

Australian Capital Territory

Public Place Names (Casey) Determination 2008 (No 1)

Disallowable instrument DI2008 - 304

made under the

Public Place Names Act 1989— section 3 (Minister to determine names)

I DETERMINE the names of the public places that are Territory land as specified in the attached schedule and as indicated on the associated plan.

Neil Savery
Delegate of the Minister

22 December 2008

SCHEDULE

Public Place Names (Casey) Determination 2008 (No 1)

Division of Casey: Diplomats, public servants and administrators

NAME	ORIGIN	SIGNIFICANCE
Arthur Tange Street	Sir Arthur Harold Tange AC CBE(C) (1914-2001)	Australian public service, diplomat, head of two statutory authorities Arthur Tange was one of the most influential people in the government of Australia for nearly 30 years. Secretary, External Affairs Department (now Foreign Affairs and Trade) 1954-1965 Australian High Commissioner to India 1965-1970. Secretary Department of Defence 1970 -1979 1953 Order of the British Empire – Officer (Civil) - Assistant Secretary of the Department of External Affairs. 1955 Order of the British Empire – Commander (Civil) - Secretary of the Department of External Affairs. 1959 Knight Bachelor - Secretary of the Department of External Affairs. 1977 Companion of the Order of Australia for eminent and meritorious public service.
Ashton Calvert Street	Dr Ashton Calvert AC (1945-2007)	Australian public service, diplomat, Rhodes Scholar, statutory authority head. Secretary, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (1998 -2005) Secretary, Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet, the Office of National Assessments and the then Department of Employment and Industrial Relations. Centenary Medal for service as Secretary, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, 2001. Companion of the Order of Australia for service to the development of Australian foreign policy, including advancement of business relations between Australia and Japan, and for leadership and highly distinguished contributions to Australia’s overall economic and security interests at critical times in the international environment, 2003.

Carmody Street	Sir Alan Thomas Carmody CBE(C) (1920-1978)	Australian public service, armed services, statutory authority head. Essentially a Customs man, spending over half his career working in that department. He overhauled and simplified procedures for customs. As Secretary of the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet he worked hard to maintain the department's high standards and extend its capacity to provide independent advice to the prime minister across the full range of Federal government responsibilities. Deputy Secretary, Department of Trade and Industry, 1962-1966. Comptroller-General of Customs and Secretary, Department of Customs and Excise (later Department of Police and Customs), 1966-1976. Secretary, Department of Business and Consumer Affairs, 1975. Secretary, Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet, 1976-1978. Order of the British Empire – Officer (Civil) – Deputy Secretary of the Department of Trade, 1964. Order of the British Empire – Commander (Civil) – Comptroller-General of Customs, 1971. Knight Bachelor in recognition of service to the Public Service in 1977.
Chuter Street	Charles Edward Chuter (1880-1948)	Australian public service, Queensland Responsible for the City of Brisbane Act 1924 which established the Greater Brisbane scheme. It endowed Brisbane City Council with the unprecedented 'general competence' power to govern the city and enabled the council to respond imaginatively to unforeseen problems, without the delays and frustrations of having to seek specific authority from parliament. Assistant Under-Secretary, Home Secretary's Department, 1922 Under-Secretary, Department of Health and Home Affairs, 1935 Acting-Director of Local Authority Affairs, 1941 Director of Local Government, 1943

Lansdown Crescent	Robert Broughton Lansdown AO CBE(C) (1921-2006)	Australian Public Service, Canberra First Chairman of the National Capital (Planning) Authority (1989 -1991). During a difficult early period for the Authority, he supplied the quality of leadership needed from the Commonwealth Government’s statutory agency to facilitate the transition of the ACT to self-government. Order of the British Empire – Commander (Civil) – Housing, environment and community development, 1977. Officer of the Order of Australia for service to communications, 1991.
Loveday Crescent	Cynthia Loveday (nee Nelson) MBE (1924-2006)	Public service, diplomat Cynthia Loveday was the first career female diplomat to attain the rank of Counsellor (in Washington DC). She held previous postings in Delhi, Paris and Saigon.
Neil Currie Street	Sir Neil Currie CBE(C) (1926-1999)	Australian public service, head of three statutory agencies, ambassador Deputy Secretary, Department of Trade and Industry, 1959-1971 Secretary Department of Supply 1971-74 Secretary Department of Manufacturing Industry 1974-1975 Secretary Department of Industry and Commerce, 1975-1982 Ambassador to Japan, 1982-1986 Awarded the Order of the British Empire – Commander (Civil) for meritorious public service to industry and commerce in 1978. Knight Bachelor in recognition of service to the public, 1982

Overall Avenue	Sir John Wallace Overall CBE(C) MC and Bar (1913-2001)	Australian public service, war service Inaugural Commissioner of the National Capital Development Commission (NCDC). Sir John made a significant contribution to the development of Canberra through his role in the NCDC. He was awarded the Royal Australian Institute of Architects Gold Medal in 1982, and the ACT Planning and Land Management Offices were named as the John Overall Offices in his honour. Sir John was a member of the Parliament House Construction Authority which oversaw the construction of the new Parliament House. Military Cross – AMF – Middle East, 1941 Military Cross – AMF – Middle East, 1942 Order of the British Empire – Commander (Civil) – Commissioner of the National Capital Commission 1962 Knight Bachelor – National Capital Development Commission, 1968
Powley Street	Leonard Powley (1906-1980)	ACT public service ACT Police Commissioner 1966-1977; president of the Eastlake Football Club; involved in various roles with ACT Australian Football League; member of the Masonic Lodge and involved in community work through Rotary ACT, the Police Association and Police Boys Club.
Roni Ellis Lane	Roni Ellis (1947-2000)	Public service A senior officer in the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade who made a unique contribution to building an understanding of Indigenous ways, values and history in Australia and overseas. The Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade introduced the Roni Ellis Indigenous Study Award to serve as a memorial to her and an incentive for Indigenous students to follow her example in fighting the odds to achieve their goals.

Therkelsen Lane	Judith Caroline Therkelsen (1953-2007)	Australian & ACT public service Involved in government policy and program administration including the 2003 Bushfire Recovery Task Force, Aged Care Policy, Multicultural Affairs including refugees' settlement, Chief Minister's Office, Chief Minister's Department, Education, Local Government. Ms Therkelsen's career spanned over 34 years of service from Department of Defence temporary typist to ACT Senior Manager.
Westerman Street	Sir Wilfred Alan Westerman CBE(C) (1913-2001)	Australian public service, head of statutory agency An outstanding leader in the Australian Public Service, Sir Alan's contribution to Australian trade policy was significant at an important time in Australia's international trading history. He is particularly remembered for his key role in leading trade negotiations with Japan. Chairman, Commonwealth Tariff Board, 1958-1960 Secretary, Department of Trade, 1960-1971 Order of the British Empire – Commander (Civil) – Secretary of the Department of Trade, 1962 Knight Bachelor – Secretary of the Department of Trade, 1963

Wilenski Street	Dr Peter Wilenski AC (1939-1994)	Australian public Service, diplomat, head of four statutory agencies Dr Wilenski was a physician, head of four Federal Government departments and the Public Service Board; adviser to Prime Ministers and Governments; reformer of the public service; a diplomat who represented his country at the United Nations; an eminent scholar and author on public policy issues. Secretary-designate, Department of Labour and Immigration, 1975 Secretary, Department of Education and Youth Affairs, 1983 Chairman, Public Service Board, 1983 Secretary, Department of Transport and Communications, 1987 Secretary, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, 1992 Made Companion of the Order of Australia in 1994 in recognition of his outstanding service to Australia and to humanity at large.
-----------------	--	---

DIVISION OF CASEY