DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Children's, Youth and Family Services Bureau

Provision of a Family Services Comprehensive Access Service

Request for Tender ACTSA/201

Period: 1 April 1996-30 June 1997 (with a one year option)

The Family Services area of the Children's, Youth and Family Services Bureau is responsible for the care and protection of children at risk of abuse and/or neglect in the ACT Community, including the provision of substitute care in either a residential or foster care setting. This proposal relates to child Protection matters dealt with by Family Services and The ACT Children's Court and is not related to Family Law Court cases.

Family Services is seeking proposals from suitably qualified and experienced community-based agencies to establish a comprehensive access service capable of providing close supervision of access and transportation of children. The successful agency will be required to provide an efficient, confidential and highly professional service for children living in substitute care or who are otherwise under the care of Family Services.
