Planning and Development (Fees) Determination 2022

Disallowable instrument DI2022–112

made under the

Planning and Development Act 2007, s 424 (Determination of fees)

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Section 424 of the Planning and Development Act 2007 (the Act) permits the Minister to determine fees for the purposes of the Act.

The purpose of this instrument is to determine the fees for goods and services under the Act for the 2022-23 financial year.

The regulatory fees in the determination, which applied in the 2021-22 financial year, have been increased by 3.25% for the 2022-23 financial year, based on the wage price index as per government's advice. Administration fees relating to refunds are increased by 3.25% (the wage price index), as per the government's Fees and Charges Policy and Guidelines. Appropriate rounding has been made in relation to increases.

The determination also includes an amendment to the following fee:

- Commercial and Industrial

The above fee description is now:

- All Other Zones

The instrument commences on 1 July 2022.

This instrument revokes the Planning and Development (Fees) Determination 2021 (DI2021-126).

The determination under section 424 of the Act is a disallowable instrument and must be presented to the Legislative Assembly within 6 sitting days after its notification pursuant to section 64 of the Legislation Act 2001 (Legislation Act).

Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS)

A RIS is not required for this fee determination due to section 36 (1) (k) of the Legislation Act, which provides that a RIS need not be prepared for an amendment of a fee consistent with announced government policy.

Human Rights

The Standing Committee on Justice and Community Safety (Legislative Scrutiny Role) terms of reference require consideration of human rights impacts, among other matters. In this case, no human rights are impacted.
