Business Opportunities

The ACT Government has now extended its Buyers and Sellers Information Service—basis onto the Internet. Basis on the net will help you overcome difficulties locating business opportunities with all levels of government.

The service enables you to search not only for ACT Government business opportunities but those of all other Australian governments.

The service also provides a Business Directory for suppliers located in the Australian Capital Region to help you market your business locally, nationally and internationally.

Being listed on basis is a good foundation for your business and is a free service to Australian Capital Region suppliers.

Find basis on the net at www.basis.act.gov.au

For more information contact the Department of Urban Services basis helpline on telephone (02) 6207 7377

Financial assistance to employers in the building and construction industry to take on new or additional entry level apprentices/trainees

Employers in the following trades or occupations who wish to take on an additional apprentice/ trainee or take on an entry level apprentice/trainee for the first time

- plumbing
- bricklaying
- plastering
- ceramic wall & floor tiling
- painting & decorating
- signwriting
- plant / machinery operators

These trades and occupations are those in the Building and Construction industry identified as having a reduced supply of apprentices/trainees over the period 1998-2003

A limited number of subsidies are available under the Wage Subsidy Scheme

A subsidy of 50% of the salary and on-costs of taking on a new apprentice or trainee is provided ($7,500) Half is provided to the employer 3 months after commencement and the remainder of the subsidy after the apprentice/trainee has been retained in full time employment or a formal training for 3 months after the first year level of competency has been attained
