

STUDENT CONDUCT STATUTE 1992

Citation

1. This Statute may be cited as the Student Conduct Statute 1992.

Repeal

2. The Student Conduct Statute (Statute No. 3 of the Canberra College of Advanced Education) is repealed.

Interpretation

3. In this Statute, unless the contrary intention appears:

"examination" means any task required to be undertaken by a student for the assessment of the student's performance in a unit of study provided by the University and includes:

- (i) any thesis, sub-thesis, dissertation, research project, written report, assignment, essay or other requirement relating to the unit that is undertaken for the assessment of the student's performance in that unit; and
- (ii) bridging requirements, if any, relating to the course in which the student is enrolled; and
- (iii) any requirement to be performed by the student for assessment for the award of a degree of Bachelor with honours.

Council empowered to make rules

4. The Council may make rules, not inconsistent with the University Act or a Statute, with respect to:
 - (a) the regulation of the conduct of students; and
 - (b) misconduct of students in an examination; and
 - (c) the imposition of penalties upon students (including, where appropriate, an order to pay compensation) for contravention of rules made under this section.

Given under the seal of the University of Canberra sponsored by Monash University the fourteenth day of May, 1992.
