4 Rule 7

substitute

7 Extension of time for making application

- (1) This rule applies to an application to the tribunal for review of a decision under the Act, section 10 or an authorising law.
 - (2) The tribunal may, on application—
 - (a) extend the time for making the application by up to 28 days; and
 - (b) further extend the time for 1 additional period of up to 28 days.
- Note 1* If a form is approved under the Act, s 117 for this provision, the form must be used.
- Note 2* An application for extension of time may be made even though the time to be extended has already ended (see Legislation Act, s 151C).
- (3) If requested by the tribunal, the applicant must give written notice to a person whose interests the tribunal considers could be affected by the decision.
 - (4) The tribunal may make an order under subrule (2) only if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for making the order.
 - (5) To remove any doubt, this rule applies to a decision made before the commencement of this rule.
