

Explanatory Statement

Mental Health (Treatment and Care) (Official Visitors) Appointment 2010 (No 1)

Disallowable Instrument DI2010-3

made under the

Mental Health (Treatment and Care) Act 1994, Part 11 – Official Visitors, Subsection 121(1) (Appointment)

Section 121 (1) of the Mental Health (Treatment and Care) Act 1994 (the Act) allows for the Minister for Health to appoint one or more official visitors. Section 122 of the Act provides for the functions and duties; powers; and reports by Official Visitors.

This instrument makes the reappointment under the Legislation Act 2001. Accordingly, the instrument is a disallowable instrument.

This instrument reappoints Ms Sue Connor as an Official Visitor for a period of three years from the day after notification of the disallowable instrument on the ACT Legislation Register.

The reappointment complies with the provisions of section 121 (2) of the Act

- (2) A person is eligible for appointment as an official visitor if the person—
- (c) has been nominated by a body representing consumers of mental health services; or
 - (d) has experience and skill in the care of persons with a mental dysfunction or mental illness.

Ms Connor continues to be eligible for appointment as an official visitor as she has been nominated by a body representing consumers of mental health services, the ACT Mental Health Consumer Network, and as a practising psychologist has extensive experience and skills in the care of persons

Further Ms Connor is not excluded from reappointment under section 121 (3) of the Act in that ;

- (3) A person shall not be appointed an official visitor if the person—
- (a) is a public servant; or
 - (b) has a direct interest in a contract with an approved mental health facility or a mental health care provider; or
 - (c) has a financial interest in a private hospital.

Ms Connor is not a public servant, has no direct interest in a contract with an approved mental health facility or a mental health care provider, and has no financial interest in a private hospital.

In accordance with paragraph 227(2)(a) of the Legislation Act 2001 the appointment contained in this instrument is not a public servant.

The Standing Committee on Health and Disability considered the re-appointment on 2 December and agreed to the reappointment of Ms Connor.
