

Territory Records (Advisory Council) Appointment 2015 (No 1)

Disallowable instrument DI2015–251

made under the

Territory Records Act 2002, s44 (Appointed members of council)

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

The Territory Records Act 2002 provides for the establishment and functions of Territory Records Advisory Council.

Section 44 of the Territory Records Act 2002 outlines the appointment requirements to the Council, section 45 pertains to the appointment of the Chair and Deputy Chair of the Council and section 46 outlines the terms of appointment of appointed members.

Mr David Brumby is a records and information management specialist with over 24 years' experience. He has worked as an archivist, records manager, and business improvement analyst in the New South Wales and Australian government sectors, and is currently Manager University Records and Freedom of Information Officer at the Australian National University. He is an Associate Member and Vice President of the ACT Branch Council of the Records and Information Management Professionals.

Mr Brumby has been appointed to replace Ms Alyssa Blackburn, who has resigned from the Council as a representative of professional organisations interested in records management and archives. There are no additional prerequisites for appointment to the Territory Records Advisory Council. He is appointed for a three year term.
