EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

The Public Place Names Act 1989 provides for the naming of divisions and public places and, in particular, section 3 empowers the Minister to determine the name of a division or public place in writing. A determination is a disallowable instrument and must be notified in the ACT Legislation Register.

Pursuant to section 254A of the Legislation Act 2001, the Minister has delegated the power under the Public Place Names Act 1989 to name a division or public place to delegated officers of the Environment and Sustainable Development Directorate.

This instrument determines the names of two roads in the Division of Greenway as specified in the schedule and associated plan. The theme for the naming of public places in Greenway is architects.

The road alignment of Oakden Street is amended as shown in the attached plan. Oakden Street will extend from Anketell Street to intersect with Cynthea Teague Crescent. The name Limburg Way will apply to that part of the road formerly identified as Oakden Street at the intersection with Reed Street South.

The number of women and men after whom divisions or public places have been named in the last 10 years, and whether the names of women are well represented, has been considered as required by the Public Place Names Act 1989.

This instrument commemorates one woman and one man.
