

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

DANGEROUS GOODS ACT 1975

DANGEROUS GOODS REGULATION (AMENDMENT)

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Purpose of the Act

The Dangerous Goods Act 1975 (the Act) relates to explosives and other dangerous goods. Section 49 of the Act allows the Executive to repeal or amend any of the provisions of the regulations in their application in the Territory.

Outline of the amendment

The amendment to subregulation 93(6) provides for a restriction upon the amount of shop good fireworks that may be received under a permit. From 1 July 2001 the permit will reduce the amounts stored from 1000kg to 50kg.
