

Children and Young People (Therapeutic Support Panel) Appointment 2024 (No 2)

Disallowable instrument DI2024–45

made under the

Children and Young People Act 2008, Section 501E (Appointment of panel members)

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This explanatory statement relates to the Children and Young People (Therapeutic Support Panel) Appointment 2024 (No 2) as made by the Minister for Children, Youth and Family Services.

Overview

The Children and Young People Act 2008 (the Act) among other things, governs the establishment, functions and membership of the Therapeutic Support Panel for Children and Young People (the Panel).

Under section 501E of the Act, the Minister must appoint at least 10, but not more than 12, members to the Panel.

In appointing a Member, the Minister must be satisfied of their relevant expertise or experience and must ensure the Panel membership represents a diversity of experience and expertise.

The Minister must also be satisfied of their suitability to be a Member, including considering relevant information of the kind mentioned in the Act in section 65 (1), definition of suitability information, paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) about the person.

Under Section 501E (4) of the Act, the Minister must appoint as Members of the Panel:

- At least 1 person to represent Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, and
- At least 1 person who is an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander person.

Appointment

In accordance with section 501E and section 501E (4) of the Act, this instrument appoints Ms Victoria Bradley as Member of the Panel and as an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander person, representing the interests of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

Ms Victoria Bradley, a local Ngunnawal woman and ACT Justice of the Peace (JP), has over 40 years' experience working in community and corrections services as an Indigenous Liaison Officer and Case Manager. Ms Bradley, a social justice and welfare professional, has extensive experience advising on therapeutic responses for children, young people and their families and has previously sat on medical panels with multidisciplinary teams to develop health care plans in adult and juvenile custody settings. Ms Bradley regularly volunteers in the ACT Magistrates Courts in her role as JP and holds a Bachelor of Criminology and Criminal Justice.

The Minister for Children, Youth and Family Services is satisfied that Ms Victoria Bradley is an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander person and has relevant expertise and experience in criminology and is suitable for appointment.

Ms Victoria Bradley is appointed for a period of 4 years.

Consultation

Division 19.3.3 of the Legislation Act 2001 (the Legislation Act) applies as Ms Victoria Bradley is not a public servant, is appointed for longer than 6 months, and will have functions beyond advising the Minister.

In accordance with section 228 of the Legislation Act, the Standing Committee on Health and Community Wellbeing has been consulted and noted the appointment.

Section 229 of the Legislation Act states that the instrument making an appointment to which division 19.3.3 applies is a disallowable instrument.
