MOTOR TRAFFIC ACT 1936

MOTOR TRAFFIC REGULATIONS (AMENDMENT)

OUTLINE

The Motor Traffic (Amendment) Act (No. 3) 1996 creates three new parking infringements in sections 150G, 150H and 150J of the Motor Traffic Act 1936 (the Act). The Executive may make regulations in relation to the penalties for parking infringements pursuant to paragraph 218(al) of the Act. The penalty for a parking infringement is the penalty prescribed in the regulations for that infringement pursuant to section 149 of the Act.

These amendments to the Motor Traffic Regulations insert a penalty for each of the three new parking infringements.
