

Road Transport (General) Parking Permit Fees Determination 2024 (No 2)

Disallowable instrument DI2024–283

made under the

Road Transport (General) Act 1999, section 96 (Determination of fees, charges and other amounts)

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Section 96 of the Road Transport (General) Act 1999 allows the Minister to determine fees, charges and other amounts payable under the ACT road transport legislation.

This determination sets the fees for various kinds of parking permits. It also determines the fees for transactions relating to refunds and the handling of dishonoured cheques and credit cards.

Updates to the instrument

On 16 August 2024, the ACT Government announced that free loading zone permits will be available for musicians to access loading zones for up to 30 minutes to load and unload musical equipment, as part of a 12-month trial. The instrument provides for the issue of these permits from 1 October 2024 at item 4 of Schedule 1 to the instrument. There are no other changes to parking permits or fees in this instrument.

The schedules to the instrument detail the item for which a fee is payable and the associated fee. Column 1 of schedule 1 lists the item number. Column 2 of schedule 1 describes the service or other matter in relation to the fee payable. Column 3 of schedule 1 lists the fee payable for a permit issued on or before 30 September 2024. Column 4 of schedule 1 lists the fee payable for a permit issued on or after 1 October 2024.

Human Rights

The Standing Committee on Justice and Community Safety (Legislative Scrutiny Role) terms of reference require consideration of human rights impacts, among other matters. In this case, no human rights are impacted.

Climate Change

Transport Canberra and City Services anticipates that additional issue of loading zone permits will have not have a measurable impact on climate change.
