Where a hearing is commenced and takes more days than estimated unless otherwise ordered the party originally liable to pay this fee shall pay for the additional days at the appropriate rate. Item	Matter in respect of which fee or charge is payable	Amount Payable
------	---	----------------

	for a corporation	$1620.00
--	-------------------	-----------

(c) for the 10th or later hearing day;

	for a natural person	$1575.00
--	----------------------	-----------

	for a corporation	$3150.00
--	-------------------	-----------

The total fee payable is calculated by adding the hearing fee for each estimated or actual hearing day.

The person liable to pay the total fee unless the court orders otherwise is:

- (a) Where a certificate of readiness is filed the party filing the certificate of readiness; or
- (b) Where no certificate of readiness is filed the plaintiff, applicant or appellant.

The person liable to pay the fee must pay the fee either:

- (a) When the certificate of readiness is filed; or
- (b) If a certificate of readiness is not required at least two business days before the court is to set the hearing date e.g. two days before the call-over in which the matter is to be given a hearing date.

The fee to be paid will be calculated on the basis of the paying party's estimate of hearing days.

If the court allocates more days for the hearing of a matter than estimated in the certificate of readiness or nominated by the party paying the fee, unless otherwise ordered, the party originally liable to pay the fee must pay the additional fees must be paid within 7 days of the matter being set down. Where a hearing is commenced and takes more days than estimated unless otherwise ordered the party originally liable to pay this fee shall pay for the additional days at the appropriate rate. In such a case, the fee for the additional days is payable immediately after the court allocates the additional hearing days or the end of the hearing (whichever occurs first).

Hearing fees under this item are not payable in criminal matters or where the matter is exempt from the payment of an application fee.

If the Court receives written advice of settlement or written notice of intended adjournment 56 days or more before the first date allocated for the hearing, 75% of the fee paid is refundable. If notice is received 42 days or more before that date, 50% of the fee paid is refundable.

If the hearing is adjourned before the first date allocated for the hearing, and the Court or Registrar is satisfied that the reason for the adjournment was due to circumstances beyond the control of the parties, the whole of the fee is to be refunded or transferred to a new allocated date or dates for the adjourned hearing.

In other circumstances, if the adjournment occurs 56 days or more before the first date allocated for the hearing, 75% of the fee is refundable. If the adjournment occurs 42 days or more before that date, 50% is refundable.

This fee also applies to hearing days in arbitral proceedings under the Workers Compensation Act 1951 subject to regulation 57 of the Workers Compensation Regulation 2002.

If the hearing is adjourned after it has commenced and the Court or Registrar is satisfied that the reason for the adjournment was due to circumstances beyond the control of the parties, the fee paid in respect of dates after the date of the adjournment is to be refunded or transferred to the date or dates allocated for the adjourned hearing.

Otherwise the fee is non-refundable in respect of any allocated dates that are not required.

Explanatory Note: This is a new fee. It is payable in cases which may or do extend beyond a single hearing day. For example, where a plaintiff (a natural person) estimates that the case will take 5 hearing days, the plaintiff will be required to pay a hearing fee ($2,160) composed of the hearing fee for the 2nd day ($450), the 3rd day ($450), the 4th day ($450) and the 5th day ($810) derived from the list of fees.
