 person has acquired, possesses or is using a firearm or firearm-related 23 item in contravention of the firearm prohibition order.

- 1           (3) For subsection (2), the police officer must take the following into 2           account:
- 3           (a) whether the officer has credible information that suggests the 4           person has acquired, possesses or is using a firearm or 5           firearm-related item;
- 6           (b) if exercising a power of entry between 9 pm and 6 am into 7           premises that are the residence of the person—whether—
- 8                 (i) it is necessary to enter the premises at that time; and 9                 (ii) it is impractical to enter the premises at another time; and 10                (iii) another person, including a child, is likely to be present at 11                the premises at that time;
- 12           (c) the effect on another person likely to be present during the 13           exercise of the power;
- 14           (d) the importance of the person’s privacy and the privacy of any 15           other person who may be affected by the exercise of the power;
- 16           (e) the person’s circumstances, to the extent they are known to the 17           officer;
- 18                Example
19                the person’s housing, employment, health, cultural and social needs
- 20           (f) how often and recently a power mentioned in subsection (1) has 21           been used in relation to the person.
- 22           (4) For subsection (2), the police officer may take any other matter into 23           account, including the following:
- 24           (a) the person’s criminal history;
- 25           (b) the person’s behaviour;
- 26           (c) the other people with whom the person associates.

- 1           (5) The police officer is not required to consider the matter mentioned in 2           subsection (3) (f) if—
- 3                 (a) the power is intended to be exercised because of unplanned and 4                 urgent circumstances; and
- 5                 (b) it is unreasonable for the officer to obtain the information
6                 required to take the matter into account.

7   183ZX   Power to search person and seize things

- 8           (1) A police officer may conduct a frisk search or an ordinary search of 9           a person subject to a firearm prohibition order.
- 10          (2) The police officer who conducts the search may stop and detain the 11          person being searched for as long as is reasonably necessary to 12          conduct the search.
- 13          (3) If practicable, a search must be carried out by a police officer of the 14          same sex as the person being searched.
- 15          (4) The police officer who conducts the search must tell the person about 16          the search and the reasons for the search.
- 17          (5) The police officer who conducts the search may seize any firearm or 18          firearm-related item—
- 19                 (a) found on the person or in any thing in the person’s possession;
20                 or
- 21                 (b) that the person has acquired, possesses or is using.
- 22          (6) The police officer may also seize any other thing found on the person
23          or in any thing in the person’s possession if satisfied on reasonable 24          grounds—
- 25                 (a) the thing is connected with an offence against this Act or a 26                 serious offence; and

- 1 (b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing from being—
2 (i) concealed, lost or destroyed; or
3 (ii) used to commit, continue or repeat the offence.

4 (7) In this section:

5 frisk search means—

- 6 (a) a search of a person conducted by quickly running the hands
7 over the person's outer garments; and 8 (b) an examination of anything worn or carried by the person that is 9 conveniently and voluntarily removed by the person.

10 ordinary search means a search of a person or of the person's 11 personal property that may include—

- 12 (a) requiring the person to remove their overcoat, coat or jacket and 13 any gloves, shoes, socks or hat; and 14 (b) an examination of those items or personal property.

15 personal property, of a person, means things carried by the person or 16 things apparently in the immediate control of the person, but does not 17 include clothing being worn by the person.

18 183ZY Power to enter and search certain premises and seize
19 things without warrant

- 20 (1) This section applies in relation to a person subject to a firearm
21 prohibition order.
22 (2) A police officer may, at any time, enter the following premises:
23 (a) any residence, of the person, mentioned in the order;
24 (b) if the person is subject to a final order—any other premises
25 owned, leased or occupied, by the person, mentioned in the 26 order;

- 1 (c) a vehicle, vessel or aircraft of which the person is in charge or is 2 a passenger, wherever the vehicle, vessel or aircraft is located.
- 3 (3) On entering the premises, the police officer may:
- 4 (a) search the premises; and
- 5 (b) seize any firearm or firearm-related item found at the premises;
6 and
- 7 (c) for premises mentioned in subsection (2) (c)—stop and detain
8 the vehicle, vessel or aircraft for as long as is reasonably
9 necessary to conduct the search and any seizure.
- 10 (4) The police officer may also seize any other thing at the premises if 11 satisfied on reasonable grounds—
- 12 (a) the thing is connected with an offence against this Act; and
- 13 (b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing from being—
- 14 (i) concealed, lost or destroyed; or
- 15 (ii) used to commit, continue or repeat the offence.
- 16 (5) The police officer may use the force that is reasonably necessary to 17 exercise the powers under this section.

18 183ZZ Power to enter and search other premises and seize
19 things without warrant

- 20 (1) This section applies in relation to a person subject to a firearm
21 prohibition order.
- 22 (2) A police officer may, at any time, enter premises not mentioned in 23 section 183ZY (2) if the officer believes on reasonable grounds the 24 exercise of the power is necessary to prevent the person—
- 25 (a) concealing, losing or destroying a thing connected with an 26 offence against this Act; or

1 (b) committing, continuing or repeating the commission of an
2 offence against this Act.

3 Note The police officer must also consider that the exercise of power is 4 reasonably required to determine that the person has acquired, possesses
5 or is using a firearm or firearm-related item in contravention of a firearm
6 prohibition order to which the person is subject (see s 183ZW).

7 (3) The police officer who enters premises under subsection (2) may 8 search the premises and seize any firearm or firearm-related item
9 found at the premises.

10 (4) The police officer may also seize any other thing found at the 11 premises if satisfied on reasonable grounds—

12 (a) the thing is connected with an offence against this Act; and

13 (b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing from being—

14 (i) concealed, lost or destroyed; or

15 (ii) used to commit, continue or repeat the offence.

16 (5) The police officer may use the force that is reasonably necessary to
17 exercise the powers under this section.

18 183ZZA Notification of intended exercise of power for certain
19 powers

20 (1) This section applies if a police officer intends to exercise a power
21 under section 183ZY or section 183ZZ.

22 (2) Before entering premises, or as soon as possible after entering 23 premises, a police officer must tell the person subject to the firearm
24 prohibition order and any other person present at the premises—

25 (a) that the officer intends to carry out a search of the premises; and

26 (b) how long the search is intended to take; and

27 (c) the reason for exercising the power; and

- 1 (d) the provisions of this Act under which the officer is exercising 2 the power.
- 3 (3) The police officer must ensure the matters mentioned in 4 subsection (2) are communicated in a way that the officer believes the 5 person and any other person present is likely to understand.
- 6 (4) If the person is not present at the premises at the time the police
7 officer intends to enter the premises, the officer must take reasonable
8 steps to tell the person of the entry and search and the matters
9 mentioned in subsection (2) as soon as possible after exercising the 10 power.

11 Subdivision 12A.10.3 Warrants

12 183ZZB Warrant required for entry to other premises

- 13 (1) A police officer may apply to a magistrate for a warrant to enter 14 premises not mentioned in section 183ZY (2).
- 15 (2) The application must be sworn and state the grounds on which the 16 warrant is sought.
- 17 (3) The magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the police 18 officer gives the magistrate all the information the magistrate requires 19 about the application in the way the magistrate requires.
- 20 (4) The magistrate may issue a warrant only if satisfied it is reasonably 21 required to determine if a person subject to a firearm prohibition order
22 has acquired, possesses or is using a firearm or firearm-related item 23 in contravention of the order.
- 24 (5) The magistrate must take the following into account in considering 25 whether the issue of the warrant is reasonably required:
- 26 (a) there is credible information that suggests the person has 27 acquired, possesses or is using a firearm or firearm-related item;

- 1 (b) if the police officer is applying for a warrant to enter premises
2 that are the residence of another person between 9 pm and 6
3 am—whether—
- 4 (i) it is necessary to execute the warrant at that time; and 5 (ii) it is impractical to execute the warrant at another time; and 6 (iii) someone else, including a child, is likely to be present at 7 the premises at that time;
- 8 (c) the effect on another person likely to be present during the 9 execution of the warrant;
- 10 (d) the importance of the person’s privacy and the privacy of any 11 other person who may be affected by the execution of the 12 warrant;
- 13 (e) the person’s circumstances, to the extent they are known to the 14 magistrate;
- 15 Example
16 the person’s housing, employment, health, cultural and social needs
- 17 (f) how often and recently a power mentioned in this division has 18 been used in relation to the person.
- 19 (6) The magistrate may take any other matter into account when 20 considering whether the issue of the warrant is reasonably required, 21 including the following:
- 22 (a) the person’s criminal history;
23 (b) the person’s behaviour;
24 (c) the other people with whom the person associates.
- 25 (7) The warrant must state—
- 26 (a) that a police officer may, with any necessary assistance and 27 force, enter stated premises and exercise the officer’s powers
28 under this division; and

- 1 (b) the reason for which the warrant is issued; and 2 (c) the things that may be seized under the warrant; and
3 (d) the hours when the premises may be entered; and 4 (e) the date, within 7 days after the day of the warrant's issue, the 5 warrant ends.

6 183ZZC Application for warrant in urgent or special
7 circumstances

- 8 (1) A police officer may apply to a magistrate for a warrant to enter
9 premises not mentioned in section 183ZY (2) by telephone, fax or 10 other electronic means if the officer considers it necessary because 11 of—
12 (a) urgent circumstances; or
13 (b) other special circumstances.
14 (2) The application must state the grounds on which the warrant is 15 sought.
16 (3) The police officer may apply for the warrant before the application is 17 sworn.
18 (4) If the magistrate issues the warrant, the magistrate must, if 19 practicable, immediately provide a written copy to the police officer.
20 (5) If it is not practicable to provide a written copy of the warrant to the 21 police officer—
22 (a) the magistrate must tell the officer—
23 (i) the date and time the warrant was issued; and 24 (ii) the warrant's terms; and

- 1 (b) the officer must complete a form of warrant (the warrant form)
2 and write on it—
- 3 (i) the magistrate’s name; and
4 (ii) the date and time the magistrate issued the warrant; and 5 (iii) the warrant’s terms.
- 6 (6) The written copy of the warrant, or the warrant form properly 7 completed by the police officer, authorises the entry and exercise of 8 the officer’s powers under the warrant.
- 9 (7) The police officer must, at the first reasonable opportunity, send to 10 the magistrate—
- 11 (a) the sworn application; and
12 (b) if the officer completed a warrant form—the completed warrant 13 form.
- 14 (8) On receiving the documents, the magistrate must attach them to the 15 warrant.
- 16 (9) A court must find that a power exercised by a police officer was not 17 authorised by a warrant under this section if—
- 18 (a) the question arises in a proceeding in the court whether the 19 exercise of power was authorised by a warrant; and 20 (b) the warrant is not produced in evidence; and 21 (c) it is not proved that the exercise of power was authorised by a
22 warrant under this section.

23 183ZZD Requirements in executing warrant

24 Division 14.3, other than section 211 and section 212, applies in 25 relation to the execution of a warrant issued under section 183ZZB or 26 section 183ZZC as if the warrant were issued under section 211 or 27 section 212.

1 183ZZE Execution of warrant at premises

- 2 (1) A police officer who enters premises in accordance with a warrant
3 issued under section 183ZZB or section 183ZZC may search the 4 premises and seize any firearm or firearm-related item found at the 5 premises.
- 6 (2) The police officer may also seize any other thing found at the 7 premises if satisfied on reasonable grounds—
- 8 (a) the thing is connected with an offence against this Act; and 9 (b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing from being—
- 10 (i) concealed, lost or destroyed; or
11 (ii) used to commit, continue or repeat the offence.

12 Subdivision 12A.10.4 Seizure of things

13 183ZZF Seizure of things

- 14 (1) A police officer who seizes a thing under this division may—
- 15 (a) remove the thing from the premises where it was seized 16 (the place of seizure) to another place; or
- 17 (b) leave the thing at the place of seizure but restrict access to it.
- 18 (2) A person commits an offence if—
- 19 (a) the person interferes with a seized thing, or anything containing 20 a seized thing, to which access has been restricted under 21 subsection (1); and
- 22 (b) the person knows access to the seized thing has been restricted; 23 and
- 24 (c) the person does not have a police officer's approval to interfere 25 with the thing.

26 Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

1 (3) Strict liability applies to subsection (2) (a).

2 183ZZG Receipt for things seized

3 (1) As soon as practicable after a police officer seizes a thing under this 4 division, the officer must give a receipt for it to the person from whom 5 it was seized.

6 (2) If, for any reason, it is not practicable to comply with subsection (1), 7 the police officer must leave the receipt, secured conspicuously, at the 8 premises where it was seized (the place of seizure).

9 (3) The receipt must include the following:

10 (a) a description of the thing seized;

11 (b) an explanation of why the thing was seized;

12 (c) the police officer's name and information about how to contact
13 the officer;

14 (d) if the thing is removed from the place of seizure—the address of 15 the place to which the thing is removed;

16 (e) if a police officer has restricted access to the thing under 17 section 183ZZF (1) (b)—that it is an offence under 18 section 183ZZF (2) to interfere with the thing without a police
19 officer's approval.

20 183ZZH Access to things seized

21 A person who would, apart from the seizure, be entitled to inspect a 22 thing seized under this division may—

23 (a) inspect it; and

24 (b) if it is a document—take extracts from it or make copies of it.

1 183ZZI Securing things

- 2 (1) A police officer may, in exercising a power under this division, secure
3 any thing if satisfied on reasonable grounds—
4 (a) the thing is connected with a serious offence; and 5 (b) securing the thing is necessary to prevent the thing from being—
6 (i) concealed, lost or destroyed; or
7 (ii) used to commit, continue or repeat the offence.
8 (2) The police officer may apply to a magistrate for an order to seize the 9 secured thing.
10 (3) The magistrate may make the order only if satisfied on reasonable
11 grounds the thing is evidence connected with the commission of a 12 serious offence.
13 (4) A secured thing that is seized under an order mentioned in 14 subsection (3) is only admissible as evidence in a proceeding for an 15 offence with leave of the court.
16 (5) In deciding whether to give leave, the court must consider whether 17 the exercise of the power was lawful.

18 183ZZJ Return or forfeiture of things seized

- 19 (1) A thing seized under this division must be returned to its owner, or 20 reasonable compensation must be paid by the Territory to the owner 21 for the loss of the thing, if a prosecution for an offence relating to the 22 thing is not started within 1 year after the day the thing is seized.
23 (2) If a prosecution for an offence relating to a thing seized under this 24 division is started within 1 year after the day the thing is seized, and 25 the prosecution is not successful, the thing must be returned to its 26 owner.

- 1 (3) A thing seized under this division is forfeited to the Territory if there 2 is no requirement under this section—
- 3 (a) to return the thing to the person from whom it was seized; or 4 (b) to pay compensation for the thing.
- 5 (4) A thing forfeited to the Territory may be destroyed or otherwise 6 disposed of as the registrar directs.
- 7 (5) This section does not apply if the thing seized under this division is a 8 firearm or firearm-related item and the owner of the firearm or 9 firearm-related item is subject to a firearm prohibition order.

10 Subdivision 12A.10.5 Miscellaneous

11 183ZZK Written reasons required after exercising certain powers

- 12 (1) This section applies if a police officer exercises any of the following 13 powers:
- 14 (a) searching a person under section 183ZX;
15 (b) entering premises without a warrant under section 183ZY;
16 (c) entering premises without a warrant under section 183ZZ.
- 17 (2) As soon as practicable after exercising the power, the police officer 18 must record, in writing—
- 19 (a) their reasons for deciding the exercise of the power was 20 reasonably required to determine that the person has acquired, 21 possesses or is using a firearm or firearm-related item; and
- 22 (b) the particular matters stated in section 183ZW (3) or (4) that the 23 officer took into account when making their decision; and
- 24 (c) for the power mentioned in subsection (1) (c)—the particular
25 grounds stated in section 183ZZ (2).

1 Division 12A.11 Destruction or disposal of
2 surrendered or seized firearms or
3 firearm-related items

4 183ZZL Destruction or disposal of surrendered or seized firearms
5 or firearm-related items

- 6 (1) This section applies in relation to a firearm or firearm-related item 7 surrendered or seized by a police officer under this part.
- 8 (2) A police officer or the owner of the firearm or firearm-related item 9 may apply to a court for an order that the firearm or firearm-related 10 item is—
- 11 (a) forfeited to the Territory; or 12 (b) returned to the owner; or 13 (c) destroyed; or 14 (d) otherwise disposed of.
- 15 (3) The court may make the order it considers appropriate.
- 16 (4) However, the owner of the firearm or firearm-related item may not 17 bring an application under subsection (2) if the firearm or 18 firearm-related item was not possessed lawfully by the owner prior to 19 the surrender or seizure.
- 20 (5) This section is subject to section 183ZZJ (Return or forfeiture of 21 things seized).

1 Division 12A.12 Annual reporting and ombudsman
2 oversight

3 183ZZM Report to Minister

- 4 (1) The chief police officer must, as soon as practicable after the end of 5 each calendar year, give a written report to the Minister setting out 6 the following in relation to the year:
- 7 (a) the number of applications made for a firearm prohibition order;
  - 8 (b) the number of firearm prohibition orders made;
  - 9 (c) demographic information in relation to each person subject to a 10 firearm prohibition order, but only if the information is not
11 information that identifies a person subject to a firearm
12 prohibition order;
  - 13 (d) the number of times a power under division 12A.10
14 (Enforcement) was exercised and the number of times each
15 power was exercised;
  - 16 (e) the number of firearms and firearm-related items seized during 17 the exercise of a power under division 12A.10;
  - 18 (f) the number of charges laid for offences against this Act
19 connected with searches conducted under division 12A.10;
  - 20 (g) the number of charges laid for any other offences connected with 21 searches conducted under division 12A.10;
  - 22 (h) the number of times a person was found guilty of an offence
23 against this part.
- 24 (2) The Minister must present the report to the Legislative Assembly as 25 soon as practicable after the report is given to the Minister.

1 183ZZN Report to ombudsman

2 The chief police officer must, as soon as practicable after the end of
3 each calendar year, give a written report to the ombudsman setting
4 out the following in relation to the year:

- 5 (a) the number of firearm prohibition orders made;
- 6 (b) the number of times a power under division 12A.10
7 (Enforcement) was exercised and the number of times each
8 power was exercised;
- 9 (c) the kinds of things seized during the exercise of a power under 10 division 12A.10;
- 11 (d) the number of firearms and firearm-related items seized during 12 the exercise of a power under division 12A.10;
- 13 (e) the number of charges laid for offences against this Act
14 connected with searches conducted under division 12A.10;
- 15 (f) the number of charges laid for any other offences connected with 16 searches conducted under division 12A.10.

17 183ZZO Chief police officer to give application and firearm
18 prohibition order to ombudsman

- 19 (1) The chief police officer must, each time a firearm prohibition order is 20 made, give the ombudsman—
- 21 (a) a copy of the application for the order; and 22 (b) a copy of the order.
- 23 (2) The copies of the application and order must be given to the 24 ombudsman within 7 days after the day the order is made.

1 Division 12A.13 Miscellaneous

2 183ZZP Court must decide whether information is security
3 sensitive information

4 (1) The chief police officer must apply to the Magistrates Court for a
5 decision about whether information is security sensitive information
6 if the chief police officer—

7 (a) intends to use the information in a proceeding under this part 8 (a proposed proceeding); and

9 (b) believes on reasonable grounds the information is security
10 sensitive information.

11 Note If a form is approved under the Court Procedures Act 2004, s 8 for 12 an application, the form must be used.

13 (2) An application need not be served on anyone (including the person to 14 whom the proposed proceeding relates) unless the court otherwise
15 orders.

16 (3) On application, the court must decide whether the information is 17 security sensitive information.

18 (4) Unless the chief police officer otherwise agrees, an application must 19 be heard in closed court and in the absence of—

20 (a) the person to whom the proposed proceeding relates; or

21 (b) the person's representative; or

22 (c) any other interested party.

23 (5) If the court decides that all or part of the information is security
24 sensitive information, the court must ensure the security sensitive 25 information is not disclosed in any reasons for the decision.

- 1 (6) If security sensitive information is to be used in the proposed 2 proceeding, the court must decide—
- 3 (a) whether the information is to be disclosed to—
- 4 (i) the person to whom the proposed proceeding relates or 5 their representative; or
- 6 (ii) any other interested party; and
- 7 (b) if the information is to be disclosed—whether the information is
