Terrorism (Extraordinary Temporary Powers) Public Interest Monitor Panel Appointment 2018 (No 2)

Disallowable instrument DI2018–87

made under the

Terrorism (Extraordinary Temporary Powers) Act 2006, s 62 (Public Interest Monitor Panel)

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

The Terrorism (Extraordinary Temporary Powers) Act 2006 (the Act), requires the appointment of people to a Public Interest Monitor Panel (PIM Panel). The PIM Panel member functions are detailed under Part 2, Division 2.7 and section 56 of the Act.

Under section 62 of the Act, the Minister is required to appoint people to a PIM Panel. The Minister must not appoint a person unless satisfied that the person:

- a. is a lawyer; and
- b. with qualities and experience making them suitable to be a member; and
- c. has an appropriate security clearance.

This instrument appoints Ms Theresa Warwick as a member of the PIM Panel commencing on the day after this instrument is notified and ending on 13 September 2022.

Ms Warwick is a lawyer, has qualities and experience making her suitable to be a member, and has an appropriate security clearance.

As a barrister Ms Warwick brings to the panel significant experience in legal practice.

Ms Warwick is not a public servant.
