Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Road Ready Training Course Approval 2019 (No 1)

Notifiable instrument NI2019–499

made under the

Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 2000, s26 (1) (a) Approval of training courses

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This instrument is made under section 26 of the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 2000 that allows the road transport authority to approve a course, conducted in the ACT or elsewhere, for the training of people who wish to apply for a learner licence (an approved road ready training course). This provision commenced on 1 August 2000.

Since 1 August 2000, to obtain a learner licence in the ACT a person has been required to complete an approved road ready training course. The course is delivered in schools as part of the year 10 curriculum and through various service providers.

Clause 1 names the instrument the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Road Ready Training Course Approval 2019 (No 1).

Clause 2 provides that this instrument is taken to have commenced on 1 August 2000. This retrospective commencement is non-prejudicial and is necessary to ensure that current and past providers of the road ready training course have been formally approved in accordance with section 26 of the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 2000 and to address any potential deficiency in driver licences issued since that date.

Clause 3 contains the approval of road ready training courses. Schedule 1 contains a list of current approved providers. Schedule 2 contains the requirements a course must satisfy in order to be approved.

Clause 4 revokes the current approval instrument that is replaced by this instrument.

There are no human rights implications arising from this instrument.

There are no climate change implications arising from this instrument.
