

1992-93

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

REGISTRAR-GENERAL (CONSEQUENTIAL PROVISIONS) BILL 1993

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Circulated by Authority of
Terry Connolly MLA
Attorney General

REGISTRAR-GENERAL (CONSEQUENTIAL PROVISIONS) BILL 1993

Outline

1. There are many different pieces of legislation which refer to the Registrars of Titles, Births, Deaths and Marriages, Incorporated Associations, Business Names, Unclaimed Moneys and Securities. Consequent upon the establishment of the office of Registrar-General these references must be changed to refer to the Registrar-General rather than to defunct offices of Registrar. This is what the consequential provisions are designed to achieve.

Financial Considerations

2. There are no financial considerations involved.

CLAUSES OF BILL

Registrar-General (Consequential Provisions) Bill 1993

Clauses 1 - 3:

These clauses relate to the short title, commencement and interpretation of the Bill.

Clause 4

This clause states that the Acts which are set out in the 1st Schedule are amended per that Schedule.

Clause 5

This clause states that the Regulations which are set out in the 2nd Schedule are amended per that Schedule.

Clauses 6 - 13

These clauses set out the transitional provisions which relate to the changeover from the Registrars of Titles, Births, Deaths and Marriages, Incorporated Associations, Business Names, Unclaimed Moneys and Securities to the Registrar-General consequent to the enactment of this legislation.

Schedule 1

This Schedule lists the amendments which need to be made to ACT acts so that they refer to the Registrar-General rather than to the Registrars replaced by the Registrar-General.

Schedule 2

This Schedule lists the amendments which need to be made to ACT regulations so that they refer to the Registrar-General rather than to the Registrars replaced by the Registrar-General.
