GOVERNMENT NOTICES (Continued)AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY*DUTIES (CONSEQUENTIAL AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS) ACT 1999*EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

The Duties (Consequential and Transitional Provisions) Act 1999 (Duties (C&TP) Act) contains certain transitional provisions in consequence of the enactment of the Duties Act 1999 (Duties Act) on 1 March 1999. The Duties Act imposes duty on a range of transactions at determined rates. Sections 30 and 31 of the Duties (C&TP) Act contain interim determinations of rates of duty for various dutiable transactions. These set duty payable, from the date of enactment of the Duties Act, by specifying:

- the ranges of dutiable amounts of dutiable transactions and the corresponding rates of duty payable for each range;
- the ranges of total cost of a lease and the corresponding rates of duty payable for each cost range; and
- the rates of duty payable on certain other specified dutiable transactions.

Those ranges and rates of duty were taken to have been determined by the Minister under section 139 of the Taxation Administration Act 1999 (Tax Admin Act).

The Tax Admin Act deals with the administration of various tax laws relating to the imposition and collection of certain taxes, duties and levies. These tax laws are specified in section 4 of the Tax Admin Act, and include the Duties Act. Section 139 of the Tax Admin Act is the provision which normally empowers the Minister to determine taxes, duties and levies.

This determination, however, is made under subsections 30 (3) and 31 (2) of the Duties (C&TP) Act. Its purpose is to replace the interim determinations. This will allow the Minister to make subsequent determinations of these variable ranges and rates under the Tax Admin Act to facilitate their revocation or variation.

Subsections 30 (6) and 31 (4) of the Duties (C&TP) Act specify that this determination is not a disallowable instrument for the purposes of section 10 of the Subordinate Laws Act 1989. This is principally because the determination does not alter the ranges or rates of duty provided for in the Tables, or certain other rates of duty specified in paragraphs 31 (1) (a) through 31 (1) (m) of the Duties (C&TP) Act, from those set in the interim determinations and shown at (i) to (iii) below:
