Trainer Provider

The Youth Business Initiative (YBI) program has been funded for 1994/95 by the ACT Government, the Commonwealth Department of Employment Education and Training and the Queen's Trust. The funding provides for one training intake of 14 people in 1995.

The program targets unemployed youth between 18 and 25 years, who are considering establishing a small business venture. It entails an initial 6 weeks (30 days) intensive small business management training course and for successful applicants YBI then provides professional advice, mentoring, establishment finance and income support for up to twelve months during business establishment.

Proposals are invited from suitably qualified organisations or individuals for the delivery of all or part of the training for this program.

Interested parties should, in the first instance, contact Ms Jenny Paul on 205 0169 to obtain copies of the Brief for Intending Training Providers. Further details of the program may be obtained by contacting Mr Geoff Keogh, A/g Executive Director, Employment and Agents Services Branch on 205 0567.
