

Veterinary Practice (Professional Bodies) Declaration 2025 (No 1)

Disallowable instrument DI2025-191

made under the

Veterinary Practice Act 2018, section 96 (Consultation about appointment to board)

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Overview

Section 96 (4) of the Veterinary Practice Act 2018 (the Act) allows the Minister to declare an entity to be a professional body for consultation about appointments to the Veterinary Practitioners Board.

This instrument declares the entities that must be consulted on appointments to the Veterinary Practitioners Board. The entities identified are considered important professional bodies by the Veterinary Practitioners Board. The professional bodies listed are considered important figures in the veterinary profession within the Australian Capital Territory and New South Wales.

The instrument has been notified following the commencement of the Veterinary Practice Amendment Act 2025 (the Amendment Act) which repealed the Veterinary Practice (Professional Bodies) Declaration 2018 - DI2018-298.

Human rights

The Standing Committee on Justice and Community Safety (Legislative Scrutiny Role) terms of reference require consideration of human rights impacts, among other matters.

This instrument does not limit any human rights.

Climate Change

This instrument does not have any climate change implications.