Civil Law (Wrongs) Act 2002, schedule 4, s 4.39 (Chairperson and deputy chairperson of council)

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

All states and territories have enacted legislation which enables the establishment of a national Professional Standards Council, which is made up of individual jurisdictional councils. The objects of the legislation are to constitute Professional Standards Councils, and to enable the creation of schemes to limit the civil liability of professionals and others, to facilitate the improvement of occupational standards, and to protect consumers.

Section 4.36 of schedule 4 of the Civil Law (Wrongs) Act 2002 provides for the establishment of the ACT Professional Standards Council (ACT Council). The ACT Council consists of eleven people appointed by the Minister who have the experience, skills and qualifications the Minister considers appropriate to enable them to make a contribution to the work of the ACT Council.

All states and territories have agreed to appoint the same eleven members to their Professional Standards Councils. The Professional Standards Councils will be comprised of one member nominated by each of the states and territories and the Commonwealth, with the exception of NSW and Victoria, which will nominate two. All states and territories have agreed that the designation of members holding the position of Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson will alternate between New South Wales and Victoria.

The Attorney-General of Victoria, the Hon Martin Pakula MP, has appointed Mr John Vines OAM as the Chairperson of the Professional Standards Council of Victoria for a term expiring on 31 December 2018.

Mr Vines OAM is a serving member of the ACT Council for the period of 8 April 2016 – 31 December 2018 in accordance with the Civil Law (Wrongs) Professional Standards Council Appointment 2016 (No 1) [DI2016-32].

The instrument appoints Mr Vines OAM as Chairperson of the ACT Council from the day after notification until 31 December 2018.

Mr Vines is not a public servant as defined under the Legislation Act 2001. As required by the Legislation Act, the Standing Committee on Justice and Community Safety has been consulted on the appointment. The Committee has provided no comment on the appointment.
