GOVERNMENT NOTICES (Continued)

MILK AUTHORITY OF THE AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

MILK AUTHORITY ACT 1971

The Milk Authority (Amendment) Bill (No. 2) 1998 was recently defeated in the Legislative Assembly. That Bill, if passed, would have extended the Milk Authority's current immunity from the Trade Practices Act 1974 beyond 31 December 1998.

With the defeat of that Bill, the Authority is exposed to liability under the Trade Practices Act on and from 1 January 1999 to the extent that its operations may be found to be anti-competitive.

As a result, licensing and zoning of milk vendors, the licensing of retailers, and certain aspects of its current contracts with processors and distributors may be in breach of Part IV of the Trade Practices Act. Accordingly, the Authority does not propose to take any action to enforce these aspects of the current arrangements after 31 December 1998.

In addition, legal advice indicates that the Authority's function in relation to the determination of the prices and charges that may be made in the connection with the sale of milk in the ACT may also be in breach of Part IV of the Trade Practices Act. Accordingly, the Authority does not propose to take any action to enforce the prices provisions of the Milk Authority Act 1971 after 31 December 1998, pending further legislative change.

Until such time as the Legislative Assembly can consider any future legislative control mechanisms, it is open to all existing and potential industry participants, if they choose to do so, to maintain the status quo, in the interests of stability in the industry.

Authorised:
Clinton White,
Secretary.
Date: 31 December 1998
