Emergency Services (Determination of Fees and Charges for 2002/2003) – 2002 (No 1)

Disallowable instrument DI 2002-98

made under the

Emergency Management Act 1999

Section 79

1. This determination may be cited as Determination of Fees and Charges for 2002/2003 – Emergency Services Bureau.
2. This determination comes into operation on 1 July 2002.
3. Under section 79 of the Emergency Management Act 1999, I REVOKE Determination No 106 of 2001 which was notified in the Australian Capital Territory Gazette No. 24 of 14 June 2001.
4. Under section 79 of the Emergency Management Act 1999, I DETERMINE that the fees payable by a person for a service identified in items 1 to 4 of the schedule of this determination is payable to the ACT.
5. Explanatory notes (including the previous years fee) are included in the schedules in italic text. General explanatory notes are included at the end of schedule in italic text. Explanatory notes in italic text and general explanatory notes in italic text do not form part of the determination. (For example, the following twelve words, if included in a schedule, would not form part of the determination: Explanatory Note: explanatory notes and general explanatory notes are in italic text).

SCHEDULE - FEES AND CHARGES TO BE PAID

General Explanatory Notes

A. Overview of increases in fees and charges

Fees have generally been increased by 2.50% and rounded down to the nearest dollar or appropriate value.

C. Commencement

This comes into effect on 1 July 2002. As the new fees and charges come into effect, the earlier determination of those fees and charges ceases to have effect.

D. GST

With the exception noted below, fees and charges imposed in this instrument are generally exempted from GST by Division 38 of the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 which provides that a supply is GST free if it is provided by an ambulance service in the course of the treatment of the recipient of the supply.

However GST- free status does not extend to item 2 (standby services). In this case, the determined fee has been made inclusive of the 10%GST.
